AN EVANGELICAL FAMILY NEWSPAPER FOR NEW BRUNSWICK AND NOVA SCOTIA.

Rev. J. McLEOD,

"THAT COD IN ALL THINGS MAY BE CLORIFIED THROUGH JESUS CHRIST." Peter.

[Editor and Proprietor.

Vol. XIX.-No. 13.

SAINT JOHN, NEW BRUNSWICK, FRIDAY, MARCH 29, 1872.

Religious Intelligencer.

Whole No. 949.

SEASONABLE GOODS! The Intelligencer. THE PROVINCIAL LEGISLATURE. [From our own Correspondent.] THOMAS LOGAN

Is now showing a large Stock of the following Goods:

TABLE DAMASKS, CLOTHS,

TABLE COVERS, NAPKINS

DOYLEYS,

LINEN SHEETINGS,

fidence been dragging itself along, now animated and stirring, now fitful and wavering, and anon scarce perceptible by the mind's eye or ear. The roar of the great cannons would deafen for a time, then die away, till scarce even their echo was heard amid the bursting squibs that lesser capacity set off. The tone of the leaders would now and then sound clearly and distinctly even above the confused babble of rank and file. Now with a profu-sion of "honorables" and "respected colleagues," courtesy would deck her speech, then rampant partizan or personal pique would spice her hot utterances with sharp, bitter words, implying treachery, deceit, dishonesty and knavery. Assertion choked with explanation, insinuation repelled with denial, pa-triotism claimed as peculiar to himself by one, surely knew it. Mr. Blanchard speaks in opposition, and addresses his remarks in such wise to Mr. Napier, his colleague, as to intimately touch his pocket or his honesty, till the ire of that celebrated curiosity of the North is roused, and in language more forcible than dignified, he tries to crush the budding imputation, till the loud cries of the Speaker and clamors for order dampens his

Mr. Lindsey characteristically lashes the shoulders of the Government, compares them to a vessel's crew-Mr. Crawford as ferryman, rowing one way and looking another; Mr.

Kelly as cook, &c. &c. ; yet, for the sake of the School Bill, (or his own standing in Carleton) will vote for them and extend a year's

Mr. Maher enunciates the startling doctrine that the Catholics never made a stand against the School Bill, fanned no religious strife into a blaze, used no spiritual combinations against t, were, in fact, as quiet as lambs and as innocent too; but the Government it was that had done all this and raised the hydra of re-

Theotine Blanchard had never attended a pro-testation meeting at Caraquet and moved resolutions condemning the law, though everystimulated ardor, and he subsides.

Slowly has the battle on the Want of Con-sued. His speech was one of the ablest I ever this duty. If we wait for some particular Sharp, the gossip-monger of the church; and R. I., Philadelphia, California, Demarara, remember to have heard on the floors of the conjuncture of ordeumstances to turn up, it Brother Small, a bachelor, who has, strange to Cape of Good Hope, Mt. Lebanon, Australia, House, replete with thought and principle, at will be a long time coming. Let the teacher say, a farm that has no mortgage on it; and Sardinia, France, Holland, etc. times really eloquent and happily free from revolve in his mind some time and place for near him, by a fortunate coincidence, is widow Since the commencement of the Orphanage, personality. The hopes of the Opposition, having a private interview with each scholar Sallow; and there is Jerusha Prim and her 23,000 children and persons more advanced, at the the conclusion of his speech sadly di- When going on this errand, make special God bless her! for she is the preacher's truest entirely supported by the institution, and its minished, and they now are forced to face the certainty of defeat by a respectable majority. er, and by thinking how you can best broach friend—Sister Fletcher; and there is Harry Brass, on a visit home from Wesleyan Uni-The speech of Mr. Gough, to which many the subject.

looked forward, aud on which the Opposition staked much, disappointed all parties. There gleet of religion. If his heart is hard, that gazing on Miss Wilhelmina Skeers, who is cerwas much of the old, impetuous firing of will only make it harder. Give expression squibs and cutting of cross-swords, many well rather to the longing desire you have for his if not admiration. And then besides thesetold anecdotes and quick retorts, but his points conversion. Use the language of entreaty and oh ! well, the catalogue is too long to run it religious tracts have been issued and distribuwere few and feebly made. As a new charge, affection.

