titter, by some one on the sofa.

REV. J. McLEOD.]

"THAT COD IN ALL THINGS MAY BE CLORIFIED THROUGH JESUS CHRIST." -- Peter.

[EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR

VOL. XXV.-No. 50.

SAINT JOHN, N. B., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1878.

WHOLE No. 1298.

NEW FALL GOODS

LOGAN'S.

BLACK CASHMERES, Black French Merinoes,

SILK VELVETS.

VELVETEENS. FANCY DRESS GOODS

DRESS TWEEDS, WINCEYS,

MANTLE CLOTHS.

TURKEY RED TABLE DAMASK.

TABLE COVERS.

BLANKETS, FLANNE'S.

SWANSDOWNS.

PRINTS,

GREY COTTONS; WHITE COTTONS.

BREAKFAST SHAWLS, SONTAGS, &c.

20 NEW GOODS arriving every week.

THOMAS LOGAN,

(OPPOSITE NORMAL SCHOOL

Fredericton, Sept. 28, 1878.

Fall and Winter

LACES, WINGS, ORNA-MENTS, &c.

Dress Goods

IN GREAT VARIETY. Cashmores, French Morinoes, Repp Cords, Arabian Suitings, &c.

Ulster Cloths

AND .ULSTERS.

An immense Stock of Presidents, Meltons, Matelas Moscows, Pilots, Oxfords, and other Clothe.

CANADIAN AND ENGLISH . LANNELS

Heavy Woollens of every description.

Table Linens, Towellings, Hessians, Damasks, Repp

tle Trimmings, Fringes. INSPECTION SOLICITED AT WILMOT'S BUILD. her dainty charms. ING, QUEEN STREET,

P. McPeake.

FREDEBICTON, Ust. 25.

The Intelligencer.

ONE WAY TO DO A CHARITY. BY EDITH BRIGGS.

room and stood now by her daughter's side, room and stood now by her daughter's side, and was relieved to Malte. I am sure, with her refined feelings it still again and again the enemy of their salvation.

Turn to Jesus; he is close by; close to you, temptations are no more to molest them. But stooping to catch your faintest heart-whisper, However desirable such great things might be, still again and again the enemy of their salvation. in this way, Amy. You will be ill."

Howard. I shall take such pleasure in that.

Howard is shall take such pleasure in that to that very frequent topic of the day, 'charilong to any of us—to the elders of the church, during my frail life, sustained many contests, and somewhere indirectly in this connection and unfading this portion will be incorruptible, undefiled and unfading this portion will be eternally secure.

perhaps I ought to go to some city with my work, and dispose of it there for better prices. I wanted to ask her to our picnic. I thought the change of a bright afternoon would do her when in his example he attached to his most evidence of his soul's complete rest in Jesus. I was thinking of those candlesticks that Mrs. good. But I don't know the Maltes very well; startling gifts 'Go and tell no man.' Perhaps I had heard my teacher say of the value of such she is very good and helpful to them. She did that he would not be willing to have wounded." so I sold them. And now I am afraid I feel was delicate about it. But I could draw from around Mr. Deane and leaned her head confidirritated about it. So much time and toil for her intimations that they are special objects of ingly against that little lady's shoulder." such a trifling sum! It seems like a sacrifice." her care and liberality." She had a sad, indignant thought that she did Mrs. Multon continued, confidentially. "She that we all involuntarily use in prayer—" it te the village, for his business day, standing, there was something in that. So I did not inornaments of the mantlepiece.

and said:

"I told her it gave us pleasure to encourage hung thickly with blossomed clematis, and over of Jesus every knee shall bow, of things in hea-she.

over the wheat-stalks," continued Mrs. Deane, hills and the valley, amid whose foliage, rich earth; and every tongue shall confess that Jesus mother are folded over the heart that she so his sheaves with him." taking one of the ornamental objects tenderly with the emerald color of June, the spires of Christ is Lord, to the Glory of God the Fa- often thrilled with joy, or beat wildly with pain into her hand. "I tell you, Edward, if you the village and its roofs and in the east the ris- ther."

than most amateurs, with a stress on the word thrill of anticipation.

eyes had been regarding admiringly. "The want very much to say to you," design is exquisite. Are these, too, the work Mrs. Deane made no reply. of your cousin?"

ears than those of Mrs. Rogers became alert—she was forced to endure?"

guste Malte, the distinguished author of B.?" the complications and the tempers of that family good doing. "Yes. The Maltes are old residents here. And Mrs. Marlborough does it. "An object of Extra superfine Black Eroad Cloths, Pilots, Bervers and Elyseians, Fancy Coatings, Cashmere and Silk Vestings, West, of England and Scotch Tweeds, Superfine Black Cashmeres, etc.

