

FI

10

K

the

P

FRED

TH

C

Ho

BRUS

TA

CO

Co

S'

W

She

BARNES & COMPANY,

PRINTERS, BOOK BINDERS, STATIONERS.

78 PRINCE WM. STREET.

EVERITT & BUTLER,

feb7

_ Commercial Block

Canterbury Street

TI

Frede

YOW I WAS	sweet little face.	A nve-year-old son of a family, the other day	12 tons Cheese; S0 doz. bottles Mixed Pickles, Sauces, & 56 doz. bottles Table Salt; 3 brls. Ginger; 2 cases Pi	e;	T. B. BARKER & SONS,	All letters from agents must be addressed to the Publish- ers' general agents as follows :
HOW I WAS HUNG.	"I too," said Eddie, as he, snuffiing the ho	t a bas brother, who was making			jan 3 35 and 37 King Street.	- HAZEN B. BIGNEY & CO.,
"Oh, Cousin Minna, do tell us something funn	wames afar off, hurried into the dining-room t	The great hoise over having his face washed The	Coarse Salt : 50 Sacks Fine Salt : 2 000 host 1 0	Ka	CUSTOMS DEPARTMENT, {	28 and 30 St. Francis Xavier street.
It is always so lonesome when mamma is gone "	take his papa's place at the tableStandard.	little rellow at length lost his patience and stamp		DDTHOT TITTTY TAR OF	NO DISCOUNT to be allowed on American Invoices
"Why, my dear little Eddie connet and 6		ing his tiny foot, said, "You think you have lots	casks brandram's Boled and Raw Linseed Oil: 139 ke		- until lurther notice.	WILLIAM JONES, anything to amuse you out of all your Christm	MAGNIFICENCE OF ANCIENT ROME	of trouble, but you don't know anything about it	assortment of Grainers and Farmer Colored Faints; a lar,		may 10 J. JOHNSON,	MANUFACTURER OF toys?"	The following vivid per pictor in the		1 let. Orimson, Purple, Carmine &c , 1 coal Comment		Commissioner of Customs.	- ALL KINDS OF HARNESS, "No, Minna, I cannot, the go is all broke in n	The following vivid pen picture is from "Th Old Roman World," by John Lord : "If anythin	e you'll see-won't he, mamma."	Brushes, Sash Tools, White Wesh & a 25 mill and Wa		FEBRUARY 25TH, 1879. IN STORE :350 Quintals CODFISH; 300 Quintal	ORDERED WORK A CREATE A CONT
new steam-engine, and Kitty save she will not h	e more were wanted to give us an idea of Roman				1 . I OHOCK : 120 DES Shelburno and Day Harris 14	5 As Repairs done neatly and promptly. Orders solicitad my fast-horse any longer I do wish people	e more were wanted to give us an idea of Roman	PUZZLE DEPARTMENT.	casks of Lamas Chimas Chimas and	ud j	C. A hard filling; 20 half bris. Shad; 1200 boxe	KING SQUARE, SAINT JOHN, N. B.
not ask mamma to their house to to the	d magnificence, we would turn our eyes from publi	C POITED BY ELLEWOOTH DELLA CIMENT.	assortment of Groceries, Provisions, &c. For sale	at THEY HAVE FURNISHED THEIR PRINTING	fab 22 GILBERT BENT & SONS,	(aug 31)
so lonesome so tired and must	monuments, demoralizing games and grand proces	EDITED BY ELLSWORTH, P. O. BOX 242, LOWELL, MASS.	jan 22 JAMES WILLIAMS, Main Street Partland	THEY HAVE FURNISHED THEIR PRINTING	feb 28 South Market Wharf.	FLOUP AND MULT everything."	d sions ; we would forget the statues in brass and mar	Contributions and answers respectfully solicited.	Main Street, Portland.		TIMOTHY SEED, &c.	FLOUR AND MEAL. N OW LANDING:1896 brls CORN MEAL; 253
	ble which outnumbered the living inhabitants, so	680.—CHARADE.	ST. LOUIS FLOUR.		UST RECEIVED 100 horr Timether Contract	bris Cheap Flour; 400 bris CORN MEAL; 253
"I think a little boy who is wearing real boots	s numerous that one hundred thousand have been	My first is a cup,	ECEIVED ex Schr "Alice S". OF Den 1 (0)	e quite too old to complain in this manner ; yet if yo	recovered, and still embellish Italy, and would de-	My second is a prefix. My third is a round substance.	R Quality St. Louis Flour on consignment, and wi be closed out low. GILBERT BENT & SONS,	OFFICE AND BOOKBINDERY WITH	brls. Frozen Glue; 5 brls. Common Glue; 1 case Bermuds Arrowroot; 2 brls. Ridge's Food; 3 brls. Scotch Snuff 2 brls. Spirite Turnenting	a For sale by GILBERT RENT & SONG will put your toys where they belong, wash you	r scend into the lower sphere of material life-to	My whole is an industrative.	jan 24 South Wharf.	OTTIOL AND BOOKBINDERY WITH	1 - or to, opinto 1 dipentine. Wholesale and retail by	D to 8 South Wharf.
face, and brush your hair. I will see what I can	those things which attest luxury and taste-to orna-	Brooklyn, N. S.	PAGE, SMALLEY & FERGUSON	- Contraction of the second	march 14. T. B. BARKER & SONS, 35 and 37 King Street.	HIDES LEAGUIDE CT to amuse you until Sarah rings the bell for suppo	ments, dresses, sumptuous living and rich furnit	601 Cara D	HVE in Stock English and Suda, WATCOTTED			NEW STOPE
Find Kitty, and send her to me, for I do not fand	The art of working metals and cutting precious	48			CHEAP FEEDING MEAL	THE Subscriber has removed to his New Press G her playing doll's laundress in the bath-tub an	stones surpassed anything known at the present	4 * *	I DOM DOM MALTE WATCHES OF STREET	WITHE BUILDING	132 BARRELS Coarse Feed MEAL, landing from feb. 21 Gulf Paragon." For sale very low.	The second of the street, next putting to the life of the second states states of the second states states of the longer."	day. In the decoration of houses, in social enter	* * * * *	ture; and Swiss, from reliable makers and carefully exa mined by ourselves.	NEW TYPES & PRESSES,	feb. 21. GILBRRT BENT & SONS, South Wharf.	of all descriptions Hider Warkeep on hand LEATHER
I loved Eddie and Kitty very dearly, and wa	tainments, in crockery, the Romans were remark	* * *	mar 7 43 King Street, St. John.	,	66 P .	S, out on, hamp-black, &C., &C. racking my poor brain for a story, when the two	able. The mosaics, signet rings, cameos, bracelets,		SALTDaily expected-Per ship "Lady Dufferin,		Kovo ho truo to	WM DEPEND with bright, happy faces, seated themselves of	bronzes, chains, vases, couches, hanqueting tables	A consonant; a boy's short name; an animal; a number; a consonant.			Boys, be true to	mission. (oct6) W P either side of me, in their little rocking-chairs, and	chariots, colored glass, gilding, mirrors, mattresses,	Long Reach. WILLING L	THOM COARSE BALLI ; 300 SACKS BUTTER SALT	-AND-		RIBBONS! RIBBONS! RIBBONS!
said : "We are all ready, Cousin Minna, so pleas	cosmetics, perfumes, hair dyes, silk robes, potteries,		ap 5 GILBERT BENT & SONS, 4 to 8 South Market Wharf.		.1 151 11	TWO Cases of NEW RIBBONS, including a beautiful' begin ;" how could I do otherwise ?	all attest great elegance and beauty. The tables			the contraction of the second se	the Blue."	A assortment of New Fringed-Edge Ribbons, in a great
"Once upon a time. No, I will not say that ;	of Thuga root and Delian beauty. The tables					variety of Styles and Colors, opening. MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON.
think I will say there was once a little girl who wa	of Thuga root and Delian bronze were as expensive	Indulged I am by many bakers ; You never find me 'mongst the Shakers.	REMOVAT	Finat Olam M. 1.	ITTO BIGOI	march 29 hung."	as side-bcards of Spanish walnut so much admired	Johnston, X. FITZWILLAM.	REMOVAL!	First Class Machinery	and a state of the
	in recent great exhibitions. Wood and ivory were					JUST RECEIVED :5 brls. Pure Cod Liver Oil; 10 brls. Saltpetre: 50 horses Pollini D Liver Oil; 10
"Oh ! mercy cousin, don't tell us such awfu things. That is not funny at all."	carved as exquisitely as in Japan and China. Mir-	683.—NUMERICAL ENIGMA.	W. WATERBURY	- A state of the second s	HAVING secured the sole right from Messrs. C. H. THOMAS & CO., Fredericton Tie Factory. for	Just Saltpetre; 50 boxes Babbi t's Potash in balls;
The dear little free half all."	rors were made of polished silver. Glass cutters	I am composed of 5 letters.		A State of the second sec	the sale of the	10 carboys Muriatic Acid; 15 cases Peruvian Syrup; 15 cases Wistar's Balsam: 10 bril; Ground J
The dear little faces looked so horrified that I in	could imitate the color of precious stones so well,	My first, when spoken as a word,	HAS REMOVED HIS			Ground Camwood: 2 orbits, Ground Logwood; 2 brls.
voluntarily laughed, and instantly both of the children cried out :	that the Portland vase from the tomb of Alexander	Is used the wide world through,		AND MATERIALS,	MCKENZIE NECK-TIE,	fort 2 and Integritesia Carb; 5 cases Liquid Ammonia.
	Severus, was long considered a genuine sardonyx.	To pierce the air, direct our steps, And names the ocean blue ;	Otool of II. 1		approved of by D. Proves M. F.	for sale low he
	Broad could be head - 1	in the second of the ocean of the second of the second sec			Reformers at a small advance.	nov 16 T. B. BARKER & SONS,
"Why, Cousin Minna, you look as if that little	Drass could be hardened so as to cut stone. The	Aud House of the second			at a sman advance.	35 and 37 King Street girl was you, but you do not look one bit as though	palace of Nero glittered with gold and jewels His	And if we use it as we may,	VIII:K III HALUMAL6		enternational a sinan advance.	35 and 37 King Street.
giri was you, but you do not look one bit as though you were ever hung."	palace of Nero glittered with gold and jewels. His beds were of silver and his tables of gold Thoring	And if we use it as we may, My 1 and 2 we throw away ;	Stock of Hardware	AND ARE PREPARED TO DO ALL KINDS OF		MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON'S
giri was you, but you do not look one bit as though you were ever hung." "Yes, Eddie, it was your cousin Minna, and it	palace of Nero glittered with gold and jewels. His beds were of silver and his tables of gold. Tiberius gave a million of sesterces for a picture for his bed-	And if we use it as we may, My 1 and 2 we throw away; My 2 and 3 in point of time		AND ARE PREPARED TO DO ALL KINDS OF		MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON'S
giri was you, but you do not look one bit as though you were ever hung." "Yes, Eddie, it was your cousin Minna, and it you will keep quiet a short time I will tell you al	palace of Nero glittered with gold and jewels. His beds were of silver and his tables of gold. Tiberius gave a million of sesterces for a picture for his bed- room. A banquet dish of Drusillus weighed five	And if we use it as we may, My 1 and 2 we throw away; My 2 and 3 in point of time 'The future ne'er can reach My 3 and 4 chiestingle	Sluck of Hardware	AND ARE PREPARED TO DO ALL KINDS OF	MEN, BOTH OLD AND YOUNG	MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON'S CHEAP COTTONS.
giri was you, but you do not look one bit as though you were ever hung." "Yes, Eddie, it was your cousin Minna, and it you will keep quiet a short time I will tell you al about it.	palace of Nero glittered with gold and jewels. His beds were of silver and his tables of gold. Tiberius gave a million of sesterces for a picture for his bed- room. A banquet dish of Drusillus weighed five hundred pounds of silver. The cups of Drusis	And if we use it as we may, My 1 and 2 we throw away; My 2 and 3 in point of time The future ne'er can reach My 3 and 4, objectively, Belongs to all and each	—то—	AND ARE PREPARED TO DO ALL KINDS OF	MEN, BOTH OLD AND YOUNG,	MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON'S CHEAP COTTONS.
 girl was you, but you do not look one bit as though you were ever hung." "Yes, Eddie, it was your cousin Minna, and it you will keep quiet a short time I will tell you al about it. "When I was a little girl I attended the primary 	palace of Nero glittered with gold and jewels. His beds were of silver and his tables of gold. Tiberius gave a million of sesterces for a picture for his bed- room. A banquet dish of Drusıllus weighed five hundred pounds of silver. The cups of Drusus were of gold. Tunics were embroidered with the	And if we use it as we may, My 1 and 2 we throw away; My 2 and 3 in point of time The future ne'er can reach My 3 and 4, objectively, Belongs to all and each.		AND ARE PREPARED TO DO ALL KINDS OF	MEN, BOTH OLD AND YOUNG,	MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON'S CHEAP COTTONS. One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Yards of Grey and White Cottons and Sheetings
girl was you, but you do not look one bit as though you were ever hung." "Yes, Eddie, it was your cousin Minna, and it you will keep quiet a short time I will tell you al about it. "When I was a little girl I attended the primary department of our village academy. There are	palace of Nero glittered with gold and jewels. His beds were of silver and his tables of gold. Tiberius gave a million of sesterces for a picture for his bed- room. A banquet dish of Drusıllus weighed five hundred pounds of silver. The cups of Drusus were of gold. Tunics were embroidered with the figures of the various animale. Sandal	And if we use it as we may, My 1 and 2 we throw away; My 2 and 3 in point of time The future ne'er can reach My 3 and 4, objectively, Belongs to all and each. My 1, 2, 3 was never straight,		AND ARE PREPARED TO DO ALL KINDS OF WORK IN THEIR LINE OF BUSINESS.	MEN, BOTH OLD AND YOUNG, BRACE UP!	MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON'S CHEAP COTTONS. One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Yards of Grey and White Cottons and Sheetings, At Lower Prices than ever before moted
giri was you, but you do not look one bit as though you were ever hung." "Yes, Eddie, it was your cousin Minna, and it you will keep quiet a short time I will tell you al about it. "When I was a little girl I attended the primary department of our village academy. There were some who were much older than I was : yot there	palace of Nero glittered with gold and jewels. His beds were of silver and his tables of gold. Tiberius gave a million of sesterces for a picture for his bed- room. A banquet dish of Drusıllus weighed five hundred pounds of silver. The cups of Drusus were of gold. Tunics were embroidered with the figures of the various animals. Sandals were gar- nished with precious stones. Pauline were included	 And if we use it as we may, My 1 and 2 we throw away; My 2 and 3 in point of time The future ne'er can reach My 3 and 4, objectively, Belongs to all and each. My 1, 2, 3 was never straight, Tis used because 'tis bent. 1, 2, 3, 4 we'll find the far- 		AND ARE PREPARED TO DO ALL KINDS OF WORK IN THEIR LINE OF BUSINESS.	MEN, BOTH OLD AND YOUNG, BRACE UP! FOR THECHAMPION SHOULDER BRACE	MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON'S CHEAP COTTONS. One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Yards of Grey and White Cottons and Sheetings, At Lower Prices than ever before quoted.
 girl was you, but you do not look one bit as though you were ever hung." "Yes, Eddie, it was your cousin Minna, and it you will keep quiet a short time I will tell you al about it. "When I was a little girl I attended the primary department of our village academy. There were some who were much older than I was; yet there were quite enough of those of my own are with 	palace of Nero glittered with gold and jewels. His beds were of silver and his tables of gold. Tiberius gave a million of sesterces for a picture for his bed- room. A banquet dish of Drusıllus weighed five hundred pounds of silver. The cups of Drusus were of gold. Tunics were embroidered with the figures of the various animals. Sandals were gar- nished with precious stones. Paulina wore jewels when she paid visits valued at $200,000, Doi: 1	 And if we use it as we may, My 1 and 2 we throw away; My 2 and 3 in point of time The future ne'er can reach My 3 and 4, objectively, Belongs to all and each. My 1, 2, 3 was never straight, Tis used because 'tis bent. 1, 2, 3, 4 we'll find the far- 		AND ARE PREPARED TO DO ALL KINDS OF WORK IN THEIR LINE OF BUSINESS.	MEN, BOTH OLD AND YOUNG, BRACE UP! FOR THECHAMPION SHOULDER BRACE WILL ALWAYS BE FOUND AT	MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON'S CHEAP COTTONS. One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Yards of Grey and White Cottons and Sheetings, At Lower Prices than ever before quoted. WE have laid in the above Stock in consequence of the proposed change in the Tariff, and will continue
girl was you, but you do not look one bit as though you were ever hung." "Yes, Eddie, it was your cousin Minna, and it you will keep quiet a short time I will tell you al about it. "When I was a little girl I attended the primary department of our village academy. There were some who were much older than I was; yet there were quite enough of those of my own age with whom I could enjoy a great deal of mischief.	palace of Nero glittered with gold and jewels. His beds were of silver and his tables of gold. Tiberius gave a million of sesterces for a picture for his bed- room. A banquet dish of Drusullus weighed five hundred pounds of silver. The cups of Drusus were of gold. Tunics were embroidered with the figures of the various animals. Sandals were gar- nished with precious stones. Paulina wore jewels when she paid visits, valued at $800,000. Drink- ing-cups were engraved with scenes from the posts	 And if we use it as we may, My 1 and 2 we throw away; My 2 and 3 in point of time The future ne'er can reach My 3 and 4, objectively, Belongs to all and each. My 1, 2, 3 was never straight, 'Tis used because 'tis bent. 1, 2, 3, 4 we'll find the far- Thest possible force " went." My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds 		AND ARE PREPARED TO DO ALL KINDS OF WORK IN THEIR LINE OF BUSINESS.	MEN, BOTH OLD AND YOUNG, BRACE UP! FOR THECHAMPION SHOULDER BRACE WILL ALWAYS BE FOUND AT	MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON'S CHEAP COTTONS. One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Yards of Grey and White Cottons and Sheetings, At Lower Prices than ever before quoted. WE have laid in the above Stock in consequence of the proposed change in the Tariff, and will continue to sell at the REDUCED PRICES so long as this Stock
 girl was you, but you do not look one bit as though you were ever hung." "Yes, Eddie, it was your cousin Minna, and it you will keep quiet a short time I will tell you al about it. "When I was a little girl I attended the primary department of our village academy. There were some who were much older than I was; yet there were quite enough of those of my own age with whom I could enjoy a great deal of mischief. Every Wednesday afternoon the elder girls were taught." 	palace of Nero glittered with gold and jewels. His beds were of silver and his tables of gold. Tiberius gave a million of sesterces for a picture for his bed- room. A banquet dish of Drusıllus weighed five hundred pounds of silver. The cups of Drusus were of gold. Tunics were embroidered with the figures of the various animals. Sandals were gar- nished with precious stones. Paulina wore jewels when she paid visits, valued at $800,000. Drink- ing-cups were engraved with scenes from the poets. Libraries were adorned with busts and precess.	 And if we use it as we may, My 1 and 2 we throw away; My 2 and 3 in point of time The future ne'er can reach My 3 and 4, objectively, Belongs to all and each. My 1, 2, 3 was never straight, 'Tis used because 'tis bent. 1, 2, 3, 4 we'll find the far- Thest possible force " went." My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shorman's measure 		AND ARE PREPARED TO DO ALL KINDS OF WORK IN THEIR LINE OF BUSINESS.	MEN, BOTH OLD AND YOUNG, BRACE UP! FOR THECHAMPION SHOULDER BRACE WILL ALWAYS BE FOUND AT	MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON'S CHEAP COTTONS. One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Yards of Grey and White Cottons and Sheetings, At Lower Prices than ever before quoted. WE have laid in the above Stock in consequence of the proposed change in the Tariff, and will continue to sell at the REDUCED PRICES so long as this Stock
 girl was you, but you do not look one bit as though you were ever hung." "Yes, Eddie, it was your cousin Minna, and it you will keep quiet a short time I will tell you al about it. "When I was a little girl I attended the primary department of our village academy. There were some who were much older than I was; yet there were quite enough of those of my own age with whom I could enjoy a great deal of mischief. Every Wednesday afternoon the elder girls were taught embroidery where they pulled the thread from a some who were they pulled the thread from a some who were they pulled the thread from a some who were they pulled the thread from a some who were they pulled the thread from a some who were they pulled the thread from a some who were they pulled the thread from a some who were they pulled the thread from a some who were they pulled the thread from a some who were they pulled the thread from a some who were they pulled the thread from a some who were they pulled the thread from a some who were they pulled the thread from a some who were they pulled the thread from a some who were they pulled the thread from a some who were they pulled the thread from a some was a some who were they pulled the thread from a some was a some who were they pulled the thread from a some was a some was	palace of Nero glittered with gold and jewels. His beds were of silver and his tables of gold. Tiberius gave a million of sesterces for a picture for his bed- room. A banquet dish of Drusıllus weighed five hundred pounds of silver. The cups of Drusus were of gold. Tunics were embroidered with the figures of the various animals. Sandals were gar- nished with precious stones. Paulina wore jewels when she paid visits, valued at $800,000. Drink- ing-cups were engraved with scenes from the poets. Libraries were adorned with busts and presses of rare woods. Sofas were inlaid with tortaise shell	 And if we use it as we may, My 1 and 2 we throw away; My 2 and 3 in point of time The future ne'er can reach My 3 and 4, objectively, Belongs to all and each. My 1, 2, 3 was never straight, 'Tis used because 'tis bent. 1, 2, 3, 4 we'll find the far- Thest possible force " went." My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My whole, repulsive, homely, coarse 		AND ARE PREPARED TO DO ALL KINDS OF WORK IN THEIR LINE OF BUSINESS.	MEN, BOTH OLD AND YOUNG, BRACE UP! FOR THECHAMPION SHOULDER BRACE WILL ALWAYS BE FOUND AT	MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON'S CHEAP COTTONS. One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Yards of Grey and White Cottons and Sheetings, At Lower Prices than ever before quoted. WE have laid in the above Stock in consequence of the proposed change in the Tariff, and will continue to sell at the REDUCED PRICES so long as this Stock lasts. All in want of Cottons should purchase at once. mar 15, MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON.
 girl was you, but you do not look one bit as though you were ever hung." "Yes, Eddie, it was your cousin Minna, and it you will keep quiet a short time I will tell you al about it. "When I was a little girl I attended the primary department of our village academy. There were some who were much older than I was; yet there were quite enough of those of my own age with whom I could enjoy a great deal of mischief. Every Wednesday afternoon the elder girls were taught embroidery where they pulled the thread from a some who were they pulled the thread from a some who were they pulled the thread from a some who were they pulled the thread from a some who were they pulled the thread from a some who were they pulled the thread from a some who were they pulled the thread from a some who were they pulled the thread from a some who were they pulled the thread from a some who were they pulled the thread from a some who were they pulled the thread from a some who were they pulled the thread from a some who were they pulled the thread from a some who were they pulled the thread from a some who were they pulled the thread from a some who were they pulled the thread from a some was a some who were they pulled the thread from a some was a some who were they pulled the thread from a some was a some was	palace of Nero glittered with gold and jewels. His beds were of silver and his tables of gold. Tiberius gave a million of sesterces for a picture for his bed- room. A banquet dish of Drusıllus weighed five hundred pounds of silver. The cups of Drusus were of gold. Tunics were embroidered with the figures of the various animals. Sandals were gar- nished with precious stones. Paulina wore jewels when she paid visits, valued at $800,000. Drink- ing-cups were engraved with scenes from the poets. Libraries were adorned with busts and presses of rare woods. Sofas were inlaid with tortaise shell	 And if we use it as we may, My 1 and 2 we throw away; My 2 and 3 in point of time The future ne'er can reach My 3 and 4, objectively, Belongs to all and each. My 1, 2, 3 was never straight, Tis used because 'tis bent. 1, 2, 3, 4 we'll find the far- Thest possible force " went." My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My whole, repulsive, homely, coarse, 	TO No. 11 CHARLOTTE STREET. N. BA Lot of WIRE TABLE MATS worth $1.25 a set, selling for 60 cents. DOVER EGG BEATERS, only 35 cents. A Lot of WASHING MACHINES at Half-price. ap 11. W. W.	AND ARE PREPARED TO DO ALL KINDS OF WORK IN THEIR LINE OF BUSINESS. WE HAVE ALSO IN STOCK :	MEN, BOTH OLD AND YOUNG, BRACE UP! FOR THECHAMPION SHOULDER BRACE WILL ALWAYS BE FOUND AT THOS. W. SMITH'S.	MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON'S CHEAP COTTONS. One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Yards of Grey and White Cottons and Sheetings, At Lower Prices than ever before quoted. WE have laid in the above Stock in consequence of the proposed change in the Tariff, and will continue to sell at the REDUCED PRICES so long as this Stock lasts. All in want of Cottons should purchase at once. MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON. J. & W. A. VANWART.
