

she had complained because there were so many mouths to fill, so many plates to wash ; now, no task would be too great to perform for her darling, were she only there. Most of all did she miss the bed-time prayer and kiss; and with what bitter self-reproaches did she remember her own rebellious thoughts and words !

God's wisdom is great; his ways are past finding out, and doubtless all his purposes in a child's death are known only to himself; but the lesson this stricken mother learned in her hours of mourning was not in vain. There is a pained expression on her face whenever she hears a mother fret about the work to be done. for children; and the wisdom, patience, and firmness which she now manifests in her own when the creature lies prostrate in the weakfreshed, and nature returns to its morning vigor, in for a minute. You don't get out to our aged Christian, who, lying on his death-bed in ous of all around him. He replied : "When I

THEIR MOTTO IS :

QUICK SALES AND SMALL PROFITS.

THEY HAVE ONLY

vassing agents in on for the new

DOMINION OF

milicent, containk is published in ne to every Eng-ng men or ladies, tee a permanent ! Don't fail to s, etc. This is a make more than

g with their proanufactured at

tistic and mecha

e old well-known

d to the Publish

Xavier street,

MONTREAL, QU.

RNESS.

Orders solicited

Co.,

SUITABLE

FOR

PARLORS

AND

CHURCHES

E ORGANS

and price lists S and PIANOS

0 of our Instru-last two years.

the very liberal friends and the aim and endea-action to all our DRY & CO.

RINE

CY.

LL.

und Broker.

N STREET.

S PROMPTLY ASH.

1866, including Million, Nine,

E MILLION

usand Dollars

1803.

any,

rliament.)

IALL.

TIONERS.

A

RGANS.

CO.,

ES.

ALTY.

REET

THE

N, N. B.

61.

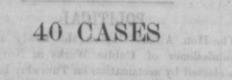

ONE PRICE

For their Goods, charging all alike. Parties not exchange.

NOW READY AT

LOGAN'S

FREDERICTON.

Notwithstanding the CHEAP SALES, he is

Selling LOW.

ing them from the manward side, they are effort of his own, has completely broken through said he, "I'm not afraid !" but in half an hour them. doomed. The end of worldly wisdom and the disguise of an anonymous writer, and stands the disguise of an anonymous writer, and stands dear Robbie Van Pelt was thrown from the All were deeply moved. Then, as if touched engaged in it." They purchase their Goods at the means are exhausted. How seldom they reflect of an extraordinary popularity. Even his perlowest market rates, and sell them with that the most efficient of all means remains unter the means remains unter the lower is minutely described. The lis heart to Jesus and so was ready to deart to Jesus and so was ready to deart.

rily an increase of vitality already existing, an "Close upon six feet tall, square-shouldered, intensifying of activity, and a renewal of con- straight as a pine tree, a soldier every inch of secration to Christian work, is the most potent him, his bronzed and handsome face close shaved this strange horse ; he may throw you and kill measure a church can seek. It is as much all but a mustache, once brown, now gray; a you. Then, if you should be lost forever! Oh, better than an increase of facilities, as healthi- black coat, buttoned across his broad chest, on how dreadful ness in an army is of more consequence than which a row of military decorations is neatly ambulances and hospitals ; the latter being less hung ; the red and white ribbon and cross of St. necessary as health is carefully maintained. Stanislas around his neck-that is Archibald perished. What are camps and barracks if filled with Forbes, once of the Royal Dragoons, now war voyage of life. indolent men, destitute of the spirit of patriotic correspondent of the Daily News, and one of the are magnificent churches and complete appoint- The Times and other London journals, that ments, if the members are unfaithful ?. rarely name a rival paper or any one connected love and power guide you through all dangerous words : A true revival is just that energizing of latent with it, have freely spoken of the extraordinary and perilous passages and land you safely in the force which makes a church effective and draws distinction he has won. The Paris papers inhelp. Christians do not know how much they terview him, and publish sketches of his life. can do, except when enjoying the normal condi- Mr. Gladstone has given a lecture in reply to his acquainted with the value of Dry Goods, can buy tion of the religious life. The joy of the Lord famous article in the Nineteenth Century; but of M. & E. as low as a person who is a competent is their strength. They frequently need a resto- frankly admitted that Mr. Forbes had perhaps ration of the joys of salvation as a preparation surpassed every other writer in the brilliancy for labor. They then know what those words and fidelity of his military descriptions. The of the Saviour mean : " My yoke is easy, and my Emperor of Russia sent for him and consulted burden is light," as they do not know at other him respecting the difficulties of the route to be They want Homespun, for times. The same members who think a church taken by his army; and Her Majesty Queen which they will give Dry Goods in debt an extinguisher of the cause, will, when Victoria sent for him to come to see her at Balrevived, find, out a method of extinguishing the moral. The Duke of Sutherland came all the debt. A few backsliders, leaders in a church, way from his castle of Dunrobin in Scotland to some faith or other, traditional or authoritative. are like a torpid liver; the body at large can London to see Forbes and hear his lecture on the multitude at well but more chousely without the church, and left me lying on a lounge, sleeping and May Adams follow time and more and more the multitude at well but more chousely without the church and left me lying on a lounge, sleeping and May Adams follow time and more an not dispense with them, and yet there can be war. His brethren of the London press have multitudes as well, but more obscurely, without off my previous night's debauch. I was aroused and Mrs. Adams, feeling tired and nervous, was folly. - Aristotle.