Bla tinued at the old stand, in Edgecombe's Building. A full bors are all kind. We all [with a sigh] try to strangers that she was an incumbent upon the magnificence, the grandeur of this promise; growing up into noble manhood, and making certain to be ejected from his apostleship than don't suppose they know one day where the next mother, who a moment ago had entered the with such an unmistakable cry of pain that full of agitation.

decorate the breakfast set for dear Mrs. Conversation turned in the course of the visit so full of faults that reproof seems hardly to be length any of us—to the elders of the church, luring my feel life sustained many contests.

With. I will not say reprovingly, for we are an of the visit so full of faults that reproof seems hardly to be length any of us—to the elders of the church, luring my feel life sustained many contests.

Service of Jesus. Be child-saviours. You can long to the long to any of us—to the elders of the church, luring my feel life sustained many contests.

Deane bought. They were worth so much more so I consulted my neighbor, Mrs. Deane. in his divinely comprehensive reach of sympathy bless the Lord in his heart for the conquest and than she gave. I told her so. I repeated what I she knows them intimately. Indeed I imagine he took part with something worthily sensitive for the enemy. She did that he would not be willing to have wounded."

Four Impossible Things.—1. To escape the troubles by running away from duty. I praise God; if I am cold, I praise God; if I am c things. But Mrs. Deane could not give more, not say how much she has done for them. She And here Mrs. Rogers put her arm gently shall be fresh, sunny air. We will take a walk asked her advice about inviting Amy. She op- works, and that then he should profess unto us: through the woods, for my good too. We will go down to the river-shore, and sit a while on the bank under the wild grape-vine. It must be has no leisure for society. But, I said, this to display the painted candlesticks that she character before the Lord that is possible for the guide is, there is my heaven."—Christian at

"Then, mother dear," said Amy, obeying, that argument of Mrs. Deane did not convince you must not say a word if I work two hours me at all. But then she said : 'And if you GLOVES and HOLIERY. later to-night, to make up time."

Mrs. Deane came into her parlor that bright does not and cannot belong to them; and they June morning and found her husband, whom become restless and discontented. The wellshe had supposed to be already far on his way meant kindness only aggravates them. Now

"Why, Edward, those are the candles Cousin | tell me, what do you think? Caroline painted for me, and I hadn't a candle Mrs. Rogers had turned slightly pale. Her courage. The stone which the builders rejected of all our treasures may, perhaps soonest droop "What first led you to see yourself a sinner, stick in the house to put them in. So when I lips were set, her eyes had dimmed with some has become the head of the corner, and upon this and fade. And when one dies, how anxious we and to feel your need of Christ?" was in New York I inquired the price of those sad emotion. She answered very pleasantly: foundation we see rising the temple of the world's are to do him homage! We speak of his His simple reply was:

"Inquired the price of them?" interrupted her. I think your impulse was kind and right. of singing, the uplifted song of those redeemed mantle of charity over his vices, which, while he had been thoughtless and wicked, the heather money that sends the missionary to Mr. Deane, roughly. "Bought them, you Even the invitation, if it could not be accepted, by the blood of the Lamb; redeemed from the lived, we had no patience with. If we only using the name of God profanely, and giving him-Now in stock and arriving, a very extensive as—"I did not I believe the picnic would have done Amy good new creatures in Christ Jesus; redeemed from Had we exercised toward him a little of the sister, and he would argue with his sister on the sortment for the varioes departments. Our cusbuy them. They cost ten dollars a pair. I would not spend such a sum for trifler. But I time that you have a cathering of young need to be but the lust of gold and cankering selfishness and forbearance and kindness with which we now claims of the Christian religion, the genuineness speak of him he had had fewer faults. How would not spend such a sum for trifles. But I time that you have a gathering of young peofilled with desires after the heavenly inheritance, speak of him, he had had fewer faults. How of the Scriptures, and argue her down but the EXTRA GOOD VALUE phantly—"I bought these of Amy Malte for four, and they're a good deal handsomer than the New York ones. She asked nine dollars; which the Christian is warned in the past, too late to soothe and benefit him. We be infided disposed of the minister as easily as himself. We work of faith and the wreck of himself. They would be infided disposed of the minister as easily as himself. Who "concerning the faith have made" in the past, too late to soothe and benefit him. We be infided disposed of the minister as easily as himself. THIS SEASON, THE

"Well," said Mr. Deane, with a modified air, don't hanker after grimcracks. I don nowadays, with chiny poodles and buildogs, and foregin to her softly sympathetic and rather in its influence upon the growth and advance with pain and grief, we may be generous and more. Still she said nothing; and when he instruction is incomparable. From the linest foreging, loving, and kind,

