And hours of peace and rest are very rare; But it is sweet after the toil and woe, To nestle close to thee with thoughts of prayer. If thou wilt lay thy hand upon my head.

I shall arise refreshed and comforted. Dear master! I am sitting at thy feet; I would not miss a look or lose a word;

The hour is very lonely when we meet; I fain would see and hear none but the Lord, I long to lay aside pain, grief, and fear, And only know and feel that thou art near.

The world's discordant noises evermore Clang round about my ears and weary me; There were rough hands, ungentle hands before To trouble me; but now I come to thee;

O Jesus! quiet me with tender speech While up to thee my wistful arms I reach. In life's bewildering strife and eager rush, I lose so much of thy sweet gentleness;

But in the peace and solace of this hush Strengthen and soothe me with thy blessedness Give to me what thou wilt; here at thy side, Whate'er it be, I shall be satisfied.