he preferred that of personal aggrandizement If possible, pray with him in private. against the Hon. Mr. King, and of basely de- Have with you some good book or tract on all come here, or nearly all, to have, what the vision of such an immense institution as the for the gains of office. He charged him with what you judge to be his state of mind, and Hotel." inefficiency with regard to the River du Loup leave it with him to read after you are gone. It is rather dull in the parlor. The staid respondence required, the looking after and Railway, and favoring a ring of contractors In the case of some scholars, the best way and sober folks are here, a few lovers of gos- superintending a Missionary, Bible and Tract

That the English company would undertake the work at all is denied by Mr. King, as well as by Hon. Mr. Fraser, who went to England by Hon. Mr. Fraser, Who went to Eng the charge of personal aggrandizement pre-ferred against him by another, question and reply, retort and repartee of all grades of ex-cellence, from the simply stupid to the cut-tingly witty, much vapid declamation dotted on this very matter; but Mr. Gough asserts to the contrary, and his assertion he thinks be sent, follow it with prayer, that the Spirit "Yes; but, ah me! I could not enjoy the all the details of these institutions come di-rectly under his personal supervision. Much here and there with an oasis of thought or regards the withdrawal of the School Bill at ceive your message kindly.

principle: all these, and more that the pen its first inception, on which he bases a charge Have faith that the Spirit can help you to "Right before me sat Sister Crow, a giddy reliable correspondent will be interesting to tells not of, might have been seen and heard of selfish aggrandizement against Mr. King, write, and can move the heart of the child, as piece, and her pink bonnet-strings diverted our readers :this was done largely in deference to Mr. he reads what you have written. Do not go my attention. Such vanity, and even in "He lives in the simplest style, and does during the last week. Each member, especial-Gough and his party, who moved, and argued about this work as a mere form, but in good church ! And then to hear that new music- not allow himself a lounge or a rocking chair, ly those in the Opposition, had his own perfor days, that it was inexpedient to introduce earnest. Throw your whole energy into it, box up in the gallery which they call an or- unless he is sick. He was a poor man when sonal grievance, which to him seemed of the measure at that session under the existing Be resolute, as you would to save a dear friend gan-how it kept agoing ! What is Method- he began, and is a poor man to-day, though mighty importance, but which in the eyes of others was a very mite, that must be honored had finished, owing to bodily infirmity, and Approach in this way every scholar in your have senseless music-boxes to-----" either with birth or a fresh baptism on the left the debate to be carried on by his confreres. class; and when you have done so once, do it "Gra-cious! What a noise overhead! Look sian, and was born in 1805. He was in the floors of the House. Some honorable member The most eloquent speech, perhaps, ever again, and continue to do it ; you will find the out, or the ceiling will come down." had said something derogatory to the private heard in the House was made by Mr. Wed- duty easier after each new performance of it; "You are right. This antediluvian habita- was converted by some signal display of or public character of another, and truth would derburn, though it was not so prolonged or and fear not but soon one and another will tion was never built for a donation party. I grace; and he devoted himself from that hour suffer if it was not aired for an hour or so beargumentative as that of the Hon. Mr. King. | yield to your persevering efforts. fore the country. A rumor had found its way He came out squarely for the Government, In preparing the weekly lesson, always find into a newspaper that somebody wanted an and did so in the interest of the School Bill, at least one point which you can make the ocoffice, and before the country must the offwhich it was the ulterior design of the Oppo- casion of a direct application to the conscien- our games. Only the stove knocked over !- coat buttoned to the neck, and a white eravat spring of the fruitful dame be fathered upon sition to scotch. He characterized it as a ces of your class on the duty of an immediate good thing the fire was so low. Now, then, without a collar. He speaks with a brogue. some one of the opposite party. The leader combination rather than an Opposition, and surrender of themselves to God. But besides step up and be blindfolded, whoever was His preaching is very simple, earnest, and full of the Opposition was very particular to dequoted from the different speeches to show this, which is addressed to the class as a whole, caught last." scribe a celebrated fishing voyage he made to that they lacked coherence on any point ex- seek and make these private interviews with the Celestial city sometime in February, givcept determination to oust the Government. each scholar individually. ing date of his embarkation, various things He had helped to put the law on the Statute Where this interview can be best made, de- flocking out of the door-"Good night !"-all tablishment. It would do credit to any govthat surprised him on the journey, how long Book, and he should be no party to its de- pends upon the circumstances of each case. gone except Thomas Grumble, an official, and ernment on the face of the earth. I have talkhe sat at supper, and the new and strange struction now. He traced from the com- Sometimes by inviting the scholar to your own sometimes an officious member of the church, ed with the people of Bristol about Muller, sights he beheld-among them the strangest, mencement this sectarian cry raised by the house, sometimes by paying him a visit at his "Well, parson," he says in his most com- merchants, tradesmen, draymen, storemen, and the Hon, Provincial Secretary. Some say he Catholics of the Province, and contended with home. All this requires thought and planning, placent tone, "we have done the right thing all classes, religious and irreligious-and they baited the hook and angled for a fat office, the Attorney General that, by their own state- just as the performance of any other important by you to-night. Here are eighty-nine dol- all express the highest confidence in his piety, &c., that the Prov. Sec'y cast the net, but as the meshes pressed, the wished for fish wigwould satisfy them, and was determined to And be sure, when you have once entered And come this way into the kitchen-here is high place among model men of the world. gled himself clear. The quondam leader, Mr. stand by any Government which was sincere upon this line of duty, and acquired some fa- a table of fragments. Oh ! our people are His theory is this: that God is a hearer of Gough, spends hours in reading and commentin its desire to maintain the law in its integri- cility in it, you will find it the sweetest privil- generous when they take a notion to be, prayer; that he is the same faithful God that ing upon extracts from Pinnock's England ty. He paid an eloquent tribute to the me- ege God gives you here below. There is no Praise them up when you send a notice of this he ever was; that this he believes and this he and Sangster's old Arithmetic, to show that mory of the late Mr. Moore, of Westmorland, enjoyment upon earth equal to that of direct, to the newspapers." the Government are in gross error in educaas well as to the indefatigable and brave efforts personal labor in bringing lost souls to the Sa- Well, the donation party is among the The name of George Muller will be spoken tional matters, though neither of these are sanctioned by the Board of Education, and he cousin Joshua; and there is a saint indeed- have been taught in its various schools, and versity, the centre of observation, as he, in his supporting the Orphanage, one hundred and over. Here are the old and young, the grave ted by its agency.

