THE RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCER.

his closing hours, troubled by visions of charitable lous cities of our sphere ;-- and that charmed cirward of truth, only animating appeals and begging circulars for help, earned in cle, "Our best Society," guards there its social rising superior to the many years of self-denying labor. Every minister rights and distinctions with the same fealous care has been occupied by our studies, we have not hich circumscribed them, has should be able to insure his life, buy the books that is seen in all little pettifogging, nasty, would- been able to promptly acknowledge the sympathy streams of its influence through a necessary for his work, and live in a condition be-aristocratic, quondam-garrison towns, of which and encouragement extended to us by the Yearly and unknown channels to fertilize and fructify in which there will be no temptation to think Annapolis and Fredericton are familiar examples. Conference, convened at Caledonia, Nova Scotia; the world consecrates all his time and service." God is not to be monopolized by any man or any set of men. The Holy Ghost is not delegated - EVANGELICAL ALLIANCE MEETING .- At the Subscriptions may eithet be paid to Messre BARNES & Co., St. John, or remitted to the Editor, at | in its fulness to any particular persons. regular meeting of the St. John Evangelical Alli-

The temples of God's indwelling, and for th ance Committee held on Monday it was reported exhibition of his grace and glory, still stand. He that $716 had been subscribed towards the erec still holds his residence in them. The preachers tion of a Mission House in Sheffield street. The Religious Intelligencer. of his Word still proclaims his Word, and hi work will probably soon be undertaken....A promise remains that his Word thus uttered shall committee previously appointed to consider the not return to him yoid, nor fail of its divine accom matter of a society for the relief of the poor, replishing. The prayer meeting still holds its mysti circle, and the Master waits to enter in, to link a ed at once, and requested the alliance to confer hearts to his own. The Holy Chost, the Comforter with His Worship the Mayor in reference to calling knows no latitude nor longitude, is unfettered l a public meeting of citizens for that purpose. The any law or influence of locality. He traverses all same committee was appointed to wait on the Last week we briefly requested the ministers to regions, be fills all space, he is everywhere present Mayor to ask him to call the meeting. inform us of their locations for the current year. at each beat of time-It is quite likely there will be many people in It is a plain, trite, universally accepted truth the city requiring assistance during the winter, that we utter. All Christians believe it. But the and it is therefore to be hoped that the movepoint is, that they are likely to forget it and miss ment for the formation of a Relief Society may we are more impressed with the importance of it altogether. There is not a city or village or meet with the warm and hearty support of the hamlet in the broad land that with Moody or withcitizens generally.

churches the fields of labor occupied by the differ- out Moody may not be blessed with a mighty incoming of the Spirit's grace. There is not a pulpit kindly favour us with the facts, to prepare a list of few there be, even be there but "two or three," the Laws, local and Dominion, for the control and the slaughtering thereof, I took to the natural arhat may be filled with Christ's presence, suffused can save whole communities. Brethren, it may served by them. We therefore repeat the request not be yours to have Moody and Sankey this win- matter of His Honor's address consideration, and without, is at liberty to read. of last week, that the brethren write us stating ter. It may be yours to have Christ and the Holy on Monday submitted a presentment in which, Gaspe is distinguished in history, as the place the churches to which they have engaged to preach | Spirit

EDITORIAL NOTES AND COMMENTS.

-Bro. Weyman's letter in another column has the right ring. We commend his reference to the INTELLIGENCER to the thought of the ministers and other friends of the paper and the denominathemselves, "Well the editor knows where I am, tend to write, but delay it. To all these we wish "I think it the duty of every Free Baptist to to say we want to hear from you, brethren. If do what he can for the INTELLIGENCER-a very inyou do not live five miles from the editor's office, teresting and profitable paper." That is our opinion exactly. It is also either call and tell him face to face where you are inion of the General Conference, as expressed in and what doing, or write the facts just the same as resolution unanimously passed. Cannot the though you lived hundreds of miles away. The churches want the information you are asked to give, they ask repeatedly and eagerly for it, and if INTELLIGENCER. Let our triends try. it is given they will read it with interest and profit. We hope none will fail to respond to this re-The students at the Freewill Baptist Theological purposes, They also urge the necessity of a more mains of some plants, notably the Lepidodendron. quest.....It will be well also if those ministers School at Lewiston have a prayer and conference efficient and energetic Police force, to the end that Thus much for the reading of the archives. And who are without any regular charge will write, meeting every Wednesday evening. One of them the laws may be effectually carried out.

MR. EDITOR-Owing to the want of time which nor am I sure that it is wise, because few things expressed may not be in vain. Our brethren may be are in worse taste than being personal, but "what assured that the remittances are received with several years. is writ-is writ," and as the devil (Printer's) re- many thanks. We are encouraged to learn that sides in neither the one, nor the other, I trust he our brethren are becoming more and more interestwill let it severely alone. But, to the dirtation. ed in the students, and are not only encouraging She was French, though she spoke English fairly. us by their prayers and good resolutions, but by I stipulated that our conversation should be entire- giving us aid from their pockets; and we trust Why not? ly in the politer language. (Of course, it is politer they will not be offended by our saying that when for a man to call his mother a mare, his father a the time comes around for the payment of the ported the desirability of such a society being formthis plan. I became intensely interesting, and receive it. We would also take occasion to examused her infinitely in my attempts at conversa- press our thanks to the corresponding delegate, for tion. I telt, too, that I was becoming more fluent the good words spoken of us and in our behalt at and "Frenchie" every hour, and the thought flash- the Y. C.