affect the whole body, rendering it unequal to rides, in which he distanced all others, under interest of life." ask for it. Or, if reduced to extremities, it gets have gained himseveral foreign orders for bravery upon himself the attention of his fellow-passenaid as a sick person would, simply as charitable on the battle-field—the brilliant and correct dis-relief rather than as a contribution to the multic laimed as facts in the New Testament history laimed as facts in the New Testament history laimed as facts in the New Testament history relief rather than as a contribution to the public good. Men of business views do not care to support a lifeless church continually; they are persuaded that its mission is to impart vitality rather than to receive it. The community rather than to receive it. The community close this brief sketch with the following referhave a right to expect that the public morals ence by Mr. Smalley to Mr. Forbes' interview mony to this effect, and in corroboration of the I did. No lecture I ever heard from Mr. Gough tears. Rather ashamed, but still desiring his will show the beneficent power of the church, with the Emperor of Russia, taken from one of found in the writings of men heathen or Jaws under any circumstances, and they are ready to his recent lectures :---"His clothes, once white, found in the writings of men, heathen or Jews sweet boys "playing drunk as papa does." I At first he laughingly declared she was indeed make material returns for it when called upon. But it is not in keeping with the Christian upon fession to look for means of power to any other saving influence is to be expended are shall be dideed are shall be the days and nights without taking off, and the days and nights without taking off, and there days and nights without taking without taking off, and there days and nights without

Increased attendance upon church services is __hence his hesitation about presenting himself a man of strong intellect and a powerful will, also assured by revivals. The people like to in this plight. However, he was assured that, in his scepticism as enthusiastic as he was "unwitness religious fervor, and deem it important in the circumstances, a court costume would not learned." are drawn by it. A Pentecostal fire will arouse Forbes l' said the Emperor. 'No,' said Mr. than he himself probably was aware of, when he parent gives the fatal push which sends the boy greatness in every human life. Think of the said to the parent gives the fatal push which sends the boy greatness in every human life. Think of the said to the parent gives the fatal push which sends the boy greatness in every human life. and call out the multitude. If it be only of Forbes, 'I was in the cavalry,' 'I did not said : short duration, some will become fixed in habits know,' replied the Emperor, ' that English cav-church thereby receives good assurance that it will have public attention, with whatever sup-

'ILL RISK IT."

that the most efficient of all means remains un-that the most efficient of all means remains un-that the most efficient of all means remains un-this heart to Jesus, and so was ready to depart another his ring; another his book of prayer; another his ring; another his book of prayer; take some comfort then; but I tell you what 'tis,

Suppose he had not been a christian, and I the old man to remount.

