HARPER'S BAZAR.

Notices of the Press. The Bazar is edited with a contribution of tact and talent that we seldom find in any journal; and the journal itself s the organ of the great world of fashion, -Boston Traveller. The Bazar commends itself to every member of the household-to the children by droll and pretty pictures, to the young ladies by its fashion-plates in endless variety to the provident matron by its patterns for the children's clothes, to patar familias by its tasteful designs for embroidered slippers and luxurious dressing-gowns. But the reading matter of the Bazar is uniformly of great exceller ce. The paper has acquired a wide popularity for

Cherry Pectoral, mankind than this effectual remedy for all diseases of the Throat and Lungs, A vast Z trial of its virtues, throughout this and 2 other countries, has shown that it does surely and effectually Z control them. The testimony of our best citizens, of all classes, establishes the fact, that CHERRY PECTORAL will and does relieve and yield to its power; and cases of Consumption, cured by this preparation, are publicly known, so remarkable as hardly to be beeved, were they not proven be and dispute. As a remedy it is adequate, on which the public may rely for full protection. By caring Coughs, the forerunners of more serious disease, it unnumbered lives, and an amount of suffering not to be computed. It challenges trial, and convinces the most sceptical. Every family should keep it on hand as a protection against the early and unperceived attack of Pulmonary Affections, which are easily met at first, but which become incurable, and too often fatal, if neglected. Tender langs need this defence; and it is unwise to be without it. As a safeguard to children, amid the distressing diseases which beset the Throat and Chest of Childhood, CHERRY PECTORAL

Lungs beyond any other medicine. The most one will suffer troublesome Influenza and painful Bronchitis, when they know how easily they can be cured. Originally the product of long, laborious, and accessful chemical investigation, no cost or toll is spared in making every bottle in the utmost ossible perfection. It may be confidently relied upon as possessing all the virtues it has ever exhibited, and capable of producing cures as is invaluable; for, by its timely use, multititudes are rescued from premaiure graves, and saved to the love and affection centred on them.

It acts speedily and surely against ordinary colds,