ed through my mind, that after all, a week's con-We trust we may study to show ourselves, no versation in French was worth coming to Gaspe only approved of men, but of God, workmen that for. But how vain are the hopes of man. My re- needeth not to be ashamed. A STUDENT. gard for Mrs. Queerfellow got the better of my Lewiston, Maine. prudence, and I sent her a letter. The postmaster, a single gentleman, and a denizen of the hote!, noticed the address, and for reasons best known to himself, insunuated to Anonyma that I was a mar-- Two GREAT EVILS .- At the opening of the ried man. The flirtation ended tragically for me, Colpitts will be pleased to learn that he is recoverin the land that may not resound with an utterance County Court in this city last week, Judge Watters and I found myself, after a four days' residence, to more pathetic, more persuasive, more powerful, in his address to the Grand Jury, referred in very the "tan" of the programme, contained in the year?" and very often it is a question difficult to than that which filled the Brook'yn Rink last pointed language to Sunday liquor selling, and couplet bove. Time is an animal not classified answer. Now we propose, if the brethren will Sabbath. There is not a prayer meeting, however the increase of bawdy hours in the city. He quoted by Dan and hard to be slaughtered. In order to suppression of these evils, and condemned in no chives of the country, and read from them what and running over with a faith and love which measured terms the laxity of the Police and other any man, with the small emattering of Geology officers of the Law. The Grand Jury gave the that even a country pedagogue cannot well do > amongst other things, they say that there are at where Jacques Cartier landed, on the 24th of July, least four times as many taverns in the city and 1534. Planting a cross and a Fleur de Lis, he took ounty "as the law contemplates necessary." They possession of the country in the name of the King uggest that either a tavern be not licensed on any of France. The bay has a length of about twenty miles, and an average breadth of about five. The street or district unless two-thirds of the rate paycoast is rugged and mountainous, and though ers petitioned in favor of the same, or that a Committee of not less than twelve, appointed by the houses are scattered along the shore, there are only Provincial Government, should have control of the five settlements of import. These are Grand Greve, granting of licenses, a majority of whom must vote taking its name from a large pebble beach, which

-JUST So .- A subscriber in a business note in favor of every license granted; any person hold- has probably been formed by the action of waves ing an elective office or engaged in the liquor in westerly storms, Little Gaspé, Gaspé Peninsula traffic to be ineligible for appointment on such Douglastown and Sandy Beach. The fisheries are, Committee. Also, that no person holding a pub- and have ever been the principal source of induslic office be permitted to receive a license for him- try to the people, though the mineral wealth of the country has been highly spoken of, by some self or any one in his employ or under his control. eminent geologists. The geological formations are They say that as far as they have information limestone and sandstone; the former belongs to there are forty houses of ill-fame in the city, and that they are allowed to carry on their shameless the middle and upper Silurian age, the latter old ground. After Conference I ran hastily over ce who are not sub cribers, be induced to take the traffic unchecked. They think that in addition to chiefly to the Devonian. The limestone is made the circuit, confirming engagements, leaving apthe enforcement of existing laws against prostitu. up almost entirely of fossils, among which may be tion, there ought to be severe punishment of own- mentioned corals, fucoids, and trilobities, while in -THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL PRAYER MEETING .- | ers of property who rent their premises for such the sandstone formation are found the fossil re-

AN ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

council of ministers. Several of his countrymen years. negro life, have found that this race above all that he is being torgotten by those to whom he Now, that last paragraph is a little ill-natured, but we trust that the sympathy and encouragement others, abhors suicide. Only two cases have been > Revival effort by steam is the latest novelty. Rev. and down the Wisconsin river in his own steamboat, and holds meetings at the various landings.

The centennial building in Philadelphia will the literary necessities of American readers.

over twenty acres, and to lessen the fatigue of a prough visit, an elevated railway is projected. Mrs. E. H. Tubman has presented to the Campbellite Society of Augusta, Ga., a magnificent church edifice, having the tallest spire in the South, and costing her nearly $70,000.

According to a French statistician, more than a from the beginning of the nineteenth century up among the remote and almost inaccessible Sierra to the present date, while the pecuniary loss Glaciers, in which he never met a human beingmounts to $60,000,000.

After mature deliberation it has been agreed by the ministers and business Men's Executive Committee of Chicago, to hold daily revival meetings ng from the severe illness that took him very in Farwell Hall, pending the decision of Moody

The Roman Catholic Church of Nicaragua obserserves 82 feast days in the course of the year.

esides a vast diminution in its agricultural pro ists ;" and " Calathumpians."

and Sankey about coming westward. near the grave. Bro. McDonald writes that Pro. C. is gaining quite rapidly. We trust he may The Weslevans in England have made arrangements soon be able to resume his loved employment. for holding in the several districts " missions," re-LEWIS MOUNTAIN, WESTMORLAND Co.-We leara vival and evangelistic in their character and aims. that a good religious interest is being enjoyed at All right but the name, which is coined from the Lewis Mountain, Rev. J. R. Shaw and Bro. Gorham Roman Catholics and ritualists. abouring there. There have been several conver-Official reports show that in all the Congrega-ons. On Sabbath, Oct. 24th, Bro. Shaw baptized

SALMON RIVER, VICTOBIA Co.-Dear Brother : The Lord is continuing to bless the people at but a feeble hold upon the teelings and convictions Salmon River. On my return from the Annual of the denomination. Meeting I at once came to this field of labour, and have been blessed to see a number profess faith in Christ. Since I last wrote I have baptized siz. Estimating the laboring population at fitteen thousmaking ten in all, and received eleven into the and, and wages at thirty cents per day, the country church. I expect to continue my labours for some sustains an annual loss of at least $3,000,000, DENOMINATIONAL.