I shan't blame you for buyin' these Nancy.
They're mighty fine paintin', if I'm any judge.
Aud, if buyin' of them has been the means of which was a genuine outflow of the matron's which to make your home the guileless girl, won by the 'motherly way' who has tried so hard to make your home of tears; "those tears of my sister," said the which was a genuine outflow of the matron's which was a genuine outflow of the matron's which was a genuine outflow of the said to make your home of tears; "those tears of my sister," said the which was a genuine outflow of the matron's which to make your home of tears; "those tears of my sister," said the which was a genuine outflow of the said to make your home of tears; "those tears of my sister," said the whole said to make your home of tears; "those tears of my sister," said the whole said to make your home of tears; "those tears of my sister," said the whole said to make your home of the whole said to make your home of the said to make your home of tears; "those tears of my sister," givin' that handso—" Here Mr. Deane changed his adjective with a jerk, not unlike, to and almost unconsciously her artless confidence, boasted that he was a citizen of an empire upon make up for past neglect. Could the fond the world be an empire upon make up for past neglect. Could the fond this to what a lesson of encouragement is this to were to put these candlesticks into an auction, sing moon poured a silver luster. This mingThe centuries have seen the rise and fall of memory of all the loving offices which she has they be delayed any longer? ling of lights enhanced everything. The scene the proudest nations on earth. The greatest performed for you from infancy all the way up "Yes, Cousin Caroline has really a gift for was so sweet and tranquil that a spirit of silence monuments of human skill and industry have to manhood or womanhood, keep your love for "The Ninery and Nine."—On the Aletusch decorating," said Mrs. Deane to her neighbor, preluded the conversation, which, now that the crumbled into dust. Names that once filled the her deep and ardent, dutifully respect and reverse to her deep and ardent, dutifully respect and reverse to her deep and ardent, dutifully respect and reverse to her deep and ardent, dutifully respect and reverse to her deep and ardent, dutifully respect and reverse to her deep and ardent, dutifully respect and reverse to her deep and ardent, dutifully respect and reverse to her deep and ardent, dutifully respect and reverse to her deep and ardent, dutifully respect and reverse to her deep and ardent, dutifully respect and reverse to her deep and ardent, dutifully respect and reverse to her deep and ardent, dutifully respect and reverse to her deep and ardent, dutifully respect and reverse to her deep and ardent, dutifully respect and reverse to her deep and ardent, dutifully respect and reverse to her deep and ardent, dutifully respect and reverse to her deep and ardent, dutifully respect and reverse to her deep and ardent, dutifully respect and reverse to her deep and ardent, dutifully respect and reverse to her deep and ardent are deep and ardent are deep and ardent are deep and ardent are deep are deep

"No," said Mrs. Deane. They were a impetuously, "if you had a darling relative who vancing. Christ is the Chief Corner-stone upon them. But I bought them to help a poor young person if some one was persistently representing that the kingdom of light shall at last gain a complete them a world of good.

Amy Malte, a neighbor of ours, a poor girl in relative as 'an object of charity,' and exposing triumph over the power of darkness. It is the to careless view the ignominies that, in order to privilege of the believer to be as a living

A lot of Ladies' Ulsters very cheap. Dress and Mannot yet seen her; and the brother because he straitened circumstances, and has taken the posihad seen her, and had been secretly smitten by tion of housekeeper in the house of a distant help them along. I [with another sigh] so my gratuitous bounty, and the unnecessary exposure and yet, dear reader, it is yours and ours through daily toil and daily care glorious by His ex- he. Those who think themselves innocent day's meal is coming from. I have been credibly "Because," said Mrs. Rogers, 'I have noticed informed that they live on pancakes the year that among eyen what we call the 'lower classes' of working-people there is a certain upright "Live on pancakes!" was repeated, with a spirit which does not willingly submit to accept-Mrs. Deane, warmed with her subject, went solutely necessary. I consider this sort of indeleast expected, and in the most powerful forms that we are not saved. We are away from 45: 5. ing charitable help unless such help becomes ab-thing of the thrill of anxious anticipation; for regulates his attack, "I know why, my dear child," said the "Oh!" said Mrs. Rogers—not loudly, but Mrs. Rogers had turned toward her, with a face instantly arousing herself to vivacity and urging a tone of gayety into her languishing voice.

"I am only too glad to have all this work to do. These vases for Miss Harrison will be aided to make any and then I can begin to the limit of the town's environs—she found Mrs.