and gay, the bold and timid, and they have In considering the construction and superserting the School Bill at its inception merely the subject, selected with special reference to boys call, "a gay old time at the Parsonage Orphanage, the reception of the funds, coming bere, while an English company was ready to of approaching them is by means of a letter. sip, and a few timid young people, who never Society, besides acting as the principal pastor do more better work for a less equivalent. In undertaking to write such a letter, first have courage to open their mouths in the pre- of large congregations, we are overwhelmed

"Why not, Auntie Groans?"

will see what has happened."

"What is the matter ?"

has been said respecting this extraordinary man. The following respecting him from a

PILLOW LINENS,

GREY AND WHITE SHEETINGS.

Pillow Cottons, Towelling,

OSNABURGS,

TICKINGS,

PATCH WORK,

QUILTS, TOILET COVERS,

GREY AND WHITE

Cottons,

SHITT FONTS AND SHITTING LINENS.

STAMPED WORK,

SKEIN AND BALL KNITTING COTTON.

An inspection respectfully solicited.

THOMAS LOGAN.

Fredericton, March 1, 1872. ALBION HOUSE.

IMMENSE REDUCTIONS

THE Subscribers, in tendering their sincere thanks to their friends and the public for their past favors, now beg to inform them that they intend running a

Cheap Sale,

to continue until the 1st March, of Seasonable first-class ligious discord over the whole land. Mr.

DRY GOODS,

in order to make room for a large SPRING IMPORTA- and file afterwards; a few rampant men, mis-TION just ordered from England. The Stock has been thoroughly overhauled and Reduced to such prices as can not fail to effect a speedy clearance. Attention is directed to the following

SPECIAL LOTS:

carrying out a measure which preceding Gov- Will you not try it?

OUR DONATION PARTY.

