Wanted, a perfect lady, Delicate, gentle, refined, With every beauty of person, And every endowment of mind : Fitted by early culture To move in fashionable life-Please notice our advertisement : "Wanted, a minister's wife."

Wanted, a thoroughbred worker, Who well to the household looks: (Shall we see our money wasted By extravagant Irish cooks?) Who cuts the daily expenses With economy sharp as a knife, And washes and scrubs in the kitchen: "Wanted, a minister's wife!"

A "very domestic person." To "callers" she must not be "out," It has such a bad appearance For her to be gadding about; Only to visit a parish

Every year of her life, And attend the funerals and weddings : "Wanted, a minister's wife!"

To conduct the "ladies' meeting," The "sewing-circle" attend; And when we "work for the soldiers," Her ready assistance to lend. To clothe the destitute children Where sorrow and want are rife, And look up Sunday-school scholars: "Wanted, a minister's wife!"

Careful to entertain strangers, Travelling agents and "such;" Of this kind of "angel visits," The deacons have had so much As to prove a perfect nuisance, And hope these plagues of their life Can soon be sent to the parson's : "Wanted, a minister's wife!"

A perfect pattern of prudence, Than all others spending less, But never disgracing the parish By looking shabby in dress; Playing the organ on Sunday Would aid our laudable strife To save the society money : "Wanted, a minister's wife!"

But when we have found the person, We hope, by working the two, To lift our debt and build a new church, Then we shall know what to do; For they will be worn and weary, Needing a change of life, And then we'll advertise. " Wanted, A minister and his wife !" - New York Observer.

THE CHASE AFTER A RABBIT, AND WHAT IT LED TO. BY THE REV. W. E. GRIFFIS.

Three-quarters of a century ago there lived at turn. Galway, in Saratoga County, New York, a boy An hour later, when the night had grown still that it was all play and no work that made "Jo" a look of desperation in his eyes.

Those who knew him well, noticed that he was fond recognizing me. of animals and of observing their ways. He especially loved rabbits, in spite o. their powers of multiplication, which compelled him to and trailed me so persistently. provide more food and watch his pets more carefully.

A ragged, sad-eyed boy, aged nine or ten, stop ped me on the street the other day and said : "I haven't had anything to eat this whole day! Won't you please give me ten cents?" I gave it to him. I'd have given him the money if it had been necessary to pawn my hat.

"Do you let impostors swindle you in that man ner?" inquired an aquaintance. A journalist who has knocked about for a faily paper for a dozen years, has seen every phase of To bloom by power supernal as a rose of soft June human life. I told my friend why, and I will tell you. One day last year, when the wild wind blew the wind over the house-roofs and around the corners in blinding clouds, and when the frosty air cut one's face like a knife, a boy of ten came up to me as I waited for the car. He was thinly clad, his face a consonant. betrayed hunger and suffering, and in a mournful voice he pleaded:

"I'm hungry and cold !" "Why don't you go home?" "I haven't any !" "Haven't you any relatives?" "Not one !"

"How long have you been there?" "Three weeks."

The boy spoke in that drawl which professional beggars assume. I believed, too, that I had seen his face on the streets time and again. I hardened my heart and said : "Boy! I know you, and if I catch you asking any one for money again I'll have you arrested!" He moved away quickly. I argued that proved his guilt, forgetting that a homeless, friendless waif tend; again, and get one who gathers after reapers. might evince fear when entirely innocent. But hours later, when night had come, and the wind had grown to a fierce gale, the boy hailed me again as I plunged through the snow-drifts. I did not see him until he called out : "Mister I'm almost starved, and I'll freeze to death if I can't get some place to sleep!"