"I am only too glad to have all this work to do. These vases for Miss Harrison will be a to make any and then I can begin to the limit of the town's environs—she found Mrs.

"I am only too glad to have all this work to do. These vases for Miss Harrison will be a town's environs—she found Mrs.

"I am only too glad to have all this work to do. These vases for Miss Harrison will be limit of the town's environs—she found Mrs.

"I have tested the heavenly and seek that little sister who does not yet love there was something wrong that should be dealt with. I will not say reprovingly, for we are all his death to more the most fearful temptation of his life. Only a few hours before he service of Leans. Be child-saviours. You can his faith and hope upon the Living Rock; so, when

"And what were you troubled about, darling?" at least I fear, the poor child is injuring herself when he said, 'But thou when thou doest alms faithful discharge of my ministry." Of course "Oh! I was fretting because I thought by incessant work. She paints china, you know let not thy right hand know what thy left hand the dying man triumphed. Indeed, the tempta-

Mrs. Malte looked puzzled and sorrowful. "I never fancied Mrs. Deane particularly," in that softened, slightly pain-sharpened voice "Come with me. You are already so nearly But this kindness ofhers to the Maltes has quite say, 'In Thy name we have cast out devils, Il that you need medicine, and the medicine won me. I am her sincere friend now. So I and in Thy name we have done many wonderful give these working-people a taste of pleasure, it "No," said her mother with a sigh, "I will unfits them for their toil. They see a world and see if you will not feel that prompt payment is the entirely different from their own-a world that right thing.

THE CHIEF CORNER-STONE.

From certain standpoints, with our backs to hat in hand, beside the fireplace, examining the vite Amy Malte; but ever since I have felt rethe light, the outlook over this gray old world is proached. I can see her sweet face—she sits in sad and disheartening. We hear the wail of want, "Where did these new fangles come from?" one of those side pews in church very near ours the cry of breaking hearts. We see the fierce To-day our friends are about us in the freshness will not be noticed. he asked, in a voice not particularly indicative —growing every week paler and paler. She struggle of contending interests and the slavery of bloom and health and spirits; to-morrow we the Redeemer's kingdom, that our hearts take insecure, and the brightest and most promising the ministry, the question was put to him: I think that I am very sorry you did not ask hope. As we listen, there comes to us the voice virtues, we excuse his faults, and spread the "A sisters trars."

Mrs. Rogers, who was making her an afternoon moment for it was come, Mrs. Rogers hardly world with renown are lost in the deep and swift evence her, repay with interest the tender love parable of the "Ninety and nine," reacted to we daily fail in offering the least the same and At the mention of the name Amy Malte other keep herself from becoming a burden to others, stone in this superstructure that shall stand for newspaper subscribers. when the elements melt with fervent heat and the ears of two young people, Miss Folger and "Indeed, I should," said Mrs. Deane, with a the heavens are rolled together as a scroll. It her brother, who were visiting Miss Deane, and vague sense of relief. "And I am happy to is for us to choose upon what foundation we will

"And who is Amy Malte?" asked Mr. Rodgers. "Not, surely, the daughter of Auguste Malte, the distinguished author of B.?"

"Yes. The Maltes are old residents how."

"And who is Amy Malte?" asked Mr. her living she does. It would take the diplomate acy of a bureau of state to steer straight through the complications and the tempers of that family good doing.

"It costs much money to publish the Intelligences. The money to pay the bills is in the hands of delinquent subscribers. We need it.

"For the Son of man has come to seek and the tempers of that family good doing."

There are sceptics, I believe, who think to find

TRIAL BY TEMPTATION.

Some of the sorest trials that come to the Christian are those from temptation-temptadistrust God, in others to abandon all hope and give up the struggle. These come often when least expected, and in the most powerful forms tion in some to enter specific sin, in others to "Somehow, dear mother, I feel so restless toon. "And I don't suppose those Malte girls—pendence a sacred endowment of character and when the heart is least prepared to resist them.
The Christian says "Now I shall be five from by the company of the promise of blessing to be a saying one in human economy, Don't by the promise of blessing to be a saying one in human economy, Don't by the character and by the company have been young, and life may have opened before him with promise of blessing. day! I do not know why," said a young and do you, Clarissa?" appealing to her daughter—a saving one in human economy.