 girl was you, but you do not look one bit as though you were ever hung." "Yes, Eddie, it was your cousin Minna, and it you will keep quiet a short time I will tell you al about it. "When I was a little girl I attended the primary department of our village academy. There were some who were much older than I was; yet there were quite enough of those of my own age with whom I could enjoy a great deal of mischief. Every Wednesday afternoon the elder girls were taught embroidery where they pulled the thread from a silk braid, and made all sorts of beautiful leaver 	palace of Nero glittered with gold and jewels. His beds were of silver and his tables of gold. Tiberius gave a million of sesterces for a picture for his bed- room. A banquet dish of Drusıllus weighed five hundred pounds of silver. The cups of Drusus were of gold. Tunics were embroidered with the figures of the various animals. Sandals were gar- nished with precious stones. Paulina wore jewels when she paid visits, valued at $800,000. Drink- ing-cups were engraved with scenes from the poets. Libraries were adorned with busts and presses of rare woods. Sofas were inlaid with tortoise shell, and covered with gorgeous purple. The Roman	And if we use it as we may, My 1 and 2 we throw away; My 2 and 3 in point of time The future ne'er can reach My 3 and 4, objectively, Belongs to all and each. My 1, 2, 3 was never straight, Tis used because 'tis bent. 1, 2, 3, 4 we'll find the far- Thest possible force '' went.'' My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My whole, repulsive, homely, coarse, Is yet the desert's treasure. Lewiston, Me. H.		AND ARE PREPARED TO DO ALL KINDS OF WORK IN THEIR LINE OF BUSINESS. WE HAVE ALSO IN STOCK :	MEN, BOTH OLD AND YOUNG, BRACE UP! FOR THECHAMPION SHOULDER BRACE WILL ALWAYS BE FOUND AT THOS. W. SMITH'S.	MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON'S CHEAP COTTONS. One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Yards of Grey and White Cottons and Sheetings, At Lower Prices than ever before quoted. WE have laid in the above Stock in consequence of the proposed change in the Tariff, and will continue to sell at the REDUCED PRICES so long as this Stock lasts. All in want of Cottons should purchase at once. MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON. J. & W. A. VANWART.
 girl was you, but you do not look one bit as though you were ever hung." "Yes, Eddie, it was your cousin Minna, and it you will keep quiet a short time I will tell you al about it. "When I was a little girl I attended the primary department of our village academy. There were some who were much older than I was; yet there were quite enough of those of my own age with whom I could enjoy a great deal of mischief. Every Wednesday afternoon the elder girls were taught embroidery where they pulled the thread from a silk braid, and made all sorts of beautiful leaves and flowers, like your mamma's old silk arts." 	palace of Nero glittered with gold and jewels. His beds were of silver and his tables of gold. Tiberius gave a million of sesterces for a picture for his bed- room. A banquet dish of Drusıllus weighed five hundred pounds of silver. The cups of Drusus were of gold. Tunics were embroidered with the figures of the various animals. Sandals were gar- nished with precious stones. Paulina wore jewels when she paid visits, valued at $800,000. Drink- ing-cups were engraved with scenes from the poets. Libraries were adorned with busts and presses of rare woods. Sofas were inlaid with tortoise shell, and covered with gorgeous purple. The Roman grandees rode in gilded chariots, bathed in marble	And if we use it as we may, My 1 and 2 we throw away; My 2 and 3 in point of time The future ne'er can reach My 3 and 4, objectively, Belongs to all and each. My 1, 2, 3 was never straight, Tis used because 'tis bent. 1, 2, 3, 4 we'll find the far- Thest possible force " went." My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My whole, repulsive, homely, coarse, Is yet the desert's treasure. Lewiston, Me. 684.—A LONG JOURNEY.		AND ARE PREPARED TO DO ALL KINDS OF WORK IN THEIR LINE OF BUSINESS. WE HAVE ALSO IN'STOCK : LEDGERS,	MEN, BOTH OLD AND YOUNG, BRACE UP! FOR THECHAMPION SHOULDER BRACE WILL ALWAYS BE FOUND AT THOS. W. SMITH'S. ARE YOU IN NEED OF A	MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON'S CHEAP COTTONS. One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Yards of Grey and White Cottons and Sheetings, At Lower Prices than ever before quoted. WE have laid in the above Stock in consequence of the proposed change in the Tariff, and will continue to sell at the REDUCED PRICES so long as this Stock lasts. All in want of Cottons should purchase at once. MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON. J. & W. A. VANWART, BARRISTERS-AT-LAW.
 girl was you, but you do not look one bit as though you were ever hung." "Yes, Eddie, it was your cousin Minna, and it you will keep quiet a short time I will tell you all about it. "When I was a little girl I attended the primary department of our village academy. There were some who were much older than I was; yet there were quite enough of those of my own age with whom I could enjoy a great deal of mischief. Every Wednesday afternoon the elder girls were taught embroidery where they pulled the thread from a silk braid, and made all sorts of beautiful leaves and flowers, like your mamma's old silk apron which she now uses for a duster. We little cirle 	palace of Nero glittered with gold and jewels. His beds were of silver and his tables of gold. Tiberius gave a million of sesterces for a picture for his bed- room. A banquet dish of Drusıllus weighed five hundred pounds of silver. The cups of Drusus were of gold. Tunics were embroidered with the figures of the various animals. Sandals were gar- nished with precious stones. Paulina wore jewels when she paid visits, valued at $800,000. Drink- ing-cups were engraved with scenes from the poets. Libraries were adorned with busts and presses of rare woods. Sofas were inlaid with tortoise shell, and covered with gorgeous purple. The Roman grandees rode in gilded chariots, bathed in marble baths, dined from crystal cups, slept on beds of	And if we use it as we may, My 1 and 2 we throw away; My 2 and 3 in point of time The future ne'er can reach My 3 and 4, objectively, Belongs to all and each. My 1, 2, 3 was never straight, Tis used because 'tis bent. 1, 2, 3, 4 we'll find the far- Thest possible force " went." My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My whole, repulsive, homely, coarse, Is yet the desert's treasure. Lewiston, Me. E84.—A LONG JOURNEY. I started on a short journon in		AND ARE PREPARED TO DO ALL KINDS OF WORK IN THEIR LINE OF BUSINESS. WE HAVE ALSO IN'STOCK : LEDGERS,	MEN, BOTH OLD AND YOUNG, BRACE UP! FOR THECHAMPION SHOULDER BRACE WILL ALWAYS BE FOUND AT THOS. W. SMITH'S. ARE YOU IN NEED OF A	MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON'S CHEAP COTTONS. One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Yards of Grey and White Cottons and Sheetings, At Lower Prices than ever before quoted. WE have laid in the above Stock in consequence of the proposed change in the Tariff, and will continue to sell at the REDUCED PRICES so long as this Stock lasts. All in want of Cottons should purchase at once. MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON. J. & W. A. VANWART, BARRISTERS-AT-LAW,
 girl was you, but you do not look one bit as though you were ever hung." "Yes, Eddie, it was your cousin Minna, and it you will keep quiet a short time I will tell you all about it. "When I was a little girl I attended the primary department of our village academy. There were some who were much older than I was; yet there were quite enough of those of my own age with whom I could enjoy a great deal of mischief. Every Wednesday afternoon the elder girls were taught embroidery where they pulled the thread from a silk braid, and made all sorts of beautiful leaves and flowers, like your mamma's old silk apron which she now uses for a duster. We little girls thought the pretty colored braids very worderful 	palace of Nero glittered with gold and jewels. His beds were of silver and his tables of gold. Tiberius gave a million of sesterces for a picture for his bed- room. A banquet dish of Drusıllus weighed five hundred pounds of silver. The cups of Drusus were of gold. Tunics were embroidered with the figures of the various animals. Sandals were gar- nished with precious stones. Paulina wore jewels when she paid visits, valued at $800,000. Drink- ing-cups were engraved with scenes from the poets. Libraries were adorned with busts and presses of rare woods. Sofas were inlaid with tortoise shell, and covered with gorgeous purple. The Roman grandees rode in gilded chariots, bathed in marble baths, dined from crystal cups, slept on beds of down, reclined on luxurious couches, wore em-	And if we use it as we may, My 1 and 2 we throw away; My 2 and 3 in point of time The future ne'er can reach My 3 and 4, objectively, Belongs to all and each. My 1, 2, 3 was never straight, Tis used because 'tis bent. 1, 2, 3, 4 we'll find the far- Thest possible force " went." My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My whole, repulsive, homely, coarse, Is yet the desert's treasure. Lewiston, Me. 684.—A LONG JOURNEY. I started on a short journey, in company with my cousin, a town in Scotland, We dend		AND ARE PREPARED TO DO ALL KINDS OF WORK IN THEIR LINE OF BUSINESS. WE HAVE ALSO IN STOCK : LEDGERS,	MEN, BOTH OLD AND YOUNG, BRACE UP! FOR THECHAMPION SHOULDER BRACE WILL ALWAYS BE FOUND AT THOS. W. SMITH'S. ARE YOU IN NEED OF A GOOD SUIT OF CLOTHES.	MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON'S CHEAP COTTONS. One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Yards of Grey and White Cottons and Sheetings, At Lower Prices than ever before quoted. WE have laid in the above Stock in consequence of the proposed change in the Tariff, and will continue to sell at the REDUCED PRICES so long as this Stock lasts. All in want of Cottons should purchase at once. mar 15, MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON. J. & W. A. VANWART, BARRISTERS-AT-LAW, Gueen street, Fredericton.
 girl was you, but you do not look one bit as though you were ever hung." "Yes, Eddie, it was your cousin Minna, and it you will keep quiet a short time I will tell you al about it. "When I was a little girl I attended the primary department of our village academy. There were some who were much older than I was; yet there were quite enough of those of my own age with whom I could enjoy a great deal of mischief. Every Wednesday afternoon the elder girls were taught embroidery where they pulled the thread from a silk braid, and made all sorts of beautiful leaves and flowers, like your mamma's old silk apron which she now uses for a duster. We little girls thought the pretty colored braids very wonderful, and if by chance some stray useless nicees of silk 	palace of Nero glittered with gold and jewels. His beds were of silver and his tables of gold. Tiberius gave a million of sesterces for a picture for his bed- room. A banquet dish of Drusıllus weighed five hundred pounds of silver. The cups of Drusus were of gold. Tunics were embroidered with the figures of the various animals. Sandals were gar- nished with precious stones. Paulina wore jewels when she paid visits, valued at $800,000. Drink- ing-cups were engraved with scenes from the poets. Libraries were adorned with busts and presses of rare woods. Sofas were inlaid with tortoise shell, and covered with gorgeous purple. The Roman grandees rode in gilded chariots, bathed in marble baths, dined from crystal cups, slept on beds of down, reclined on luxurious couches, wore em- broidered robes, and were adorned with precious	And if we use it as we may, My 1 and 2 we throw away; My 2 and 3 in point of time The future ne'er can reach My 3 and 4, objectively, Belongs to all and each. My 1, 2, 3 was never straight, Tis used because 'tis bent. 1, 2, 3, 4 we'll find the far- Thest possible force " went." My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My whole, repulsive, homely, coarse, Is yet the desert's treasure. Lewiston, Me. East the down of the formany with my cousin, a town in Scotland. We shortly met a		AND ARE PREPARED TO DO ALL KINDS OF WORK IN THEIR LINE OF BUSINESS. WE HAVE ALSO IN'STOCK : LEDGERS,	MEN, BOTH OLD AND YOUNG, BRACE UP! FOR THECHAMPION SHOULDER BRACE WILL ALWAYS BE FOUND AT THOS. W. SMITH'S. ARE YOU IN NEED OF A GOOD SUIT OF CLOTHES. If so : call and evening of a	MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON'S CHEAP COTTONS. One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Yards of Grey and White Cottons and Sheetings, At Lower Prices than ever before quoted. WE have laid in the above Stock in consequence of the proposed change in the Tariff, and will continue to sell at the REDUCED PRICES so long as this Stock lasts. All in want of Cottons should purchase at once. MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON. J. & W. A. VANWART, BARRISTERS-AT-LAW,
 girl was you, but you do not look one bit as though you were ever hung." "Yes, Eddie, it was your cousin Minna, and it you will keep quiet a short time I will tell you al about it. "When I was a little girl I attended the primary department of our village academy. There were some who were much older than I was; yet there were quite enough of those of my own age with whom I could enjoy a great deal of mischief. Every Wednesday afternoon the elder girls were taught embroidery where they pulled the thread from a silk braid, and made all sorts of beautiful leaves and flowers, like your mamma's old silk apron which she now uses for a duster. We little girls thought the pretty colored braids very wonderful, and if by chance some stray useless pieces of silk were offered us, our eves would snarkle, and metal." 	palace of Nero glittered with gold and jewels. His beds were of silver and his tables of gold. Tiberius gave a million of sesterces for a picture for his bed- room. A banquet dish of Drusıllus weighed five hundred pounds of silver. The cups of Drusus were of gold. Tunics were embroidered with the figures of the various animals. Sandals were gar- nished with precious stones. Paulina wore jewels when she paid visits, valued at $800,000. Drink- ing-cups were engraved with scenes from the poets. Libraries were adorned with busts and presses of rare woods. Sofas were inlaid with tortoise shell, and covered with gorgeous purple. The Roman grandees rode in gilded chariots, bathed in marble baths, dined from crystal cups, slept on beds of down, reclined on luxurious couches, wore em- broidered robes, and were adorned with precious stones. They ransacked the earth and seas for rare	And if we use it as we may, My 1 and 2 we throw away; My 2 and 3 in point of time The future ne'er can reach My 3 and 4, objectively, Belongs to all and each. My 1, 2, 3 was never straight, Tis used because 'tis bent. 1, 2, 3, 4 we'll find the far- Thest possible force " went." My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My whole, repulsive, homely, coarse, Is yet the desert's treasure. Lewiston, Me. 684.—A LONG JOURNEY. I started on a short journey, in company with my cousin, a town in Scotland. We shortly met a couple of women. One, by her dress, we took to be a cape in Africa. The other had the style of a	TO No. 11 CHARLOTTE STREET. N. BA Lot of WIRE TABLE MATS worth $1.25 a set, selling for 60 cents. DOVER EGG BEATERS, only 35 cents. A Lot of WASHING MACHINES at Half-price. ap 11. W. W. MOLASSES AND SUGAR. 35 CASKS TRINIDAD MOLASSES, a consign- ment, for sale very low; 30 casks Barbados MOLASSES ; 10 do. Cienfuegos do.; 40 brls Granulated SUGAR ; 20 brls Extra C. do ; 8 casks S. R. do. For sale by GILBERT BENT & SONS	AND ARE PREPARED TO DO ALL KINDS OF WORK IN THEIR LINE OF BUSINESS. WE HAVE ALSO IN STOCK : LEDGERS,	MEN, BOTH OLD AND YOUNG, BRACE UP! FOR THECHAMPION SHOULDER BRACE WILL ALWAYS BE FOUND AT THOS. W. SMITH'S. ARE YOU IN NEED OF A GOOD SUIT OF CLOTHES. If so : call and evening of a	MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON'S CHEAP COTTONS. One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Yards of Grey and White Cottons and Sheetings, At Lower Prices than ever before quoted. We have laid in the above Stock in consequence of the proposed change in the Tariff, and will continue to sell at the REDUCED PRICES so long as this Stock lasts. All in want of Cottons should purchase at once. mar 15. MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON. J. & W. A. VANWART, BARRISTERS-AT-LAW, Cucen street, Fredericton.
 girl was you, but you do not look one bit as though you were ever hung." "Yes, Eddie, it was your cousin Minna, and it you will keep quiet a short time I will tell you all about it. "When I was a little girl I attended the primary department of our village academy. There were some who were much older than I was; yet there were quite enough of those of my own age with whom I could enjoy a great deal of mischief. Every Wednesday afternoon the elder girls were taught embroidery where they pulled the thread from a silk braid, and made all sorts of beautiful leaves and flowers, like your mamma's old silk apron which she now uses for a duster. We little girls thought the pretty colored braids very wonderful, and if by chance some stray useless pieces of silk were offered us, our eyes would sparkle, and we were made happy for the day. Not more than the stray useless pieces of silk were offered us, our eyes would sparkle, and we were made happy for the day. 	palace of Nero glittered with gold and jewels. His beds were of silver and his tables of gold. Tiberius gave a million of sesterces for a picture for his bed- room. A banquet dish of Drusıllus weighed five hundred pounds of silver. The cups of Drusus were of gold. Tunics were embroidered with the figures of the various animals. Sandals were gar- nished with precious stones. Paulina wore jewels when she paid visits, valued at $800,000. Drink- ing-cups were engraved with scenes from the poets. Libraries were adorned with busts and presses of rare woods. Sofas were inlaid with tortoise shell, and covered with gorgeous purple. The Roman grandees rode in gilded chariots, bathed in marble baths, dined from crystal cups, slept on beds of down, reclined on luxurious couches, wore em- broidered robes, and were adorned with precious stones. They ransacked the earth and seas for rare dishes for their banquets, and ornamented their	And if we use it as we may, My 1 and 2 we throw away; My 2 and 3 in point of time The future ne'er can reach My 3 and 4, objectively, Belongs to all and each. My 1, 2, 3 was never straight, Tis used because 'tis bent. 1, 2, 3, 4 we'll find the far- Thest possible force " went." My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My whole, repulsive, homely, coarse, Is yet the desert's treasure. Lewiston, Me. H. 684.—A LONG JOURNEY. I started on a short journey, in company with my cousin, a town in Scotland. We shortly met a couple of women. One, by her dress, we took to be a cape in Africa. The other had the style of, a river in South America. We stopped at an, river in Europe, to dime, where I was clead to a, river	TO No. 11 CHARLOTTE STREET. N. BA Lot of WIRE TABLE MATS worth $1.25 a set, selling for 60 cents. DOVER EGG BEATERS, only 35 cents. A Lot of WASHING MACHINES at Half-price. ap 11. W. W. MOLASSES AND SUGAR. 35 Casks TRINIDAD MOLASSES, a consign- ment, for sale very low; 30 casks Barbados MOLASSES : 10 do. Cienfuegos do.; 40 brls Granulated SUGAR; 20 brls Extra C. do; 8 casks S. R. do. For sale by Jan 17 GILBERT BENT & SONS South Market Wharf.	AND ARE PREPARED TO DO ALL KINDS OF WORK IN THEIR LINE OF BUSINESS. WE HAVE ALSO IN'STOCK : LEDGERS, JOURNALS,	MEN, BOTH OLD AND YOUNG, BRACE UP! FOR THECHAMPION SHOULDER BRACE WILL ALWAYS BE FOUND AT THOS. W. SMITH'S. ARE YOU IN NEED OF A GOOD SUIT OF CLOTHES. If so : call and examine as fine assorted Stock of English, Scotch, French, German, Canadian, and Domastic Clober of	MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON'S CHEAP COTTONS. One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Yards of Grey and White Cottons and Sheetings, At Lower Prices than ever before quoted. We have laid in the above Stock in consequence of the proposed change in the Tariff, and will continue to sell at the REDUCED PRICES so long as this Stock mar 15. MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON. J. & W. A. VANWART, BARRISTERS-AT-LAW, Mecen Street, Fredericton. Mar Accounts collected and loans negotiated on good mar 31-1y FIRE AND MARRINE
 girl was you, but you do not look one bit as though you were ever hung." "Yes, Eddie, it was your cousin Minna, and it you will keep quiet a short time I will tell you all about it. "When I was a little girl I attended the primary department of our village academy. There were some who were much older than I was; yet there were quite enough of those of my own age with whom I could enjoy a great deal of mischief. Every Wednesday afternoon the elder girls were taught embroidery where they pulled the thread from a silk braid, and made all sorts of beautiful leaves and flowers, like your mamma's old silk aprom which she now uses for a duster. We little girls thought the pretty colored braids very wonderful, and if by chance some stray useless pieces of silk were offered us, our eyes would sparkle, and we were made happy for the day. Not more than two or three lessons were heard during these aftermore. 	palace of Nero glittered with gold and jewels. His beds were of silver and his tables of gold. Tiberius gave a million of sesterces for a picture for his bed- room. A banquet dish of Drusıllus weighed five hundred pounds of silver. The cups of Drusus were of gold. Tunics were embroidered with the figures of the various animals. Sandals were gar- nished with precious stones. Paulina wore jewels when she paid visits, valued at $800,000. Drink- ing-cups were engraved with scenes from the poets. Libraries were adorned with busts and presses of rare woods. Sofas were inlaid with tortoise shell, and covered with gorgeous purple. The Roman grandees rode in gilded chariots, bathed in marble baths, dined from crystal cups, slept on beds of down, reclined on luxurious couches, wore em- broidered robes, and were adorned with precious stones. They ransacked the earth and seas for rare dishes for their banquets, and ornamented their houses with carpets from Babylon, onyx cups from	And if we use it as we may, My 1 and 2 we throw away; My 2 and 3 in point of time The future ne'er can reach My 3 and 4, objectively, Belongs to all and each. My 1, 2, 3 was never straight, Tis used because 'tis bent. 1, 2, 3, 4 we'll find the far- Thest possible force " went." My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My whole, repulsive, homely, coarse, Is yet the desert's treasure. Lewiston, Me. I started on a short journey, in company with my cousin, a town in Scotland. We shortly met a couple of women. One, by her dress, we took to be a cape in Africa. The other had the style of, a river in South America. We stopped at an, river in Europe, to dine, where I was glad to meet my sister. a mountain in Turker.	TO No. 11 CHARLOTTE STREET. N. BA Lot of WIRE TABLE MATS worth $1.25 a set, selling for 60 cents. DOVER EGG BEATERS, only 35 cents. A Lot of WASHING MACHINES at Half-price. ap 11. W. W. MOLASSES AND SUGAR. 35 CASKS TRINIDAD MOLASSES, a consign- MOLASSES AND SUGAR. 35 CASKS TRINIDAD MOLASSES, a consign- MOLASSES i 10 do. Cienfuegos do. ; 40 brls Granulated SUGAR ; 20 brls Extra C. do ; 8 casks S. R. do. For sale by GILBERT BENT & SONS South Market Wharf. SURGICAL INSTRUMENTS, &C.	AND ARE PREPARED TO DO ALL KINDS OF WORK IN THEIR LINE OF BUSINESS. WE HAVE ALSO IN'STOCK : LEDGERS, JOURNALS, DAY BOOKS.	MEN, BOTH OLD AND YOUNG, BRACE UP! FOR THECHAMPION SHOULDER BRACE WILL ALWAYS BE FOUND AT THOS. W. SMITH'S. ARE YOU IN NEED OF A GOOD SUIT OF CLOTHES. If so : call and evening of a	MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON'S CHEAP COTTONS. One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Yards of Grey and White Cottons and Sheetings, At Lower Prices than ever before quoted. We have laid in the above Stock in consequence of the proposed change in the Tariff, and will continue to sell at the REDUCED PRICES so long as this Stock mar 15. MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON. J. & W. A. VANWART, BARRISTERS-AT-LAW, Mecen Street, Fredericton. Mar Accounts collected and loans negotiated on good mar 31-1y FIRE AND MARRINE
