Co.

UITABLE

ARLORS

AND

ANS.

HURCHES

ORGANS

nd price lists and PIANOS of our Instrust two years.

very liberal iends and the m and endea-ion to all our

RY & CO.

OY'S

PPORTER
EVERY YEAR, IFORT, and the BEST made. For and retailers, afringements

MON, even Conn.

RLY,

y of l'ells

jan1-1y

ILLUSTRATED NIVERSAL

, for so much

Book-New & BRO., et. Montreal

VESS.

ers solicited.

FOR

[EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

VOL. XXV.-No. 50.

SAINT JOHN, N. B., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1878.

WHOLE No. 1298.

NEW FALL GOODS LOGAN'S.

Wool Shawls, BLACK CASHMERES.

Black French Merinoes, in this way, Amy. You will be ill." COLORED CASHMERES.

COLORED FRENCH MERINOES. SILK VELVETS,

VELVETEENS.

FANCY DRESS GOODS

DRESS TWEEDS, WINCEYS.

MANTLE CLOTHS.

TURKEY RED TABLE DAMASK. TABLE COVERS, BLANKETS,

> FLANNELS. SWANSDOWNS.

PRINTS.

GREY COTTONS;

GLOVES and HOSIERY.

BREAKFAST SHAWLS, SONTAGS, &c.

WHITE COTTONS,

mer NEW GOODS arriving every week.

THOMAS LOGAN, (OPPOSITE NORMAL SCHOOL.

Fredericton, Sept. 28, 1878.

Fall and Winter

Now in stock and arriving, a very extensive as-

EXTRA GOOD VALUE THIS SEASON, THE

LACES, WINGS, ORNA. MENTS, &c.

Dress Goods

IN GREAT VARIETY. Cashmeres, French Merinoes, Repp Cords, Arabian Suitings, &c. Ulster Cloths

AND .ULSTERS.

Moscows, Pilots, Oxfords, and other Clothe. CANADIAN AND ENGLISH .

LANNELS

Heavy Woollens of every description. whom I am interested."

Table Linens, Towellings, Hessians, Damasks, Repp

tle Trimmings, Fringes. INSPECTION SOLICITED AT WILMOT'S BUILD. her dainty charms.

ING, QUEEN STREET, P. McPeake.

The Intelligencer.

BY EDITH BRIGGS.

room and stood now by her daughter's side, Mrs. Deane thought her guest had been seized "I was thinking," she went on, "of Amy temptations are no more to molest them. But watching dainty touches that were completing a with a "stitch in her side," and was relieved to make the stitch only a mental one by the instant of the stitch only a mental one by the stitch only a mental one by the instant of the stitch only a mental one by the instant of the stitch only a mental one by the instant of the stitch only a mental one by t perhaps I ought to go to some city with my I wanted to ask her to our picnic. I thought doeth, that thine alms may be in secret'; and tion afforded an opportunity for a brighter work, and dispose of it there for better prices. the change of a bright afternoon would do her when in his example he attached to his most evidence of his soul's complete rest in Jesus. I was thinking of those candlesticks that Mrs. good. But I don't know the Maltes very well; startling gifts 'Go and tell no man.' Perhaps than she gave. I told her so. I repeated what She knows them intimately. Indeed I imagine he took part with something worthily sensitive for the enemy. "All are yours;" for even the I had heard my teacher say of the value of such she is very good and helpful to them. She did that he would not be willing to have wounded." things. But Mrs. Deane could not give more, not say how much she has done for them. She And here Mrs. Rogers put her arm gently so I sold them. And now I am afraid I feel was delicate about it. But I could draw from around Mr. Deane and leaned her head confidirritated about it. So much time and toil for her intimations that they are special objects of ingly against that little lady's shoulder." such a trifling sum! It seems like a sacrifice." her care and liberality." She had a sad, indignant thought that she did Mrs. Multon continued, confidentially. "She that we all involuntarily use in prayer—"it foe will no longer attack at the old points.

ater to-night, to make up time."

ornaments of the mantlepieco.

"Why, Edward, those are the candles Cousin | tell me, what do you think? Caroline painted for me, and I hadn't a candle-stick in the house to put them in. So when I lips were set, her eyes had dimmed with some has become the head of the corner, and upon this and fade. And when one dies, how anxious we foundation we see vising the temple of the world's are to do him homeon. We speak of his phantly-"I bought these of Amy Malte for "I will," said gentle-hearted Mrs. Multon, call them.

An immense Stock of Presidents, Meltons, Matelases eyes had been regarding admiringly. "The want very much to say to you." design is exquisite. Are these, too, the work Mrs. Deane made no reply.

ears than those of Mrs. Rogers became alert she was forced to endure?"

A lot of Ladies' Ulsters very cheap. Dress and Mannot yet seen her; and the brother because he straitened circumstances, and has taken the posihad seen her, and had been secretly smitten by tion of housekeeper in the house of a distant her dainty charms.

"And who is Amy Malte?" asked Mr. Rodgers. "Not, surely, the daughter of Auguste Malte, the distinguished author of B.?"