Don't The Christian says, "Now I shall be free from wilderness-mountains, never thinking or going have opened before him with promise of blessing wilderness-mountains, never thinking or going have opened before him with promise of blessing watching dainty touches that were completing a with a "stitch in her side," and was relieved to Malte. I am sure, with her refined feelings it still again and again the enemy of their salvation and ready to take you up in His kind arms and in a world of sin and sorrow such as this, the permit of them recent to the process of the process of them recent to the process of the proce Wool Shawls, watching dainty touches that were completing a border of morning glories around a figured vase, "You feel restless because you are overworking." You feel restless because you are overworking. With a "stitch in her side," and was refleved to find the stitch only a mental one by the instant addition of "Don't say any more. How I pity of the property of their overthrow. It is not possible for all persons to attain to a freedom from temptawith. I will not say reprovingly, for we are all tion of his life. Only a few hours before he service of Jesus. Be child-saviours. You can his faith and hope upon the Living Rock; so, when Howard. I shall take such pleasure in that. And it is such a privilege to earn something and it is such a privilege to earn something ties, and somewhere indirectly in this connection perhaps, but not to us women; so I will not say and many assaults of Satan; but at present that should be dealt required by the same of the character of reprovingly, but a wrong that should be dealt roaring lion hath assailed me most furiously, "Christ left us an example that we should follow -- The Christian. you think I did right? I gave a picnic last

I think sometimes," said Mrs. Rogers tremmake an end of me at once. Often before has the world-wilderness, over rocks and mountains the world-wilderness, over rocks and mountains ment. Send it now. Tears started in Mrs. Malte's eyes at some week in our Chestnut Grove. It was a petite blingly, for she was by this time quite unnerved he placed my sins before my eyes, often tempted of difficulties, to the place where lost sheep lie of difficulties, to the place where lost sheep lie of difficulties, to the place where lost sheep lie of difficulties, to the place where lost sheep lie of difficulties, to the place where lost sheep lie of difficulties, to the place where lost sheep lie of difficulties, to the place where lost sheep lie of difficulties, to the place where lost sheep lie of difficulties, to the place where lost sheep lie of difficulties, to the place where lost sheep lie of difficulties, to the place where lost sheep lie of difficulties, to the place where lost sheep lie of difficulties, to the place where lost sheep lie of difficulties, to the place where lost sheep lie of difficulties, to the place where lost sheep lie of difficulties, to the place where lost sheep lie of difficulties, to the place where lost sheep lie of difficulties, to the place where lost sheep lie of difficulties, to the place where lost sheep lie of difficulties, to the place where lost sheep lie of difficulties where lost s Tears started in Mrs. Malte's eyes at something plaintive in the tone in which Amy said affair, to be sure. The invitations were only extended to a few young people, Adele's intimate e finally toward her, pushed softly back the rich friends; but I wanted so much to invite Amy especially in the manner of our charities. Per datacked me in another way: the cunning you answer, "Here am I; send me?" Will Germany went one day to church. On his way he met a poor old man, to whom he wished

> He who wins a victory over temptation may gencer. Christian's hidden resources.

It is possible for the Christian to be strengththe bank under the wild grape-vine. It must be in full blossom now and deliciously fragrant. She has no leisure for society. But, I said, this to display the painted candlesticks that she character before the Lord that is possible for the runs up tall and comparatively feeble; cut away its protectors and the first blast will eventure. Work. be in full blossom now and deliciously fragrant. 'this ought not to be. She is so young and inAnd we will look at the river view your father to their purchase was she heard to say.'

Christian, the temptation will be resisted largely leading to their purchase was she heard to say.'

Christian, the temptation will be resisted largely leading to their purchase was she heard to say.'

It is protectors and the first blast will overturn leading to their purchase was she heard to say.'

It is protectors and the first blast will overturn leading to their purchase was she heard to say.'

It is protectors and the first blast will overturn leading to their purchase was she heard to say.' And we will look at the river-view your father teresting; and there's a ban for youth certainly luding to their purchase was she heard to say:

| Description of the same tree, growing in the open only to exert themselves powerfully when thrown field, where it is continually beaten upon by the -Independent. to bestir them. It is better that the heart be tempest, becomes its own protector. So the Religious Telescope.

If you have not yet paid for this year, pay now.

Every subscription due is needed now.

BE KIND TO THE LIVING.

use his own simile, a "bull in a china-shop," had served to establish this resolution and pre- which the sun never set, but every follower of kisses that are now imprinted on her cold lips, those who are striving for salvation of the HATS, FLOWERS, FEATHERS, who had just escaped breaking something—who had just escaped Mrs. Deane and Mrs. Rogers were seated toge- the nations of the earth, and will continue to ex- while living, there would have been no woman of our loved ones that we weep over them, then in good taste. A little too florid, perhaps. not think it a friend's part to come and tell you ment seem to threaten the fabric of society, but and kindly acts can not hurt them, and may do tain side. It was beautiful to see how the

THE ONE-SYLLABLED TEXT.

because she had heard Amy Malte described as Malborough, a much esteemed woman ith a upon the shifting sands. Blessed are they who contains no long words; every little one can to us with a vividness which none can realize "the prettiest girl in the place," and she had host of influential friends, was left a widow in rest all upon Christ, the Chief corner-stone, elect, read that text for his or herself. They are all but those who saw the incident.—Exchange. words of one syllable, easily spelt out and quickly

> " For the Son of man has come to seek and There are sceptics, I believe, who think to find save that which is lost." (Luke xix. 10.)