He might have said, " I'll risk it," and thus thanking God for so strange an escape. There are dangers, my young friend, on the service ? What are guns and ammunition even, four or five men who have won fame in the pre- of your salvation ? He loves you. He bled and WHEREVER THERE'S A BOY, THERE died on the cross to save you. He is the only one that can save you. Yes, He will in great skillful professional man in about the following haven of eternal rest. -Christian at Work.

"UNLEARNED" SCEPTICISM.

Alexander Vinet, so long the friend and coaborer of D'Aubigne at Geneva, has in one place in his writings the following suggestive passage :

beneath the vague but constant profession of my family were pinched for daily bread. no healthy action while they are in a morbid honored him with a banquet. Was ever news- honored him with a banquet. Was ever news- the interest of thought section to be sufficient to be sufficient to be sufficient to be sufficient to be sufficient.

and still another led up his horse, and assisted take some comfort then ; but I tell you what 'tis, children are troublesome comforts any way, and Then all the robbers, as if quite ashamed of the older they grow the worse they are. I've having thought of harming so good a man, went brought up one, and I speak from experience." ascension, "both in Jerusalem, in all Judea, up and asked his blessing. John Kane gave it Mrs. Adams smiled as she thought of the self- and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost parts with a devout feeling, and then rode on his way, willed youth who had never known restraint or of the earth." This evidently applies to believcorrection.

not depart from it." A friend gave me lately the experience of a "Mamma, come and see to Chester ! He's the truth."-Rev. Wm. Taylor. bulling the baby's hair."

"There, that's just the way ! It's mamma mamma,' from morning till night. I warrant

"My early practice," said the doctor, "was you get sick of the name sometimes. Well, it's successful, and I soon attained an enviable posi- a great responsibility to bring up a family ;" and tion. I married a lovely girl; two children the neighbor went out as suddenly as she had were born to us, and my domestic happiness was come in.

complete. But I was invited often to social Deeply did Mrs. Adams feel her responsibility parties where wine was freely circulated, and I well did she realize the care and work her childsoon became a slave to its power. Before I was ren needed ; but the mother-love in her heart aware of it I was a drunkard. My noble wife had hitherto overborne all repining thoughts. never forsook me, never taunted me with a It is true there had been times of perplexity and "The uneducated man is alternately deist and bitter word, never ceased to pray for my reforpantheist, fatalist, and devotee, and all this mation. We became wretchedly poor, so that flection and prayer, an encouraging word, or some loving baby wile, had always dispelled the condition; and their biliousness brings on a monored min with a banquet. Was ever news-paper correspondent so highly honored ? But he has fairly won all these honors. The long the multitude, in the long the multitude, in the paper correspondent so highly honored? But he has fairly won all these honors. The long interest of life."

SHOULD NEVER BE A BOTTLE.

putting a wine-glass right before his own children. It is the ready excuse of many a young to destruction.

will have public attention, with whatever support assurance that is in pression that military draughtsmanship was a burlesque upon Christianity, and will not be patronized.

work, and I hope sometime to be more actively am poor and needy ; yet the Lord thinketh

YE ARE MY WITNESSES.

'Ye are my witnesses," saith the Lord, "Ye shall be witnesses unto me," said the Saviour on Mount Olivet in his last utterance before his ers, and through all time, and every part of the "Still, Mrs. Lee, I have great confidence in earth, "till none shall say to another, ' Know he words of the wise man : 'Train up a child in ye the Lord,' but all shall know him." Now a the way he should go; and when he is old he will witness must testify to facts as he knows them " the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but

THE GOODNESS OF GOD.

"Grandma," said a little girl to her aged grandmother, "I cried last night." "What was the matter, my dear ?" inquired the old lady. Why, after I went to to bed last night, I got thinking about the goodness of God, and I couldn't go to sleep. It made me feel so that I cried. Why, only think, grandma, if it wasn't for the

"The sure way to miss success is to miss the pportunity.

No excellent soul is exempt from a mixture of

There is a long and wearisome step between admiration and imitation."

Philosophy, if rightly defined, is naught but the love of wisdom.

' Hypocrites are beings of darkness disguised in the garment of light."