 girl was you, but you do not look one bit as though you were ever hung." "Yes, Eddie, it was your cousin Minna, and it you will keep quiet a short time I will tell you all about it. "When I was a little girl I attended the primary department of our village academy. There were some who were much older than I was; yet there were quite enough of those of my own age with whom I could enjoy a great deal of mischief. Every Wednesday afternoon the elder girls were taught embroidery where they pulled the thread from a silk braid, and made all sorts of beautiful leaves and flowers, like your mamma's old silk aprom which she now uses for a duster. We little girls thought the pretty colored braids very wonderful, and if by chance some stray useless pieces of silk were offered us, our eyes would sparkle, and we were made happy for the day. Not more than two or three lessons were heard during these afternoons, and one of these was my reading class." 	palace of Nero glittered with gold and jewels. His beds were of silver and his tables of gold. Tiberius gave a million of sesterces for a picture for his bed- room. A banquet dish of Drusıllus weighed five hundred pounds of silver. The cups of Drusus were of gold. Tunics were embroidered with the figures of the various animals. Sandals were gar- nished with precious stones. Paulina wore jewels when she paid visits, valued at $800,000. Drink- ing-cups were engraved with scenes from the poets. Libraries were adorned with busts and presses of rare woods. Sofas were inlaid with tortoise shell, and covered with gorgeous purple. The Roman grandees rode in gilded chariots, bathed in marble baths, dined from crystal cups, slept on beds of down, reclined on luxurious couches, wore em- broidered robes, and were adorned with precious stones. They ransacked the earth and seas for rare dishes for their banquets, and ornamented their houses with carpets from Babylon, onyx cups from Bithynia, marble from Numidia, bronzes from Cor	And if we use it as we may, My 1 and 2 we throw away; My 2 and 3 in point of time The future ne'er can reach My 3 and 4, objectively, Belongs to all and each. My 1, 2, 3 was never straight, Tis used because 'tis bent. 1, 2, 3, 4 we'll find the far- Thest possible force " went." My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My whole, repulsive, homely, coarse, Is yet the desert's treasure. Lewiston, Me. I started on a short journey, in company with my cousin, a town in Scotland. We shortly met a couple of women. One, by her dress, we took to be a cape in Africa. The other had the style of, a river in South America. We stopped at an, river in Europe, to dine, where I was glad to meet my sister, a mountain in Turkey, returning home. She	TO No. 11 CHARLOTTE STREET. N. BA Lot of WIRE TABLE MATS worth $1.25 a set, selling for 60 cents. DOVER EGG BEATERS, only 35 cents. A Lot of WASHING MACHINES at Half-price. ap 11. W. W. MOLASSES AND SUGAR. 35 CASKS TRINIDAD MOLASSES, a consign- MOLASSES AND SUGAR. 35 CASKS TRINIDAD MOLASSES, a consign- MOLASSES i 10 do. Cienfuegos do. ; 40 brls Granulated SUGAR ; 20 brls Extra C. do ; 8 casks S. R. do. For sale by GILBERT BENT & SONS South Market Wharf. SURGICAL INSTRUMENTS, &C.	AND ARE PREPARED TO DO ALL KINDS OF WORK IN THEIR LINE OF BUSINESS. WE HAVE ALSO IN'STOCK : LEDGERS, JOURNALS, DAY BOOKS.	MEN, BOTH OLD AND YOUNG, BRACE UP! FOR THECHAMPION SHOULDER BRACE WILL ALWAYS BE FOUND AT THOS. W. SMITH'S. ARE YOU IN NEED OF A GOOD SUIT OF CLOTHES. If so : call and examine as fine assorted Stock of English, Scotch, French, German, Canadian, and Domastic Clober of	MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON'S CHEAP COTTONS. One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Yards of Grey and White Cottons and Sheetings, At Lower Prices than ever before quoted. We have laid in the above Stock in consequence of to sell at the REDUCED PRICES so long as this stock asts. All in want of Cottons should purchase at once, mar 15, MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON. J. & W. A. VANWART, BARRISTERS-AT-LAW, Mecen street, Fredericton. AT Accounts collected and loans negotiated on good mar 31-1y DISURANCE AGENCY.
 girl was you, but you do not look one bit as though you were ever hung." "Yes, Eddie, it was your cousin Minna, and it you will keep quiet a short time I will tell you all about it. "When I was a little girl I attended the primary department of our village academy. There were some who were much older than I was; yet there were quite enough of those of my own age with whom I could enjoy a great deal of mischief. Every Wednesday afternoon the elder girls were taught embroidery where they pulled the thread from a silk braid, and made all sorts of beautiful leaves and flowers, like your mamma's old silk apron which she now uses for a duster. We little girls thought the pretty colored braids very wonderful, and if by chance some stray useless pieces of silk were offered us, our eyes would sparkle, and we were made happy for the day. Not more than two or three lessons were heard during these afternoons, and one of these was my reading class." 	palace of Nero glittered with gold and jewels. His beds were of silver and his tables of gold. Tiberius gave a million of sesterces for a picture for his bed- room. A banquet dish of Drusıllus weighed five hundred pounds of silver. The cups of Drusus were of gold. Tunics were embroidered with the figures of the various animals. Sandals were gar- nished with precious stones. Paulina wore jewels when she paid visits, valued at $800,000. Drink- ing-cups were engraved with scenes from the poets. Libraries were adorned with busts and presses of rare woods. Sofas were inlaid with tortoise shell, and covered with gorgeous purple. The Roman grandees rode in gilded chariots, bathed in marble baths, dined from crystal cups, slept on beds of down, reclined on luxurious couches, wore em- broidered robes, and were adorned with precious stones. They ransacked the earth and seas for rare dishes for their banquets, and ornamented their houses with carpets from Babylon, onyx cups from Bithynia, marble from Numidia, bronzes from Cor- inth, statues from Athens—whatever, in short was	And if we use it as we may, My 1 and 2 we throw away; My 2 and 3 in point of time The future ne'er can reach My 3 and 4, objectively, Belongs to all and each. My 1, 2, 3 was never straight, Tis used because 'tis bent. 1, 2, 3, 4 we'll find the far- Thest possible force " went." My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My whole, repulsive, homely, coarse, Is yet the desert's treasure. Lewiston, Me. H. 684.—A LONG JOURNEY. I started on a short journey, in company with my cousin, a town in Scotland. We shortly met a couple of women. One, by her dress, we took to be a cape in Africa. The other had the style of, a river in South America. We stopped at an, river in Europe, to dine, where I was glad to meet my sister, a mountain in Turkey, returning home. She was handsomely dressed in, a country of India, robe, a country of Africa, boots, a town of Italy bet		AND ARE PREPARED TO DO ALL KINDS OF WORK IN THEIR LINE OF BUSINESS. WE HAVE ALSO IN STOCK : LEDGERS, JOURNALS, DAY BOOKS,	MEN, BOTH OLD AND YOUNG, BRACE UP! BRACE UP! FOR THECHAMPION SHOULDER BRACE WILL ALWAYS BE FOUND AT THOS. W. SMITH'S. ARE YOU IN NEED OF A GOOD SUIT OF CLOTHES.	ANN AND AND AND AND AND AND AND AND AND
 girl was you, but you do not look one bit as though you were ever hung." "Yes, Eddie, it was your cousin Minna, and it you will keep quiet a short time I will tell you all about it. "When I was a little girl I attended the primary department of our village academy. There were some who were much older than I was; yet there were quite enough of those of my own age with whom I could enjoy a great deal of mischief. Every Wednesday afternoon the elder girls were taught embroidery where they pulled the thread from a silk braid, and made all sorts of beautiful leaves and flowers, like your mamma's old silk apron which she now uses for a duster. We little girls thought the pretty colored braids very wonderful, and if by chance some stray useless pieces of silk were offered us, our eyes would sparkle, and we were made happy for the day. Not more than two or three lessons were heard during these afternoons, and one of these was my reading class." 	palace of Nero glittered with gold and jewels. His beds were of silver and his tables of gold. Tiberius gave a million of sesterces for a picture for his bed- room. A banquet dish of Drusıllus weighed five hundred pounds of silver. The cups of Drusus were of gold. Tunics were embroidered with the figures of the various animals. Sandals were gar- nished with precious stones. Paulina wore jewels when she paid visits, valued at $800,000. Drink- ing-cups were engraved with scenes from the poets. Libraries were adorned with busts and presses of rare woods. Sofas were inlaid with tortoise shell, and covered with gorgeous purple. The Roman grandees rode in gilded chariots, bathed in marble baths, dined from crystal cups, slept on beds of down, reclined on luxurious couches, wore em- broidered robes, and were adorned with precious stones. They ransacked the earth and seas for rare dishes for their banquets, and ornamented their houses with carpets from Babylon, onyx cups from Bithynia, marble from Numidia, bronzes from Cor- inth, statues from Athens—whatever, in short, was	And if we use it as we may, My 1 and 2 we throw away; My 2 and 3 in point of time The future ne'er can reach My 3 and 4, objectively, Belongs to all and each. My 1, 2, 3 was never straight, Tis used because 'tis bent. 1, 2, 3, 4 we'll find the far- Thest possible force " went." My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My whole, repulsive, homely, coarse, Is yet the desert's treasure. Lewiston, Me. I started on a short journey, in company with my cousin, a town in Scotland. We shortly met a couple of women. One, by her dress, we took to be a cape in Africa. The other had the style of, a river in South America. We stopped at an, river in Europe, to dine, where I was glad to meet my sister, a mountain in Turkey, returning home. She was handsomely dressed in, a country of India, robe, a country of Africa, boots, a town of Italy, hat.		AND ARE PREPARED TO DO ALL KINDS OF WORK IN THEIR LINE OF BUSINESS. WE HAVE ALSO IN'STOCK : LEDGERS, JOURNALS, DAY BOOKS,	MEN, BOTH OLD AND YOUNG, BRACE UP! BRACE UP! FOR THECHAMPION SHOULDER BRACE WILL ALWAYS BE FOUND AT THOS. W. SMITH'S. ARE YOU IN NEED OF A GOOD SUIT OF CLOTHES. If so : call and examine as fine assorted Stock of English, Scotch, French, German, Canadian, and Domestic Cloths as can be produced in the City.	ANN AND AND AND AND AND AND AND AND AND
 girl was you, but you do not look one bit as though you were ever hung." "Yes, Eddie, it was your cousin Minna, and it you will keep quiet a short time I will tell you al about it. "When I was a little girl I attended the primary department of our village academy. There were some who were much older than I was; yet there were quite enough of those of my own age with whom I could enjoy a great deal of mischief. Every Wednesday afternoon the elder girls were taught embroidery where they pulled the thread from a silk braid, and made all sorts of beautiful leaves and flowers, like your mamma's old silk apron which she now uses for a duster. We little girls thought the pretty colored braids very wonderful, and if by chance some stray useless pieces of silk were offered us, our eyes would sparkle, and we were made happy for the day. Not more than two or three lessons were heard during these afternoons, and one of these was my reading class." "Do hurry," said Eddie, "and be hung. It seems as though I could not wait to hear how it could be done, and you telling us all about it "" 	palace of Nero glittered with gold and jewels. His beds were of silver and his tables of gold. Tiberius gave a million of sesterces for a picture for his bed- room. A banquet dish of Drusıllus weighed five hundred pounds of silver. The cups of Drusus were of gold. Tunics were embroidered with the figures of the various animals. Sandals were gar- nished with precious stones. Paulina wore jewels when she paid visits, valued at $800,000. Drink- ing-cups were engraved with scenes from the poets. Libraries were adorned with busts and presses of rare woods. Sofas were inlaid with tortoise shell, and covered with gorgeous purple. The Roman grandees rode in gilded chariots, bathed in marble baths, dined from crystal cups, slept on beds of down, reclined on luxurious couches, wore em- broidered robes, and were adorned with precious stones. They ransacked the earth and seas for rare dishes for their banquets, and ornamented their houses with carpets from Babylon, onyx cups from Bithynia, marble from Numidia, bronzes from Cor- inth, statues from Athens—whatever, in short, was precious or rare or curious in the most distant coun- tries. The luxuries of the bath almost exceed he-	And if we use it as we may, My 1 and 2 we throw away; My 2 and 3 in point of time The future ne'er can reach My 3 and 4, objectively, Belongs to all and each. My 1, 2, 3 was never straight, Tis used because 'tis bent. 1, 2, 3, 4 we'll find the far- Thest possible force " went." My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My whole, repulsive, homely, coarse, Is yet the desert's treasure. Lewiston, Me. H. 684.—A LONG JOURNEY. I started on a short journey, in company with my cousin, a town in Scotland. We shortly met a couple of women. One, by her dress, we took to be a cape in Africa. The other had the style of, a river in South America. We stopped at an, river in Europe, to dine, where I was glad to meet my sister, a mountain in Turkey, returning home. She was handsomely dressed in, a country of India, robe, a country of Africa, boots, a town of Italy, hat. For fine weather her out-door garments were, a town of Scotland, shawl, or a suit of, a kingdom of		AND ARE PREPARED TO DO ALL KINDS OF WORK IN THEIR LINE OF BUSINESS. WE HAVE ALSO IN STOCK : LEDGERS, JOURNALS, DAY BOOKS,	MEN, BOTH OLD AND YOUNG, BRACE UP! BRACE UP! FOR THECHAMPION SHOULDER BRACE WILL ALWAYS BE FOUND AT THOS. W. SMITH'S. ARE YOU IN NEED OF A GOOD SUIT OF CLOTHES. If so : call and examine as fine assorted Stock of English, Scotch, French, German, Canadian, and Domestic Cloths as can be produced in the City.	ANN AND AND AND AND AND AND AND AND AND
 girl was you, but you do not look one bit as though you were ever hung." "Yes, Eddie, it was your cousin Minna, and it you will keep quiet a short time I will tell you all about it. "When I was a little girl I attended the primary department of our village academy. There were some who were much older than I was; yet there were quite enough of those of my own age with whom I could enjoy a great deal of mischief. Every Wednesday afternoon the elder girls were taught embroidery where they pulled the thread from a silk braid, and made all sorts of beautiful leaves and flowers, like your mamma's old silk aprom which she now uses for a duster. We little girls thought the pretty colored braids very wonderful, and if by chance some stray useless pieces of silk were offered us, our eyes would sparkle, and we were made happy for the day. Not more than two or three lessons were heard during these afternoons, and one of these was my reading class." "Do hurry," said Eddie, "and be hung. It seems as though I could not wait to hear how it could be done, and you telling us all about it." 	palace of Nero glittered with gold and jewels. His beds were of silver and his tables of gold. Tiberius gave a million of sesterces for a picture for his bed- room. A banquet dish of Drusillus weighed five hundred pounds of silver. The cups of Drusus were of gold. Tunics were embroidered with the figures of the various animals. Sandals were gar- nished with precious stones. Paulina wore jewels when she paid visits, valued at $800,000. Drink- ing-cups were engraved with scenes from the poets. Libraries were adorned with busts and presses of rare woods. Sofas were inlaid with tortoise shell, and covered with gorgeous purple. The Roman grandees rode in gilded chariots, bathed in marble baths, dined from crystal cups, slept on beds of down, reclined on luxurious couches, wore em- broidered robes, and were adorned with precious stones. They ransacked the earth and seas for rare dishes for their banquets, and ornamented their houses with carpets from Babylon, onyx cups from Bithynia, marble from Numidia, bronzes from Cor- inth, statues from Athens—whatever, in short, was precious or rare or curious in the most distant coun- tries. The luxuries of the bath almost exceed be- lief and on the uties of the bath almost exceed be-	And if we use it as we may, My 1 and 2 we throw away; My 2 and 3 in point of time The future ne'er can reach My 3 and 4, objectively, Belongs to all and each. My 1, 2, 3 was never straight, Tis used because 'tis bent. 1, 2, 3, 4 we'll find the far- Thest possible force " went." My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My whole, repulsive, homely, coarse, Is yet the desert's treasure. Lewiston, Me. I started on a short journey, in company with my cousin, a town in Scotland. We shortly met a couple of women. One, by her dress, we took to be a cape in Africa. The other had the style of, a river in South America. We stopped at an, river in Europe, to dine, where I was glad to meet my sister, a mountain in Turkey, returning home. She was handsomely dressed in, a country of India, robe, a country of Africa, boots, a town of Italy, hat. For fine weather her out-door garments were, a town of Scotland, shawl, or a suit of, a kingdom of Europe. For rough weather, a town of England		AND ARE PREPARED TO DO ALL KINDS OF WORK IN THEIR LINE OF BUSINESS. WE HAVE ALSO IN'STOCK : LEDGERS, JOURNALS, DAY BOOKS,	MEN, BOTH OLD AND YOUNG, BRACE UP! FOR THECHAMPION SHOULDER BRACE WILL ALWAYS BE FOUND AT THOS. W. SMITH'S. ARE YOU IN NEED OF A GOOD SUIT OF CLOTHES. If so : call and examine as fine assorted Stock of English, Scotch, French, German, Canadian, and Domestic Cloths as can be produced in the City.	<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text>
 girl was you, but you do not look one bit as though you were ever hung." "Yes, Eddie, it was your cousin Minna, and it you will keep quiet a short time I will tell you all about it. "When I was a little girl I attended the primary department of our village academy. There were some who were much older than I was; yet there were quite enough of those of my own age with whom I could enjoy a great deal of mischief. Every Wednesday afternoon the elder girls were taught embroidery where they pulled the thread from a silk braid, and made all sorts of beautiful leaves and flowers, like your mamma's old silk apron which she now uses for a duster. We little girls thought the pretty colored braids very wonderful, and if by chance some stray useless pieces of silk were offered us, our eyes would sparkle, and we were made happy for the day. Not more than two or three lessons were heard during these afternoons, and one of these was my reading class." "Do hurry," said Eddie, "and be hung. It seems as though I could not wait to hear how it could be done, and you telling us all about it." "Have patience, my little fellow, for I imagine if you were to be hung you would like as long a 	palace of Nero glittered with gold and jewels. His beds were of silver and his tables of gold. Tiberius gave a million of sesterces for a picture for his bed- room. A banquet dish of Drusillus weighed five hundred pounds of silver. The cups of Drusus were of gold. Tunics were embroidered with the figures of the various animals. Sandals were gar- nished with precious stones. Paulina wore jewels when she paid visits, valued at $800,000. Drink- ing-cups were engraved with scenes from the poets. Libraries were adorned with busts and presses of rare woods. Sofas were inlaid with tortoise shell, and covered with gorgeous purple. The Roman grandees rode in gilded chariots, bathed in marble baths, dined from crystal cups, slept on beds of down, reclined on luxurious couches, wore em- broidered robes, and were adorned with precious stones. They ransacked the earth and seas for rare dishes for their banquets, and ornamented their houses with carpets from Babylon, onyx cups from Bithynia, marble from Numidia, bronzes from Cor- inth, statues from Athens—whatever, in short, was precious or rare or curious in the most distant coun- tries. The luxuries of the bath almost exceed be- lief and on the uties of the bath almost exceed be-	And if we use it as we may, My 1 and 2 we throw away; My 2 and 3 in point of time The future ne'er can reach My 3 and 4, objectively, Belongs to all and each. My 1, 2, 3 was never straight, Tis used because 'tis bent. 1, 2, 3, 4 we'll find the far- Thest possible force " went." My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My whole, repulsive, homely, coarse, Is yet the desert's treasure. Lewiston, Me. I started on a short journey, in company with my cousin, a town in Scotland. We shortly met a couple of women. One, by her dress, we took to be a cape in Africa. The other had the style of, a river in South America. We stopped at an, river in Europe, to dine, where I was glad to meet my sister, a mountain in Turkey, returning home. She was handsomely dressed in, a country of India, robe, a country of Africa, boots, a town of Italy, hat. For fine weather her out-door garments were, a town of Scotland, shawl, or a suit of, a kingdom of Europe. For rough weather, a town of England		AND ARE PREPARED TO DO ALL KINDS OF WORK IN THEIR LINE OF BUSINESS. WE HAVE ALSO IN'STOCK : LEDGERS, JOURNALS, DAY BOOKS,	MEN, BOTH OLD AND YOUNG, BRACE UP! BRACE UP! FOR THECHAMPION SHOULDER BRACE WILL ALWAYS BE FOUND AT THOS. W. SMITH'S. ARE YOU IN NEED OF A GOOD SUIT OF CLOTHES. If so : call and examine as fine assorted Stock of English, Scotch, French, German, Canadian, and Domestic Cloths as can be produced in the City. A COMPLETE LINE OF Gent's Furnishing Goods.	ANALO Sources of the second state of the seco
