"HE HATH PREPARED FOR THEM A CITY."

Brief life is here our portion; Brief sorrow, short-lived care; The life that knows no ending, The tearless life is There, O happy retribution! Short toil, eternal rest; For mortals and for sinners A mansion with the blest! And now we fight the battle, But then shall wear the crown Of full and everlasting Aud passionless renown: And now we watch the struggle, And now we live in hope, And Zion in her anguish,

With Babylon must cope; But he whom now we trust in Shall then be seen and known, And they that know and see him Shall have him for their own. Yes! God, my King and Portion, In fullness of his grace, We then shall see forever, And worship face to face.

"Rather a heavy burden, isn't it my boy?" addressed, turned from the ledger, and looked towards the speaker. Clarence was a young mannot more than five and twenty-and he was bookkeeper to Mr. Solomon Wardle. It was Solomon Wardle, a pleasant-faced, keen eyed man of fifty, who had spoken.

"Ah, Clarence !" "I certainly do not."

Clarence nodded assent. "And didn't I see and hear enough to reveal to me the burden that you took with you when you left? You must remember, my boy, that I am oldmill. You find your burden heavy; and I have no ling, we will be happy." doubt that Sarah's heart is as heavy laden as your

Mr. Wardle, it is a heavy burden." "My boy, I am going to venture upon a bit of fatherly counsel. I hope I shall not offend." "Not at all," said Clarence. He winced a little as though the probing gave him new pain. "In the first place," pursued the old man, with a quiver of emotion in his voice, "you love your wife ?"

"Love her? Yes, passionately." "And do you think she loves you in return?" "I don't think anything about it-I know!" "You know she loves you?"

"Yes." "Then you must admit that the trouble of this morning came from no ill-feeling at heart?"

" Of course not." "It was a surface squall, for which you, at least, A moment's hesitation, and then-" Yes, yes; I,

" I cannot doubt it." "And don't you think she is suffering all this time ?" "Yes."

"Very well. Let that pass. You know she is bearing her part of the burden?" "Yes-I know that."

"And now, my boy, do you comprehend where the heaviest part of this burden is lodged?" Clarence looked upon his interlocutor wonder-

"If the storm had all blown, and you knew that the sun would shine when you next entered your home, you would not feel so unhappy." Clarence assented.

"But," continued Mr. Wardle, "you fear that there will be gloom in your home when you return ! The young man bowed his head as he murmured an affirmative. "Because the merchant added, with a touch of parental sternness in his tone, "you are resolved to carry it there !" Clarence looked up in surprise.

"I-I carry it! "Aye-you have the burden in your heart, and you mean to carry it home. Remember, my boy, I have been there, and I know all about it. I have been very foolish in my lifetime, and I have suffered. I suffered until I discovered my folly, and then I resolved that I would suffer no more. Upon looking the matter squarely and honestly in the face, I found that the burdens which had so galled me had been self-imposed. Of course such burdens can be thrown off. Now you have resolved that you will go home to your dinner with a heavy heart and a dark face. You have no hope that your wife will meet you with a smile. And why? Because you know that she has no particular cause for smiling. You know that her heart is burdened with the affliction which gives you so much unrest. And so you are fully assured that you are to find your home shrouded in gloom. And, furthermore, you don't know when that gloom will depart, and when the blessed sunshine of love will burst in again. And why don't you know? Because it is not now in your heart to sweep the

So your hope of sunshine does not rest upon the willingness to forgive, but upon the inability to bear the burden. By-and-by it will happen, as it has happened before, that one of the twain will surrender from exhaustion, and it will be likely to be the weaker party. Then there will be a collapse

MISCHIEF-MAKERS.

O, could there in this world be found Some little spot of happy ground, Without the village tattling, How doubly blest that spot would be-Where all might dwell in liberty, Free from the bitter misery

Of gossip's endless prattling. If such a spot were really known, Dame Peace might call it all her own, And in it she might fix her throne Forever and forever.

There like a queen might reign and live, While every one would soon forgive The little slights they might receive, And be offended never.

