I walk down the Valley of Silence, Down the dim voiceless valley alone, And I hear not the sound of a footstep Around me, but God's and my own And the hush of my heart is as holy As hovers where angels have flown,

Long ago was I weary of voices Whose music my soul could not win; Long ago was I weary of noises That fretted my soul with their din; Long ago was I weary of places Where I met but the human and sin.

I walked in the world with the worldly, Yet I craved what the world never gave; And I said, in the world each ideal, That shines like a star on life's wave, Is toned on the shores of the real, And sleeps like a dream in the grave.

And still did I pine for the perfect, And still found the false with the true; I sought 'mid the human of heaven, And caught a mere glimpse of its blue, And I sighed when the clouds of the mortal Veiled even that glimpse from my view.

And I toiled on, heart-tired of the human, And groaned 'mid the masses of men; Till I knelt long ago at an altar, And heard a voice call me. Since then I walk down the Valley of Silence

That lies far beyond human ken. Do you ask what I found in the Valley? 'Tis my trysting-place with the Divine; And I fell at the feet of the Holy And around me a voice said : "Be Mine! And then rose from the depths of my soul An echo, "My heart shall be Thine."

Do you ask how I live in the Valley? I weep, and I dream, and I pray; But my tears are as sweet as the dew-drops That fall on the roses in May; And my prayer like a perfume from censer, Ascendeth to God, night and day.

In the hush of the Valley of Silence I hear all the songs that I sing ; And the music floats down the dim Valley Till each finds a word for a wing; That to men like the doves of the deluge The message of peace they may bring.

But far on the deep there are billows That never shall break on the beach, And I have heard songs in the silence That never shall float into speech, And I have had dreams in the Valley Too lofty for language to reach. And I have seen thoughts in the Valley-

Ah, me ! now my spirit was stirred !-They wear holy veils on their faces, Their footsteps can scarcely be heard They pass down the Valley like virgins, Too pure for the touch of a word.

Do you ask me the place of this Valley To hearts that are harrowed by care? It lieth afar between mountains, 'And God and his angels are there; And one is the dark mount of sorrow,

And one the bright mountain of prayer. The Lireside.

THE LITTLE SISTER.

One summer morning as I sat at my window to usual airing with the other little folks of our neighborhood, I noticed a boy about ten years of age, leading by the hand a child, perhaps three years of exclaimed age. > THE LAND OF FADELESS BEAUTY. BY REV. ARTHUR J. LOCKHART.

There's a land of fadeless beauty, Bright, beyond the narrow sea, Where the rainbow lasts for ever, And the stars eternal be; Homes no human hand can fashion

There forever shall endure ; Spirits free from earthly passion-Spirits, deathless, glad and pure. There's a land where chilly winter

Never spreads its frosty gloom ; Where no deadly blight can wither Gardens of perennial bloom : Tis a land where never sorrow

Bids the mourner's tears to flow; Where no frowning, dark to-morrow Ever dawns on human woe. Yet in all my finest fancies

Never rose so fair a dream As this land beyond the waters. And its dayspring's living gleam. Where, in arms of Love enfolden, I my cherished ones shall see; Oh, this clime so glorious, golden,

Holds a happy home for me!

The following certificate should be read by all the remedy ever discovered for curing it. The following certificate should be read by all the afflicted; it is in every respect true.

A MOST REMAR RABLE CURE.

Tonganoxie, Leavenworth Co., Kan., April 2, 1876.
SETH S. HANCE,—Dear Sir:—The Epileptic Pills that I received from you last September have accomplished all that you recommended them to do. My son is hearty, stout, and robust; he is as hearty as any child in Kansas—indeed he is in the manner a new boy, being red and rosy. Before he commenced taking your Pills he was a very pale and delicate looking child, and had Epileptic Fits for about four years, and seeing your Pills advertised in the Christian Instructor, I sent to you and got two boxes of them, and he has not had a fit since he commenced taking them; he has been exposed to all changes of weather in going to school and on the farm, and he has not had a Fit nor a sympton of one since he commenced taking your Pills. He learns well as school, and his mind is clear and quick. I feel that you are not sufficiently paid for the service and benefit you kave been to us to rectoring our circulars, so that I can send them to any that I hear of that is afflicted with Epilepsy. Please send me some of your circulars, so that I can send them to any that I hear of that is afflicted in that way.

Respectfully, etc., LEWIS THORNBRUGH.