 girl was you, but you do not look one bit as though you were ever hung." "Yes, Eddie, it was your cousin Minna, and it you will keep quiet a short time I will tell you all about it. "When I was a little girl I attended the primary department of our village academy. There were some who were much older than I was; yet there were quite enough of those of my own age with whom I could enjoy a great deal of mischief. Every Wednesday afternoon the elder girls were taught embroidery where they pulled the thread from a silk braid, and made all sorts of beautiful leaves and flowers, like your mamma's old silk apron which she now uses for a duster. We little girls thought the pretty colored braids very wonderful, and if by chance some stray useless pieces of silk were offered us, our eyes would sparkle, and we were made happy for the day. Not more than two or three lessons were heard during these afternoons, and one of these was my reading class." "Do hurry," said Eddie, "and be hung. It seems as though I could not wait to hear how it could be done, and you telling us all about it." "Have patience, my little fellow, for I imagine if you were to be hung you would like as long a time before it as possible !" 	palace of Nero glittered with gold and jewels. His beds were of silver and his tables of gold. Tiberius gave a million of sesterces for a picture for his bed- room. A banquet dish of Drusillus weighed five hundred pounds of silver. The cups of Drusus were of gold. Tunics were embroidered with the figures of the various animals. Sandals were gar- nished with precious stones. Paulina wore jewels when she paid visits, valued at $800,000. Drink- ing-cups were engraved with scenes from the poets. Libraries were adorned with busts and presses of rare woods. Sofas were inlaid with tortoise shell, and covered with gorgeous purple. The Roman grandees rode in gilded chariots, bathed in marble baths, dined from crystal cups, slept on beds of down, reclined on luxurious couches, wore em- broidered robes, and were adorned with precious stones. They ransacked the earth and seas for rare dishes for their banquets, and ornamented their houses with carpets from Babylon, onyx cups from Bithynia, marble from Numidia, bronzes from Cor- inth, statues from Athens—whatever, in short, was precious or rare or curious in the most distant coun- tries. The luxuries of the bath almost exceed be- lief and on the uties of the bath almost exceed be-	And if we use it as we may, My 1 and 2 we throw away; My 2 and 3 in point of time The future ne'er can reach My 3 and 4, objectively, Belongs to all and each. My 1, 2, 3 was never straight, Tis used because 'tis bent. 1, 2, 3, 4 we'll find the far- Thest possible force " went." My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My whole, repulsive, homely, coarse, Is yet the desert's treasure. Lewiston, Me. I started on a short journey, in company with my cousin, a town in Scotland. We shortly met a couple of women. One, by her dress, we took to be a cape in Africa. The other had the style of, a river in South America. We stopped at an, river in Europe, to dine, where I was glad to meet my sister, a mountain in Turkey, returning home. She was handsomely dressed in, a country of India, robe, a country of Africa, boots, a town of Italy, hat. For fine weather her out-door garments were, a town of Scotland, shawl, or a suit of, a kingdom of Europe. For rough weather, a town of England		AND ARE PREPARED TO DO ALL KINDS OF WORK IN THEIR LINE OF BUSINESS. WE HAVE ALSO IN'STOCK : LEDGERS, JOURNALS, DAY BOOKS,	MEN, BOTH OLD AND YOUNG, BRACE UP! BRACE UP! FOR THECHAMPION SHOULDER BRACE WILL ALWAYS BE FOUND AT THOS. W. SMITH'S. ARE YOU IN NEED OF A GOOD SUIT OF CLOTHES. If so : call and examine as fine assorted Stock of English, Scotch, French, German, Canadian, and Domestic Cloths as can be produced in the City. A COMPLETE LINE OF Gent's Furnishing Goods. PAPER COLLARS in JARS. TRUNKS	ANALO Sources of the second state of the seco
 girl was you, but you do not look one bit as though you were ever hung." "Yes, Eddie, it was your cousin Minna, and it you will keep quiet a short time I will tell you al about it. "When I was a little girl I attended the primary department of our village academy. There were some who were much older than I was; yet there were quite enough of those of my own age with whom I could enjoy a great deal of mischief. Every Wednesday afternoon the elder girls were taught embroidery where they pulled the thread from a silk braid, and made all sorts of beautiful leaves and flowers, like your mamma's old silk apron which she now uses for a duster. We little girls thought the pretty colored braids very wonderful, and if by chance some stray useless pieces of silk were offered us, our eyes would sparkle, and we were made happy for the day. Not more than two or three lessons were heard during these afternoons, and one of these was my reading class." "Do hurry," said Eddie, "and be hung. It seems as though I could not wait to hear how it could be done, and you telling us all about it." "Have patience, my little fellow, for I imagine if you were to be hung you would like as long a time before it as possible ! 	palace of Nero glittered with gold and jewels. His beds were of silver and his tables of gold. Tiberius gave a million of sesterces for a picture for his bed- room. A banquet dish of Drusillus weighed five hundred pounds of silver. The cups of Drusus were of gold. Tunics were embroidered with the figures of the various animals. Sandals were gar- nished with precious stones. Paulina wore jewels when she paid visits, valued at $800,000. Drink- ing-cups were engraved with scenes from the poets. Libraries were adorned with busts and presses of rare woods. Sofas were inlaid with tortoise shell, and covered with gorgeous purple. The Roman grandees rode in gilded chariots, bathed in marble baths, dined from crystal cups, slept on beds of down, reclined on luxurious couches, wore em- broidered robes, and were adorned with precious stones. They ransacked the earth and seas for rare dishes for their banquets, and ornamented their houses with carpets from Babylon, onyx cups from Bithynia, marble from Numidia, bronzes from Cor- inth, statues from Athens—whatever, in short, was precious or rare or curious in the most distant coun- tries. The luxuries of the bath almost exceed be- lief, and on the walls were magnificent frescoes, and paintings exhibiting an inexhaustible productive- ness in landscapes and mythological scenes, execut- ed in lively colors.	And if we use it as we may, My 1 and 2 we throw away; My 2 and 3 in point of time The future ne'er can reach My 3 and 4, objectively, Belongs to all and each. My 1, 2, 3 was never straight, Tis used because 'tis bent. 1, 2, 3, 4 we'll find the far- Thest possible force " went." My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My whole, repulsive, homely, coarse, Is yet the desert's treasure. My whole, repulsive, homely, coarse, is yet the desert's treasure. My whole, repulsive, homely, coarse, is we took to be a cape in Africa. The other had the style of, a river in South America. We stopped at an, river in Europe, to dime, where I was glad to meet my sister, a mountain in Turkey, returning home. She was handsomely dressed in, a country of India, robe, a country of Africa, boots, a town of Italy, hat. For fine weather her out-door garments were, a town of Scotland, shawl, or a suit of, a kingdom of Europe. For rough weather, a town of England, province of Ireland. Our-bill-of-fare included, a country of Asia, a cape of America, and a part of France. We had, a town of France, to wait on us, whose appearance was suggestive of, a kingdom of		AND ARE PREPARED TO DO ALL KINDS OF WORK IN THEIR LINE OF BUSINESS. WE HAVE ALSO IN'STOCK : LEDGERS, JOURNALS, DAY BOOKS,	MEN, BOTH OLD AND YOUNG, BRACE UP! BRACE UP! FOR THECHAMPION SHOULDER BRACE WILL ALWAYS BE FOUND AT THOS. W. SMITH'S. ARE YOU IN NEED OF A GOOD SUIT OF CLOTHES. If so : call and examine as fine assorted Stock of English, Scotch, French, German, Canadian, and Domestic Cloths as can be produced in the City. A COMPLETE LINE OF Gent's Furnishing Goods. PAPER COLLARS in JARS, TRUNKS, PAPER COLLARS in JARS, TRUNKS,	 MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON'S CHEAP COTTONS. MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON'S CHEAP COTTONS. One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Yards of Grey and White Cottons and Sheetings, At Lower Prices than ever before quoted. My the proposed change in the Tarift, and will continue the proposed change in the Tarift, and will content the securities. MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON. MERENSTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON. MERENSTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON. MERENSTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON. MERENSTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON. MENCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON. MERENSTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON.<!--</td-->
 girl was you, but you do not look one bit as though you were ever hung." "Yes, Eddie, it was your cousin Minna, and it you will keep quiet a short time I will tell you al about it. "When I was a little girl I attended the primary department of our village academy. There were some who were much older than I was; yet there were quite enough of those of my own age with whom I could enjoy a great deal of mischief. Every Wednesday afternoon the elder girls were taught embroidery where they pulled the thread from a silk braid, and made all sorts of beautiful leaves and flowers, like your mamma's old silk apron which she now uses for a duster. We little girls thought the pretty colored braids very wonderful, and if by chance some stray useless pieces of silk were offered us, our eyes would sparkle, and we were made happy for the day. Not more than two or three lessons were heard during these afternoons, and one of these was my reading class." "Do hurry," said Eddie, "and be hung. It seems as though I could not wait to hear how it could be done, and you telling us all about it." "Have patience, my little fellow, for I imagine if you were to be hung you would like as long a time before it as possible ! 	palace of Nero glittered with gold and jewels. His beds were of silver and his tables of gold. Tiberius gave a million of sesterces for a picture for his bed- room. A banquet dish of Drusillus weighed five hundred pounds of silver. The cups of Drusus were of gold. Tunics were embroidered with the figures of the various animals. Sandals were gar- nished with precious stones. Paulina wore jewels when she paid visits, valued at $800,000. Drink- ing-cups were engraved with scenes from the poets. Libraries were adorned with busts and presses of rare woods. Sofas were inlaid with tortoise shell, and covered with gorgeous purple. The Roman grandees rode in gilded chariots, bathed in marble baths, dined from crystal cups, slept on beds of down, reclined on luxurious couches, wore em- broidered robes, and were adorned with precious stones. They ransacked the earth and seas for rare dishes for their banquets, and ornamented their houses with carpets from Babylon, onyx cups from Bithynia, marble from Numidia, bronzes from Cor- inth, statues from Athens—whatever, in short, was precious or rare or curious in the most distant coun- tries. The luxuries of the bath almost exceed be- lief, and on the walls were magnificent frescoes, and paintings exhibiting an inexhaustible productive- ness in landscapes and mythological scenes, execut- ed in lively colors.	And if we use it as we may, My 1 and 2 we throw away; My 2 and 3 in point of time The future ne'er can reach My 3 and 4, objectively, Belongs to all and each. My 1, 2, 3 was never straight, 'Tis used because 'tis bent. 1, 2, 3, 4 we'll find the far- Thest possible force " went." My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My whole, repulsive, homely, coarse, Is yet the desert's treasure. Lewiston, Me. H. 684.—A LONG JOURNEY. I started on a short journey, in company with my cousin, a town in Scotland. We shortly met a couple of women. One, by her dress, we took to be a cape in Africa. The other had the style of, a river in South America. We stopped at an, river in Europe, to dine, where I was glad to meet my sister, a mountain in Turkey, returning home. She was handsomely dressed in, a country of India, robe, a country of Africa, boots, a town of Italy, hat. For fine weather her out-door garments were, a town of Scotland, shawl, or a suit of, a kingdom of Europe. For rough weather, a town of England, province of Ireland. Our-bill-of-fare included, a country of Asia, a cape of America, and a part of France. We had, a town of France, to wait on us, whose appearance was suggestive of, a kingdom of Europe ; and we did not think she patronised, a		AND ARE PREPARED TO DO ALL KINDS OF WORK IN THEIR LINE OF BUSINESS. WE HAVE ALSO IN'STOCK : LEDGERS, JOURNALS, DAY BOOKS,	MEN, BOTH OLD AND YOUNG, BRACE UP! BRACE UP! FOR THECHAMPION SHOULDER BRACE WILL ALWAYS BE FOUND AT THOS. W. SMITH'S. ARE YOU IN NEED OF A GOOD SUIT OF CLOTHES. If so : call and examine as fine assorted Stock of English, Scotch, French, German, Canadian, and Domestic Cloths as can be produced in the City. A COMPLETE LINE OF Gent's Furnishing Goods. PAPER COLLARS in JARS, TRUNKS, PAPER COLLARS in JARS, TRUNKS,	AND 35 and 37 King Street. MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON'S CHEAP COTTONS. One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Yards of Grey and White Cottons and Sheetings, At Lower Prices than ever before quoted. We have haid in the above Stock in consequence of the proposed change in the Tariff, and will continue to self the REDUCED PRICES so long as this Stock mar 15. MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON. J. & W. A. VANWART, BARRISTERS-AT-LAW, Gueen street, Fredericton. Af Accounts collected and loans negotiated on good mar 31-by MSURANCE AGENCY. BARENT MARSHALL. General Agent, Notary Public and Broker. DEFINES MSURANCE BLOCK, PRINCE WM. STREET, ST. JOHN, N. B.
 giri was you, but you do not look one bit as though you were ever hung." "Yes, Eddie, it was your cousin Minna, and it you will keep quiet a short time I will tell you al about it. "When I was a little girl I attended the primary department of our village academy. There were some who were much older than I was; yet there were quite enough of those of my own age with whom I could enjoy a great deal of mischief. Every Wednesday afternoon the elder girls were taught embroidery where they pulled the thread from a silk braid, and made all sorts of beautiful leaves and flowers, like your mamma's old silk apron which she now uses for a duster. We little girls thought the pretty colored braids very wonderful, and if by chance some stray useless pieces of silk were offered us, our eyes would sparkle, and we were made happy for the day. Not more than two or three lessons were heard during these afternoons, and one of these was my reading class." "Do hurry," said Eddie, "and be hung. It seems as though I could not wait to hear how it could be done, and you telling us all about it." "Have patience, my little fellow, for I imagine if you were to be hung you would like as long a time before it as possible ! "It was on one of these Wednesday afternoons, when my class was reading. I had just finished when Lizzie Spaulding, one of the elder girls of the sider with the sider of the sider o	palace of Nero glittered with gold and jewels. His beds were of silver and his tables of gold. Tiberius gave a million of sesterces for a picture for his bed- room. A banquet dish of Drusillus weighed five hundred pounds of silver. The cups of Drusus were of gold. Tunics were embroidered with the figures of the various animals. Sandals were gar- nished with precious stones. Paulina wore jewels when she paid visits, valued at $800,000. Drink- ing-cups were engraved with scenes from the poets. Libraries were adorned with busts and presses of rare woods. Sofas were inlaid with tortoise shell, and covered with gorgeous purple. The Roman grandees rode in gilded chariots, bathed in marble baths, dined from crystal cups, slept on beds of down, reclined on luxurious couches, wore em- broidered robes, and were adorned with precious stones. They ransacked the earth and seas for rare dishes for their banquets, and ornamented their houses with carpets from Babylon, onyx cups from Bithynia, marble from Numidia, bronzes from Cor- inth, statues from Athens—whatever, in short, was precious or rare or curious in the most distant coun- tries. The luxuries of the bath almost exceed be- lief, and on the walls were magnificent frescoes, and paintings exhibiting an inexhaustible productive- ness in landscapes and mythological scenes, execut- ed in lively colors. But these are not all. The most amazing wealth and the loftiest taste went hand in hand Theore	And if we use it as we may, My 1 and 2 we throw away; My 2 and 3 in point of time The future ne'er can reach My 3 and 4, objectively, Belongs to all and each. My 1, 2, 3 was never straight, 'Tis used because 'tis bent. 1, 2, 3, 4 we'll find the far- Thest possible force " went." My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My whole, repulsive, homely, coarse, Is yet the desert's treasure. Lewiston, Me. 684.—A LONG JOURNEY. I started on a short journey, in company with my cousin, a town in Scotland. We shortly met a couple of women. One, by her dress, we took to be a cape in Africa. The other had the style of, a river in South America. We stopped at an, river in Europe, to dime, where I was glad to meet my sister, a mountain in Turkey, returning home. She was handsomely dressed in, a country of India, robe, a country of Africa, boots, a town of Italy, hat. For fine weather her out-door garments were, a town of Scotland, shawl, or a suit of, a kingdom of Europe. For rough weather, a town of England, province of Ireland. Our-bill-of-fare included, a country of Asia, a cape of America, and a part of France. We had, a town of France, to wait on us, whose appearance was suggestive of, a kingdom of Europe ; and we did not think she patronised, a city on the Rhine. While returing home we had		AND ARE PREPARED TO DO ALL KINDS OF WORK IN THEIR LINE OF BUSINESS. WE HAVE ALSO IN'STOCK : LEDGERS, JOURNALS, DAY BOOKS,	MEN, BOTH OLD AND YOUNG, BRACE UP! BRACE UP! FORTHECHAMPION SHOULDER BRACE WILL ALWAYS BE FOUND AT THOS. W. SMITH'S. THOS. W. SMITH'S. ARE YOU IN NEED OF A GOOD SUIT OF CLOTHES. If so : call and examine as fine assorted Stock of English, Scotch, French, German, Canadian, and Domestic Cloths as can be produced in the City. A COMPLETE LINE OF Gent's Furnishing Goods. PAPER COLLARS in JARS, TRUNKS, PAILS, ORNAMENTAL BOXES, &c.	 MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON'S CHEAP COTTONS. MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON'S CHEAP COTTONS. One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Yards of Grey and White Cottons and Sheetings, At Lower Prices than ever before quoted. We have laid in the above Stock in consequence of the proposed change in the Tariff, and will continue to sell at the REDUCED PRICES so long as this Stock mar 15. MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON. J. & W. A. VANWART, BARRISTERS-AT-LAW, Gueen street, Predericton. J. & W. A. VANWART, BARRISTERS-AT-LAW, Gueen street, Predericton. MSURANCE AGENCY. MSURANCE AGENCY. MSURANCE MARSHALL, General Agent, Notary Public and Broker. MSURANCE BLOCK, PRINCE WM. STREET, ST. JOHN, N. B. MEQUATE RATES AND CLAIMS PROMPTLY PADE AT MATURETY IN CARDINAL PROMPTLY
 giri was you, but you do not look one bit as though you were ever hung." "Yes, Eddie, it was your cousin Minna, and it you will keep quiet a short time I will tell you al about it. "When I was a little girl I attended the primary department of our village academy. There were some who were much older than I was; yet there were quite enough of those of my own age will whom I could enjoy a great deal of mischief. Every Wednesday afternoon the elder girls were taught embroidery where they pulled the thread from a silk braid, and made all sorts of beautiful leaves and flowers, like your mamma's old silk aprom which she now uses for a duster. We little girls thought the pretty colored braids very wonderful, and if by chance some stray useless pieces of silk were offered us, our eyes would sparkle, and we were made happy for the day. Not more than two or three lessons were heard during these afternoons, and one of these was my reading class." "Do hurry," said Eddie, "and be hung. It seems as though I could not wait to hear how it could be done, and you telling us all about it." "Have patience, my little fellow, for I imagine if you were to be hung you would like as long a time before it as possible ! "It was on one of these Wednesday afternoons, when my class was reading. I had just finished when Lizzie Spaulding, one of the elder girls in-quired for her light pink braid which she had mis 	palace of Nero glittered with gold and jewels. His beds were of silver and his tables of gold. Tiberius gave a million of sesterces for a picture for his bed- room. A banquet dish of Drusıllus weighed five hundred pounds of silver. The cups of Drusus were of gold. Tunics were embroidered with the figures of the various animals. Sandals were gar- nished with precious stones. Paulina wore jewels when she paid visits, valued at $800,000. Drink- ing-cups were engraved with scenes from the poets. Libraries were adorned with busts and presses of rare woods. Sofas were inlaid with tortoise shell, and covered with gorgeous purple. The Roman grandees rode in gilded chariots, bathed in marble baths, dined from crystal cups, slept on beds of down, reclined on luxurious couches, wore em- broidered robes, and were adorned with precious stones. They ransacked the earth and seas for rare dishes for their banquets, and ornamented their houses with carpets from Babylon, onyx cups from Bithynia, marble from Numidia, bronzes from Cor- inth, statues from Athens—whatever, in short, was precious or rare or curious in the most distant coun- tries. The luxuries of the bath almost exceed be- lief, and on the walls were magnificent frescoes, and paintings exhibiting an inexhaustible productive- ness in landscapes and mythological scenes, execut- ed in lively colors. But these are not all. The most amazing wealth and the loftiest taste went hand in hand. There were citizen nobles who owned whole meanings	And if we use it as we may, My 1 and 2 we throw away; My 2 and 3 in point of time The future ne'er can reach My 3 and 4, objectively, Belongs to all and each. My 1, 2, 3 was never straight, 'Tis used because 'tis bent. 1, 2, 3, 4 we'll find the far- Thest possible force " went." My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My whole, repulsive, homely, coarse, Is yet the desert's treasure. Lewiston, Me. H. 684.—A LONG JOURNEY. I started on a short journey, in company with my couple of women. One, by her dress, we took to be a cape in Africa. The other had the style of, a river in South America. We stopped at an, river in Europe, to dine, where I was glad to meet my sister, a mountain in Turkey, returning home. She was handsomely dressed in, a country of India, robe, a country of Africa, boots, a town of Italy, hat. For fine weather her out-door garments were, a town of Scotland. Our-bill-of-fare included, a country of Africa, boots, a town of Italy, hat. For fine weather her out-fare included, a country of Asia, a cape of America, and a part of France. We had, a town of France, to wait on us, whose appearance was suggestive of, a kingdom of Europe ; and we did not think she patronised, a city on the Rhine. While returing home we had to drive very carefully to, a river of Austria, our lives. Our, rock in the Bay of Fundy boing.	——TO— No. 11 CHARLOTTE STREET. N. B. – A Lot of WIRE TABLE MATS worth $1.25 a set, selling for 60 cents. DOVER EGG BEATERS, only 35 cents. A Lot of WASHING MACHINES at Half-price. M. W. W. MOLASSES AND SUGAR. A MOLASSES AND SUGAR. OTHER ENT & SONS MOLASSES : 10 do. Cienfuegos do. ; 40 brls Granulated SUGAR ; 20 brls Extra C. do ; 8 casks S. R. do. Total Extra C. do ; 8 casks S. R. do. Total Extra C. do ; 8 casks S. R. do. Suth Market Wharf. SURGICAL INSTRUMENTS, dc. ME KEEP Constantly a large and well assorted stock of SURGICAL INSTRUMENTS, including the following : Surgeons Pocket Cases ; Amputating Cases ; Post Mortem Cases ; Physicians Pocket Cases ; Obstetric forceps ; Dressing Forceps ; Bone Forceps ; Stetseopes ; forceps ; Dressing Forceps ; Bone Forceps ; Stetseopes ; formatuments ; Artery Forceps ; Polypus Forceps ; Dressing Scissors ; Probangs ; Hypodermic Syringes , Finger Knives ; for sale at lowest prices by To sale at lowest prices by The ARKER & SONS, Sin and 37 King S	AND ARE PREPARED TO DO ALL KINDS OF WORK IN THEIR LINE OF BUSINESS. WE HAVE ALSO IN'STOCK : LEDGERS, JOURNALS, DAY BOOKS,	MEN, BOTH OLD AND YOUNG, BRACE UP! BRACE UP! FOR THECHAMPION SHOULDER BRACE WILL ALWAYS BE FOUND AT THOS. W. SMITH'S. ARE YOU IN NEED OF A ARE YOU IN NEED OF A GOOD SUIT OF CLOTHES. If so : call and examine as fine assorted Stock of English, Scotch, French, German, Canadian, and Domestic Cloths as can be produced in the City. A COMPLETE LINE OF Gent's Furnishing Goods. PAPER COLLARS in JARS, TRUNKS, PALLS, ORNAMENTAL BOXES, &c.	 MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON'S CHEAP COTTONS. MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON'S CHEAP COTTONS. One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Yards of Grey and White Cottons and Sheetings. At Lower Prices than ever before quoted. We have laid in the above Stock in consequence of the proposed change in the Tariff, and will continue to sela the REDUCED PRICES so long as this Stock mar 15. MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON. J. & W. A. VANWART, BARRISTERS-AT-LAW, Macen Street, Predericton. MSURANCE AGENCY. MSURANCE AGENCY. MSURANCE AGENCY. MSURANCE BLOCK, PRINCE WM. STREET, ST. JOHN, N. B. MSURANCE BLOCK, PRINCE WM. STREET, ST. JOHN, N. B. MANCHESTER AND CLAIMS PROMPTLY MANCHESTER AND CLAIMS PROMPTLY MANCHESTER AND CLAIMS PROMPTLY
