have heard from hundreds who have used them Shoe Business, which will, during the next three months, engage the most of my attention. I therefore regret that I will not be able to visit you personally at your houses, and explain more fully my views on political economy, etc. In all probability the most of you will visit our city before the elections take place, and I therefore extend to you and all a hearty invitation to visit me at my Store on Queen street, where you will find me selling goods at such prices as will justify the law officers in coming to the conclusion that I am engaged in wholesale bribery and corruption. I again wish to express my regrets at not being able to see you at your houses, but in the mean time will do as much shaking hands, etc., as I can, and hope that if I cannot induce you to vote for me, I can at all events convince you that you can save money by buying your Boots, Shoes, Clothing, etc., at my Store, While I remain,

Honors at Sydney, Australia.

On June 11th, 1877, the C. W. Williams' Manuacturing Company received Official Notice from Sydney, Australia, that their Williams' Singer was awarded the Highest Honors as the best Family Sewing Machine on exhibition at the World's Fair. held there in April and May, 1877. There were in ompetition with the Williams' Singer, four other different Canadian Machines, and nearly all of the leading American and English makers, yet notwithstanding all this competition, the Williams' Singer came out victorious, as it always does, when the merits of the Machines are allowed to be the standard on which the prize is given.