Here you have been these beautiful June days them?

"They are, as you say, objects of pity; and shut in the house hardly resting an hour behandiwork for charity." I think such a picture handiwork for charity. It has been these beautiful June days them?

"They are, as you say, objects of pity; and handiwork for charity." I think such a picture handiwork for charity. It has been the best men who have ever handiwork for charity. It has been the best men who have ever handiwork for charity. It has been these beautiful June days them?

"They are, as you say, objects of pity; and handiwork for charity." I think such a picture handiwork for charity. It has been these beautiful June days them?

"They are, as you say, objects of pity; and handiwork for charity." I think such a picture handiwork for charity. It has been the best men who have ever handiwork for charity. It has been the best men who have ever hand when I handiwork for charity. It has been the best men who have ever hand when I handiwork for charity. It has been the best men who have ever hand when I handiwork for charity. It has been the best men who have ever hand when I handiwork for charity. It has been the best men who have ever hand when I handiwork for charity. It has been the best men who have ever hand when I handiwork for charity. It has been the best men who have ever hand when I handiwork for charity. It has been the best men who have ever hand when I hand shut in the house hardly resting an hour between daylight and dark, and then going to and so I bought these candiesticks of Amy. It ing of herself would pain her. And when I learned accidentally, that the slight purchase, of goodness absolute if there are no temptations.

Surely it is no evidence wait for the wandering ones to come to you; many an aspiring soul: "Seek ye first the king-dom of God and his right-coursess." Let your soul work again by lamplight. You cannot go on was," she added, blandly, "a very pretty way to do a charity."

In on these canenesticks of Amy. It is no evidence was, she added, blandly, "a very pretty way to do a charity."

In on these canenesticks of Amy. It is no evidence of goodness absolute if there are no temptations. Jesus does not do that, He goes to them. Jesus does not do that, He goes to them. Jesus does not do that, He goes to them. Jesus does not do that, He goes to them. Jesus does not do that, He goes to them. Jesus does not do that, He goes to them. Jesus does not do that, He goes to them. Jesus does not do that, He goes to them. Jesus does not do that, He goes to them. Jesus does not do that, He goes to them. Jesus does not do that, He goes to them. Jesus does not do that, He goes to them. "Oh, mother! Don't say that!" said Amy, Mrs. Rogers was "returning calls," and in the was made not only a boast of charity, but was made not only a boast of charity, but was made not only a boast of charity, but was made not only a boast of charity, but was made not only a boast of charity, but was made not only a boast of charity, but was made not only a boast of charity, but was made not only a boast of charity, but was made not only a boast of charity, but was made not only a boast of charity, but was made not only a boast of charity, but was level, and the could exclaim "I have been in heaven, and the lust thereof;" its "Oh, mother! Don't say that!" said Amy, instantly arousing herself to vivacity and urging instantly arousing herself to vivacity and urging actual capital to the purchaser, winning by a large plane a house elaborately adorned and sur-large plane a house elaborately adorned and sur-large plane. I have been in heaven, and have possession. I have tested the heavenly large plane a house elaborately adorned and sur-large plane and its glory fly like a dream; those who seek great things fail to win them, and those

Every friend of the paper may give it valuable help by having a bad one. Every Free Baptist family should read the INTELLI-enemies of the soul in this way call out the troubles by running away from duty. Jonah I praise God; if I am cold, I praise God; if it Christian's hidden resources.

It is hardly probable that the same class or kind of temptations shall annoy the conquering soul for a great length of time. Grace will experiment assigned you by God's providence exposes you.

To become a Christian's hidden resources, and this way tail once made the experiment, but it did not succeed. Therefore, manfully meet and overcome the difficulties and trials to which the post assigned you by God's providence exposes you.

To become a Christian's hidden resources.