Fear is the white-lipped sire of subterfuge and treachery. -- Mrs. Sigourney.

It is the last step of reason to know here is an infinity of things which surpass it. - Pascal.

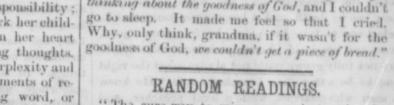

It facilitates the work of ministers, when theydeal with such as have some knowledge of the things of God to which they may appeal, and on

" Listen to me, my dear. You must think of Bacon.

things as they are, not of what might have been. When God proposes to accomplish any given end, to Christian effectiveness (which is the greatest need of a community), whether they care to be-come subjects of it, percently or do not They. come subjects of it, personally, or do not. They position : 'You are an artillery officer, Mr. Vinet. The deistical poet said a wiser thing drinking saloon. The thoughtless or reekless in overy human life. Think of the permission. privilege of training immortal souls for eternity.

There is no bank or har of difficulty over which

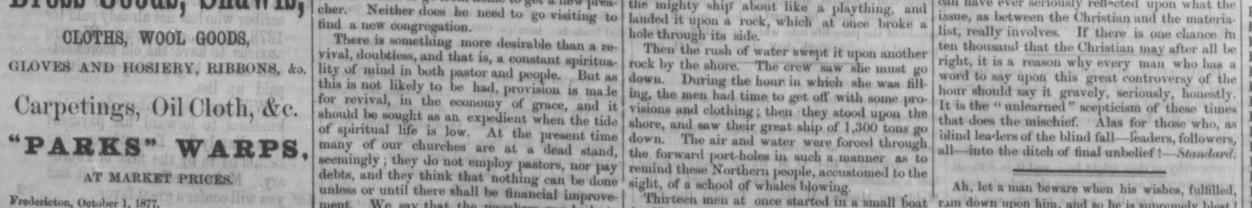

She awoke, as the clock struck eleven, from to act on no occasion contrary to justice, and to dreaming of a huge dog that was barking at bear with the weakness of those about him-Samu l little Alice, to hear from the crib, at her side, Smiles.

Fredericton, October 1, 1877.

Revivals improve the quality of preaching. versity education, but chose to diversify his ca the ultimate outcome of all the conflict between Of all pursuits the ministry is the most difficult reer by serving as private in a dragoon regi- the teachings of religion and certain deliver-Note the Prices. and burdensome, if sympathy with it is lacking ment." in those who choose it as a profession. And such sympathy is assured only by sustaining spiritual life, or by recovering the joys of salvation when lost. The truth needs to be enjoyed BY REV. PAYSON HAMMOND, as well as known. An increase of knowledge On the 8th of June, the United States steamer naturally increases the desire to make it known, Saranac, with 300 men on board, left San Franwhile the love of it vitalizes preaching and cisco for Alaska and Behring's Straits. All makes it effective. Preachers who are dull and went well until she reached the famous Seymour uninteresting, in their ordinary state of mind, Narrows, about 200 miles north of Victoria, B. become a burning and shining light when re- C. At these Narrows, as the tide rises and falls, wide interest by the vital influence of his own spirit. And it often occurs that a revival proves to be the very thing necessary to open the eyes of a minister to the great and glorious though he could make his way through at any the eyes of a minister to the great and glorious thought he could make his way through at any It is impossible that they who deal flippantly Dress Goods, Shawls, the eyes of a minister to the great and glorious truths of the Bible; so that by this means he becomes essentially a new man, and the church does not need to go from home to get a new preating the mighty ship about like a plaything, and the mighty ship about like a plaything, and the materia-hole through its side. There is something more desirable than a re-ival, doubtless, and that is, a constant spiritua-rock by the shore. The crew saw the must con-GLOVES AND HOSIERY, RIBBONS, &o. vival, doubtless, and that is, a constant spiritua-bity of mind in both pastor and people. But as the new saw she must go down. During the hour in which she was fill-this is not likely to be had provision is made in the task of which she was fill-hour should say it gravely, seriously, honestly. this is not likely to be had, provision is made ing, the men had time to get off with some pro-It is the "unlearned" scepticism of these times for revival, in the economy of grace, and it visions and clothing; then they stood upon the that does the mischief. Alas for those who, as comes of a good British family, and had a uni- that to concern need be felt by Christians as to gelist ances of science. As to the ultimate outcome, we fully believe, there is no occasion of concern.

