

Hon. Mr. Wedderburn moved the House into committee of the whole to consider the Bill to amend the Act relating to the issue of Provincial Debentures in certain cases. Hon. Messrs. Wedderburn and Fraser explained the provisions of the bill, after which it was taken up paragraph by paragraph, and passed without amendment.

Hon. Mr. Adams was granted leave of absence till Tuesday. Mr. Adams received, yesterday, the sad news of his eldest brother's death in New York. Mr. Blair gave notice of enquiry, if one Woodford did not intend to sue, his property going to the Crown, did not the Government appoint an administrator? What amount has been realized, and how does the matter now stand.

Rev. Thos. Todd has resigned the pastorate of the Baptist Church of Moncton, the resignation to take effect in three months.

The failure of the fisheries has caused much distress among the fishermen in some sections of Newfoundland.

Scarlet fever and diphtheria are making sad ravages in parts of Newfoundland.

NOT MARRIED.—The widow of Timothy McCarthy is married as was announced in the papers last week. At least John T. Dowd, the man to whom it was said she was married, says it is not so—and he ought to know.

RELEASED.—Mr. Ward, lately sent to the Penitentiary, has been set free by direction of the Minister of Justice.

The papers state that Rev. S. Archibald, Clerk in the Nova Scotia Education Office, has been dismissed.

The seat in the Legislative Council held by Hon. E. B. Chandler, prior to his appointment to the Government, is now vacant.

MR. SANKY.—Reports from Great Britain state that Mr. Sanky continues to meet with much success in his gospel work there. Of his stay in Newcastle good accounts are given. He sang, sermons were preached by resident ministers of various denominations, and the buildings, not very the room in which Mr. Sanky was, were crowded. The Glasgow building was opened on Sabbath for services, and every available room was filled, about 4,000 persons being present, mainly young men, and working men. The rooms were filled some time before the hour of service. In the evening hundreds were compelled to turn away, for there was not even standing room for them. Frequently during the week over 2,000 were in attendance, and overflow meetings were constantly necessary.

FROM CALCUTTA comes the report that the King of Burmah has just put to death all the royal princes and their families. The victims numbered eighty-six. The details of the affair are said to be horrible. British intervention is hoped for by the people to prevent further bloodshed.

REV. DR. NELSON, the senior agent of the New York Publishing House of the M. E. Church, died last week. He was 60 years old.

At a recent Session of the Peace for the County of Cape Breton, licenses for the sale of liquors were refused throughout the whole County.

We have received No. 2 of Landry's Musical Monthly.

Hon. Mr. Tilley has been ill and confined to his house. Overwork at night has affected his eyes.

Hon. Mr. SERLY has been elected President of the Legislative Council in room of Hon. Mr. Saunders, deceased. Mr. Serly will, we are sure, preside with becoming dignity. We congratulate him on his elevation.

TEXAS wants to be divided into five States. It has territory enough, and claims to have population enough also.

THE DEATH OF REV. BEN. BISHOP (Episcopal) of Queens County, is announced. He died of consumption of the lungs, on the 22d ult. He was 47 years of age.

THE MEMORIAL STONE of St. Andrew's Church in this City was laid by the pastor, Rev. Wm. Mitchell, on Friday evening. Appropriate ceremonies attended the laying. A large audience was present. The new church will be opened for divine worship on Sabbath, 15th inst.

CORRECTION.—The initials signed to the article "Too much Snobbery" should have been A. S. B.

CHEER.—A lady subscriber, enclosing her subscription, says: "I am sorry I could not send it before. We have to make quite an effort to pay the subscription, but we cannot do without it, the comfort and help we receive from it (ages more than repaying us for the effort we have to make to pay for it)." Such words cheer.

COLLEGIATE SCHOOL.—We wish to direct attention to the advertisement of Mr. Geo. W. Fenwick. Parents who wish to send their sons to a good school, and where they will have the careful supervision and help of an excellent teacher, cannot do better than put them under Mr. Fenwick's care.