The same thin, ragged clothes, hardly comfortable for June weather; the same whine to his voice. I felt like giving him money, but the fear that he had been sent out by his parents to beg restrained and angered me. Catching him by the arm, I yelled out: "See here, boy! if you don't own up that you are lying to me, I'll take you to the station!" Through the blinding storm I saw his white face grow paler, and he cried back :

"Don't take me-don't! Yes, I was lying!" I released him, and he hurried away, while I walked on, flattering myself that I had played a sharp game, and done the generous public a good

CURE OF EPILEPSY OR FALLING FITS
BY HANCE'S EFILEPTIC PILLS.
Persons suffering from this distressing malady will find Hance's Epileptic Pills to be the only remedy ever discovered for curing it. The following certificate should be read by all the cted; it is in every respect true.
A MOST REMAR KABLE CURE. A MOST REMARK KABLE CURE.

Tonganoxie, Leavenworth Co., Kan., April 2, 1876.

SETH S. HANCE.—Dear Sir:—The Epileptic Pills that I received from you last September have accomplished all that you recommended them to do. My son is hearty, stout, and robust; he is as hearty as any child in Kansas—indeed he is in the manner a new boy. being red and rosy. Before he commenced, taking your Pills he was a very pale and delicate looking child, and had Epileptic Fits for about four years, and seeing your Pills advertised in the Christian Instructor, I sent to you and got two boxes of them, and he has not had a fit since he commenced taking them; he has been exposed to all changes of weather in going to school and on the farm, and he has not had a Fit nor a sympton of one since he commenced taking your Pills. He learns well at school, and his mind is clear and quick. I feel that you are not sufficiently paid for the service and benefit you have been to us in restoring our child to health. I will cheerfully recommend your Pills to every one I hear of that is afflicted with Epilepsy. Please send me some of your circulars, so that I can send them to any that I hear of that is afflicted in that way.

Respectfully, etc., LEWIS THORNBRUGH. Sent to any part of the country by mail, free of postage, on receipt of a remittance. Price, one box, $3: two, $5: twelve, $27. Address SETH 8. HANCE, 108 Baltimore $4.

DR. CHANNING'S Sarsaparilla

FOR THE BLOOD A HIGHLY CONCENTRATED EXTRACT OF SYPHILIS. RED JAMAICA SARSAPARILLA SCROFULA, DOUBLE IODIDES SALT-RHEUM. Space, forbids the giving

Space, forbids the giving more testimony in this place, in favor of thus great medicine. Is not one certificate, however, from an eminent and well known Physician like Dr. Bessey of Montreal, sufficient to establish its superiority over the numerous mixtures called Blood Purifers of Greed by Drugy'sts and others? OF THE P. C. STRATTON. Psq. Montreal, Feb. 1st., 1875. I cannot but regard the ormula from which Dr. LIVER AND SPLEEN. hanning's Sarsaparilla is repared, as one of the est possible combinations RHEUMATIC to constitute an effectual remedy, for the care of Blood Impurities. Sofar as AFFECTIONS. Blood Impurities. So far as my experience has gore with this remedy. I can testify to its great valle in the treatment of vil Strumous and Cachect affections, as Glandular Enlargements, and a wide range of skin affection, as a reliable preparation for general use as a blood purifier. I know of none equal to it combining as it does, all the imputed virtues of Sarsapar ila, and several other valuable remedies, with the DISEASES OF THE KIDNEYS, BLADDER AND

URINARY remedies, with the extraord nary alterative properties of the "Fouble Iodides," and of rene that can be more highly recommended as safe, certain and reliable, and I have every con-LEUCORRHŒA, CATARRH. AND ALL and I have every conf-dense, that such a remedy DISEASES for general use, taking the place of the many worth-less mostrums of the day, will be a great buon to RESULTING FROM A DEPRAVED AND suffering humanity, and its use will be attended with the most satisfactory results. It should be invaluable to persons beyond the reach of medical advice, and will, no doubt, become popular with Medical men throughout the country. IMPURE CONDITION OF THE Respectfully yours, BLOOD. W E. BESSEY, M.D. 8 Beaver Hall Square, Nore.—Dr. Channing's Sarsaparilla is put up in large bottles, with the name blown in the glass, and retails at $1.00 per bottle, or Six Bottles for Five Dollars. Sold by Druggists generally, and most Country Stores. Be sure, and ask for Dr. Channing's Sarsaparilla, and take no other. If not readily obtained in your locality, address the General Agents.
