JESUS OF NAZARETH PASSETH BY.

What means this eager, anxious throng, Which moves with busy haste along-These wondrous gatherings day by day ? What means this strange commotion say ? In accents hushed the throng reply, "Jesus of Nazareth passeth by."

Who is this Jesus ? Why should he The city move so mightily? A passing stranger, has he skill To move the multitude at will ? Again the stirring tones reply, "Jesus of Nazareth passeth by."

Jesus ! 'tis he who once below Man's pathway trod, 'mid pain and woe ; And burdened ones, where'er he came, Brought out their deaf and sick and lame ; The blind rejoiced to hear the cry, " Jesus of Nazareth passeth by."

Again he comes ! From place to place Ilis holy foot-prints we can trace. He pauseth at our threshold-nay, He enters-condescends to stay, Shall we not gladly raise the cry, "Jesus of Nazareth passeth by."

Ho ! all ye heavy-laden, come ! Here's pardon, comfort, rest, and home; Ye wanderers from a Father's face, Return, accept his proffered grace; Ye tempted, there's a refuge nigh-"Jesus of Nazareth passeth by."

But if you still this call refuse, And all his wondrous love abuse. Soon will he sadly from you turn, Your bitter prayer for pardon spurn, "Too late ! too late !" will be the cry : "Jesus of Nazareth HAS PASSED BY."

"Nothing else to do, either," he thought to himself, as he put his hands in his pockets, and turned wearily toward the bright, open fire. He looked up thoughtfully for a moment, and, as his eye fell on a little framed miniature standing on the mantle-shelf, he brightened up. and said, half aloud : " I'll go up and see her. It's a comfort to have your growl out before somebody." So he left the room, shutting the door with a loud bang, that echoed and re-echoed through the quiet house; went up-stairs, boy-fashion, three steps at a time, and in answer to his knock, received a kind, "Come in, Walter."