RECOVERING .- The many friends of Rev. B.

J. HENDERSON. FROM REV. S. H. WEYMAN .- Dear Brothe

McLeod : I suppose by this time all the publi Brethren have got to work upon their fields for the coming year, and feel anxious to hear from their co-workers. I know I do, and beg to say that the Master has, I believe, ordered me back to my lay on the border of this field. I am engaged half the time with the church at Corn Hill, and give the balance of my time to now my week at Gaspé is at an end. It appeared Ridge, Newtown, Graves' Settlement and Anagance.

Dong Gong, a China.nan, was ordained in Oregon been issued, placing before the reader the current as a Baptist minister, after due examination by a history of the field of human activity for fourteen

But we have not space to notice the numerous were present. He is to engage in missionary work. valuable publications of this extensive publishing Some of the statisticians who are investigating house, many of which have awakened thought and stirred greatly the intellectual world. Their Picturesque America, the noblest, grandest work of art ever issued in this country, will ever stand as recorded on the police book of Richmond, Va., for a monument of the highest style of literary genius. Though attended with vast expense-its engravngs were superb and magnificent beyond descrip ion-it was a grand success. Picturesque Europe. Mr. Nobles, a Free Methodist minister, cruises up now in preparation, will, if possible, exceed in the elegance and grandeur of its engravings anything preceding it. They have other valuable works in press, shortly to be issued, which will greatly add o their devotion and wise foresight in meeting

THE MONTHLIES FOR NOVEMBER.

The November Number (Harper) concluding the Fifty first Volume of Harper's Mayazine, 18 in itself a volume of rare pictorial and literary excellence The Number opens with a magnificently illus. trated article on the Living Glaciers of California by John Muir. This paper is a fresh and exceed igly valuable contribution to scientific literature ousand people have perished by fires in theatres The author's explorations during five summers not even an Iodian or a hunter-are as romant as they are instructive,

From a literary point of view, the most inter-esting paper in this Number is James T. Field's ion, entitled " ' Barry Cornwell ' and Some of his Friends

James Parton discusses recent French Caricature coing over a period of a half a century, and prenting an admirably selected group of pi W. E. Webb, in "Air Towns and their Inhabit ants," gives a graphic portraiture of the mushroom towns of Western civilization, and introduces the originals of these peculiar characterizations that astinguish a recent style of American literature. The American Dairy industry—especially as the result of association—is the subject of an admira gational churches of Maine, during the last year, ble and fully illustrated paper by Edward J. Wickonly 141 children were baptized. It is plain from son. Readers interested in agricultural matter this that infant baptism, in that State, at least, has will also peruse with pleasure Mrs. Howland's humorous description of a recent English experimen in gentleman farming on the co-operative plan. In the "First Century" Series there is an abl and comprehensive review of the progress of popuar education in the United States. The poetry of the Number is contributed by R H. Stoddard, T. B. Albrich, Elizabeth Stuar Phelps, Celia Thaxter, Nora Perry, and Mary N

The Editorial Departments fully sustain the igh standard of excellence which has made them important a feature of the Magazine.

The Alliance News announces the adhesion to the Wide Awake for November is on hand, fairly Temperance cause of the Marquis Townshend, who radiant with its protusion of pictures. A noticeable has now become a member of the Alliance. The feature of this new Boston juvenile, is its many fine. News adds :-- "We are informed that the noble Mrs. S. M. B. Piatt, the most popular among the marquis has suppressed all public houses on his women poets of the Atlantic Monthly, furnishes the pening poem, " The Sad Story of a Little Girl." Prof. Cheney, one of our archaeologists, in "An Atternoon with an Indian Princess," gives reminis According to the census returns of New Zealand, there are 127 denominational distinctions in the ces of a visit with a venerable Iroquios Sachem colony, the appellations of some of which a revery and his daughter, who was a friend of Washing quaint. Take the following, for instance :-- "Bible ton, and of several of the Presidents. There is a Thumpers ;" "Unleavened Brethren of Christ ;" capital little story of animal life, by the editor, "Brogressionists :" "Old Identity :" "Evolution." Mrs. Opossum and her Daughters." Miss Farman Progressionists ;" " Old Identity ;" " Evolutionalso furnishes one of the serials, " The Cooking Club," a story which is refreshingly original and wholesome. The boys get their full share in "The thing of v next Mond R. between opened.... ed with mu urst, at lea jury to try writes that evening la Church at t cendiary ch his coward dled at the covered in was so dam hold servic the scound be discover this buildi must be bu destroyed. Victoria H truction, by was found E. Berryma and when a The H Canada, arr and the san dinner tend toria Hotel. shades of po the affair w The tollo the Custom citizens to ters. We week of pl

sion, excep

this and th Sick M Miscella

> Custou Sick Ma Miscella This show present year

Nova Sco the Western tracted with Walter Sha for the cou trom Yarmo contractors on the line ing the road Digby in th men of high cially, and work will 1

Under the track is alr

into Digby and there a

Digby Cour

been arrest

building iu man named

paper says:

"Sylvan," (

the Magda

Captain dr reports that which sudd

ors, but did

both masts

ed to pieces

not rememi

found hims

left Cow B

was insure pany.....1

Emerson an few nights caused the

A large say was saved

men were tery for an across a co

nothing bu

ed to be va

was suppos

was interre

be solved ...

inst.) the]

are thus d

years old,

high and v

Agricultur

stallion for

Splendor,

1100, 16

1870; 4 Bl

of Canada

weighs 12

years old,

Rawdon (

named Ha

ver belong putting a

English so a prize by

ed at Mah

region ele

employm

to the L

being ve

made a p

.... An 1

the Berw which ba rope to .