 girl was you, but you do not look one bit as though you were ever hung." "Yes, Eddie, it was your cousin Minna, and it you will keep quiet a short time I will tell you al about it. "When I was a little girl I attended the primary department of our village academy. There were some who were much older than I was; yet there were quite enough of those of my own age will whom I could enjoy a great deal of mischief. Every Wednesday afternoon the elder girls were taught embroidery where they pulled the thread from a silk braid, and made all sorts of beautiful leaves and flowers, like your mamma's old silk aprom which she now uses for a duster. We little girls thought the pretty colored braids very wonderful, and if by chance some stray useless pieces of silk were offered us, our eyes would sparkle, and we were made happy for the day. Not more than two or three lessons were heard during these afternoons, and one of these was my reading class." "Do hurry," said Eddie, "and be hung. It seems as though I could not wait to hear how it could be done, and you telling us all about it." "Have patience, my little fellow, for I imagine if you were to be hung you would like as long a time before it as possible ! "It was on one of these Wednesday afternoons, when my class was reading. I had just finished when Lizzie Spaulding, one of the elder girls inquired for her light pink braid which she had mis. 	palace of Nero glittered with gold and jewels. His beds were of silver and his tables of gold. Tiberius gave a million of sesterces for a picture for his bed- room. A banquet dish of Drusullus weighed five hundred pounds of silver. The cups of Drusus were of gold. Tunics were embroidered with the figures of the various animals. Sandals were gar- nished with precious stones. Paulina wore jewels when she paid visits, valued at $800,000. Drink- ing-cups were engraved with scenes from the poets. Libraries were adorned with busts and presses of rare woods. Sofas were inlaid with tortoise shell, and covered with gorgeous purple. The Roman grandees rode in gilded chariots, bathed in marble baths, dined from crystal cups, slept on beds of down, reclined on luxurious couches, wore em- broidered robes, and were adorned with precious stones. They ransacked the earth and seas for rare dishes for their banquets, and ornamented their houses with carpets from Babylon, onyx cups from Bithynia, marble from Numidia, bronzes from Cor- inth, statues from Athens—whatever, in short, was precious or rare or curious in the most distant coun- tries. The luxuries of the bath almost exceed be- lief, and on the walls were magnificent frescoes, and paintings exhibiting an inexhaustible productive- ness in landscapes and mythological scenes, execut- ed in lively colors. But these are not all. The most amazing wealth and the loftiest taste worth hand in hand. There were citizen nobles who owned whole provinces ; even	And if we use it as we may, My 1 and 2 we throw away; My 2 and 3 in point of time The future ne'er can reach My 3 and 4, objectively, Belongs to all and each. My 1, 2, 3 was never straight, 'Tis used because 'tis bent. 1, 2, 3, 4 we'll find the far- Thest possible force " went." My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My whole, repulsive, homely, coarse, Is yet the desert's treasure. Lewiston, Me. H. 684.—A LONG JOURNEY. I started on a short journey, in company with my cousin, a town in Scotland. We shortly met a couple of women. One, by her dress, we took to be a cape in Africa. The other had the style of, a river in South America. We stopped at an, river in Europe, to dime, where I was glad to meet my sister, a mountain in Turkey, returning home. She, a country of Africa, boots, a town of Italy, hat. For fine weather her out-door garments were, a town of Scotland, shawl, or a suit of, a kingdom of Europe. For rough weather, a town of England, province of Ireland. Our-bill-of-fare included, a country of Asia, a cape of America, and a part of France. We had, a town of France, to wait on us, whose appearance was suggestive of, a kingdom of Europe ; and we did not think she patronised, a city on the Rhine. While returing home we had to drive very carefully to, a river of Austria, our lives. Our, rock in the Bay of Fundy, being very restive, acting as though he smelt include, being very	——TO— No. 11 CHARLOTTE STREET. N. B.—A. Lot of WIRE TABLE MATS worth $1.25 a set, solling for 60 cents. DOVER EGG BEATERS, only 35 cents. A Lot of WASHING MACHINES at Half-price. M. W. W. MOLASSES AND SUGAR. A MOLASSES AND SUGAR. OTHER ENT & SONS MOLASSES ; 10 do. Cienfuegos do. ; 40 brls Granulated SUGAR ; 20 brls Extra C. do ; 8 casks S. R. do. MOLASSES ; 10 do. Cienfuegos do. ; 40 brls Granulated SUGAR ; 20 brls Extra C. do ; 8 casks S. R. do. South Market Wharf. SURGICAL INSTRUMENTS, &C. ME KEEP Constantly a large and well assorted stock of SURGICAL INSTRUMENTS, including the forceps ; Dressing Forceps ; Polypus Forceps ; Throat forceps ; Dressing Forceps ; Bone Forceps ; Stethescopes ; Family Medicine Chests ; Ear Trumpets, Dressing Scisses, Sors ; Probangs ; Hypodermic Syringes , Finger Knives ; Family Medicine Chests ; Ear Trumpets , Dressing Scisses ; Sand 37 King Street. T. B. BARKER & SONS (Ed. 2) Stand 37 King Street.	AND ARE PREPARED TO DO ALL KINDS OF WORK IN THEIR LINE OF BUSINESS. WE HAVE ALSO IN'STOCK : LEDGERS, JOURNALS, DAY BOOKS, BILL BOOKS,	MEN, BOTH OLD AND YOUNG, BRACE UP! FORTHECHAMPION SHOULDER BRACE WILL ALWAYS BE FOUND AT THOS. W. SMITH'S. THOS. W. SMITH'S. ARE YOU IN NEED OF A GOOD SUIT OF CLOTHES. If so : call and examine as fine assorted Stock of English, Scotch, French, German, Canadian, and Domestic Cloths as can be produced in the City. A COMPLETE LINE OF Gent's Furnishing Goods. PAPER COLLARS in JARS, TRUNKS, PAILS, ORNAMENTAL BOXES, &c. All THE LATEST NOVELTIES AT	 MANCH STER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON'S CHEAP COTTONS. MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON'S CHEAP COTTONS. One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Yards of Grey and White Cottons and Sheetings. At Lower Prices than ever before quoted. We have laid in the above Stock in consequence of to sell at the REDUCED PRICES so long as this Stock marks. All in want of Cottons should purchase at once. MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON'S J. & W. A. VANWART, BARRISTERS-AT-LAW, Macen Street, Prederieton. MANCHESTER and loans negotiated on good mar 31-1y MSURANCE AGENCY. MSURANCE AGENCY. MSURANCE AGENCY. MSURANCE AGENCY. MSURANCE BLOCK, PRINCE WA. STREET, ST. JOHN, N. B. MSURANCE BLOCK, PRINCE WM. STREET, ST. JOHN, N. B. MANCHESTER AND CLAIMS PROMPTING. MASTANA MATURITY IN CASH. MASURANCE AGENS MAY, 1866, including data this. Agency since May, 1866, including data this. Agency since May, 1866, including disastores for of 20th June, 1877, One Million, Nino
 girl was you, but you do not look one bit as though you were ever hung." "Yes, Eddie, it was your cousin Minna, and it you will keep quiet a short time I will tell you al about it. "When I was a little girl I attended the primary department of our village academy. There were some who were much older than I was; yet there were quite enough of those of my own age with whom I could enjoy a great deal of mischief. Every Wednesday afternoon the elder girls were taught embroidery where they pulled the thread from a silk braid, and made all sorts of beautiful leaves and flowers, like your mamma's old silk apron which she now uses for a duster. We little girls thought the pretty colored braids very wonderful, and if by chance some stray useless pieces of silk were offered us, our eyes would sparkle, and we were made happy for the day. Not more than two or three lessons were heard during these afternoons, and one of these was my reading class." "Do hurry," said Eddie, "and be hung. It seems as though I could not wait to hear how it could be done, and you telling us all about it." "Have patience, my little fellow, for I imagine if you were to be hung you would like as long a time before it as possible ! "It was on one of these Wednesday afternoons, when my class was reading. I had just finished when Lizzie Spaulding, one of the elder girls inquired for her light pink braid which she had mis. sed. Miss Wells, our teacher, was very strict in inquiring of each of us little girls for she well the was inquired for her light pink braid which she had mis. 	palace of Nero glittered with gold and jewels. His beds were of silver and his tables of gold. Tiberius gave a million of sesterces for a picture for his bed- room. A banquet dish of Drusıllus weighed five hundred pounds of silver. The cups of Drusus were of gold. Tunics were embroidered with the figures of the various animals. Sandals were gar- nished with precious stones. Paulina wore jewels when she paid visits, valued at $800,000. Drink- ing-cups were engraved with scenes from the poets. Libraries were adorned with busts and presses of rare woods. Sofas were inlaid with tortoise shell, and covered with gorgeous purple. The Roman grandees rode in gilded chariots, bathed in marble baths, dined from crystal cups, slept on beds of down, reclined on luxurious couches, wore em- broidered robes, and were adorned with precious stones. They ransacked the earth and seas for rare dishes for their banquets, and ornamented their houses with carpets from Babylon, onyx cups from Bithynia, marble from Numidia, bronzes from Cor- inth, statues from Athens—whatever, in short, was precious or rare or curious in the most distant coun- tries. The luxuries of the bath almost exceed be- lief, and on the walls were magnificent frescoes, and paintings exhibiting an inexhaustible productive- ness in landscapes and mythological scenes, execut- ed in lively colors. But these are not all. The most amazing wealth and the loftiest taste went hand in hand. There were eitizen nobles who owned whole provinces; even Paula could call a whole city her own. Bick sene-	And if we use it as we may, My 1 and 2 we throw away; My 2 and 3 in point of time The future ne'er can reach My 3 and 4, objectively, Belongs to all and each. My 1, 2, 3 was never straight, 'Tis used because 'tis bent. 1, 2, 3, 4 we'll find the far- Thest possible force " went." My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My whole, repulsive, homely, coarse, Is yet the desert's treasure. Lewiston, Me. H. 684.—A LONG JOURNEY. I started on a short journey, in company with my couple of women. One, by her dress, we took to be a cape in Africa. The other had the style of, a river in South America. We stopped at an, river in Europe, to dine, where I was glad to meet my sister, a mountain in Turkey, returning home. She was handsomely dressed in, a country of India, robe, a country of Africa, boots, a town of Italy, hat. For fine weather her out-door garments were, a town of Scotland. Our-bill-of-fare included, a country of Africa, boots, a town of Italy, hat. For fine weather her out-door garments were, a town of Scotland. Our-bill-of-fare included, a country of Africa, boots, a town of Italy, hat. For fine weather her out-door garments were, a town of Scotland, shawl, or a suit of, a kingdom of Europe. For rough weather, a town of England, province of Ireland. Our-bill-of-fare included, a country of Asia, a cape of America, and a part of France. We had, a town of France, to wait on us, whose appearance was suggestive of, a kingdom of Europe is and we did not think she patronised, a city on the Rhine. While returing home we had to drive very carefully to, a river of Austria, our lives. Our, rock in the Bay of Fundy, being very restive, acting as though he smelt, islands belong.	——ΤΟ— No. 11 CHARLOTTE STREET. N. B.—A.Lot of WIRE TABLE MATS worth $1.25 a set, solling for 60 cents. DOVER EGG BEATERS, only 35 cents. A Lot of WASHING MACHINES at Half-price. ay 11. W. W. MOLASSES AND SUGAR. 35 Comment, for sale very low; 30 casks Barbados MOLASSES (10 do. Cienfuegos do.; 40 brls Granulated SUGAR; 20 brls Extra C. do; 8 casks S. E. do. For sale by GILBERT BENT & SONS Jan 17 SURGICAL INSTRUMENTS, &C. WE KEEP Constantly a large and well assorted stock of SURGICAL INSTRUMENTS, including the of SURGICAL INSTRUMENTS, including the of SURGICAL INSTRUMENTS, including the forceps; Dressing Forceps; Polypus Forceps; Throat forceps; Dressing Forceps; Polypus Forceps; Throat forceps; Dressing Forceps; Bone Forceps; Stethescopes; family Medicine Chests; Ear Trumpets, Dressing Scissers; Probangs; Hypodermic Syringes, Finger Knives; family Medicine Chests; Ear Trumpets, Dressing Scissers; Probangs; Hypodermic Syringes, Finger Knives; family Medicine Chests; Ear Trumpets, Dressing Scissers; Probangs; Hypodermic Syringes, Finger Knives; family Medicine Chests; Ear Trumpets, Dressing Scissers; Probangs; Hypodermic Syringes, Finger Knives; family Medicine Chests; Ear Trumpets, Dressing Scissers; Probangs; Hypodermic Syringes, Finger Knives; family Medicine Chests; Ear Trumpets, Dressing Scissers; Probangs; Hypodermic Syringes, Finger Knives; family Medicine Chests; Ear Trumpets, Dressing Scis; Comen Lancets; Bistouries; Galvanic Batteries; Ice	AND ARE PREPARED TO DO ALL KINDS OF WORK IN THEIR LINE OF BUSINESS. WE HAVE ALSO IN'STOCK : LEDGERS, JOURNALS, DAY BOOKS,	MEN, BOTH OLD AND YOUNG, BRACE UP! FORTHECHAMPION SHOULDER BRACE WILL ALWAYS BE FOUND AT THOS. W. SMITH'S. THOS. W. SMITH'S. ARE YOU IN NEED OF A GOOD SUIT OF CLOTHES. If so : call and examine as fine assorted Stock of English, Scotch, French, German, Canadian, and Domestic Cloths as can be produced in the City. A COMPLETE LINE OF Gent's Furnishing Goods. PAPER COLLARS in JARS, TRUNKS, PAILS, ORNAMENTAL BOXES, &c. All THE LATEST NOVELTIES AT	ANY 10 35 and 37 King Street. MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON'S CHEAP COTTONS. One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Yards of Grey and White Cottons and Sheetings. At Lower Prices than ever before quoted. We have laid in the above Stock in consequence of to sell at the REDUCED PRICES so long as this Stock marks. All in want of Cottons should purchase at once. The proposed change in the Tariff, and will continue to sell at the REDUCED PRICES so long as this Stock marks. All in want of Cottons should purchase at once. The ANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON. J. & W. A. VANWART, BARRISTERS-AT-LAW, Macen street, Prederieton. Mark Street Prederieton. Mark Street Prederieton. Mark Street Prederieton. Mark Street Prederieton. Mark Street And Ioans negotiated on good mar 31-19 MSURANCE AGENCY. MSURANCE AGENCY. MSURANCE AGENCY. MSURANCE AGENCY. MSURANCE AGENCY. MSURANCE AGENCY. MSURANCE AGENCY. MSURANCE BLOCK, PRINCE WM. STREET, ST. JOHN, N. B. MANCHESTER AND CLAIMS PROMPTING ADA AT MATURITY IN CASH. ADA AT MATURITY IN CASH. CAPTAL OVER TWENTY-FILE MULLION
 girl was you, but you do not look one bit as though you were ever hung." "Yes, Eddie, it was your cousin Minna, and it you will keep quiet a short time I will tell you al about it. "When I was a little girl I attended the primary department of our village academy. There were some who were much older than I was; yet there were quite enough of those of my own age with whom I could enjoy a great deal of mischief. Every Wednesday afternoon the elder girls were taught embroidery where they pulled the thread from a silk braid, and made all sorts of beautiful leaves and flowers, like your mamma's old silk aprom which she now uses for a duster. We little girls thought the pretty colored braids very wonderful, and if by chance some stray useless pieces of silk were offered us, our eyes would sparkle, and we were made happy for the day. Not more than two or three lessons were heard during these afternoons, and one of these was my reading class." "Do hurry," said Eddie, "and be hung. It seems as though I could not wait to hear how it could be done, and you telling us all about it." "Have patience, my little fellow, for I imagine if you were to be hung you would like as long a time before it as possible ! "It was on one of these Wednesday afternoons, when my class was reading. I had just finished when Lizzie Spaulding, one of the elder girls inquired for her light pink braid which she had mis. sed. Miss Wells, our teacher, was very strict in inquiring of each of us little girls, for she well knew our admiration of the bright pretty colore 	palace of Nero glittered with gold and jewels. His beds were of silver and his tables of gold. Tiberius gave a million of sesterces for a picture for his bed- room. A banquet dish of Drusıllus weighed five hundred pounds of silver. The cups of Drusus were of gold. Tunics were embroidered with the figures of the various animals. Sandals were gar- nished with precious stones. Paulina wore jewels when she paid visits, valued at $800,000. Drink- ing-cups were engraved with scenes from the poets. Libraries were adorned with busts and presses of rare woods. Sofas were inlaid with tortoise shell, and covered with gorgeous purple. The Roman grandees rode in gilded chariots, bathed in marble baths, dined from crystal cups, slept on beds of down, reclined on luxurious couches, wore em- broidered robes, and were adorned with precious stones. They ransacked the earth and seas for rare dishes for their banquets, and ornamented their houses with carpets from Babylon, onyx cups from Bithynia, marble from Numidia, bronzes from Cor- inth, statues from Athens—whatever, in short, was precious or rare or curious in the most distant coun- tries. The luxuries of the bath almost exceed be- lief, and on the walls were magnificent frescoes, and paintings exhibiting an inexhaustible productive- ness in landscapes and mythological scenes, execut- ed in lively colors. But these are not all. The most amazing wealth and the loftiest taste went hand in hand. There were eitizen nobles who owned whole provinces ; even Paula could call a whole city her own. Rich sena- tors, in some cases, were proprietors of 200 000	And if we use it as we may, My 1 and 2 we throw away; My 2 and 3 in point of time The future ne'er can reach My 3 and 4, objectively, Belongs to all and each. My 1, 2, 3 was never straight, Tis used because 'tis bent. 1, 2, 3, 4 we'll find the far- Thest possible force " went." My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My 40, repulsive, homely, coarse, Is yet the desert's treasure. My whole, repulsive, homely, coarse, Is yet the desert's treasure. My 40, repulsive, homely, coarse, Is yet the desert's treasure. My 684.—A LONG JOURNEY. I started on a short journey, in company with my couple of women. One, by her dress, we took to be a cape in Africa. The other had the style of, a river in South America. We shortly met a couple of women. One, by her dress, we took to be a cape in Africa. The other had the style of, a river in South America. We stopped at an, river in Europe, to dime, where I was glad to meet my sister, a mountain in Turkey, returning home. She a country of Africa, boots, a town of Italy, hat. For fine weather her out-door garments were, a down of Scotland, shawl, or a suit of, a kingdom of province of Ireland. Our-bill-of-fare included, a furope. For rough weather, a town of England, province of Ireland. Our-bill-of-fare included, a furope i and we did not think she patronised, a diurope ; and we did not think she patronised, a diver on the Rhine. While returing home we had to drive very carefully to, a river of Austria, our lives. Our, rock in the Bay of Fundy, being very restive, acting as though he smelt, islands belong- ing to New Brunswick, or had, a river in Russia, in his ear.	T0 No. 11 CHARLOTTE STREET. N. BA Lot of WIRE TABLE MATS worth $1.25 a set, selling for 60 cents. DOVER EGG BEATERS, only 35 cents. A Lot of WASHING MACHINES at Half-price. $\overline{1}\) W.W. MOLASSES AND SUGAR. 35 Casks TRINIDAD MOLASSES, a consign- ment, for sale very low; 30 casks Barbados MOLASSES; 10 do. Cienfuegos do.; 40 brls Granulated SUGAR; 20 brls Extra C. do; 8 casks S. R. do. Tor sale by 31 GILBERT BENT & SONS South Market Wharf. SURGICAL INSTRUMENTS, dc. WE KEEP Constantly a large and well assorted stock following: Surgens: Surgens: Process: Process: Process: Process: Surgens: Process: Surgens: Surgens: Process: Process: Surgens: Surgens: <	AND ARE PREPARED TO DO ALL KINDS OF WORK IN THEIR LINE OF BUSINESS. WE HAVE ALSO IN'STOCK : LEDGERS, JOURNALS, DAY BOOKS, BILL BOOKS,	MEN, BOTH OLD AND YOUNG, BRACE UP! FORTHECHAMPION SHOULDER BRACE WILL ALWAYS BE FOUND AT THOS. W. SMITH'S. DIGS. W. SMITH'S. ARE YOU IN NEED OF A GOOD SUIT OF CLOTHES. Mss: call and examine as fine assored Stock of English, Scote, French, German, Canadian, and Domestic Cloths as can be produced in the City. A COMPLETE LINE OF Gent's Furnishing Goods. DAPER COLLARS in JARS, TRUNKS, PAILS, ORNAMENTAL BOXES, &c. AL THE LATEST NOVELTIES AT THOS. W. SMITH'S.	 MARIN MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON'S CHEAP COTTONS. MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON'S CHEAP COTTONS. Manchester, Robertson & Allison's of lower Prices than ever before quoted. Me have laid in the above Stock in consequence of the proposed change in the Tarift, and will continue the proposed change in the Tarift, and will contained the proposed the proposed the proposed the proposed the proposed the proposed the proposed the proposed the proposed the proposed the proposed the proposed the proposed the proposed the proposed the proposed
