SEEKING GOD.

" I sought the Lord, and He answered me." Psought my Lord one day, laden with all my sin : I knocked at mercy's gate scarce hoping to get in. Sinful and burdened so, scarce hoping to be heard, Or that from His glorious throne He would answer me a word. So foolish I, not knowing,-for even as I spoke, On my torn and wounded heart His tender answer broke :

"Thy sins are all forgiven thee, since I for thee have died ;"

And I, who feared the glory, rejoiced in the Crucified.

I sought the Lord, and He answered me, And this is my song. HIS LOVE IS 'FREE !

I sought the Lord, one day, when grief o'erwhelmed my soul:

His waves and billows all seemed over me to roll. I called, in my unbelief, and cried, "Dost Thou not care

That my soul is overwhelmed, and I perish in despair ?"

And even as I called, out of the storm he said : "I am with thee, little faith, then why art thou afraid ?" Then into my heart there stole at the word a peace profound, That banished fear and shame, and stilled the tempest sound. I sought the Lord, He the answer gave,

And this is my song, HIS LOVE CAN SAVE ! I sought the Lord, not one, but many a day and oft;

And, cried, till through my crying my bones waxed old and soft, answer me.

Nor give my heart the blessing I cry and die to Bee ?"

Mr. Mason was dumb with surprise at so unexpected a declaration. He made two or three eftorts to speak, but his lips uttered no sound. "Confide in me, sir," urged the visitor. "Trust me as you would trust your own brother,

" It is," was all the merchant could utter. "How much will save you? Mention the sum, and, if within the compass of my ability to raise, you shall have it in hand to-morrow. Will four thousand pounds relieve you from your present embarrassment? Then let your anxiety subside, Mr. Mason. That sum you shall have. To-morrow morning I will see you. Good evening." And the visitor arose, and was gone before his bewildered auditor had sufficiently recovered his senses to know what to think or say. In the morning, true to his promise, Mr. Greer called upon Mr. Mason, and tendered a cheque for two thousand pounds, with his note of hand at thirty days for two thousand more, which was almost the same as money.

While the cheque and note lay before him upon the desk, and ere he had offered to touch them, Mr. Mason looked earnestly at the man who had so suddenly taken the character of a disinterested, self-sacrificing friend, and said-

"My dear sir, I cannot understand this. Are you not laboring under some mistake?" "Oh, no. You once did me a service ; that I am

WHY SHOULD I BUY KITCHEN'S PATENT CHURN? DECAUSE they preserve health, save time, save money,

D and the churning is all done in 5 or 10 minutes. You will then believe what I assure you is true, viz. : That I ave for sale the best churn ever invented--Kitchen's Patent Rotary Double Dasher. This charn has two Dashers, each revolving in an opposite direction. It is useless to attempt a description of this churn in an advertisement, it has to be seen to be sppreciated. It is estimated by practical farmers that it will produce one-tenth more butter from the same quantity of cream than any other churn now in use. The public are respectfully requested to call at my store, examine the article, and select for themselves.