Guysbord

telegraph receive to says the recent fir

Raty Dr.

There

GENER

at Sum

are no o

The last

.... The

yielded quantiti to Euro Smithvi tember,

The Y

Mes

Mr. Mr.

Mes

days yet. Brethren, pray for us. Yours.

year.

NTELLIGENCER, Fredericton, N. B.

REV. JOSEPH MCLEOD.....

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1875.

TO THE MINISTERS.

From letters since received we learn that the same thought was in other minds at the same time, and having to publish for the information of the ent ministers. No question is more frequently asked than-"Where is Bro. ---- labouring this the ministers who are at work part or the whole of the time, and the names of the churches being during the present, together with any and all facts in connection with the church's condition and prospects, and their own work, which may be of Many are probably located as last year, and may think it not necessary to write. Others may say to so we need not write." And still others may in-interest to the members of the denomination.

We shall be glad, if they will furnish us with the facts, to prepare a list for the information of the churches in that Province.

will be to write immediately after reading this. The more facts of interest communicated concerning the churches the better.

THE BROOKLYN REVIVAL. A WORD TO CHRISTIANS.

leadership of Messrs. Moody and Sankey, is moy. church and officers in the same, whose weekly paing on well and strongly, and the workers and all pers are of the class that sneer at religion and Christians are greatly encouraged. The reception good men, and ridicule the churches. The result lyn was even warmer and more enthusiastic than the most sanguine had expected, and from the very first meeting the presence of the Lord has a family like a good religious paper. No wise pamanifestly been with the movement. In all the services since there has been a deepening interest. Christians are moved to seek full consecration, and are praying and labouring for the salvation of thoughtful, being deeply impressed with the importance of seeking salvation, which is by the blood of the Lamb. The services conducted by Moody and Sankey are not the only ones in progress. In other parts of the city, and in New York, meetings are held every day, led by ministers of various denominations, the attendance at them being large, and the signs of blessing most encouraging. Even in a Roman Catholic Church "a mission" (which corresponds to Protestant reviva' work) is being carried on. It is most cheering that so many different denominations have gone to work, and are either of souls.

many good people seeing, with thankful hearts, that they will be successful the third time. the great work which the Lord is doing by His servants, Moody and Sankey, may allow themselves few places, a dozen or so at most, can expect to have their presence and labours. Are the places unvisited by them in the United States, and the whole of Canada, to be without refreshing revivals?

"What is to be the fate of the millions of men, women and children who are to be debarred by the iron law of circumstances from listening to the earnest, persuasive sermons of Moody, and the even | men of his native town. more earnest songs of Sankey ? Are these towns, cities and villages to remain all unblest by the saving grace of God ? Are these churches to droop beed the warning ? and languish, untouched by the reviving power of the Holy Ghost ? Are these millions to be passed are interested in our welfare. Last evening was appoint the Chief of Police, and to the Common one of them had the full complement of hours.

New Brunswick are included in the above request. quests for special prayer was one from Halifax, N. combined action might be taken to check the the pleasure of calling "the reckoning" for those S. We all received such a rich blessing while enormous evils referred to. pleading with God for an outpouring of his Holy Spirit upon that field of labor, as well as upon

We hope to hear from all in both Provinces kind of work to do for the cause of Christ. The page, and their assistance in securing new sub. within ten days from now. The right thing to do | daily consideration of such requests as well as the scribers is earnestly solicited. How many of the weekly exercise, will have a great influence to ministers have brought the matter to the attention make us humble and develop in our hearts more of their congregations? Will those who have not, Percé, so called from the pierced rock in front of tion and the love of souls."

- FAMILY PAPERS .- An exchange speaks well and truly when it says :- " It makes a great difference what kind of papers are taken in a family The work recently begun in Brooklyn under the We know of several fathers, members of the given the evangelists by the Christians of Brook- is seen in the skepticism and generally loose moral conduct of their children. Alas, that there should be so many of such cases. There is no teacher in whole of it. As a natural result half the time was rents will fail to have such a paper.'

- Y. M. C. Associations .- Six times the Y. M. C. Associations of the world have met in International Conference, viz, in Paris in 1855 and 1867, sinners ; while the unconverted are made seriously in Geneva in 1858, in London in 1862, in Elberfield in 1865, and in Amsterdam in 1872. The seventh has recently closed its three days' meetings in Hamourg, Germany. England and Scotland sent forty epresentatives, America and Holland each three. France two, and Switzerland and Belgium each one. The second Sunday in November was set quiet at any time, except when all were asleep at bec. The buildings were, and are now, in course apart as a day of prayer for young men. The Associations number in the whole world about a uarter of a million of members. Germany has 9,000 members, Holland 4,800, France 1,100, Scotand 7,000, and Ireland 35 associations.

reason to expect the conversion of a large number | tempted, but the priests have prevented it. The | their tailoring, if nothing else, gave evidence of During the summer, " Dan's" is a favorite resort Institut Canadien members have chosen the anni- superior training. The others, like myself, had for sportsmen generally, but particularly for the

Now a word of caution. It is just possible that versary of his death as a fitting time, believing come singly; some for fishing, shooting and sport- disciples of Izaak Walton; and it certainly pre-and villages, which they cannot visit ? Only a very to Rev. Mr. Hatfield, pastor of the Methodist Two of them kept dogs, and lavished thereon con- and the earth was bathing in the beauteous sunlivered to young men :

"The way of transgressors is hard," was the text, and " Tell young men that strong drink and be disposed to gain the dogs' place, in their affec- giant hills; upon its bosom nestled here and there bad company have brought me here."