 girl was you, but you do not look one bit as though you were ever hung." "Yes, Eddie, it was your cousin Minna, and it you will keep quiet a short time I will tell you al abont it. "When I was a little girl I attended the primary department of our village academy. There were some who were much clder than I was; yet there were quite enough of those of my own age with whom I could enjoy a great deal of mischief. Every Wednesday afternoon the elder girls were taught embroidery where they pulled the thread from a silk braid, and made all sorts of beautiful leaves and flowers, like your mamma's old silk apron which she now uses for a duster. We little girls thought the pretty colored braids very wonderful, and if by chance some stray useless pieces of silk were offered us, our eyes would sparkle, and we were made happy for the day. Not more than two or three lessons were heard during these afternoons, and one of these was my reading class." "Do hurry," said Eddie, "and be hung. It seems as though I could not wait to hear how it could be done, and you telling us all about it." "Have patience, my little fellow, for I imagine if you were to be hung you would like as long a time before it as possible ! "It was on one of these Wednesday afternoons, when my class was reading. I had just finished when Lizzie Spaulding, one of the elder girls inquired for her light pink braid which she had missed. Miss Wells, our teacher, was very strict in inquiring of each of us little girls, for she well knew our admiration of the bright pretty colors. When it was asked if I had seen it I were some if a work were as the prime to a bright pretty colors. When it was asked if I had seen it I were some would have as a shou if I had seen it I were were some would have as a stray work the pretty colors. When it was asked if I had seen it I were were work and its is the protex of the seen it I were were as the protex of the seen it I were were have and the protex of the proty colors. <!--</td--><td>palace of Nero glittered with gold and jewels. His beds were of silver and his tables of gold. Tiberius gave a million of sesterces for a picture for his bed- room. A banquet dish of Drusıllus weighed five hundred pounds of silver. The cups of Drusus were of gold. Tunics were embroidered with the figures of the various animals. Sandals were gar- nished with precious stones. Paulina wore jewels when she paid visits, valued at $800,000. Drink- ing-cups were engraved with scenes from the poets. Libraries were adorned with busts and presses of rare woods. Sofas were inlaid with tortoise shell, and covered with gorgeous purple. The Roman grandees rode in gilded chariots, bathed in marble baths, dined from crystal cups, slept on beds of down, reclined on luxurious couches, wore em- broidered robes, and were adorned with precious stones. They ransacked the earth and seas for rare dishes for their banquets, and ornamented their houses with carpets from Babylon, onyx cups from Bithynia, marble from Numidia, bronzes from Cor- inth, statues from Athens—whatever, in short, was precious or rare or curious in the most distant coun- tries. The luxuries of the bath almost exceed be- lief, and on the walls were magnificent frescoes, and paintings exhibiting an inexhaustible productive- ness in landscapes and mythological scenes, execut- ed in lively colors. But these are not all. The most amazing wealth and the loftiest taste went hand in hand. There were citizen nobles who owned whole provinces ; even Paula could call a whole city her own. Rich sena- tors, in some cases, were proprietors of 200,000 slaves. Their incomes were known to be $6,000</td><td>And if we use it as we may, My 1 and 2 we throw away; My 2 and 3 in point of time The future ne'er can reach My 3 and 4, objectively, Belongs to all and each. My 1, 2, 3 was never straight, Tis used because 'tis bent. 1, 2, 3, 4 we'll find the far- thest possible force " went." My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My 6 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My 6 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My 6 and 5 are just two-thirds My 4 and 5 are just we are stored to the store of the desert's treasure. My 6 and 5 are just here fully the shortly met a fourist, a town in Scotland. We shortly met a fourple of women. One, by her dress, we took to a cape in Africa. The other had the style of, a there in South America. We stopped at an, river in South America. We stopped at an, river in South America, boots, a town of Italy, hat for fine weather her out-door gameents were, a for the khad, a town of France, to wait on us, for the khad, a town of France, to wait on us, for the khad, a town of France, to wait on us, whose appearance was suggestive of, a kingdom of function we did not think she patronised, a did orive very carefully to, a river of Austria, our whose appearance was suggestive of, a kingdom of funct, neck in the Bay of Fundy, being very isstive, acting as though he smelt, islands belong- ing to New Brunswick, or had, a river in Russia.</td><td>————————————————————————————————————</td><td>AND ARE PREPARED TO DO ALL KINDS OF WORK IN THEIR LINE OF BUSINESS. WE HAVE ALSO IN'STOCK : LEDGERS, JOURNALS, DAY BOOKS, BILL BOOKS,</td><td>MEN, BOTH OLD AND YOUNG, BRACE UP! FORTHECHAMPION SHOULDER BRACE WILL ALWAYS BE FOUND AT THOS. W. SMITH'S. DIGS. W. SMITH'S. ARE YOU IN NEED OF A GOOD SUIT OF CLOTHES. Mss: call and examine as fine assored Stock of English, Scote, French, German, Canadian, and Domestic Cloths as can be produced in the City. A COMPLETE LINE OF Gent's Furnishing Goods. DAPER COLLARS in JARS, TRUNKS, PAILS, ORNAMENTAL BOXES, &c. AL THE LATEST NOVELTIES AT THOS. W. SMITH'S.</td><td>AN IN MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON'S CHEAP COTTONS. MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON'S CHEAP COTTONS. Manchester, Robertson and Sheetings, A Lower Prices than ever before quoted. We have laid the above Stock in consequence of the proposed change in the Tarif, and will continue the proposed change in the Tarif the Tarif Manchester the theory Public and Broker. Methods and State Theory No. Methods and State Theory No. Material Agent, Notary Public and Broker. Material Agent, Notary Public and Broker. Methods and Material Mathematical State Theory No. Material Agent Matrix No. Material Agent Matrix No. Material Agent Matrix No. Material Agent Matrix No. Material Agent Material Agency since May. 1866, including Material Agent Material College. Material College Twenty Thousand Dollars. Material Material College Twenty Theorem Tarif. Material College Twenty Theorem Tarif. Material Matrix No. Material Material College Twenty Theorem Tarif. Material College Twenty Theorem Tarif. Material College Twenty</td>	palace of Nero glittered with gold and jewels. His beds were of silver and his tables of gold. Tiberius gave a million of sesterces for a picture for his bed- room. A banquet dish of Drusıllus weighed five hundred pounds of silver. The cups of Drusus were of gold. Tunics were embroidered with the figures of the various animals. Sandals were gar- nished with precious stones. Paulina wore jewels when she paid visits, valued at $800,000. Drink- ing-cups were engraved with scenes from the poets. Libraries were adorned with busts and presses of rare woods. Sofas were inlaid with tortoise shell, and covered with gorgeous purple. The Roman grandees rode in gilded chariots, bathed in marble baths, dined from crystal cups, slept on beds of down, reclined on luxurious couches, wore em- broidered robes, and were adorned with precious stones. They ransacked the earth and seas for rare dishes for their banquets, and ornamented their houses with carpets from Babylon, onyx cups from Bithynia, marble from Numidia, bronzes from Cor- inth, statues from Athens—whatever, in short, was precious or rare or curious in the most distant coun- tries. The luxuries of the bath almost exceed be- lief, and on the walls were magnificent frescoes, and paintings exhibiting an inexhaustible productive- ness in landscapes and mythological scenes, execut- ed in lively colors. But these are not all. The most amazing wealth and the loftiest taste went hand in hand. There were citizen nobles who owned whole provinces ; even Paula could call a whole city her own. Rich sena- tors, in some cases, were proprietors of 200,000 slaves. Their incomes were known to be $6,000	And if we use it as we may, My 1 and 2 we throw away; My 2 and 3 in point of time The future ne'er can reach My 3 and 4, objectively, Belongs to all and each. My 1, 2, 3 was never straight, Tis used because 'tis bent. 1, 2, 3, 4 we'll find the far- thest possible force " went." My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My 6 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My 6 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My 6 and 5 are just two-thirds My 4 and 5 are just we are stored to the store of the desert's treasure. My 6 and 5 are just here fully the shortly met a fourist, a town in Scotland. We shortly met a fourple of women. One, by her dress, we took to a cape in Africa. The other had the style of, a there in South America. We stopped at an, river in South America. We stopped at an, river in South America, boots, a town of Italy, hat for fine weather her out-door gameents were, a for the khad, a town of France, to wait on us, for the khad, a town of France, to wait on us, for the khad, a town of France, to wait on us, whose appearance was suggestive of, a kingdom of function we did not think she patronised, a did orive very carefully to, a river of Austria, our whose appearance was suggestive of, a kingdom of funct, neck in the Bay of Fundy, being very isstive, acting as though he smelt, islands belong- ing to New Brunswick, or had, a river in Russia.	————————————————————————————————————	AND ARE PREPARED TO DO ALL KINDS OF WORK IN THEIR LINE OF BUSINESS. WE HAVE ALSO IN'STOCK : LEDGERS, JOURNALS, DAY BOOKS, BILL BOOKS,	MEN, BOTH OLD AND YOUNG, BRACE UP! FORTHECHAMPION SHOULDER BRACE WILL ALWAYS BE FOUND AT THOS. W. SMITH'S. DIGS. W. SMITH'S. ARE YOU IN NEED OF A GOOD SUIT OF CLOTHES. Mss: call and examine as fine assored Stock of English, Scote, French, German, Canadian, and Domestic Cloths as can be produced in the City. A COMPLETE LINE OF Gent's Furnishing Goods. DAPER COLLARS in JARS, TRUNKS, PAILS, ORNAMENTAL BOXES, &c. AL THE LATEST NOVELTIES AT THOS. W. SMITH'S.	AN IN MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON'S CHEAP COTTONS. MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON'S CHEAP COTTONS. Manchester, Robertson and Sheetings, A Lower Prices than ever before quoted. We have laid the above Stock in consequence of the proposed change in the Tarif, and will continue the proposed change in the Tarif the Tarif Manchester the theory Public and Broker. Methods and State Theory No. Methods and State Theory No. Material Agent, Notary Public and Broker. Material Agent, Notary Public and Broker. Methods and Material Mathematical State Theory No. Material Agent Matrix No. Material Agent Matrix No. Material Agent Matrix No. Material Agent Matrix No. Material Agent Material Agency since May. 1866, including Material Agent Material College. Material College Twenty Thousand Dollars. Material Material College Twenty Theorem Tarif. Material College Twenty Theorem Tarif. Material Matrix No. Material Material College Twenty Theorem Tarif. Material College Twenty Theorem Tarif. Material College Twenty
 girl was you, but you do not look one bit as though you were ever hung." "Yes, Eddie, it was your cousin Minna, and it you will keep quiet a short time I will tell you al about it. "When I was a little girl I attended the primary department of our village academy. There were some who were much older than I was; yet there were quite enough of those of my own age with whom I could enjoy a great deal of mischief. Every Wednesday afternoon the elder girls were taught embroidery where they pulled the thread from a silk braid, and made all sorts of beautiful leaves and flowers, like your mamma's old silk apron which she now uses for a duster. We little girls thought the pretty colored braids very wonderful, and if by chance some stray useless pieces of silk were offered us, our eyes would sparkle, and we were made happy for the day. Not more than two or three lessons were heard during these afternoons, and one of these was my reading class." "Do hurry," said Eddie, " and be hung. It seems as though I could not wait to hear how it could be done, and yos telling us all about it." "Have patience, my little fellow, for I imagine if you were to be hung you would like as long a time before it as possible ! "It was on one of these Wednesday afternoons, when my class was reading. I had just finished when Lizzie Spaulding, one of the elder girls inquired for her light pink braid which she had mis. sed. Miss Wells, our teacher, was very strict in inquiring of each of us little girls, for she well knew our admiration of the bright pretty colors. When I was asked if I had seen it I very promptly said "no." I had not more than spoken when to the an ot more than spoken when the and the bright pretty colors. When I was asked if I had seen it I very promptly said "no." I had not more than spoken when the protect of the spoken when the protect of the protect of the more than you were the protect of the protect of the spoken when the protecher the protect of the protect. 	palace of Nero glittered with gold and jewels. His beds were of silver and his tables of gold. Tiberius gave a million of sesterces for a picture for his bed- room. A banquet dish of Drusıllus weighed five hundred pounds of silver. The cups of Drusus were of gold. Tunics were embroidered with the figures of the various animals. Sandals were gar- nished with precious stones. Paulina wore jewels when she paid visits, valued at $800,000. Drink- ing-cups were engraved with scenes from the poets. Libraries were adorned with busts and presses of rare woods. Sofas were inlaid with tortoise shell, and covered with gorgeous purple. The Roman grandees rode in gilded chariots, bathed in marble baths, dined from crystal cups, slept on beds of down, reclined on luxurious couches, wore em- broidered robes, and were adorned with precious stones. They ransacked the earth and seas for rare dishes for their banquets, and ornamented their houses with carpets from Babylon, onyx cups from Bithynia, marble from Numidia, bronzes from Cor- inth, statues from Athens—whatever, in short, was precious or rare or curious in the most distant coun- tries. The luxuries of the bath almost exceed be- lief, and on the walls were magnificent frescoes, and paintings exhibiting an inexhaustible productive- ness in landscapes and mythological scenes, execut- ed in lively colors. But these are not all. The most amazing wealth and the loftiest taste went hand in hand. There were citizen nobles who owned whole provinces ; even Paula could call a whole city her own. Rich sena- tors, in some cases, were proprietors of 200,000 slaves. Their incomes were known to be $6,000	And if we use it as we may, My 1 and 2 we throw away; My 2 and 3 in point of time The future ne'er can reach My 3 and 4, objectively, Belongs to all and each. My 1, 2, 3 was never straight, Tis used because 'tis ben.' 1, 2, 3, 4 we'll find the far- Thest possible force '' went.' My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure, To whole, repulsive, homely, coarse, To sy the desert's treasure. My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. The ACA LONG JOURNEN. Mstarted on a short journey, in company with my four of women. One, by her dress, we shortly met a south of women. One, by her dress, we show the mater of women. One, by her dress, we show the mater was not a short journey, in company with my four in South America. We stopped at an, river of wom of Scotland, we should be style of, a fuerope, to dime, where I was glad to meet my was of Scotland, shawl, or a suit of, a kingdom of for fine weather her out-door garments were, a for fine weather her out-door garment were ha	————————————— No. 11 CHARLOTTE STREET. N. B. — A Lot of WIRE TABLE MATS worth $1.25 a set, solling for 60 cents. DOVER EGG BEATERS, only 35 cents. A Lot of WASHING MACHINES at Half-price. ay 11. W. W. MOLASSES AND SUGAR. 35 C ment, for sale very low; 30 casks Barbados MOLASSES AND SUGAR. 35 C ment, for sale very low; 30 casks Barbados MOLASSES; 10 do. Cienfuegos do.; 40 bris Granulated SUGARSES; 10 do. Cienfuegos do.; 40 bris Granulated SUGASSES; 20 bris Extra C. do; 8 casks S. R. do. jan 17 GILBERT BENT & SONS Surgeons' Pocket Cases; Amputating Cases; Post Mortem Case; Proreps; Bone Forceps; Stethescopes; forceps; Dressing Forceps; Bone Forceps; Stethescopes; function chests; Ear Trumpets, Dressing Scissor; Probangs; Hypodermic Syringes, Finger Knives;	AND ARE PREPARED TO DO ALL KINDS OF WORK IN THEIR LINE OF BUSINESS. WE HAVE ALSO IN STOCK : LEDGERS, JOURNALS, DAY BOOKS, BILL BOOKS, CHECK BOOKS,	MEN, BOTH OLD AND YOUNG, BRACE UP! DESCRIPTION SHOULDERBRACE WILL ALWAYS BE FOUND AT THOS. W. SMITH'S. ARE YOU IN NEED OF A GOOD SULT OF CLOTHES. Main and Domestic Cloths as can be produced in the City. A COMPLETE LINE OF Gent's Furnishing Goods. Apper Coll ARS in JARS, TRUNKS, DATES, ORNAMENTAL BOXES, de. MI THE LATEST NOVELTIES AT THOS. W. SMITH'S.	ANY 10 35 and 37 King Street. MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON'S CHEAP COTTONS. One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Yards of Grey and White Cottons and Sheetings. At Lower Prices than ever before quoted. We have laid in the above Stock in consequence of to sell at the REDUCED PRICES so long as this Stock marks. All in want of Cottons should purchase at once. The proposed change in the Tariff, and will continue to sell at the REDUCED PRICES so long as this Stock marks. All in want of Cottons should purchase at once. The ANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON. J. & W. A. VANWART, BARRISTERS-AT-LAW, Macen street, Prederieton. Mark Street Prederieton. Mark Street Prederieton. Mark Street Prederieton. Mark Street Prederieton. Mark Street And Ioans negotiated on good mar 31-19 MSURANCE AGENCY. MSURANCE AGENCY. MSURANCE AGENCY. MSURANCE AGENCY. MSURANCE AGENCY. MSURANCE AGENCY. MSURANCE AGENCY. MSURANCE BLOCK, PRINCE WM. STREET, ST. JOHN, N. B. MANCHESTER AND CLAIMS PROMPTING ADA AT MATURITY IN CASH. ADA AT MATURITY IN CASH. CAPTAL OVER TWENTY-FILE MULLION
 girl was you, but you do not look one bit as though you were ever hung." "Yes, Eddie, it was your cousin Minna, and it you will keep quiet a short time I will tell you al about it. "When I was a little girl I attended the primary department of our village academy. There were some who were much older than I was; yet there were quite enough of those of my own age with whom I could enjoy a great deal of mischief. Every Wednesday afternoon the elder girls were taught embroidery where they pulled the thread from a silk braid, and made all sorts of beautiful leaves and flowers, like your mamma's old silk aprom which she now uses for a duster. We little girls thought the pretty colored braids very wonderful, and if by chance some stray useless pieces of silk were offered us, our eyes would sparkle, and we were made happy for the day. Not more than two or three lessons were heard during these afternoons, and one of these was my reading class." "Do hurry," said Eddie, "and be hung. It seems as though I could not wait to hear how it could be done, and you telling us all about it." "Have patience, my little fellow, for I imagine if you were to be hung you would like as long a time before it as possible ! "It was on one of these Wednesday afternoons, when my class was reading. I had just finished when Lizzie Spaulding, one of the elder girls in-quired for her light pink braid which she had missed. Miss Wells, our teacher, was very strict in inquiring of each of us little girls, for she well knew our admiration of the bright pretty colors. When I was asked if I had seen it I very promptly said 	palace of Nero glittered with gold and jewels. His beds were of silver and his tables of gold. Tiberius gave a million of sesterces for a picture for his bed- room. A banquet dish of Drusıllus weighed five hundred pounds of silver. The cups of Drusus were of gold. Tunics were embroidered with the figures of the various animals. Sandals were gar- nished with precious stones. Paulina wore jewels when she paid visits, valued at $800,000. Drink- ing-cups were engraved with scenes from the poets. Libraries were adorned with busts and presses of rare woods. Sofas were inlaid with tortoise shell, and covered with gorgeous purple. The Roman grandees rode in gilded chariots, bathed in marble baths, dined from crystal cups, slept on beds of down, reclined on luxurious couches, wore em- broidered robes, and were adorned with precious stones. They ransacked the earth and seas for rare dishes for their banquets, and ornamented their houses with carpets from Babylon, onyx cups from Bithynia, marble from Numidia, bronzes from Cor- inth, statues from Athens—whatever, in short, was precious or rare or curious in the most distant coun- tries. The luxuries of the bath almost exceed be- lief, and on the walls were magnificent frescoes, and paintings exhibiting an inexhaustible productive- ness in landscapes and mythological scenes, execut- ed in lively colors. But these are not all. The most amazing wealth and the loftiest taste went hand in hand. There were citizen nobles who owned whole provinces ; even Paula could call a whole city her own. Rich sena- tors, in some cases, were proprietors of 200,000 slaves. Their incomes were known to be $6,000	And if we use it as we may, My 1 and 2 we throw away; My 2 and 3 in point of time The future ne'er can reach My 3 and 4, objectively, Belongs to all and each. My 1, 2, 3 was never straight, Tis used because 'tis ben. 1, 2, 3, 4 we'll find the far- Thest possible force '' went. My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds Of many a shopman's measure. My 4 and 5 are just two-thirds My 4 and 5 are just the other had the style of, a fixer in South America. We stopped at an, river in south America. We stopped at an extreme for fine weather her out-door garments were, a for fine weather her out-door garmen	————————————— No. 11 CHARLOTTE STREET. N. B. — A Lot of WIRE TABLE MATS worth $1.25 a set, solling for 60 cents. DOVER EGG BEATERS, only 35 cents. A Lot of WASHING MACHINES at Half-price. ay 11. W. W. MOLASSES AND SUGAR. 35 C ment, for sale very low; 30 casks Barbados MOLASSES AND SUGAR. 35 C ment, for sale very low; 30 casks Barbados MOLASSES i 10 do. Cienfuegos do.; 40 bris Granulated SUGARS ES i 10 do. Cienfuegos do.; 40 bris Granulated SUGASSES ; 10 do. Cienfuegos do.; 40 bris Granulated SUGASSES ; 10 do. Cienfuegos do.; 40 bris Granulated SUGASSES ; 10 do. Cienfuegos do.; 40 bris Granulated SUGASSES ; 10 do. Cienfuegos do.; 40 bris Granulated SUGASSES ; 10 do. Cienfuegos do.; 40 bris Granulated SUGASSES ; 10 do. Cienfuegos do.; 40 bris Granulated SUGASSES ; 10 do. Cienfuegos do.; 40 bris Granulated Sugas do a streat solution jan 17 SURGICAL INSTRUMENTS, solution Surgeons' Pocket Cases ; Amputating Cases ; Post Mortem Cases ; Proyers ; Polypus Forceps ; Throat Forceps ; Dressing Forceps ; Bone Forceps ; Stethescopes ; South Market Phase ; Mumetat lowest prices	AND ARE PREPARED TO DO ALL KINDS OF WORK IN THEIR LINE OF BUSINESS. WE HAVE ALSO IN'STOCK : LEDGERS, JOURNALS, DAY BOOKS, BILL BOOKS,	MEN, BOTH OLD AND YOUNG, BRACE UPS BRACE UPS Sorthechampion shoulderbrace MEL ALWAYS BE FOUND AT DISS. W. SMITH'S . ARE YOU IN NEED OF A ARE YOU IN NEED OF A GOOD SUIT OF CLOTHES . Are you in Need of A Sorther and bornestic Coths as Canadia, and Domestic Coths as Canadia, and Domestic Coths are beroduced in the City . A COMPLETE LINE OF Gent's Furnishing Goods . Apper Collars in JARS, TRUNKS, PAILS, ORNAMENTAL BOXES, &c. In The Latest Novelties at THOS. W. SMITH'S . BATS CADS	AN IN MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON'S CHEAP COTTONS. MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON'S CHEAP COTTONS. Manchester, Robertson and Sheetings, A Lower Prices than ever before quoted. We have laid the above Stock in consequence of the proposed change in the Tarif, and will continue the proposed change in the Tarif the Tarif Manchester the theory Public and Broker. Methods and State Theory No. Methods and State Theory No. Material Agent, Notary Public and Broker. Material Agent, Notary Public and Broker. Methods and Material Mathematical State Theory No. Material Agent Matrix No. Material Agent Matrix No. Material Agent Matrix No. Material Agent Matrix No. Material Agent Material Agency since May. 1866, including Material Agent Material College. Material College Twenty Thousand Dollars. Material Material College Twenty Theorem Tarif. Material College Twenty Theorem Tarif. Material Matrix No. Material Material College Twenty Theorem Tarif. Material College Twenty Theorem Tarif. Material College Twenty

