

THE RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCER.

out detection, defrauded the Custom House of $4,000,000 or $5,000,000 a year.—The Florida newspapers report fresh strawberries and cream.—The marine disasters on the great lakes, during the past year, are stated at 7,167.—There are over fifteen thousand Chinese at work in the Australian gold fields.—China and Japan will take from 50,000 tons, or 111,000,000 pounds of butter and cheese per annum, whenever we shall be able to deliver it.—The American colonists have been driven out of Lower California by the native population.—A new disease is said to have broken out in certain parts of North Carolina, which is terrible in its character and often fatal in its results. The symptoms are exactly similar to those of yellow fever, and the patients suffer almost as much as with the latter disease. It is not thought to be epidemic, but to result from severe malarial causes.—In Surprise Valley, California, there are a number of small lakes. One of these has recently run dry, leaving a sediment or bed of superior salt, clear as crystal, from four inches to a foot in thickness. The area of these mines in length by six miles in width. The weather in France is reported to be intensely cold, and railroad travel is impeded by a heavy fall of snow.—No less than twelve Swiss guides have been lost the present year by climbing the Alps—seven of them having perished from avalanches and three by falling into crevasses.—The weather in Vermont thus far this season, is stated to have been the coldest for thirty-six years.—Two consignments of Chinese, designed for employment in cotton factories, are on their way from the coast of Africa to follow.—There are already twelve hundred miles of ditches and canals for mining purposes in Nevada County, California.—Tennessee has twenty-eight million acres of soil, but only cultivates eight millions of them.—There have been more arrests for opium in the State of Lake City in a case which is said to be very strong against the criminals.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS.—The late Examinations of the University passed off very well. The attendance of visitors was larger than usual, and was made up of members of the Senate, the Bishop and clergymen and the different dominions. School Teachers of Fredericton, who are taking a preliminary of graduates of the University. The students in different classes acquitted themselves remarkably well, and were bright and lively in answering. At the close Dr. Jack took occasion to congratulate them upon their good conduct during the term. The Bishop followed with a few remarks expressive of the great satisfaction which the examination had afforded him. The Governor was unable to attend on account of the return of an accustomed but slight illness.—74.

London, Dec. 23.—Small-pox prevails alarmingly in Birmingham. Special hospitals will be established, the sick quarantined, and other precautionary measures adopted.

Despatch from Bismarck to Von Arnim excites French press to renewed bitterness against Germany.

The noon bulletin from Sandringham announces that the Prince passed a quiet night. The progress of convalescence is slow and gradual.

London, Dec. 23.—The prince passed a quiet night and is gradually gaining strength.

Madrid, Dec. 23.—The meeting of Cortes was postponed until the 31st January.

Admiral Topete, Minister of the Colonies, announced his intention of making reform in the volunteer organization in Havana.

Reinforcements continue to go forward to Cuba, four inches to a foot in thickness. The area of these mines in length by six miles in width.

Paris, Dec. 23.—Members of Right Centre National Assembly have made overtures to Legitimists for a coalition. The latter in reply say they will usually coalesce, but at the same time will reserve their independence; they also announce that in these columns, entitled "Glory of the Immortal Life," will also act as Agent for the "Intelligencer." Persons in arrears, or those wishing to subscribe anew, will find it convenient to pay to either of these gentlemen.

London, Dec. 23.—The noon bulletin from Sandringham reports that the Prince passed a quiet night, but his convalescence is retarded by a painful affection above the left hip. No inquietude is felt as to his condition, but regret and disappointment at the slowness of his recovery is generally expressed. It has been raised that he would be able to go out before the end of the holidays, and preparations for public rejoicings have been made, but their non-realization throws a damper on the festivities of the season.

The Sandringham train to-day. Cape of Good Hope news states that the annexation of African territory to British dominion produced much excitement among the inhabitants.

Mr. Brand, President of the Free States, issued a formal protest against the transfer of the Diamond Fields to Great Britain.

United States.—New York, Dec. 21.—A broken rail on the Grand Trunk road near Brockville, Canada, yesterday threw the palace car, in which the Grand Duke Alexis and suite were riding off the track. The palace car was overturned, but not injured.

Two persons were fatally, and fifteen seriously injured by a mail train, near West Newton, Pennsylvania, running off the track. The express car went into the river.

Letters from South America state that the earthquake which destroyed the town of San Juan, with forty different shocks. The streets were split open, and every house tumbled into ruins. The inhabitants all fled to camps outside the town.

New York, Dec. 23.—Both Houses of Congress have adjourned to the 8th of January.

The Senate yesterday defeated the Amnesty Bill. The severe cold of yesterday is moderating.

Three schooners from the British Provinces arrived at Boston to-day covered all over with ice. Such severe cold weather on the coast has rarely been known.

There were 57 cases small pox deaths in Cincinnati. It is now decreasing.

Heavy rain storm in California for several days. The railroads are closed, and the roads are impassable.

SAULT LAKE, Dec. 23.—The Robinson murder examination closed this afternoon. Hampton, Toms and Plythe were committed to await the action of the Grand Jury. The other parties arrested were discharged.

New York, Dec. 23.—Wm. Dennis was arrested yesterday for forcibly abducting, chloroforming and outraging a young school girl. One Madame Florence a happy 50th avenue, was also arrested as an accessory.