The Church was crowded to listen to the sermon, giving at least their post-office addresses and the writing to the Star says : "Our seasons are His Honor thanked the jury for their action in to me then as though a decade was squeezed into plan of labour they propose to follow during the glorious. The Saviour never fails to meet in the matter, and promised to transmit copies of it. I admit now, that was imaginary; certain it is, answer to the many prayers of our brethren who their suggestions to the Local Government who however, there were at least seven days, and every

The Nova Scotia brethren as well as those of an occasion of unusual interest. Among our re- Council who pay the force; and he hoped some Every beginning hath its ending, and at last I had -The attention of the friends of the Intelligenaccommodations being more particularly striking ourselves, that we really want more of that same cer is redirected to the announcement on the third in the bill. But Homeward bound, the first village passed completely an abiding interest in our denomina- do so next Sunday? Brethren, we want your symit. The rock is about 500 ft. long, and 300 ft. high, and is covered, during the summer months, pathy and assistance

> For the Religious Intelligencer. A MIDSUMMER VACATION.

BY QUEERFELLOW. No. II. I was a week in Gaspé. During that week it Restigouche, and is the third port of our Province.

not a half dozen hours clear sunshine during the the following inscription :-spent in doors. The hotel was a kind of tempo-rary arrangement, the major part of it being closed who settled at Daihousie, and along with many benevo-lent actions, built St. John's Presbyterian Church, for in winter. The walls and ceilings were all single gratitude. and made of boards, not an inch of plastering Remaining at Dalhousie a day, and enjoying tic properties were of a high order. If, at one weather-beaten "Old Woman," that, sentinel-like, end of the house a jack-knife fell, the echo rever- stands at the entrance to the harbour, we took berated through the whole of it, and to my excited stage at five o'clock on Saturday morning, and nerves it seemed as though it gathered intensity after a three hours' comfortable, and really pleaovercrowded with people, couldn't be particularly first station of the Intercolonial, after leaving Que-once; a thing which did not often occur. The of erection, and judging from their then condition, but sincerely, and cultivated no mutual acquaint- when finished. Not being favorably impressed ance. The latter were all one party, and were with the hotel arrangements of the place, the same

-ANOTHER.-A young man nineteen years of "far from the madding crowd." Among the fe- thorp" for a companion, we gained the summit of to think that not much, if any, revival can be had age, who was sentenced to the Sing Sing State males there was a preponderance of old maids, one of the highest bills; beneath us lay a picture, except in connection with their labours. Is this Prison at the Court recently held in White, N. Y. that having run the gauntlet at fashionable water- than which Nature seldom paints a prettier. It so ? If so, what is to become of the cities, towns for a crime committed in that town, gave a text ing places were trying Gaspe by way of adventure. seemed as though Time itself had fallen asleep,

> Church in that place, and also a message to be de- siderable superfluous affection, perhaps thus en- shine. We could see the river, with its bright deavoring to impress, on single gentlemen, how glass-like surface, meandering for miles thro' the much more they would care for them should they narrow stretch of meadow that lay between the > > tions. Another one had cork-screw curls of a a canoe, guided by a couple of red men, while the somewhat doubtful color, and a complexion not sportsman, standing erect, would ever and anon and to this remarkable message from a young unlike an over-done mutton-chop; she delighted make the "cut," apparently getting no "rise," the in that négligé style of toilet, that requires more rod and line glistening in the meanwhile like the Who of the young men that are treading in fixing than any other, the principal points of flash of a diamond. While here upon the moundangerous ways, that may chance to read this will which may be summed up about as follows,-hair tain, we began musing about strange things ; about | flowing and dishevelled, clothes half-off, and per- life, death, fate, friendship, love, and the trifles, haps a trifle more, one shoe-string and a stay-lace that weave themselves into our being and shape - A TEMPERANCE MEETING .- The Yarmouth fluttering loosely to the breezes, "Long fellah" our destiny. We thought, too, of man, with his

by as beyond the reach of the redeeming hand of Herald has a report of a mass Temperance Meeting or Moliere in her hand, and that all-overish gener- pigmy body, and his ennobling mind and soul. held in that town last week. It was convened by ally dilapidated aspect that is quite in keeping with Man the artificer; man that builds railways and

If the Lord helps me I will preach three times each Sabbath, and also once or twice during each week and applies an old saw after this fashion : You for the coming year. My field is large and com- must know the two essential qualifications for Baptist families reside right there. Bro. Gilbert business of the brethren to see that he has plenty Perry lives there, and is a good spoke in the wheel. of poverty. I am very hopeful of good being done on the It is reported that a professor of music at Trieste, circuit this year, and do feel like giving myself to M. Rota, has succeeded in teaching a number of the work heartily. The people are beginning to deaf mutes to sing. A public exhibition in Paris look up, and seem to feel that it is high time to was given by these deaf mutes, at which they not only sang in perfect time, but preserved the pitch, awake out of sleep. Oh, for true, living taith. I shall do all I can for the INTELLIGENCER. I which was conveyed to them by the teacher in could do considerable if times were not so hard. some mysterious way. But I heard a good brother say the other day to his It is intimated that the principal manager of the son-"Samuel, don't be mean in religious things, Londonderry Iron Mines has prohipited the sale of with a vast number of sea-fowl. The other prin- | however it may be in other matters,"-and he liquors on the Company's grounds. Let this ruling wasn't. God bless him. So we must not be mean be sustained. If the reckless classes are ignorant New Carlisle, and Carleton. Passing these, we in our denominational organ business anyway.