BY A REGULAR CONTRIBUTOR. "What is the prospect of the weather ?" " Very cold out-wind northeast, and a hea-y snow-storm driving up. The flakes are dready beginning to fall." "Well, we must be stirring early, for to-

What a time there will be !

face, for here is a thought, a precious thought years since, one George Muller, a Prussian by me." to comfort you inyou are not near as disgusted birth, poor, uneducated, and without friends, as you will be by this time to-morrow. Mark by reading the life of Franke of Halle, conme for a true prophet."

ceived the idea of establishing an Orphanage Two o'clock in the afternoon. Hark to the for the poor destitute orphan children. merry jingle of the sleigh-bells ! Here they | To commence such an establishment on a come ! three large sleighs-here they come ! small scale, required a large outlay of funds, -the committee of arrangement talking, but he had not a dollar to invest, was without "How are you, father Jenks ?"

still after supper. Now, then, sisters, out of old, if you please, a Scriptural one, we believe, hope through grace of enjoying the everlastthe sleighs and into the kitchen, where you of going directly to the Lord for whatever he ing inheritance which is laid up in heaven for can be useful. Lend a helping hand, parson, may need in carrying out his proposed plans, all believers.

to get out these provisions. Look out for a From first to last he has adhered strictly to You cannot tell whether a man has power hungry crowd to-night. Ah ! here are a cou- this method, without soliciting a single penny or not until you see the inside of him. There ple of tarkeys, half a dozen chickens, two bas- of the public, or of a single individual. "As are multitudes of men converted whose conkets of pies, ever so many loaves of bread, the necessities arose, he simply laid his ease before dition you cannot determine by what you see cold boiled ham, the jar of pickles, and the --- God, and asked of Him all that he needed ; of them. There is a hidden life in them. --why we forgot to bring any butter, and the --- and the supply has always been seasonable Beecher.

Now, then, I must bring in half a cord hired houses for the children; these were soon the curtains, and say, "Courage I am thy salof wood to keep the kettles boiling. But first, filled. Then a building was crected for the vation !" than to enjoy health, being lusty and little man from King's can greatly rejoice in the spring of wood to keep the kettles boiling. But first, filled. Then a building was crected for the accommodation of the orphans; this became strong, and never to be visited by God, -Ruthtoo small. Another, until the fifth, one of erford. "Have you just found that out, Father which was very large, was creeted, all of which Methodist.

THE MULLER ORPHANAGES.

ism coming to, says I to myself, when we must he has handled millions of money, and could have spent it as he would. Muller is a Prusto the cause of the poor. He is a tall, slim man, with the bearing of a soldier-with dark "Oh! here's the parson. Come in and join hair and gray whiskers-wears a black frockof Christ. He is a man of great executive Eleven o'clock, and the people at last think ability, and is the sole manager of this imof leaving. Here they go: "Good night !"- mense concern. I have been all over his eslars in small change, which is convenient. and integrity, and honor, and assign him a trusts, and has never been disappointed."

things that were, Perhaps I should be thank- with delight in all coming time, and thousands ful for so generous a gift. But, then, the sa- will call him blessed. His life of trast in God lary, as the people well know, is insufficient, is wonderful, and is it not a standing reproof and purposely made small in view of the pros- to the Church ? Not that we would recompective donation. So the gift proves to be no mend every one to imitate him in all particugift at all, O happy day when Eden will lars, but should not all Christians follow him learn that the "workman is worthy of his in that trust he exercises on the Almighty hire" and treat him justly ! O happy day power? And does not the Divine Being rewhen such donation visits as Eden gives its quire this trust of all His people ?- Mark xi : favored pastor will be forever abolished .- 22-24.

RANDOM READINGS.

A CLERGYMAN once said : "When I come to Ashleydown, near Bristol, England, has be- die, I shall have my greatest grief and greatsuch a donation party as Eden is said to give come one of the most attractive spots of earth, est joy ; my greatest grief that I have done and one of the greatest wonders of the world. so little for my Lord, Jesus, and my greatest "So am I. But do not put on such a serious What has made it such? Some thirty-seven joy that my Lord Jesus has done so much for

> As it respects general habits, a parent can scarcely teach a child a more valuable art than dispatch without bustle ; nor can any one that values his time cultivate a more valuable one for hunself.