Boston, Dec. 24.—The train on the Hartford and Erie road met with serious accident this afternoon. The train was thirteen hours late, owing to the storm and when near East Douglas the train struck a large rock, which had been washed down from the track, breaking the cow-catcher in two, breaking an axle of the tender and smashing every break of the train, which consisted of baggage car, smoking and passenger cars which fortunately was not thrown from the track. Where the accident happened the engine fell into the water, and if the train had gone off serious loss of life would probably have resulted. A new train was made up at Blackstone, arriving at Boston at half-past seven this evening.

New York, Dec. 25.—New York City from 34th to 54th street, with the exception of an explosion in purifying house of Metropolitan Gas Company on Saturday evening. It will be two weeks before gas can again be supplied. No services in the churches for want of gas.

A heavy fog at Springfield, Illinois, on Saturday the 23rd inst. The skating rink, Iron Company Rolling Mills, the Round House of Gilman, Clinton and Springfield Railroad, tearing off roofs, chimneys, and fences. Loss $50,000.

Louisville, Dec. 23.—Both Houses of Congress have adjourned to the 8th of January.

The British schooner Marysville, Capt. Williams of St. John, was boarded of Pless Island, Newburyport yesterday morning. The vessel leaked badly because water logged and unmanageable since Wednesday. Though the deck was not overboard, and the crew, hands and feet were badly frozen. The vessel will probably be hauled off the beach to-day and towed to Newburyport.

Alexis was enthusiastically received at Buffalo on Saturday.

Boston, Dec. 25.—At a row in Chelsea, this morning, City Marshal Drury was stabbed and another man shot; both are severely wounded, but not fatally.

New York, Dec. 23.—Christmas was generally observed throughout the United States. The ship Polvorston, from Hamburg, had nine deaths, all from one to ten years old, and five births, on board.

Alexis left Buffalo this forenoon for Cleveland. The present party of Alexis, with a valuable band of followers, he has experienced at the opera on Christmas.

Another heavy snow storm in Wyoming to-day interrupts railroads.

The Bar Association of this city condones Judge Bland's conduct in awarding an illegal, and have plans for reforming abuses of the courts.

New York, Dec. 27.—There is great excitement over the reported flight of Tweed. Some think he is hiding in the city.

On the 19th inst., by Rev. J. T. Parsons, Mr. Wellington Weldon, of Greenwald, King's County, to Miss Malinda Belcher, of the same place.

On the 21st inst., by the same, Mr. John Henry of New York, to Miss Malinda's Cross, of Beaver Harbor, Charlotte County.

At the residence of the minister, on the 30th inst., by Rev. E. B. Hill, Mr. Charles Hamon, to Miss Anne Sweet, of the same place.

On the 21st inst., at the residence of Mr. Thomas Carter, by Rev. G. M. W. Carey, Mr. E. P. Slader, of St. John, to Miss Abner's daughter, of Mr. M. Graves, of Goshen, Albany County.

At Indianapolis, on the 30th inst., by Rev. W. B. Rogers, Mr. James M. Chase, to Miss Elizabeth West.

On the 30th inst., by Rev. J. E. Reed, at the residence of the bride's mother, Mr. Charles L. Clark, of St. John, to Miss Abner's daughter, of Mr. M. Graves, of Goshen, Albany County.

On the 19th inst., at the residence of the bride's mother, by Rev. E. P. Phillips, Mr. Wesley McLeod, of New York, to Miss Sarah Ann, of Mr. M. Graves, of Goshen, Albany County.

On the 5th October, by Elder Hopkins, Mr. Thomas Easton, to Miss Malinda Belcher, of the Parish of Pless Island, Charlotte County.

On the 7th inst., by the same, Mr. Isaac Young, to Miss Susan Johnston, both of the Parish of Pless Island, Charlotte County.

On the 14th inst., by the same, Mr. Caleb Jackson, to Miss Malinda Belcher, of the Parish of Pless Island, Charlotte County.

On the 14th August, by Rev. James Kinble, Charles Miller, to Harriet Eggers, of the Parish of Pless Island, Charlotte County.

On the 8th inst., by the same, Mr. James Leavelle, of Canaan, to Miss Sarah Jane Nightingale, of the Parish of Grand Lake, Charlotte County.

At the residence of the bride's father, on the 19th inst., by Rev. Joseph Noble, Mr. Charles A. Hunt, to Miss Cecelia C. Hughes, of the Parish of Pless Island, Charlotte County.

At the residence of the bride's father, on the 30th inst., by the same, Mr. L. P. Knollin, to Miss Hannah C. Coates, both of the Parish of Pless Island, Charlotte County.

At the residence of the bride's father, on the 30th inst., by Rev. E. B. Hill, Mr. Charles Hamon, to Miss Anne Sweet, of the same place.

On the 21st inst., at the residence of Mr. Thomas Carter, by Rev. G. M. W. Carey, Mr. E. P. Slader, of St. John, to Miss Abner's daughter, of Mr. M. Graves, of Goshen, Albany County.

At Indianapolis, on the 30th inst., by Rev. W. B. Rogers, Mr. James M. Chase, to Miss Elizabeth West.

On the 30th inst., by Rev. J. E. Reed, at the residence of the bride's mother, Mr.