My address for the present year is Anagance, citizens to restrain and teach them. steam into Dalhousie. This is a picturesque little Yours, etc., King's Co. town, situated at the foot of a range of hills, at Anagance, Oct. 80, 1875. S. H. WEYMAN, the head of Bay Chaleur, and at the mouth of the NORTON .- The revival continues to spread at | away, apparently satisfied, but a day or two after, rained consecutively for three days, and the re- At the top of the bill is a monument, erected to Norton. On Saturday last fifteen others were bap- the bridegroom returned and said he had come to naining time was cloudy and foggy. There were the memory of Capt. John Hamilton, and bearing tized, and on Monday a church was organized of pay more, as the woman had turned out much betthirty-seven nembers. Several others are coming | ter than he expected. "In memory of Capt. John Hamilton, a native of Kingscross, Arran, Scotland. He was the first Merchant will scon units with the aburat. The congregation which his friends and countrymen here thus record their being visible anywhere. Consequently the acous- among other pleasures, a satisfactory view of the ' first-class accommodations," with which every country hotel is replete, the first-class part of said cipal villages on the Quebec coast are Pasbebiac, " Farewell Gaspé, and if forever, Then forever, fare thee weil."

- There has been a revival in Moonta, Australia. In six weeks not less than 260 persons pro fessed to be converted, and it is believed the reand volume on the way. Such an establishment, sant drive, arrived at Campbelltown. Here is the sults will be permanently beneficial.

land, have agreed to unite in a series of meetings public worship. English and French hated each other decen'ly, they cannot but present an imposing appearance during the present fall. The Rev. A. B. Earle The Indian rubber gatherers in the Isthmus will have charge of the meetings.

"doing" the Quebec coast. The English were afternoon we again became a passenger by stage, - A LARGE PRAYER MEETING .- Last Sunday eterogeneous, and had met each other at Gaspe for the Matapediac, and pulled up at "Dan Fra- evening, at the Brooklyn Tabernacle, the pastor, - THAT BURIAL -On the 18th of this month it for the first time. Among them, were two groups; zer's," about sunset. The scenery along the Mata- Mr. Talmage, announced a half-hour prayer-meetholding or preparing to hold special religious ser- will be six years since Guibord died. It is now one of three, the other of five. The five, were a pediac River is chaming. The hotel is situated ing after the sermon. Some twenty-five hundred vices. The Spirit of the Lord is at work amongst said that on that day what remains of him will party of ladies and gentlemen from Toronto; the in the midst of encircling hills, and a very fine remained, and a large number rose for prayer. the people, saints and sinners, and there is every be buried. Twice already the burial has been at- three, were students of an American College, and salmon-pool is just a few rods from the door. The meeting developed a deep religious interest. ing generally, others for change of air and sce- sents many attractions. We remained here four nery;-but I was the only one that came to be days. One beautiful afternoon, taking "Dreamby Rev. W. A. Corey.

THINGS IN SHORT METRE.

About 5,0000,000 copies of newspapers wer taken in Japan last year.

A snake has been caught in Ireland-the first recorded since St. Patrick's time. Sixty-four young ladies have just taken the veil at the Notre Dame convent in Milwaukee, Wis.

A correspondent of the Religious Herald endorse Black Prince and the Gray," and in " Tom's Opinion," the English serial, which is concluded in this number. The interesting Japanese Papers are also pact. There has never been preaching by our a Baptist preacher are poverty and grace. It is the concluded. The serial, "Young Rick," by Miss people at Lower Ridge, although four or five Free Lord's work to supply the grace, while it is the Eastman, is a taithful transcript of child-life, it has the wit and brightness we expect from the author of "Striking for the Right," a $1000 prize story

There are other articles, by Mrs. E. Carter, (Elsie Gorham), Dr. Tourjee, Geo. Macdonald, Auntie Kinnie, Salome Adam Stwin, Mrs. Edgmonds, Mrs. E. S. Forman, and charming poems by Mary E Bradley, Clara Doty Bates, Margaret Egtinge, &c., together with one, a dainty conceit, "Why the Roses Fade," by the editor, whose departu 'The Magic Carpet," is as entertaining as a story. Only $2.00 per annum. D. Lothrop & Co., Boston Scribner for November is a first class number, There is no monthly of its class superior to it. See prospectus for 1876 in another column. The Sanitarian for November has the usual variety of very interesting and most instructive of their sin and folly, it is the duty of good papers. Preventible Sickness, Boys and their Mothers, Ventilation for Health, Infant Diet, Home A Westerly, R. I., clergyman married a couple for the People, Vital Statistics, &c., &c., are the other night, received his fee, and sent them amongst its contents.... Having incorporated the Medico Legal Journal and its objects, the Sanitarian now appears under new auspicies and with increased facilities. Address, P. O. Box 1954, New York.

The New Dominion Monthly is always interesting. but the November number is rather beyond the continues very large, and the interest is wide- through St. Louis, and have gone to Southwestern average It has an illustration, a portrait of Missouri, with a view of making that their future | Captain Webb the famous swimmer

The News and the Press

ST. JOHN, N. B., NOVEMBER 5, 1875.