WHILE you provide for things honest in the laughing-in high glee, every one of them. patronage, friends, or any one on whom he sight of all men, let your chief care be, not to could rely for pecuniary assistance. What be rich in the world's estimation, but to be "Pretty well parson; but will feel better | could he do? He resolved on a new method, rich in the estimation of God-to have a good

Sure I am that it is better to be sick, provi-

situation, but any one knows that the agitation will not cease until either our Catholie countrymen gain separate schools or the people pronounce, with an unmistakable voice, against them, and for the broad system of national schools solely. Nearly all the members have expressed an opinion one way or the other, although some will give a silent vote. Mr. Willis took the floor on Tuesday evening to close, and so the long-protracted struggle, like all others, will come to an end, and once again the Opposition will have to content themselves on the cold benches on the northern side of the House, and warm themselves only by the rays stray and dim of a body knew he had, and the Freeman publish ed the whole proceedings. The question was long deferred anticipation. settled, says the Opposition leader first, rank The broad, smiling face of the Provincial Secretary still beams biandly upon the Opposition front. Mr. King's immovable features, guided persons, might say to the contrary in St. John or elsewhere; but what of that, it crowned by a beaver and varied by his black moustache, can now relax in smiles, for Gough was settled without doubt, whilst all the time, sits not on his cushioned chair. Stevenson from the Cathedral in St. John to the remotand Kelly can be happy in a Government sa-for the present. Plenty more coming by and The results surprise the world. He first est Catholic settlement, from the mechanic to glances of Hanington and Adams; and that little seat about the Council Board another and-why how it snows !" season.

ernments had not dared to grapple with. He deplored the raising of a sectarian or religious strife, and while agreeing that this question must be fought out m our country, hoped it would be done in a fair and cool spirit, with as little rancor and ill feeling as possible. We heartily wish that the speeches of Mr. King and Mr. Wedderburn could be published in full and scattered broadcast over the country, as we believe they state the fair issue aight the grand donation party comes off. which is now before us. The Opposition may follow the cry of their leader that the School "Oh ! I am disgusted with the prospect of question is settled, and they submit to the 140 pieces Plain and Fancy Dress Goods, from 5 to 12 cents per yard less than former prices; 60 pieces Tweeds and Winceys, at cost; former prices 18, 22 and 25 cents; 6 pair White Blankets, at $2.50, former price $3.60; 6    4.00, 5.00; mer prices 30 and 35 cents ; 2500 yards Light Prints, at less than cost; Waterproof Cloth and Velveteen Jackets, much below the regular prices.

WOOL GOODS,

In Clouds, Breakfast Shawls, Hoods, Scarfs,

Ties, &c., &c., at cost prices.

A NICE LOT OF

LADIES' UNDER SKIRTS,

at cost prices.

GREY AND WHITE SHEETINGS.

GREY AND WHITE COTTONS,

Your inspection is solicited, as the reductions are bonafide.

PARKS' COTTON WARPS,

in all colors, Nos. 78 and 9.

MILLE & EDGECOMBE.

Successors to the late JOHN THOMAS. Fromsteton, Jan. 20, 1872.

the priest and legislator, heralded and encouraged by the Freeman, the organ of the separate school party, the law is stigmatized as " iniquitous, unjust, registered in Hell, born in 25 pieces Grey and Brown Alpaceas, at 12, 15 and 18 cents, deception," nurtured in hypocrisy, de., de., and the deliberate and repeated statements are made that never will they submit to it or allow the memory of the wrong to be effaced 12 pieces Fancy Flannel Shirtings, at 20 and 24 cents, for- from the minds of their children. That the question of sectarian schools underlies this whole movement, was contended by the Hon.

ter reviewing all the charges preferred against systematic instruction in the general princi- "What will you have to eat ?" satisfactorily to the majority of the House, he final culmination of the work? or shall it be ple of Eden, it is clear, got up this donation for the orphans, and for other purposes (he is struck the question of separate schools as op- by direct, specific, immediate effort ?

ernment. He argued this from the stand immediate decision.

March 20, 1872.

HOW TO SAVE SOULS.

erful speech, continuing over five hours. Af- this end be accomplished? Shall it be by said-the Government, and answering them most ples of religion, looking to conversion as the Well, it is best not to be critical. The peo- The whole amount expended by Mr. Muller man who does much with the life of the man posed to national schools, and showed that Both methods should be used. The general frolic. But stop, let these things be forgot- Tract Society), is about two and a half mit- in whose life there is much living, must comthe same question which is now agitating the instruction in the truths of the Bible lays the ten, for already the plate is passing to raise a lions of dollars ! His annual "statement" mit considerable errors; and must run a much countries of Europe and the States of our foundation for the effectual working of the little money to lift the worthy pastor a little tells us from whence this vast amount came. greater chance of some errors being discoverneighbouring Republic is the central principle truth upon the heart, and the specific, direct ways above the depths of poverty. Kind This statement contains his journal, in which ed and made known. Arthur Helps.