"Yes. The Maltes are old residents here.

"And who is Amy Malte?" asked Mr. An object of Auguste Malte, the distinguished author of B.?"

"The payment of small bills—newspaper subscriptions, for instance—makes the payment of large bills possible.

"The payment of small bills—newspaper subscriptions, for instance—makes the payment of large bills possible.

"For the Son of man has come to seek and yet they tell us of our need of Jesus, her living she does. It would take the diplomate the complications and the tempers of that family and quickly connection But if ever a woman fairly earned the living she does. It would take the diplomate the complications and the tempers of that family and quickly connection But if ever a woman fairly earned the living she does. It would take the diplomate the complications and the tempers of that family and quickly connection But if ever a woman fairly earned the living she does. It would take the diplomate the complications and the tempers of that family and quickly connection But if ever a woman fairly earned the living she does. It would take the diplomate the complete the complications and the tempers of that family and quickly connection But if ever a woman fairly earned the learnt, and yet they tell us of our need of Jesus, and His love and work for us. This is the and His love and work for us. This is the and His love and work for us.

"For the Son of man has come to seek and yet they tell us of our need of Jesus, and His love and work for us."

"The payment of small bills—newspaper subscriptions, and His love and work for us."

"The payment of small bills—newspaper subscriptions, and His love and work for us."

"The payment of small plants are subscriptions, and His love and work for us."

"The payment of small plants are subscriptions, and His love and work for us."

"The payment of small plants are subscriptions, and His love and w

"Yes. The Maltes are old residents here. And Mrs. Marlborough does it. "An object of You have probably not seen them because they said so."

Scotch Tweeds, Superfine Search, Superfine or not live at all. Auguste Malte died and left the tempest rage florribly; it matters not, if the less; growing into childhood and knowing how or, in other words, if he had continued faithless or unbelieving. Indeed to the evidence, or, in other words, if he had continued faithless. Chothing is stift con's Building. A full on heard.

To magnete state died and left to such a woman a representation made to strangers that she was an incumbent upon
the magnificence, the grandeur of this promise; growing into childhood and knowing how to strangers that she was an incumbent upon
the magnificence, the grandeur of this promise;
growing up into noble manhood, and making
growing up into noble manhood, and making
the magnificence, the grandeur of this promise;
growing up into noble manhood, and making
the magnificence, the grandeur of this promise;
growing up into noble manhood, and making
the magnificence and the unnecessary exposure and continued faithless
to strangers that she was an incumbent upon
the magnificence, the grandeur of this promise;
growing up into noble manhood, and making
the magnificence and the unnecessary exposure and continued faithless
the magnificence and the unnecessary exposure and continued faithless
the magnificence and the unnecessary exposure and continued faithless
the magnificence and the unnecessary exposure and continued faithless
the magnificence and the unnecessary exposure and continued faithless
the magnificence and the unnecessary exposure and continued faithless the magnificence and the unnecessary exposure and continued faithless to strangers that she was an incumbent upon the magnificence and the unnecessary exposure and continued faithless to strangers that the magnificence are all kind. We all [with a sigh] try to the magnificence and the unnecessary exposure and mother, who a moment ago had entered the with such an unmistakable cry of pain that fell of agitation.

ONE WAY TO DO A CHARITY.

was in New York I inquired the price of those sad emotion. She answered very pleasantly : foundation we see rising the temple of the world's are to do him homage! We speak of his "Inquired the price of them?" interrupted her. I think your impulse was kind and right. of singing, the uplifted song of those redeemed mantle of charity over his vices, which, while he Mr. Deane, roughly. "Bought them, you Even the invitation, if it could not be accepted, by the blood of the Lamb; redeemed from the lived, we had no patience with. If we only using the name of God profanely, and giving him-"Oh! no," said Mrs. Deare. "I did not I believe the picnic would have done Amy good new creatures in Christ Jesus; redeemed from Had we exercised toward him a little of the sister, and he would argue with his sister on the

her. Why, just look at these butterflies flying looking from a shrubberied eminence the rolling ven and things in earth and things under the looking from a shrubberied eminence the rolling look at these butterflies flying looking from a shrubberied eminence the rolling look at these butterflies flying looking from a shrubberied eminence the rolling look at these butterflies flying looking from a shrubberied eminence the rolling looking from a shrubberied eminence the rolling look at the look a over the wheat-stalks," continued Mrs. Deane, hills and the valley, amid whose foliage, rich earth; and every tongue shall confess that Jesus mother are folded over the heart that she so his sheaves with him."

don't suppose they know one day where the next | "Indeed I do." day's meal is coming from. I have been credibly

"Come with me. You are already so nearly ill that you need medicine, and the medicine won me. I am her sincere friend now. So I and in Thy name we have done many wonderful to be structured by the control of the Christian to be structured by the control of the Christian to be structured by the control of the Christian to be structured by the control of the control shall be fresh, sunny air. We will take a walk asked her advice about inviting Amy. She op- works, and that then he should profess unto us: through the woods, for my good too. We will posed the idea decidedly. 'The girl's time,' 'I never knew you.' go down to the river-shore, and sit a while on she said, is fully occupied with her life-work. Mrs. Deane had many opportunities after you must not say a word if I work two hours me at all. But then she said : 'And if you ter to-night, to make up time."