my book and fe I was no less aston- QUEER TOM. - Tom Flossofer was the queerest ished than my teacher. Of course I denied all boy I ever knew. I don't think he ever cried : I knowledge of the braid being there, but all I could never saw him. If Fleda found her tulips all say after what they had seen could not make them rooted up by her pet puppy, and cried, as little girls believe in my innocence. The class was dismissed, will, Tom was sure to come round the corner whistorder restored, and nothing more was said about ling, and say :-the affair for the afternoon."

"What makes you cry? can you cry tulips? do "Oh, cousin ! how funny that the braids should you think every sob makes a root or a blossom ? be in your book, and you not know it ! I am sure Here, let's try to right them."

you do not tell what is not true," said Kitty, peer- So he would pick up the poor flowers, put their ing up into my face, with a troubled expression of roots into the ground again, whistling all the time; make the bed look smooth and fresh, and take "The next morning I went to school bright and Fleda off to hunt hen's nests in the barn. Neither early. My mother had made me very fresh and did he do any differently in his own troubles. neat, with my clean white apron very much like One day his great kite snapped the string, and flew yours, Kitty, which nearly covered my crimson away far out of sight. Tom stood still for one merino dress, and I think she brushed my curls moment, and then turned round to come home, more carefully than usual. School was called by a whistling a merry tune. small bell on Miss Well's deak. The Scripture "Why, Tom," said I, " aren't you sorry to lose read, and those in the first recitation of the morn- that kite ?"

