NURSERY RHYMES, No. 21. A HAIR-BREADTH 'SCAPE! It was a winter morning,-

The air was thin and cold, The frost stood on the window panes In etchings rude and old; And many a figure quaint was there, The sculpture,-work of a master rare. The window of the Pharmacy, On King Street, Twenty-four, Was richly dressed with Toilet Sets, From India's Coral Shore, And many a man, with convex eye, Before the window paused to sigh. A maiden came, with hairless pate, A shining, bald round head,

And what few hairs about it grew, Were tinged with streaks of red-And her hazel eye turned upside down, As she viewed, in awe, her hairless crown. She bought a brush from the Chemist bland, A brush both stiff and hard, And rubbed in Cleaver's best Pomade, Of Marrow, Oil and Lard: And the barren head rejoiced in locks,