"No," said her mother with a sigh, "I will unfits them for their toil. They see a world and see if you will not feel that prompt payment is the publisher's place" for a little time, and see if you will not feel that prompt payment is the publisher's place for a little time, and see if you will not feel that prompt payment is the publisher's place." entirely different from their own-a world that right thing. Mrs. Deane came into her parlor that bright does not and cannot belong to them; and they June morning and found her husband, whom become restless and discontented. The wellshe had supposed to be already far on his way meant kindness only aggravates them. Now te the village, for his business day, standing, there was something in that. So I did not in-

into her hand. "I tell you, Edward, if you the village and its roofs and in the east the ris- ther."

TRIAL BY TEMPTATION.

"Because," said Mrs. Rogers, 'I have noticed informed that they live on pancakes the year that among even what we call the 'lower classon's form the sold that they live on pancakes the year that among even what we call the 'lower classon's form the sold that they live on pancakes the year that among even what we call the 'lower classon's form the sold that they live on pancakes the year that among even what we call the 'lower classon's form the sold that they live on pancakes the year that among even what we call the 'lower classon's form the sold that they live on pancakes the year that among even what we call the 'lower classon's form the sold that they live on pancakes the year that among even what we call the 'lower classon's form the sold that they live on pancakes the year that among even what we call the 'lower classon's form the sold that they live on pancakes the year that among even what we call the 'lower classon's form the sold that they live on pancakes they are the "Live on pancakes!" was repeated, with a spirit which does not willingly submit to accepting charitable help unless such help becomes about this world is either lost or saved. We are all of warning and of doom: "Seekest thou great ses' of working-people there is a certain upright tion in some to enter specific sin, in others to seek and to save. Who? The lost. And who to Baruch the Scribe, the son of Neriah, who "Live on pancakes!" was repeated, with a spirit winen does not winingly submit to accept ing charitable help unless such help becomes absolutely necessary. I consider this sort of independence a sacred endowment of character and least expected, and in the most powerful forms that we are not saved. We are away from that we are not saved. We are away from the heart is least prepared to resist them.

It is a spirit winen does not winingly submit to accept ing charitable help unless such help becomes absolutely necessary. I consider this sort of independence a sacred endowment of character and born lost, and need not wait in order to know that we are not saved. We are away from that we are not saved. We are away from that we are not saved. We are away from the dock when the heart is least prepared to resist them. "Somehow, dear mother, I feel so restless toon. "And I don't suppose those Malte girls—pendence a sacred endowment of character and when the heart is least prepared to resist them.
The Christian says "Now I shall be free from

The Christian says "Now I shall be free from

The Christian says "Now I shall be free from

The Christian says "Now I shall be free from

The Christian says "Now I shall be free from

"Somehow, dear mother, I feel so restless toon. "And I don't suppose those Malte girls—
pendence a sacred endowment of character and
when the heart is least prepared to resist them.
The Christian says "Now I shall be free from beautiful that we are not saved. We are away from Jesus, straying like silly sheep upon the dark beautiful that we are not saved.

Baruch may have been young, and life may
beautiful that we are not saved.

Baruch may have been young, and life may
beautiful that we are not saved.

Baruch may have been young, and life may
beautiful that we are not saved.

Baruch may have opened before him with promise of blessing "Somehow, dear mother, I feel so restless to-day! I do not know why," said a young and do you, Clarissa?" appealing to her daughter—a saving one in human economy. Don't The Christian says, "Now I shall be free from the assaults of Satan for grace has conquered by the satan for grace has conquered by t

Tears started in Mrs. Malte's eyes at something plaintive in the tone in which Amy said "I am not tired." She drew the girl's head fondly toward her, pushed softly back the rich waves of dark hair, and kissed the fair young material possible and "And what were you troubled about, darling?"

"And w Deane bought. They were worth so much more so I consulted my neighbor, Mrs. Deane. in his divinely comprehensive reach of sympathy bless the Lord in his heart for the conquest and

Mrs. Malte looked puzzled and sorrowful. "I never fancied Mrs. Deane particularly," in that softened, slightly pain-sharpened voice

THE CHIEF CORNER-STONE.