NEW BRUNSWICK .- The Advance says :- The rails for the Chatham Branch are now at Moncton completing arrangements for laying them. The station building; for which tenders are soon to be asked, is to be located on an extension of the street leading by the residence of Jas. T. Griffin, Esq. A locomotive and tender and the necessary passenger and other cars are to be purchased for cash from the Dominion Government, and if all goes well, Chatham will have railway communication with the rest of the world before the cold converted at one of the meetings of Messrs. Moody on Wednesday night last, from Mr. Timothy Desland Bay, Q. C., by Rev. Mr. We'ton; one at the of that country, which bids fair to be the seed of er. Tatamagouche, was burned, destroying his whole summer's produce, two horses, cows, wagons, Sir Moses Montefimore, the Jewish philanthro- etc. It is believed to have been the work of an mitted by Engineer Buck, and it was resolved to send a delegation to represent the claims of the road before the Governments at Fredericton and Ottawa. The Advance learns that a few individuals have been obliged to assume rather more of The Messrs. D. Appleton & Co's. New American the expense of the survey than others equally interested should permit them to do, and hopes that Judge Beek superintends a Sabbath school in the with great favor, and the work was widely circu. many who have not yet contributed to this fund Iowa Penitentiary, and the best of results are al. lated in all parts of the United States, receiving will do so During the height of the storm, great favor and praise. Ten years passed, and great progress and discovery had been made in be about 15 feet in length, and of corresponding

Dartmouth college has among its Freshmen a Japanese, a Cherokee Indian, and a clergyman fifty which was commenced, and the first volume of Negro Point Breakwater. Notwithstanding the the new edition, under the title of the American weather, large numbers of people went down from A society for the propagation of Buddhism Cyclopedia, appeared in July, 1873, the edition to Carleton to see the new arrival, and speculate on This gigantic enterprise is worthy of special at. the cause of his death Joseph Neptune, of ention and study by all interested in the character | Carleton, died on Sunday morning, from the re-Some of the Jews in London are inquiring as to and progress of American Interature. The new sult of a wound in his head, caused by the accithe teaching of the Scriptures respecting Christ, edition of the Cyclopedia is in fact a new work ; dental discharging of a pistol several months ago. It is said that but little lumbering will be it are re-written, and all carefully revised. Much of the matter is entirely new, furnished by an ex- done on the North Shore this winter Burglars Scotland, mainly aiming to teach the lessons of perienced and able corps of contributors, embrac- took about $20 in scrip from the store of Isaac ing the ablest and best writers of the age on the McElroy, Esq., St. Stephen, one night recently The First Baptist Church of San Francisco has subjects of which they treat. No cost or labor The bonded warehouse of Messrs. Parker & Batbly desire or expect in such a publication. The amount of labor required in the preparation f this work is immense, exceeding that ever em. ployed on any other publication. In addition to found.... The Sackville Borderer is authority for its editors in chief-George Ripley and Charles A. the statement that a young man residing in the Dana-are four associate editors, thirty one re- Parish of Botsford in Westmorland County has one hundred thousand having been expended on seven times, owned one horse twice that day, and t before the issue of the first volume, and some cleared $30 by his speculations within the twenty-A number of ladies at Simla, India, are making fifteen hundred dollars per week are required for four hours. His name is Wilson, Fredericton A number of ladies at Simila, India, are making arrangements for the erection of a small house in the mountains for overworked or invalided Zenana teachers. His name is Wilson,..., Fredericton is troubled with burglars. The Farmer says that one night last week the house of Mr. Thomas Smith, on York street, was entered by some perma will suffer heavily. - It is reported that on Sabbath last the fol- and Sankey, returned to Norway and started a mond's barn on the Loch Lomond road On towing baptisms took place : Three at Cumber- Sunday-school, the first ever opened in the north Friday night, the barn of Alexander Brown, farm-lower Cumberland Bay, Q. C., by Rev. M. Spring- much permanent blessing.

ous to do him honor.

clopedia was begun in 1859, and completed in 1863, in sixteen volumes. This vast enterprise met will soon unite with the church. The congregation consisting in all about sixty persons, passed REVIVAL NOTES.

home. This is but the vanguard. Others are to follow as soon as their property in the old country can be disposed of.

The London Metropolitan Lay Mission numbers 600 volunteer workers. During the past year 84,-

- The Methodist, Presbyterian, Baptist, Con- services, 115,005 tracts and illustrated periodicals gregationalist and Evangelical Churches of Cleve- given away, and 1,540 persons induced to attend ready for delivery, and the company are about 971 visits were paid, 3,352 meetings held in halls (attended by 112,005 persons), with 150 open-air

A Waldensian colony of six or seven families Darien have been attacked by the Indians and routed, with a loss of fitty of their number and the dispersion of their whole camp. This is a death-blow to rubber gathering in Darien, and cuts off the Isthmus supply to the market. Pana-The Word and Work, says a young Norwegian, weather has far advanced A horse was stolen pist, who, at the age of 91, has left London for | incendiary. Andrew Hall has been arrested. The Jerusalem, to see what could be done to amehorate evidence is strong against him The whole surthe condition of the Jews in that city, is said to vey of the Miramichi Valley Railway has been have been received with the greatest enthusiasm. finished, costing $3,000. The Directors of the The streets were blocked up by a crowd of twenty Company held a meeting at Newcastle last week. thousand people as he left the synagogue, all anxi- Plans and profiles of the lines suryeyed were sub-

THE GREAT AMERICAN LITERARY EN-TERPRISES. By a United States Correspondent.

that recen keeper at ed, as 18 / while pass distance o longing to shore at P efficient u er, and w which he Sydney, C says :- Th bigamy, v trates, an at the ner magistrat are being despatch North Sy sent, it er : three at Willow Grove, St. John Co., by Rev. J. D. Pope, and nineteen at Belyea's Cove, Q. C.

[BY PEN AND SCISSORS.]

ready apparent.

the world's Saviour ?"

