THE GOVERNOR GENERAL'S REPLY.

The following is the reply of His Excellency to those members of the House of Commons who pe- Fort Arabia to-day a lot of supplies for the Carlists, Monday. titioned him not to prorogue Parliament last Wed- and was afterwards captured by a Spanish man-ofnesday. It deserves a careful perusal; and ought war. to satisfy candid minds of the propriety of His Ex- and claim that this success is the most important cellency's course.

Gentlemen: It is quite unnecessary for me to assure you that any representations emanating from persons possessing the right to speak on public affairs with such authority as yourselves will always be considered by me with the greatest respect, even had not circumstances already compelled me to give my most anxious thought to the matters to which you are now anxious of calling my attention.

You say, in your memorandum, that four months have elapsed since the Hon. Mr. Huntington preferred grave charges of corruption against my present advisers, in reference to the Pacific Railway contract, and although the house has appointed a committee to enquire into those charges, the proceedings of this committee have ou several grounds been postponed, and the enquiry has not taken

Gentlemen, no person can regret more deeply than I do these unfortunate delays, the more so as they seem to have given rise to the impression that lence they have been unnecessarily interposed by the action of the executive. It may be premature at this moment to enter into a history of the disallowance of the Oath bill, but this much, at all events, it is but fair to every one that I should state, viz., that immediately after I had assented to that Act, I transmitted a certified copy of it to the Secretary of State, in accordance with the instructions by which I am bound on such occasions; that leaning myself to the opinion, an opinion founded on the precedent afforded by the Act of the Canadian Parliament, which empowers the Senate to examine witnesses on oath, that the Act was not ultra vires, I accompanied it by a full exposition of the arguments which could be urged in its support, but on the point being referred by the Secretary of State for the professional opinion of the Law Officers of the Crown, it was pronounce ed inconsistent with the Act of Confederation, and that, therefore, the postponement of the enquiry, so far as it has arisen out of this circumstance, has resulted wholly by the operation of law, and has been beyond the control of any one concerned.