BY REV. E. B. SANFORD. hat in hand, beside the fireplace, examining the vite Amy Malte; but ever since I have felt re- the light, the outlook over this gray old world in proached. I can see her sweet face-she sits in sad and disheartening. We hear the wail of want, "Where did these new fangles come from?" one of those side pews in church very near ours, the cry of breaking hearts. We see the fierce To-day our friends are about us in the freshness will not be noticed. he asked, in a voice not particularly indicative -growing every week paler and paler. She struggle of contending interests and the slavery of bloom and health and spirits; to-morrow we was as rosy as Adele six months ago. I thought and ruin of evil habits. It is only when we turn bend in anguish over their still forms; and it is Mrs. Deane approached him rather nervously a pleasant afternoon in our grove, with girls and our faces toward the light which shines from the well if no bitter regrets mingle with the tears long since, was on examination for ordination. the Redeemer's kingdom, that our hearts take insecure, and the brightest and most promising the ministry, the question was put to him: I think that I am very sorry you did not ask hope. As we listen, there comes to us the voice virtues, we excuse his faults, and spread the would have given pleasure. And accepted, thraldom of appetite and passion and made had, we might have won him to a better life. self up to infidel sentiments. He had a pious of Holiness. sortment for the varioes departments. Our cus- buy them. They cost ten dollars a pair. I If I were you, I would invite her the very next the lust of gold and cankering selfishness and forbearance and kindness with which we now claims of the Christian religion, the genuineness to the local part of the property of the claims of the Christian religion, the genuineness to the claims of the Christian religion, the genuineness to the claims of the Christian religion, the genuineness to the claims of the Christian religion, the genuineness to the claims of the Christian religion, the genuineness to the claims of the Christian religion, the genuineness to the claims of the Christian religion, the genuineness to the claims of the Christian religion, the genuineness to the claims of the Christian religion, the genuineness to the claims of the Christian religion, the genuineness to the claims of the Christian religion, the genuineness to the claims of the claims of the Christian religion, the genuineness to the claims of the Christian religion, the genuineness to the claims of the claims of the Christian religion, the genuineness to the claims of the claims would not spend such a sum for trifles. But I time that you have a gathering of young peo- filled with desires after the heavenly inheritance, speak of him, he had had fewer faults. How of the Scriptures, and argue her down but the four, and they're a good deal handsomer than "Twill give me sincere pleasure to do so. I We behold the onward march of a Christian know; and if we could, it is too late to undo brought in her minister. But the young would-scipilization bearing light and blessing to all men the past, too late to soothe and benefit him. We be intided disposed of the minister as easily as civilization, bearing light and blessing to all men the past, too late to soothe and benefit him. We be infidel disposed of the life. Scripture: The wreck of latth and the wreck of himself. Who "concerning the faith have made "A very pretty way to do a charity." These and see the messengers of the Gospel of Peace may not take up the broken threads of the life he did of his sister, and came off victor. believe in piling up parlors, as you women do nowadays, with chiny poodles and bull-dogs, and chiny washing girls and chiny dimijohns, till a man feels in 'em like a bull in a chiny-shop. But I shan't blame you for buyin' these Nancy.

They stimulated her to a course of action quite foregin to her softly sympathetic and rather passive nature. They aroused her to an action ment of civilization, is incomparable. From the just, forgiving, loving, and kind.

A visit to the studio of Amy Malte, where spiration which finds its source in His truth, who has tried so hard to make your home of tears; "those tears of my sister," said the control of the studio of the sum of the stimulated her to a course of action quite earth. The line of Carist, as an instoric fact.

In the model of the stimulated her to a course of action quite foregin to her softly sympathetic and rather in its influence upon the growth and advance with pain and grief, we may be generous and just, forgiving, loving, and kind.

A visit to the studio of Amy Malte, where spiration which finds its source in His truth, who has tried so hard nothing to say. But ne only stormed the more. Still she said nothing; and when he possibly have escaped safe spiration which finds its source in His truth, who has tried so hard to make your home of tears; "those tears of my sister," said the volume of the spiration of the spiration of the spiration which finds its source in His truth, who has tried so hard advance in its influence upon the growth and advance in its influence upon the g I shan't blame you for buyin' these Nancy.
They're mighty fine paintin', if I'm any judge.
A visit to the studio of Amy Malte, where the guileless girl, won by the 'motherly way' there has sprung those forces in government, so least, it. I then saw myself a sinner and fled to Christ world. An English statesman once which was a genuine outflow of the matron's ment with loving words inscribed thereon, will for help."

A visit to the studio of Amy Malte, where the guileless girl, won by the 'motherly way' is yet a sadder suggestion of the shipmaster who has faithfully guilded the vessel of faith, yet himself swept changed his adjective with a jerk, not unlike, to and almost unconsciously her artless confidence, boasted that he was a citizen of an empire upon make up for past neglect. Could the fond What a lesson of encouragement is this to "I told her it gave us pleasure to encourage hung thickly with blossomed clematis, and over of Jesus every knee shall bow, of things in hea-she.

