SETH S. HANCE,—Dear Sir:—The Epsheptic Pills that I received from you last September bave accomplished all that you recommended them to do. My son is hearty, stout, and robust; he is as hearty as any child in Kansas—indeed he is in the manner a new boy, being red and rosy. Before he commenced taking your Pills he was a very pale and delicate looking child, and had Epsheptic Fits for about four years, and seeing your Pills advertised in the Christian Instructor, I sent to you and got two boxes of them, and he has not had a fit since he commenced taking them; he has been exposed to all changes of weather in going to school and on the farm, and he has not had a Fit nor a sympton of one since he commenced taking your Pills. He learns well at school, and his mind is clear and quick. I feel that you are not sufficiently paid for the service and benefit you have been to us in restoring our child to health. I will cheerfully recommend your Pills to every one I hear of that is afflicted with Epshepsy. Please send me some of your circulars, so that I can send them to any that I hear of that is afflicted in that way.

THE ILLUSTRATED LIBRARY OF POETRY AND SONG! EDITED BY DR. J. G. HOLLAND, Author of "Katherina," Bitter Sweet," etc. PAVORITE SONG is a royal octave volume of over 700 pages, printed in the best style of the art, on the finest tinted paper, and illustrated with 125 thoroughly dainty and delicate engravings, from Original Designs by the most eminent artists, together with fac similes of the original autograph copies of (20) famous poems.

The illustrations are numerous and exquisitely wrought.
What can be more beautiful than the one which reflects the enchanting spot where-"Maud Muller, on a summer's day, Raked the meadows sweet with hay;" One of those lovely New England landscapes, which the engraver has represented in outlines as beautiful and artistic as the song it adorns, Conspicuous, also, for its rare beauty, is the illustration accompanying the "Song of the Brook," where the streamlet, dashing beneath the rustic bridge, goes chat-

"Over stony way In little sharps and trebles." "Till last by Philip's farm it flows, Altogether, this is one of the most charming and elegant books ever issued by the American press—a fitting gift for lover or friend; an attractive ornament for the parlor; a valuable addition to any family library.