which it has passed. But meantime, how is it ? It may be supposed that a man like Professor

For thinking before speaking ;

Ah, let a man beware when his wishes, fulfilled, For asking pardon for all wrongs; unless or until there shall be financial improve-ment. We say that the members can look to for Nanaimo, 150 miles south, to get assistance. -Fougue.

HOW TO TREAT A PASTOR.

YOU WILL NOT BE SORRY For hearing before judging ;

For holding an angry tongue; For stopping the ear to a tale-bearer ; For disbelieving most of the floating scandal For refusing to kick a fallen man ; For being kind to the distressed ;

For being patient toward everybody ; For doing good to all men ; For walking uprightly before God For lending to the Lord ;

For laying up treasure in heaven ;

An exchange prints a report of a recent that peculiar, ringing cough she had learned to PUNCTUALITY is the soul of business, and yet it Christianity will be as thoroughly victorious in sion of the installation of a pastor, from which Arising, she dressed, and calling her husband Thousands have failed in life from this cause alone.

as quickly as possible, hearing, at intervals, that It is not only a serious vice in itself, but the fruit-"Dear Brethren, I suggest that you pray for terrible cough. When the doctor arrived he ful parent of numerous other vices, so that he who Tyndal has a way of adjusting in his own mind his materialistic science with a certain form of religious belief, so as not to be the atheist he seems to be. But while he is "learned," and so both individually and collectively; support the the remainder of the night, and through the the merchant wasteful of time, saps the business vived. Their complaint of being appreciated is often referable to a lack of an ardent spirit in the swiftness between the narrow ledges of rocks often referable to a lack of an ardent spirit in themselves. For one live man can create a The charts warn overv nilot arginst attempting them, they are the charts warn overv nilot arginst attempting to the abandons them, they are him from the calls "the multi-tion from the calls" the multi-tion from the calls "the multi-tion from the calls" the multi-tion from the calls "the multi-tion from the calls" the multi-tion from the calls "the multi-tion from the calls" the multi-tion from the calls "the multi-tion from the calls" the multi-tion from the calls "the multi-tion from the calls" the multi-tion from the calls "the multi-tion from the calls" the multi-tion from the calls "the multi-tion from the calls" the multi-tion from the calls "the multi-tion from the calls" the calls "the multi-tion from the calls" the calls" the multi-tion from the calls" the multi-tion from the calls" the multi-tion from the calls" the of mechanics who might otherwise rise to fortune themselves. For one live man can create a with the man of the charts warn every pilot against attempting with the man of the charts warn every pilot against attempting to go through at these times and also point out to go through at the go the the g > brush her face with her tiny hand and whisper, temperance. The Baptists and Methodist churches. as well as the Lutheran, co-operated in the work "Poor mamma !" More labored became the child's breathing, and in many instances the pastors of all worked more dreadful her suffering ; but before evening unitedly." and and of retainches of de-

the agony of suffocation was past, and the child Mr. Moody's work in Burlington is continuing was with him who still loves and blesses little with great but wonderful power. There have been

So sudden was the attack, so speedy the a great many conversions. The daily union noon death, that not until after the funeral did the prayer meetings have shown no abatement of infather and mother fully realize how great the terest, the regular church prayer-meetings have loss they had sustained. Chester's tones and been wonderfully revived, and the union Sabbath the baby's cooing were heard as before; but evening services attended by crowded andiences. Alice's voice was silent ; her chair was vacant. The churches have voted to continue the union How much they missed her baby-womanly movement through the winter, to observe a day of ways! As Laura Adams prepared the evening special prayer, and to hold union services on three meal, what a pang it brought to recall the last evenings of each week. After all, the old-fashioned supper that Alice had eaten with them. Then religion seems to work as well as ever.