were to put these candlesticks into an auction, sing moon poured a silver luster. This ming- The centuries have seen the rise and fall of memory of all the loving offices which she has they be delayed any longer? ling of lights enhanced everything. The scene the proudest nations on earth. The greatest performed for you from infancy all the way up "Yes, Cousin Caroline has really a gift for was so sweet and tranquil that a spirit of silence monuments of human skill and industry have to manhood or womanhood, keep your love for "The Ninety and Nine."—On the Aletusch decorating," said Mrs. Deane to her neighbor, preluded the conversation, which, now that the deep and ardent, dutifully respect and reverse and revers Mrs. Rogers, who was making her an afternoon moment for it was come, Mrs. Rogers hardly world with renown are lost in the deep and swift erence her, repay with interest the tender love parable of the "Ninety and nine," reacted to we dealer fail in effective the least? "No," said Mrs. Deane. They were a impetuously, "if you had a darling relative who vancing. Christ is the Chief Corner-stone upon them. But I bought them to help a poor young person if some one was persistently representing that the kingdom of light shall at last gain a complete them a world of good. -Amy Malte, a neighbor of ours, a poor girl in relative as 'an object of charity,' and exposing triumph over the power of darkness. It is the to careless view the ignominies that, in order to privilege of the believer to be as a living At the mention of the name Amy Malte other keep herself from becoming a burden to others, stone in this superstructure that shall stand for newspaper subscribers. when the elements melt with fervent heat and the ears of two young people, Miss Folger and "Indeed, I should," said Mrs. Deane, with a the heavens are rolled together as a scroll. It her brother, who were visiting Miss Deane, and vague sense of relief. "And I am happy to is for us to choose upon what foundation we will

You feel restless because you are overworking. addition of "Don't say any more. How I pity 'lives on pancakes' all the year, and wears only all persons to attain to a freedom from temptaovercome and experience will fortify until the point, Satan leaves, and, as in the case of John liever. It burns up the dross, and makes the God should thrust him into hell at last. "Thrust

It is possible for the Christian to be strengththe bank under the wild grape-vine. It must be in full blossom now and deliciously tragrant. She has no leisure for society.' But,' I said, this to display the painted candlesticks that she character before the Lord that is possible for the beat but never again at this to display the painted candlesticks that she character before the Lord that is possible for the beat but never again at this to display the painted candlesticks that she character before the Lord that is possible for the character before the Lord be in full blossom now and deliciously fragrant. 'this ought not to be She is so young and inhad bought of Amy Matte; but never again albefore it comes. Some neglect this, and seem its protectors and the first blast will overturn it. But the same tree, growing in the open And we will look at the river-view your father level so well. Come."

"Then mether dear" said there against all work and no joy." The truth was that argument of Mrs. Deane did not convince that argumen to bestir them. It is better that the heart be tempest, becomes its own protector. So the Religious Telescope.

If you have not yet paid for this year, pay now,

Every subscription due is needed now.

BE KIND TO THE LIVING. and ready to serve their Lord whereever He may often his heart ached and cried out for human sister would not yield. She was is earnest in taking one of the ornamental objects tenderly with the emerald color of June, the spires of Christ is Lord, to the Glory of God the Fa- often thrilled with joy, or beat wildly with pain

THE ONE-SYLLABLED TEXT.

"the prettiest girl in the place," and she had host of influential friends, was left a widow in rest all upon Christ, the Chief corner-stone, elect, read that text for his or herself. They are all but those who saw the incident.—Exchange. words of one syllable, easily spelt out and quickly

This precious Saviour "came to seek." Ah! SEEK THEM NOT.—When Jeremiah the pro-Some of the sorest trials that come to the we often look for things, but fail to find them, phet was pouring out his words of warning bending over a table strewn with colors and thing of some relative. And Amy, the oldest thing of the thrill of anxious anticipation; for the thrill of anxious anticip hands outstretched to save us. Little lost child! come fixed upon earthly honors and please s Young Christians who are rejoicing in their have you felt your need of a good Shepherd? which awaited him, but the warning of the 1 o-shut in the house hardly resting an hour best men who have ever and so I hought these candlesticks of Amy. It ing of herself would pain her. And when I monster temptations Surely it is no evidence to save and to save. Do not many an aspiring soul. "Sook we first the king." work again by lamplight. You cannot go on was," she added, blandly, "a very pretty way to learned, accidentally, that the slight purchase, of goodness absolute if there are no temptations. Use the low price, of some pieces of her artistic work was, "she added, blandly, "a very pretty way to learned, accidentally, that the slight purchase, of goodness absolute if there are no temptations. Use the wandering ones to come to you; wait for the wandering ones to come to you; below price, of some pieces of her artistic work. We should not look for a certain uniformity. The "Oh, mother! Don't say that!" said Amy, Mrs. Rogers was "returning calls," and in the was made not only a boast of charity, but was here. John Knox the day before his death first house that she entered after leaving Mrs.

Though the way be long, and His feet grow aspire to things higher than this world. "The world passeth away and the lust thereof;" its "Oh, mother! Don't say that!" said Amy, instantly arousing herself to vivacity and urging instantly arousing herself to vivacity and urging herself to vivacity and urging instantly arousing herself to vivacity and urging herself to vivacity and urging instantly arousing herself to vivacity and urging herself to vivacity and urging instantly arousing herself to vivacity and urging herself to vivacity and urging instantly arousing herself to vivacity and urging herself to vivacity and urging instantly arousing herself to vivacity and urging herself to vivacity and urging instantly arousing herself to vivacity and urging herself to vivacity and urging instantly arousing herself to vivacity and urging herself to vivacity and urging instantly arousing herself to vivacity and urging herself to vivacity and urging instantly arousing herself to vivacity and urging herself to vivacity and urging instantly arousing herself to vivacity and urging herself to vivacity and urging instantly arousing herself to vivacity and urging herself to vivacity and a tone of gayety into her languishing voice.