ing were taking their places, when Miss Wells, "Yes, but what's the use? I can't take more with a small rope in her hand, came to my desk than a minute to feel bad. 'Sorry' won't bring the kite back, and I want to make another."

" This little girl who stole the braid is to be Just so when he broke his leg. punished to-day before the whole school, and I "Poor Tom," cried Fleda, "You can't play any hope the other girls will take warning by this ex- mo-o-re !"

even so small a thing as a pink braid.

whom we considered very nice. I was lifted to the Tom Flossofer was queer, certainly, but I wish a Ed.'s is a fair attempt.

ample, and remember that it is a great sin to take "I'm not poor, either. You cry for me; I don't have to do for myself, and I have a splendid time selves in solving No. 680, although many may find "I looked at my teacher in perfect amazement, to whittle. Besides, when I get well, I shall beat it more difficult to unrave! than it looks. No. 681

My third you will find in knives ; My fourth you will find in bee-hives ; FELLOWS' SPEEDY RELIEF OF LONDON, ESTABLISHED 1803. S a valuable remedy for Cramps, Cholera, Pain in the READYMADECLOTHING My fifth you will find in dame ; A Stomach, Liver Complaints, Sore Throat, Sudden Colds, Coughs, Boils, Felons, Cuts, Bruises, Old Sores, Sprains, Toothache, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, etc. etc. Wholesale and retail by T. B. BARKER & SONS, THE ÆTNA INSURANCE COMPANY, My whole you will find a Scripture name. Cambridge. INCORPORATED 1819. always on hand. (Answers in three weeks.) THE HARTFORD FIRE INSURANCE CO., A PERFECT FIT IN ALL THE LEADING STYLES GUARANTEED AT 34 and 37 King Street Answers to Puzzles of May 9. ORGANIZED 1810. NEW SPRING MANTLES. 661.-Chair, hair, air, ai, I. THE MERCHANTS' MARINE NOW OPEN. - MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON BOTTOM PRICES. 662.-FA1R NEW MANTLE CLOTHS, now open, Manchester, Robertson & Allison. NEW TRIMMINGS AND FRINGES, for Dresses Assurance Company. BLANK BOOKS ANT IT All Goods warranted as represented at the Clothing and Mantles now open, Manchester, Robertson & Allison, Didren, now op OF CANADA. (Incorporated by Special Act of Parlis u ert.) NEW HOSIERY for Ladies and Children, now open Manchester, Robertson & Allison, NEW BERLIN WOOL AND YARNS, of all kind Capital One Million, with power to increase to Two Million Dollars. ANN 663.-ANNIE RULED, PRINTED AND BOUND TO AN hos. Smith, aow open, Manchester, Robertson & Allison. NOVELTIES, in Berlin and Fancy Needle Work now open, Manchester, Robertson & Allison. GENTLEMEN'S DEPARTMENT at Manchester Relaxition & Allison. THE BRITISH AMERICA INSURANCE COMPANY. 664. - CASCARILLA INCORPORATED 1833. FISHER'S BUILDING, Robertson & Allison's, now showing a great variety of NEW SCARFS and TIES; NEW HALF HOSE-in PATTERN AND STYLE. In order to avoid misunderstanding, Fire Premiums should be paid, either by cash or check, at the time In-surance is ordered or renewed; otherwise the Under-writers cannot be deemed liable. This Agency offers protection against loss and damage by fire, on terms as favorable as the character of the risks will justify. Cotton, Balbriggan Lisle Thread, Merino and Silk; New Underwear of Superior Makes, including Cartwright & Warner's best grades; SPRING OVERCOATS, suit Queen Street, able for rain or sunshine; DOUBLE TEXTURE TWEED OVERCOATS, hundreds now in use sold by FREDERICTON, N B us, and giving general satisfaction. ap 25 MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON. risks will justify. Marine Insurance effected on vessels, cargoes and freights to and from any part of the Commercial World. Time and Voyage Policies issued at once, on terms and ditions as customary. feb1 ACEPHALOUS 665.—Astrakahn. TAILORS' TRIMMINGS.
 SELESIAS-Black, Colored and Fancy; CASBIANS
 Brown; POCKETINGS-White and Colored; CANVAS
 Serown; POCKETINGS-White and Colored; CANVAS
 Swiss, French and Imperial; INTERLININGS-White and Colored; JEANNETTS-State and Drab: RED PAD-DING, BLACK WADDINGS; SILKS-Raven Sewing, Twists, Machine Silks, Black and Colors; BUTTONS-Florentine, Ivory, Hora, Matalasse and Metal; BIND-INGS-Real, Double, Mohair, Alpacca, Brilliant and Fancy Braids; TAILOR'S CRAYONS; BROOKS' GLAICE and BASTING REELS. TAILORS' TRIMMINGS. - Constantinople ALL RAIL. SPECIAL FREIGHT FROM BOSTON AND NEW YORK. GREY COTTONS, White Shirtings, Corset Jeans, Cottonades, Knitting Cottons; Swansdown, Candle Wicking, Paper Collars, Linen Collars, Linen Cuffs. Note, Letter and Foolscap Paper, Envelopes. We now offer the above Goods for sale at UN. USUALLY LOW PRICES. EVERITT & BUTLER. ALL RAIL. Copenhagen. Marseilles. Old Books Rebound. 666.-Madagascar. Apply at Office, CHAT WITH CONTRIBUTORS. INSURANCE BUILDING, PRINCE WM. STREET, To BE SOLVED .- Our puzzlers will not tire them-"I looked at my teacher in perfect amazement, and could not imagine how I was to be punished, when she took me from my seat to the opposite side to whittle. Besides, when I get well, I shall beat I say it over and over until it makes me sleepy, I mar 7 to whittle. Besides, when I get well, I shall beat I more diment to unrave, than it tooks. No. of is a good specimen of a good kind. X. Fitzwilliam Journey" will carry you many miles away, and will FARMS! Fruit, Grain, and Grass Farms, in best part of Maryland at panic prices For ST. JOHN, N. B. ROBERT MARSHALL. Barnes & General Agent, Broker, and Notary Public and Broker aug 31 Catalogues address MANCHA & WILSON, Ridgely Md. feb 7-8i ar The attention of the Trade is respectfully requested to the above.