All things earthly vanish and pass-Vanish as hues of the morn; All pass away as the glimmer of day, While others as fleet are born, Hush, hush! thou too must fall Under the coffin shroud! Stay, stay! thy funeral pall Is imaged in yonder cloud! All things vanish and pass away, Like shadows that flit at close of day.

The flowers that bloom in the azure deeps-The golden stars-must fall; There is ever a time they cease to climb O'er the steeps of heaven's blue wall. Hush, hush! one now goes down Into the soundless sea; Fleet, as that star hath flown

Are the days of thy destiny. Like Autumn's shadow, or evening's sigh, Each star of darkness but gleams to die. The blossoms that shine in the fields of spring, Like jewels sown in the grass, Have a fate like stars which their glory fling, And bloom but to wither and pass.

Look, look! as the leaves grow white, And the buds but wither and fade, The flowers which glummered in spring so bright Have perished in Autumn's shade. As the voice of the sick when they sink and die, So feeble and faint do the blossoms lie. Look down on the infant whose laughing eyes Seem mirrors of heavenly bliss; Look down on him now, as he sickens and dies 'Neath the breath of a parent's kiss! Hush, hush! we are hastening fast O'er the ripples of Time's dark wave; And ere we arrive where our hopes are cast, We are deep in the silent grave!

So pause and consider, nor tread so fast; The moment which follows may be-your last!

timely resort to this standard preparation, as has been proved by the hundreds of testimonials received by the proprietors. It is acknowledged by many prominent physicians to be the most reliable preparation ever introduced for the relief and cure of all Lung complaints, and is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of over forty years. When resorted to in season it seldom fails to effect a speedy cure in the most severe cases of Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Asthma, Colds, Sore Throat, Pains or Soreness in the Chest and Side, Liver Complaint, Bleeding at the Langs, &c. Wistar's Balsam does not dry up a Cough, and leave the cause behind, as is the case with most preparations but it loosens and cleanses the lungs, and allays irritation, thus removing the cause of the complaint.

intrinsic virtues, and sustained by its remarkable cures. So mild as to be safe and beneficial to children, and yet so searching Z as to effectually purge out the great cor-ruptions of the blood, such as the scrofulous r diseases that have lurked in the system for years, soon yield to this powerful antidote and disappear. Hence its wonderful cures, many of which are publicly known, f Scrofula, and all scrofulous diseases, Ulcers, Eruptions, and eruptive disorders of the skin, Tumors, Blotches, Boils, Pimples, Pustules, Sores, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipe-las, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, and internal UIcerations of the Uterus, Stomach, and Liver. It also cures other comaints, to which it would not seem especially adapted, such as Dropsy, Dyspep-sia, Fits, Neuralgia, Heart Disease, Female Weakness, Debility, and Leucorrhoea, when they are manifestations of the scrofulous pelsons.

It is an excellent restorer of health and strength in the Spring. By renewing the appetite and vigor of the digestive organs, it dissipates the depression and listless languor of the season. Even when no disorder appears, people feel better, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. The system moves on with renewed vigor and a new lease of Professor Soret in delivering Professor Soret, in delivering a most interes passed in review the operations of the Industrial section, in reference to Commerce, laying great stress upon the competition that has taken place in the manufacture of chronometers. This competition was instituted with the object of testing the workmanship and precision of chronometers turned out by Genevese manufacturers, and none but those adopted for pocket use were admitted. They were deposited in charge of the authorities at the Observatory, and underwent the most searching ordeal possible to be applied to pocket instruments of this class. The jury specially retained to decide the difficult question as to whom to award the palm of excellence unsatimously decided. whom to award the palm of excellence unanimously decided in favor of Messrs. J. M. Badollet & Co. This firm cided in favor of Messrs. J. M. Badollet & Co. This having carried off the sole prize by exhibiting a chronometer which fulfilled in the highest degree every condition required, crowned their first success by gaining the mention for two other chronometers. The allusion to this triple honor was received with enthusiastic applause, and Professor Humbert, President of the Fine Arts Section closed the meeting with happy and humorous dissertation upon subjects connected with this department.
