FASTING AND PRAYER.—Ministers and Church will not forget that next Monday is the day recommended by Conference, to be devoted to fasting and prayer. There should be general observance of the day.

We would like to have a report from every church observing it. A report can be sent on a Postal Card or every brief note.

The Telegraph's Ponobusque correspondent says, that last Sunday Rev. C. T. Phillips preached a stirring discourse on Sunday, enforcing the duty of giving to Church and charitable objects, from the text, "Rendezer unto Caesar," &c.

The Managers of the Halifax Inebriate Asylum make a special effort to keep the institution alive. It is doing a good work, and should receive hearty support.

It is said that the astronomer of the Royal Observatory of Scotland predicts a very cold winter for Great Britain, and presumably for this part of the world as well. He has studied waves of heat and cold for a period of over 30 years, and finds that the next cold wave is due at the end of the present year, when very frigid weather may be looked for.

The result of the labors of a small band of Christian workers at the Central Prison, Toronto, twenty-six inmates of that institution were confirmed by Bishop Bethune.
