

THE RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCER.

any expert whompon been bound to the Government, has made no report thereupon been made to the Government. In the fall of 1877 Messrs. Perley and McQueen, two members of the Government, made a personal investigation of the hole line of the Great South Railways and thenceforward the Government that the grading of the whole line was nearly completed and the general work satisfactorily progressing.

Mr. Ryan gave notice of a resolution for papers relating to the section of Lazarre during 1878-79 to the appropriate inspectors; sums paid same with service performed.

Mr. Wedderburn laid before the House the papers relating to the penitentiary.

Mondays—Mr. Johnson rose to a question of privilege relating to the way in which his speech had been printed in a newspaper. He had sat in the House since 1869, and never before had his broken English been publicly ridiculed.

Mr. Sayre moved for a committee to whom he referred his resolution relating to the assessment of the amount due the commissioners of New Brunswick.

The Provincial Secretary laid on the table the report of the Society of Agricultural Society for 1878.

Mr. Butler moved House into committee of whole to consider and to amend, in general, A. Provisions relating to the payment of compensation to be made by the Government to their dependents.

The bill was referred to a committee of whole to consider and to amend, in general, A. Provisions relating to the payment of compensation to be made by the Government to their dependents.

Mr. Butler moved House into committee of whole to consider and to amend, in general, A. Provisions relating to the payment of compensation to be made by the Government to their dependents.

Mr. Lynton moved House into committee to consider bill to establish liens in certain cases. Mr. Lynton urged the passage of bill in a lengthened address. The State of Maine had such a measure passed in November last. Mr. A. B. Sheraton's war-torments were on two different occasions, robbed of silk and other articles of considerable value. Mr. Sheraton had reason to suspect some parties of the robbery, and he communicated his suspicions to the police, but they, of course, were utterly incompetent to deal with the matter, and Mr. Sheraton was left to work up the case himself. This he did with very satisfactory results. On Wednesday last he caused the arrest of a man named Kigan, who keeps a shop on Portland, and that of a young man named Brewing, who was for some time in Mr. Sheraton's employ. Kigan's house was searched, and some lace curtains, hearth rugs, etc., which have been identified by Mr. Sheraton, were found. On the previous day, the house of Kigan's brother, near Enniskillen station, was searched and it was found a trunk addressed to Miss Maggie Barry, containing nearly all of the stolen silk and some other property. Kigan (of Portland) has been released on bail, but Brewing is still in custody. Another young man, named James McCreary, who was also in Mr. Sheraton's employ, and who is suspected of being engaged in the affair, cannot be found, and is believed to have left the city. A petition to the Minister of Justice, praying him to inquire into the fact of the alleged illness of George McCann, a prisoner from St. Andrews, confined in the Provincial Penitentiary, with a view to his release or the mitigation of his punishment, is signed at St. Andrews... Ship Turkish Empire, West, from St. John to Dublin with deals, went ashore at Big Duck Island, Grand Manan, or Friday night. She is a total loss. Captain and six men drowned. Pilot and seven men saved. Capt. West belonged to Halifax, Albert County, where his wife is at present living with her father, Mr. William Reed, having left for there a few days ago before the vessel sailed. She accompanied him on his last voyage... The crew consisted of sixteen men before the mast, besides the captain, first and second mates, boatswain, carpenter, cook and steward. Subjoined is a list of the ship's company, and where they hail from, as far as was known last night:—A. J. West, Harvey, A. C. captain; Mr. Reed, Liverpool, Eng., first officer; Mr. Humphreys, Chester, Eng., second officer; Mr. Jenkins, Yarmouth, N. S., carpenter; William Thompson, Dover, England, boatman; John Foley, Waterford, Ireland; John Peter Swanson, Denmark, Nicolson Johnson, Norway, and William Morris, New York, seaman... L. P. Fisher, Esq., was re-elected Mayor of Woodstock Monday, by a majority of forty-five.... The Sun says, that on Monday afternoon, a boy by the name of Thomas Fennell was watching with a number of other boys, a man named Thomas Bishop cutting away the stakes that supported the square pine timber on one of the cars that had just been shunted into the Haymarket Square. Fennell was standing nearer than any of the boys, and when the stake gave way the logs came rolling down on the top of him and one of them, a large and heavy squared pine timber, fell on his head, crushing it on the left side, and killing him almost instantly. Several bystanders lifted the logs off the unfortunate boy and took his body out. On examination it was found that he was dead. His remains were then taken to his mother's house, near by, on the eastern side of the Haymarket square. The mother was away from home when the accident occurred.... The latest particulars of the wreck of the Turkish Empire furnished to the Globe by Pilot Clinch were that the Government is now the owner of the vessel and that it had been sold to a Mr. Wilfred Lawton, declaring that the inhabitants of various localities should have the means of restraining, by some efficient system of local option, the issue of the liquor license, so that those who do not drink may be compelled to do so.... The Emperor and Empress will visit the Crimean for their health, about the middle of April. This announcement is regarded as a sufficient contradiction of the rumors of dissension between the Czar and Czarowitch.

The Parliamentary Discipline Bill has been rejected in the German Reichstag.

In the House of Commons, to-day, the motion in favor of Female Suffrage was rejected by 217 to 180.

It is semi-officially stated that the Government has agreed to amend the bill to cover a part of the parish of Canterbury, York, into a separate parish; also a petition praying for the passage of the same.

The Nova Scotia Legislature met for business on the 6th inst. For the benefit of our Nova Scotia readers we publish the chief portion of the Governor's speech at the opening. The speech made fitting reference to the arrival of the Marquis of Lorne and Princess Louise, and also to the death of the Princess Alice. Thanks for an abundant harvest were expressed. The remainder of the speech was as follows:

I am happy to be able to inform you that the work of the Eastern Extension Railway is in a more satisfactory condition than it has heretofore been, although suspended for a great part of last year. The work has now been resumed under certain modifications of the contract, and in view of the progress made, I believe that the work will be completed in time to meet the demand of the Province.
