Separate school influence seeks to hide itself under cloak of repeal, and but tor this the latter cry would not have the ghost of work. The Catholics had for years lived under similar law in Nova Scotia, and cared nothing about conscience; in P. E. Island and Nova Sco tis they had been satisfied under such a system, and compromising policy of Ontario. Even in Ontario 50,000 Catholic children attend the nonsectarian schools, while only 20,000 attend the separate. Where is the consciences of the parents of those 50,000? the Province did they not speak plainly. Lindsay said that the views of Irvine could not be understood. They were contradictory. This be done. The safe way was to keep the schools free from church influences; to make the law irrespective of creeds. Catholics had told him that ligion by law, and so Protestants there are fairly entitled to separate schools; but here no religious instruction is given by law; and here Catholics have no claim for them. He could not give them special privileges. The interests of the country require that every child be educated at some one's expense, and under the same condition, so far as the State is concerned. The new law is good in port resolutions.

MARRIAGES.

On the 4th inst., at the Free Baptist Parsonage, Water too Street, by Rev. J. T. Parsons, Mr. Elisha J. O'Brien and Miss Sibyl Keith, both of Saint John. Mr. Palmer asked whether it is the intention of the Government to place a sum in the estimates for the purpose of building a suitable marine hospital at St. John.

The Premier replied that the Government had that subject, with several others of a similar nature under consideration.