the magnitude of the demand they make, which teachers fail most. It is, too, the most before you, who preaches to you from Sabbath her trinkets to be sold for the benefit of the impossible that anything should be too little which are wholly incompatible with unbroken difficult, and the one requiring the greatest to Sabbath the word of life.

are making both to influence members in the address any one, young or old, directly, on ed in the parlor ! A Large Stock which will be sold at less than Wholesale House and create a deep feeling among the the subject of personal religion, requires pru- Sleigh has driven up and depo- be better to give this money at once, as it may where it is a personal, familiar acquaintance, teachers who are aiming to save the souls of you pleae," cries Sister Lucy Bray. So out we require again £39,000, (for all departments) Attorney General, Mr. King, in a most pow- their scholars, raise the question, how shall walk and take our places, and grace being as during the past year, but considerably constituencies of the country, and contended dence and tact. It may be so done as to har- sited its merry cargo. Here are people from be some time before I can dispose of the and seems to say to itself: "Shall I hide this that this question we might as well now meet den and repel the scholar. Yet the mistakes ten miles around, many of whom are never trinkets.' She therefore brought it, little thing from Abraham my friend ?--Spurgeon.' squarely face to face, and establish the correct on this side are few and inconsiderable com- seen inside of the church unless at a funeral knowing that there was not a penny in hand." (JEREMY TAYLOR said : "Hasty conclusions principle of national education by standing pared to the failures on the other. Too often service. Parlor, sitting-room, kitchen, and "A Christian gentleman" sends £500; "W. are the mark of a fool ; a wise man doubteth shoulder to shoulder undistracted by cries of a guilty cowardice keeps our mouths closed, halls are full of people, and now a stream E.," £1,000; "J. A.," £5,000; "A Noble -a fool rageth, and is confident : the novice where the carpet and chairs have been remov- tional Canal Company," and £700 in Turkish ed answers, Peradventure it may be so; but I We are glad to know that such men are Freedom in the discharge of this solemn du- ed that they might not be injured by the bonds are sent; and "A very Poor Widow," prithee inquire. Some men are drunk with in our House as Geo. E. King, and argue much ty comes only by constant effort. The more romping of the young people. Why, every- and "A Former Orphan," send their contri- fancy and mad with opinion. It is a little for our country if he continues to maintain the we shun it, the harder it becomes. We should body is here with his wife and his sons and bations. Donations are received from all learning, and but a little, which makes men same consistent course he has hitherto pur- deliberately seek and make opportunities for daughters. Here is Brother Spry, and Sister parts of the world, from New York, Newport, conclude hastily."

Jonks?"

will accommodate nearly twenty-five hundred The busy notes of preparation have been children, and all are filled. The cost of these fail to take home with him. They will best heard for four hours, and six o'clock has come. | buildings was $500,000. The current expenses The doors of the dining-room are flung wide of this institution are immense. Mr. Muller, The Sunday School Times says that some open, and, "First table is ready-walk out in referring to them, says: "We shall not only more; perhaps £5,000, £6,000, or £7,000

visit, first, to have a feast, and then to have a running an extensive Missionary, Bible and in the opposition now raised against this Gov- application of it often brings the scholar to an friends, remember the poor, and give, one and we find entries as follows :- "Before this day HAVE you not often wondered at the human all, a little contribution, in view of your sup- is over, I have received from a sister five utterances of the divine word? It thunders taken by the Catholic body as a unit, from This latter duty, however, is the one in per, costing nothing, to the object of charity pounds. She had sometime since put away like God, and yet weeps like a man. It seems state education, and the persistent efforts they amount of discretion as well as of zeal. To Eight o'clock, and what a crowd is gather- came to her mind, 'I have this five pounds, or even too sinful for that book to overlook. settlement or establishment or submitting to and we fail to speak openly and directly to a rises to the large room on the second floor, Lady," £300; ten shares of "Italian Irrigas saith, I am sure that it is so; the better learn-

A LOYING heart and a pleasant countenance season his food and soften his pillow. It were a great thing for a man that his wife and chil-Iren could truly say of him : " He never brought a frown or unhappiness across his threshold," who does little-greatly to the disparagement of the former one. The man who does much,