'Tis mischief-makers that remove Far from our hearts that warmth of love And lead us to disapprove What gives another pleasure,

They seem to take one's heart-but when They've heard our cares, unkindly then They soon retail them out again, Mix'd with some poisonous measures.

And then they've such a cunning way Of telling ill-meant tales: they say, "Don't mention it, I pray I would not tell another." Straight to your neighbors then they go, Narrating every thing they know. And break the peace of high and low, Wife, husband, friend, and brother.

O, that the mischief-making crew Were all reduced to one or two, And they were painted red or blue, That every one might know them! Then would our villagers forget To rage and quarrel, fume and fret, And tall into an angry pet,

With things so much below them. For 'tis a sad, degrading part To make another's bosom smart, And plant a dagger in his heart We ought to love and cherish. Then let us evermore be found In quietness with all around, While friendship, joy, and peace, abound, ard preparation, as has been proved by the hundreds of testimonials received by the proprietors. It is acknowledged by many prominent physicians to be the most reliable preparation ever introduced for the relief and cure of all Lung complaints, and is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of over forty years. When resorted to in season it seldom fails to effect a speedy cure in the most severe cases of Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Asthma, Colds, Sore Throat, Pains or Soreness in the Chest and Side, Liver Complaint, Bleeding at the Langs, &c. Wistar's Balsam does not dry up a Cough, and leave the cause behind, as is the case with most preparations bus it loosens and cleanses the lungs, and allays irritation, thus removing the cause of the complaint.

other countries, has CHERRY PECTORAL will and does relieve and cure the afflicting disorders of the Throat and Lungs beyond any other medicine. The mos langerous affections of the Pulmonary Organs y known, so remarkable as hardly to be beed, were they not proven beyond dispute As a remedy it is adequate, on which the public may rely for full protection. By curing Coughs, innumbered lives, and an amount of suffering not to be computed. It challenges trial, and convinces the most sceptical. Every family should keep it on hand as a protection against the earl nd unperceived attack of Pulmonary Affections which are easily met at first, but which become incurable, and too often fatal, if neglected. Ten der lungs need this defence; and it is unwise to be without it. As a safeguard to children, amid the distressing diseases which beset the Throat

Ask for Englishman's Congh Mixture, put up by and Chest of Childhood, CHERRY PECTORAL invaluable; for, by its timely use, multititudes are rescued from premature graves, and aved to the love and affection centred on them It acts speedily and surely against ordinary colds, securing sound and health-restoring sleep. No one will suffer troublesome Influenza and painful Bronchitis, when they know how easily they can be cured. Originally the product of long, laborious, and successful chemical investigation, no cost or toil is spared in making every bottle in the utmost possible perfection. It may be confidently re-lied upon as possessing all the virtues it has ever memorable as the greatest it has ever effected.

CARLETON AIR-TIGHT COOKING STOVES. Patentee and Sole Manufacturer of HULBERT'S BLACKSMITH WORK executed promptly, on liberal WATCHMAKING IN SWITZERLAND, [From the Swiss Times of May 30th.] W E have already drawn attention to the annual meeting of the Society of Arts, held on the 23rd current, under the presidentship of M. Th. de Saussure, and are now able to furnish some further details.

Professor Soret, in delivering a most interesting report, passed in review the operations of the Industrial section, in reference to Commerce, laying great stress upon the competition that has taken piece in the manufacture of chronometers. This competition was instituted with the object of testing the work-marchin and precision. object of testing the workmanship and precision of chro nometers turned out by Genevese manufacturers, and none but those adopted for pocket use were admitted. They were deposited in charge of the authorities at the Observatory, and underwent the most searching ordeal possible to be applied to pocket instruments of this class. The jury specially retained to decide the difficult question as to whom to award the palm of excellence unanimously de cided in favor of Messrs. J. M. Badollet & Co. This firm nometer which fulfilled in the highest degree every conlition required, crowned their first success by gaining onorable mention for two other chronometers.