Deane—a house elaborately adorned and surgence grounds within large possession. I have tasted the heavenly large possession. I have possession. I have possession. I have possession. I have tasted the heavenly large possession. I have possession. I have possession. I have possession. I have tasted the heavenly large possession. I have possession have possession. I have possession have possession. I have possession a tone of gayety into her languishing voice.

I am only too glad to have all this work to a languishing voice.

I am only too glad to have all this work to be limit of the town's environs—she found Mrs.

I have possession. I have tasted the neavenly valuable friendship not granted otherwise, I felt joys where I presently am." Yet on the day of the limit of the town's environs—she found Mrs.

I have possession. I have possession "I am only too glad to have all this work to do. These vases for Miss Harrison will be finished to-morrow, and then I can begin to Multon "at home."

Valuable friendship not granted otherwise, I left the limit of the town's environs—she found Mrs. Multon "at home."

Jesus; try and win that school friend who can begin to be foll of faults that reproof seems hardly to be foll of faults that reproof seems hardly to be list faith and hope upon the Living Rock; so, when earthly sorrows and storms shall beat upon him, Howard. I shall take such pleasure in that.

Howard is shall take such pleasure in the course of the day, 'charities' and somewhere indirectly in this connection and many contests, and many assemble of Satan but at present that And it is such a privilege to earn something ties,' and somewhere indirectly in this connection perhaps, but not to us women; so I will not say and many assaults of Satan; but at present that the perhaps, but at present that the perhaps, but at present that the perhaps, but at present that the perhaps and many assaults of Satan; but at present that the perhaps are perhaps and many assaults of Satan; but at present that the perhaps are perhaps and many assaults of Satan; but at present that the perhaps are perhaps and many assaults of Satan; but at present that the perhaps are perhaps and many assaults of Satan; but at present that the perhaps are perhaps and many assaults of Satan; but at present that the perhaps are perhaps are perhaps are perhaps are perhaps and many assaults of Satan; but at present that the perhaps are reprovingly, but a wrong that should be dealt roaring lion hath assailed me most furiously, "Christ left us an example that we should follow -The Christian. with awakeningsy.

you think I did right? I gave a picnic last

I think sometimes," said Mrs. Rogers tremmake an end of me at once. Often before has the world-wilderness, over rocks and mountains the world-wilderness, over rocks and mountains.

Do not wait till after the new year to make your payment. Sendit now. Tears started in Mrs. Malte's eyes at some week in our Chestnut Grove. It was a petite blingly, for she was by this time quite unnerved he placed my sins before my eyes, often tempted of difficulties, to the place where lost sheep lie ment. Sendit now.

> Every friend of the paper may give it valuable help by having a bad one. Every Free Baptist family should read the INTELLI-

Four Impossible Things. — 1. To escape yet a sorrowful morning; for if I am hangry, enemies of the soul in this way call out the troubles by running away from duty. Jonah I praise God; if I am cold, I praise God; if it Christian's hidden resources.

It is hardly probable that the same class or kind of temptations shall annoy the conquering soul for a great length of time. Grace will assigned you by God's providence exposes you.

To become a Christian's hidden resources.

Therefore, manfully meet and overcome the difficulties and trials to which the post assigned you by God's providence exposes you.

To become a Christian's hidden resources.

Therefore, manfully meet and overcome the difficulties and trials to which the post assigned you by God's providence exposes you. not wish to express. So she only replied to is not a pleasing person to me. I had even thought of dropping her from my visiting list. Should come into the presence of our Lord and that we an involuntarity use in prayer it foe will no longer attack at the old points. When the victory is gained by the heart at one liever. It have an involuntarity use in prayer it foe will no longer attack at the old points. When the victory is gained by the heart at one liever. It have an involuntarity without undergoing severe trials. When the victory is gained by the heart at one liever. It have an involuntarity without undergoing severe trials. When the victory is gained by the heart at one liever. It have an involuntarity without undergoing severe trials. When the victory is gained by the heart at one liever. It have an involuntarity without undergoing severe trials. When the victory is gained by the heart at one liever. It have an involuntarity without undergoing severe trials. When the victory is gained by the heart at one liever. It have an involuntarity without undergoing severe trials. When the victory is gained by the heart at one liever. It have an involuntarity without undergoing severe trials. When the victory is gained by the heart at one liever. It have an involuntarity without undergoing severe trials.

gold shine forth with unalloyed lustre. ened by divine grace that the tempter will have when thrown upon one's own resources. The arms—the arm of faith and the arm of love but little power. If there is that building up of oak in the middle of the forest, if surrounded with them I would hold Him so fast that He character before the Lord that is possible for the on every side by trees that shelter and shade it, must go with me; and where my Lord and my grown up to powerful strength and faith in God, man who is compelled to rely on his own resources forms an independence of character to which he could not otherwise have attained.

to be steamed up by a power outside yourself.