On this subject and answering these questions, the Watchrepp dade. Fort says !---

"No Christian man dares to say anything of all this, or even to think it. And yet it may be a question if we are not all coming to be more or less influenced by the unconscious thought of this. God has done marvellous things through these a fruitful source of crime, misery and pauperism. American evangelists. He has almost revolutionized a great kingdom by the power of their words. He has vitalized anew the religious life of a mighty nation, and saved a vast multitude to himself by the voices of these earnest preachers. It is not, in its train numberless evils, and occasionally perhaps, so strange a thing that Christian men great national and private loss, thereby demon and women in America, now that these men have returned to us, should be looking to them as the chosen avenues through which God is to ride in cordance with that of the Montreal Temperance upon the churches of our land, and the perishing Convention, viz., " Nothing short of the entire millions of our land, to revive and to save.

days of Peter's miraculous workings. As multi- and ruin caused by intemperance." tudes througed to him, that "at least the shadow

If Christian men are feeling thus even in an un- | says : The second way, they are committing a most would milling a milling a most would milling a most would milling a most would milling a most would milling a milling a milling a milling a milling a most would milling a milling a the "Yarmouth County Temperance Convention," BEAs there were present rangesentatives from all several gentlemen, and the following resolution was 'manimously passed :---

Whereas. The experience of society has alundantly shewn that the traffic in intoxicating 1 quors, and their use as a beverage, have ever been And Whereas, Notwithstanding all past efforts on the part of Temperance Reformers to restrict the sale of alcoholic stimulants and diminish their use, it is still painfully apparent that intemperance continues to exist to an alarming extent, bringing strating the necessity of increased zeal on the part of temperance men, and further legislation. Therefore, The opinion of this meeting is in acprohibition of the manufacture, importation and sale of intoxicating liquors will meet the demands It is with us as it was with men in the early of society and effectually check the demoralization of Peter passing by might overshadow some of -A "LIVE DEACON."-In an English paper a did not make me feel like returning thanks. It not so ill with you and me as they might have them," so from unnumbered towns and cities go deacon writes concerning the insufficient support may not be amiss to state for the benefit of all been, is half owing to the number who lived faithtorth commissioned embassies or silent wishes that given ministers. He is a Baptist deacon and amateurs, that it would be well not to take the fully a hidden life, and rest in unvisited tombs. at least a single week or a day of these modern "speaks out in meeting" in a very common-sense Rev. gentleman's remark too literally, lest they evangelists may be given to the salvation of their and Christian way. Referring to the frequent ap- might return their dinner, instead of thanks.

conscious way, they are committing a most woful "It seems as if a man must die before he can house, it did secure me the entree to the homes of time ago. Further instructions have been given. for the Centennial.

the rest of her. Thus much for the humanity that steamships, that tunnels mountains, and tames the au met at Gaspe during the summer of 'To. Every lightning; man the glory of creation,-made in man and woman is a born mystery to every other; the image of God. Musing thus, the idea came to and buttoning myself close in the cloak of my own us that here on the mountain top, with nature's individuality, I leave the mysteries among whom I panorama spread to the view, with the river genwas, yet of whom I was not, to spin the thread of thy flowing on to the sea, to lose itself in the broad their existence in the way that seemeth good unto bosom of the ocent we could not do better than them, and turning self-wards shall pursue my own take leave of all that had followed, whither we peculiar course in my own peculiar manner, till I were; which we accordingly do. It matters nohear the rippling of the waters upon the farther thing how we returned, but another week found entire consecration and perfect trust.

us back again, treading our accustomed paths, the blue Pyrenees, where "A cigar, a French novel, a tedious flirtation, Are all a man finds for his day's occupation."

tion Greek aorists and the Rule of Three. English novelists (Dickens)-but I demand quiet, hear some of you say, and with little chance for crees are probably contemplated. as the condition of enjoyment of the luxury; either fame, or a fortune. True :- but I am ambihence it could not be read. Remembering Spur- tious for neither the one, nor the other; and I geon's famed remark, that " a cigar is a thing to conclude by telling you, in the words of another, thank God for," I tried one by way of varying the that the growing good of the world is partly demonotony, but not being a devotee of the weed, it pendent on unhistoric acts; and that things are peals made on behalt of ministers' families, he There remained the flirtation. Now, if any letter We cannot depart from our rule in any case ... To CORRESPONDENTS .- Will W. C. send name? of introduction did not secure me a boarding. Joseph Smith : Change of address ordered some throughout the world, is reported as having been | consist of sixteen volumes. established in China.

and some have embraced the truth. most of the articles of the old edition retained in

George Muller has recently been preaching

I read one time of a place, away in the heart of performing our wonted duties; back again to the been sold to the Chinese for $30,000. The purchasquite little country town, where the Fates have ers intend to spend $70,000 in changing it into a ledge in every department of life he could reason- night, recently, and one hundred and fifty cases placed us, to teach the men of the Young Generaably desire or expect in such a publication. business block.

The Pope proposes to call the Œcumenical Coun- of this work is immense, exceeding that ever em-I had an English novel, by my beau ideal of A monotonous, and a hidden life, methinks I cil together again in 1876. More infallible of > The Methodist ministers and laymen of London visers, and about one hundred persons employed as contributors. The expense of the work exceeds wapped horses one hundred and ten times within bearers of the metropolis, to seek a fuller personal that of any other American literary enterprise- the past six months. One day he swapped horses consecration to God.

Daniel Slater started the first Sunday school in value of the work. The sixteen volumes consti-America at Pawtucket, R. I., Sept 15, 1779, and as use an extensive library of the most varied and gained access to the room of Mrs. John Atherton America at Pawtucket, R. I., Sept 15, 1779, and as the building is still standing, it is to be braced up for the Centennial. America at Pawtucket, R. I., Sept 15, 1779, and as the building is still standing, it is to be braced up for the Centennial. State an extended of the internet of the interne and effort. Fourteen volumes of the Annual have made good their escape. It would be well for our