Transport of the difficulties and trials to which the post assigned you by God's providence exposes you. overcome and experience will fortify until the 2. To become a Christian of strength and wrong." Amy:

"Come with me. Ven are already with me.

under powerful necessities. Nothing else seems field, where it is continually beaten upon by the grown up to powerful strength and faith in God, man who is compelled to rely on his own rethen resistance and conquest will be easy. | sources forms an independence of character to which he could not otherwise have attained.

was as rosy as Adele six months ago. I thought and ruin of evil habits. It is only when we turn bend in anguish over their still forms; and it is A SISTER'S TEARS.—A young man, not very ing, gluttonous, peevish, conceited, bigoted Mrs. Deane approached him rather nervously a pleasant afternoon in our grove, with girls and our faces toward the light which shines from the well if no bitter regrets mingle with the tears long since, was on examination for ordination.

would have given pleasure. And accepted, thraldom of appetite and passion and made had, we might have won him to a better life. self up to infidel sentiments. He had a pious of Holiness.

ment of civilization, is incomparable. From the pust, forgiving, loving, and kind.

precepts of the religion He taught, from the in
Do not wait till the faithful, devoted wife, religion, she made no reply, but burst into a flood having preached to others, I myself should be a

"I told her you would not," said Mrs. Deane. ther within garden-walls in a secluded arbor, tend its leavening influence until "at the name in all this wide world fonder or happier than they will be won to thrist. "He that goeth her. Why, just look at these butterflies flying looking from a shrubberied eminence the rolling ven and things in earth and things under the Do not wait till the hands of the tired, patient doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing current of that resistless stream that sweeps in- and care that she has lavished upon you, and the letter. One day we were making our way we daily fail in offering the least? ition. "She is more artistic, I think, The first words gave Mrs. Deane a singular to oblivion the memory of high and low, the strive to make her last days restful, happy, and with ice-axe and alpenstock down the glacier, amateurs. "And the candlesticks, how do you "To-morrow we shall meet at church," said ject bending before the throne. On every foot their shepherds over the intricate windings be In order to enjoy the present it is necessary to Mrs. Rogers, "We shall meet at the commu- of earth, trodden by the coming and passing world will deal harshly enough with them; it is tween crevasses, and so passing from the pas- be intent on the present. To be doing one "They are lovely," said Mrs. Rogers. 'Twas in fact the sticks and not the candles that her the presence of our Lord there is something I pastures on the one side of the glacier to the pastures on the other. The flock had numbered factory made of spending life. and uncertainty of all human life and effort. hearts noble feelings and principles while you two hundred all told. But on the way one sheep But there is one kingdom whose power increases may; for, sooner than you think, other and had got lost. One of the shepherds, in his Canada. It ought to have the support of them all. "Dear Mrs. Deane," continued her neighbor, and the strength and glory of which is ever ad- less holy influences will be brought to bear upon German patois, appealed to us if we had seen it. purchase of mine. Do you really like them?

I was not quite sure whether they were strictly against them to earn her own living, would you in great depths; and the fallen. Kind words and kindly acts can not hurt them, and may do this bit a fairney and tell you and kindly acts can not hurt them, and may do the world.

They were a impetuously, "If you had a darling relative who placed in unhappy circumstances, was struggling against them to earn her own living, would you amid a tangle of brushwood, on the rocky mountain and kindly acts can not hurt them, and may do the world. shepherd, without a word, left his hundred and singly pinety pine sheep out in the clasier waste.

The Conference, each year, urges the ministers to make effect to increase the circulation of the INTELLIGENCES. ninety-nine sheep out in the glacier waste, The Golden Rule is a safe one for everybody, especially (knowing they would stand there perfectly still and safe), and went clambering back after the lost sheep until he found it. And he actually PAISLEY and WOOL SHAWLS who, like Mrs. Rogers, were new-comers to the say that I have no relative who is an object of dren would want to know the way to be saved, eyes; though the shepherd was all unconscious town. They were both excited—Miss Folger charity. Mr. Deane's cousin, to be sure, Mrs. probationary days. Woe be to them that build for He has told it so simply in a sentence which of it. And it brought our Lord's teaching home

P. MCPEAKE. Deane, evidently aware that she was addressing soul has to bear, would be an unkindness and and walk in the comfort and joy it is meant to thing, children, because He was once just like did, must take care that they end as the aposte they end as the aposte they are so poor!" and here Mrs. Deane, evidently aware that she was addressing soul has to bear, would be an unkindness and and walk in the comfort and joy it is meant to thing, children, because He was once just like did, must take care that they end as the aposte the end and the end of the part. But they are so poor!" and here Mrs. to cold eyes of whatever indignities her brave Christ Jesus. Shall we grasp it, embrace it, ample. You can tell Jesus anything and every- and safe because they begin as the apostle far apart as the east is from the west.