Do not persuade yourself that witholding your payment

His simple reply was :

"Well," said Mr. Deane, with a modified air, words haunted Mrs. Rogers. They 'rang in her going to every land, and harvests springing up that is gone and weave them into a web of hope and iov, but toward those who are still left to gument with his sister, but she was silent: she "Well," said Mr. Deane, with a modified air, and harvests springing up that is gone and weave them may a wee of nope believe in piling up parlors, as you women do nowadays, with chiny poodles and bull-dogs, and of oregin to her softly sympathetic and rather of unbelief, we may be generous and of unbelief, we may be generous and of unbelief, we may be generous and of unbelief, we care to hear and weave them may a wee of nope and weave them may a wee of nope and joy, but toward those who are still left to gument with his sister, but she was silent; she had nothing to say. But he only stormed the were appointed to guide and keep amid the storm of unbelief, we care to hear and hearts to throb in its influence upon the growth and advance. Still she said nothing; and when he use his own simile, a "bull in a china-shop," had served to establish this resolution and prewhich the sun never set, but every follower of kisses that are now imprinted on her cold lips, those who are striving for salvation of the HATS, FLOWERS, FEATHERS, "that handy little Amy Malte a lift, I don't It was in a Saturday evening twilight that the power of which is more and more dominating fall unheeded upon her ear, have been hars ners, and when we are so earnest for the souls Mrs. Deane and Mrs. Rogers were seated togethe pations of the earth, and will continue to ex-"I told her you would not," said Mrs. Deane. ther within garden-walls in a secluded arbor, tend its leavening influence until "at the name in all this wide world fonder or happier than they will be won to the that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed, shall call, and to whom she had been displaying her new acquisition. "She is more artistic, I think, than most amateurs, with a stress on the word amateurs, "And the candlesticks, how do you amateurs, "And the candlesticks, how do you amateurs, "And the candlesticks, how do you amateurs, "To-morrow we shall meet at church," said to oblivion the memory of high and low, the ruler of an empire as well as the humblest subject bending before the throne. On every foot their shepherds over the intricate windings between the coming and passing to oblivion the memory of high and low, the peaceful.

Hundreds of 1878 subscriptions are unpaid. Ought

The first words gave Mrs. Deane a singular to oblivion the memory of high and low, the strive to make her last days restful, happy, and with ice axe and alpenstock down the glacier, when we observed a flock of sheep following their shepherds over the intricate windings between the coming and passing to oblivion the memory of high and low, the peaceful.

The first words gave Mrs. Deane a singular to oblivion the memory of high and low, the strive to make her last days restful, happy, and with ice axe and alpenstock down the glacier, when we observed a flock of sheep following their shepherds over the intricate windings between the last control of the letter. One day we were making our way.

The first words gave Mrs. Deane a singular to oblivion the memory of high and low, the control of the letter. One day we were making our way.

The first words gave Mrs. Deane a singular to oblivion the memory of high and low, the control of the letter. One day we were making our way.

The first words gave Mrs. Deane a singular to oblivion the memory of high and low, the letter. One day we were making our way.

The letter of the le Mrs. Rogers. "We shall meet at the commu- of earth, trodden by the coming and passing world will deal harshly enough with them; it is tween crevasses, and so passing from the pasbe intent on the present it is necessary to be intent on the present. To be doing one "They are lovely," said Mrs. Rogers. "Twas nion, and before we kneel there side by side in generations, time, with remorseless hand, has a rough world at the best. Surround them with tures on the one side of the glacier to the thing and thinking of another is a very unsatisin fact the sticks and not the candles that her the presence of our Lord there is something I written the story of change, and the brevity an atmosphere of love, and instill into their pastures on the other. The flock had numbered factory made of spending life. and uncertainty of all human life and effort.

But there is one kingdom whose power increases may; for, sooner than you think, other and had got lost. One of the shepherds, in his Canada. It ought to have the support of them all. "Dear Mrs. Deane," continued her neighbor, and the strength and glory of which is ever adless holy influences will be brought to bear upon German patois, appealed to us if we had seen it.

