The silverware for the great Palace Hotel at San Francisco cost sixty thousand dollars, and among its features is quite a novelty in the shape of silver tea-caddies, with four compartments for as many kinds of tea, which will be set before the guests at the table, with scalding water at hand, that they may help themselves to the leaf, and make their tea after the Chinese fashion.

Society in Hayti may be quoted as in an uncomfortably volcanic condition. The latest excitement is a Sunday revolution, during which a General was taken out of church and shot, and two other persons were put to death. As British gunboats are at Port-a-Pais and Port-au-Prince, speedy vengeance may be expected. The Government of Hayti is even more unstable than that of Mexico, without being half as respectable as the Mexican.