This precious Saviour "came to seek." Ah! SEEK THEM NOT.—When Jeremiah the prowe often look for things, but fail to find them. phet was pouring out his words of warning Jesus seeks "until he finds it." He comes to and lamentation over apostate Israel, he said seek and to save. Who? The lost. And who to Baruch the Scribe, the son of Neriah, who the assaults of Satan, for grace has conquered back until we hear His voice close to our side, and prosperity; earthly ambitions may have abmy heart;" but alas! in a new method Satan calling us by name, and see His dear pierced sorbed his soul, and his gaze might thus have be-

she is so sweet-looking, so refined. And I know, of the oppressed than we are aware of merited heaven and eternal blessedness by the when the said ( But the poor child is injuring herself blessedness by the looking, so refined. And I know, of the oppressed than we are aware of merited heaven and eternal blessedness by the looking of the oppressed than we are aware of merited heaven and eternal blessedness by the looking. The poor man thanked him. "Good morning." The poor man thanked him, but he added he did not exactly remember ever

When the victory is gained by the heart at one point, Satan leaves, and, as in the case of John liever. It burns up the dross, and makes the gold shine forth with unalloyed lustre.

What are is to gold, such is affection to the believer. Gold should thrust him into hell at last. "Thrust me into hell? that he will never do," answered

The INTELLIGENCER needs every dollar due-needs it-

WHAT IS WANTED. - We want in you a Christianity that is Christian across counters, 4. To be a growing man by looking to your over dinner tables, behind the neighbor's back as position in society for influence instead of bringing influence to your position. Therefore prefer we can find in the temperance of the meal, in rather to climb up the hill with difficulty than moderation of dress, in respect for authority, in to be steamed up by a power outside yourself. amiability at home, in veracity and simplicity in mixed society. Rowland Hill used to say he Do not persuade yourself that witholding your payment whose very dog and cat were not the better for boys of her own age, would do her good. Now Cross, and witness the progress and triumphs of we shed upon their white faces. Oh! life is In relating his Christian experience and call to public religious measures, institutions, beneve-Christians. To make them effectual, sil our lent agencies, missions, need to be managed on a high-toned, scrupulous, unquestionable sense of honor, without evasion or partisanship, or overmuch of the serpent's cunning. The hand that "Will each present subscriber try to get one new sub-guided the vessel of faith, yet himself swept

RANDOM READINGS.

To hide a sin is to nurse a serpent. Heart-work must be God's work. Only the great Heart-maker, can be the Heart-breaker. If I love Him, my heart will be filled with His Hundreds of 1878 subscriptions are unpaid. Ought Spirit, and obedience to His commands.—Baxter.

Father! take not away

The burden of the day. But help me that I bear it As Christ his burden bore, When cross and thorn He wore And none with Him could share it In His name, heip! I pray. I only ask for grace To see that patient face, And my impatient one; Ask that mine grow like His-Sign of an inward peace From trust in Thee alone, Unchanged by time or place.

-E. R. Champlin.

Send your subscription by next mail, if possible God is not in eternity, but eternity in God. Whosoever ath Christ cannot be poor; whonever wants Him cannot be rich.

Righteousness and self-righteousness are as Free Baytist misters should take the paper into the older and speak to the people about it.

Co. SUITABLE

1878.

PARLORS CHURCHES ORGANS.

PE ORGANS tes and price lists ANS and PIANOS 500 of our Instru-the last two years, our friends and the est aim and endea-isfaction to all our ANDRY & CO.

FOY'S SUPPORTER RITY EVERY YEAR, COMFORT, and ledge the BEST HARMON, w Haven Conn. EERLY, quality of Bells, NTED. new ILLESTRATED F UNIVERSAL DGE, for so much ARNESS.

TALTY.

HN, N. B.

Orders solicites.

-LAW. ct, Fredericton. egotiated on good mar 31-1v RD. puare. Angola bened of these fash-itings; 25 cts. per cus in Mourning st article made at Goods in all the being sold below lain, Striped and sizes, shapes and ents and Night proidery. Also spection. Outfits have them made & ALLISON. vassing agents in for the new DOMINION or ges, and over 300 k is published in ne to every Engee a permanent Don't fail to etc. This is a make more than with their proanufactured at a istic and mechal to the Publish-Xavier street, MONTREAL, QU. La dec. and LEATHER Curriers' Tools PETERS. l sold on Com-W. P.

ET SQUARE

RINE LL. ud Broker. STREET,

IBBONS

sand Dollars MPANY.

my.

the time Inand damage eter of the argoes and at World. terms and nd Broker.

ERS,

ling a beautiful bons, in a great ALLISON. PROMPTLY

ice Co. INCE CO. ARINE

ANY,

STREET,