It is much easier to meet with error than to purchase of mine. Do you really like them? I was beautiful to see how the party had a neid-glass. It was beautiful to see how the limit of mines and the fallen. Which rests its sure foundation. Nations will still rise and fall, dire revolutions may for a monot think it a friend's part to come and tell you and a daring relative who placed in unhappy circumstances, was struggling against them to earn her own living, would you against them to earn her own living, would you not think it a friend's part to come and tell you amid a tangle of brushwood, on the rocky mountain side. It was beautiful to see how the limit of the party had a neid-glass. Which rests its sure foundation. Nations will still rise and fall, dire revolutions may for a monot think it a friend's part to come and tell you amid a tangle of brushwood, on the rocky mountain side. It was beautiful to see how the limit of the party had a neid-glass. Which rests its sure foundation. Nations will still rise and fall, dire revolutions may for a monot think it a friend's part to come and tell you amid a tangle of brushwood, on the rocky mountain side. It was beautiful to see how the limit of the party had a neid-glass. Which rests its sure foundation. Nations will be kind to the sad, the sorrowful, the unformation in great depths; and the way to seek does not the limit in the limit is the chiral state. The conference, each year uses the ministers to make shepherd, without a word, left his hundred and shepherd, without a word, left his hundred and effect to increase the circulation of the INTELLIGENCES. The Golden Rule is a safe one for everybody, especially (knowing they would stand there perfectly still and safe), and went clambering back after the lost sheep until he found it. And he actually PAISLEY and WOOL SHAWLS who, like Mrs. Rogers, were new-comers to the say that I have no relative who is an object of build up the fabric of our hope and life in these dren would want to know the way to be saved, eyes; though the shepherd was all unconscious town. They were both excited—Miss Folger charity. Mr. Deane's cousin, to be sure, Mrs. probationary days. Woe be to them that build for He has told it so simply in a sentence which of it. And it brought our Lord's teaching home because she had heard Amy Malte described as Malborough, a much-esteemed woman with a pon the shifting sands. Blessed are they who contains no long words; every little one can to us with a vividness which none can realize

" For the Son of man has come to seek and There are sceptics, I believe, who think to find save that which is lost." (Luke xix. 10.) excuse for the scepticism they persist in on the help them along. I [with another sigh] do my gratuitous Founty, and the unnecessary exposure and yet, dear reader, it is yours and ours through daily toil and daily care glorious by His expart. But they are so poor!" and here Mrs. to cold eyes of whatever indignities her brave Christ Jesus. Shall we grasp it, embrace it, ample. You can tell Jesus anything and every- and safe because they begin as the apostle far apart as the east is from the west. Deane, evidently aware that she was addressing soul has to bear, would be an unkindness and and walk in the comfort and joy it is meant to thing, children, because He was once just like did, must take care that they end as the aposton and will be sure to understand all about it.

"Well, then, I wish you much luck." "I thank you, sir; but, to tell the truth, I never yet have had bad luck. I have never had me into hell? that he will never do," answered 3. To form an independent character, except the poor man; "but if he should, I have two

The Intelligencer needs every dollar due needs it

WHAT IS WANTED. - We want in you a Christianity that is Christian across counters, 4. To be a growing man by looking to your over dinner tables, behind the neighbor's back as position in society for influence, instead of bring- in his face. We want in you a Christianity that ing influence to your position. Therefore prefer we can find in the temperance of the meal, in rather to climb up the hill with difficulty than moderation of dress, in respect for authority, in amiability at home, in veracity and simplicity in mixed society. Rowland Hill used to say he would give very little for the religion of a man whose very dog and cat were not the better for his religion. We want fewer gossiping, slauder-A SISTER'S TEARS.—A young man, not very ing, gluttonous, peevish, conceited, bigoted boys of her own age, would do her good. Now Cross, and witness the progress and triumphs of we shed upon their white faces. Oh! life is In relating his Christian experience and call to public religious measures, institutions, beneve-Christians. To make them effectual, all our lent agencies, missions, need to be managed on a high-toned, scrupulous, unquestionable sense of honor, without evasion or partisanship, or overmuch of the serpent's cunning. The hand that gives away the Bible must be unspotted from the

"Will each present subscriber try to get one new sub-

Readers of a religious paper do more for the support of the ministry, and for all Christian work, than any others. RANDOM READINGS.

overboard and lost.

To hide a sin is to nurse a serpent. Heart-work must be God's work. Only the great Heart-maker, can be the Heart-breaker. If I love Him, my heart will be filled with His Spirit, and obedience to His commands. - Baxter.

Father! take not away

The burden of the day,

But help me that I bear it

As Christ his burden bore, When cross and thorn He wore, And none with Him could share it In His name, heip! I pray. I only ask for grace To see that patient face, And my impatient one; Ask that mine grow like His-Sign of an inward peace From trust in Thee alone, Unchanged by time or place.

-E. R. Champlin. Send your subscription by next mail, if possible, God is not in eternity, but eternity in God. Whosoever hath Christ cannot be poor; whosoever wants Him cannot be rich.

Righteousness and self-righteousness are as Free Baptist ministers should take the paper into the ted on good aar 31—1y Augola of these fash-; 25 cts. per n Mourning ds in all the shapes and and Night them made LLISON. g agents in r the new HINION or QUARE.

nt, contain-nd over 300 published in n or ladies, permanent on't fail to This is a more than ctured at a he Publish REAL, QU.

riers' Tools ERS. on Com-W. P. ONS beautiful in a great LISON. NE

ICK STORE GOLDEN

EATHER

ILLION Dollars Co.

E CO. INE o Twa VY,

LNY,

me Inamage of the s and orld. as and

EET,