WE have just received the Missionary Helper for March. It is published by the Free Baptist Women's Missionary Society of the United States, and is a very interesting publication. The March number is good.

THE Editor of the St. Croix Courier, writing from Ottawa says: "It would be a happy day for Canada in its social aspect if Rideau Hall were to set the same example in this respect which lentils to Government House, New Brunswick, during Governor Tilly's administration. The day when this happy state of affairs shall be realized may be far off, but I am satisfied it is destined to come."

PARLIAMENTARY REPORTS.—We have received the following: Returns and Statistics of the Inland Revenue of Canada for the year ended June, 1878; Report on the Adulteration of Food, being a supplement to the Report of the Inland Revenue Department; Report of the Minister of Public Works for year ended June, 1879; Report on the State of the Militia of Canada for the year 1878; Eleventh Reports of the Department of Marine and Fisheries; Tables of the Trade and Navigation of Canada for the year ended June, 1878; The Public Accounts of Canada for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1878.

THEY are having a hard time to elect a Bishop in Toronto. The High Church party has a majority of clerical votes, while the Evangelical party has a majority of the lay votes.

Since writing the above we learn from a despatch to the Star, that Archbishop Sweetman of Huron, was on Wednesday elected by the Synod.

THE NEWS AND THE PRESS.

SAINT JOHN, N. B. MARCH 7, 1879.

NEW BRUNSWICK.—The heirs are wanted of Thomas Armstrong, who recently died in Oregon, leaving an estate of the value of about $25,000, and who is supposed to have belonged to New Brunswick, probably to St. John. G. S. Turner, Esq., M. P., has just learned from Mr. G. R. Smith, his free state quarries situated about one mile from Harvey Corner, A. C. Co. The quarries are easily worked, quite convenient for shipping; the quality of stone is said to be very superior and the quantity almost inexhaustible. Mr. Turner intends putting on a few men early in the spring, and should the weather be favorable, will push the business in his new energetic manner. Mr. David Dunlop, who was killed by a bullet at a distance of about 100 yards, was a native of St. John, and was a member of the St. John Rifle Club. He was a very good shot, and was a member of the St. John Rifle Club. He was a very good shot, and was a member of the St. John Rifle Club.

NEW BRUNSWICK.—The heirs are wanted of Thomas Armstrong, who recently died in Oregon, leaving an estate of the value of about $25,000, and who is supposed to have belonged to New Brunswick, probably to St. John. G. S. Turner, Esq., M. P., has just learned from Mr. G. R. Smith, his free state quarries situated about one mile from Harvey Corner, A. C. Co. The quarries are easily worked, quite convenient for shipping; the quality of stone is said to be very superior and the quantity almost inexhaustible. Mr. Turner intends putting on a few men early in the spring, and should the weather be favorable, will push the business in his new energetic manner. Mr. David Dunlop, who was killed by a bullet at a distance of about 100 yards, was a native of St. John, and was a member of the St. John Rifle Club. He was a very good shot, and was a member of the St. John Rifle Club.

THE NEWS AND THE PRESS.

SAINT JOHN, N. B. MARCH 7, 1879.

NEW BRUNSWICK.—The heirs are wanted of Thomas Armstrong, who recently died in Oregon, leaving an estate of the value of about $25,000, and who is supposed to have belonged to New Brunswick, probably to St. John. G. S. Turner, Esq., M. P., has just learned from Mr. G. R. Smith, his free state quarries situated about one mile from Harvey Corner, A. C. Co. The quarries are easily worked, quite convenient for shipping; the quality of stone is said to be very superior and the quantity almost inexhaustible. Mr. Turner intends putting on a few men early in the spring, and should the weather be favorable, will push the business in his new energetic manner. Mr. David Dunlop, who was killed by a bullet at a distance of about 100 yards, was a native of St. John, and was a member of the St. John Rifle Club. He was a very good shot, and was a member of the St. John Rifle Club.

NEW BRUNSWICK.—The heirs are wanted of Thomas Armstrong, who recently died in Oregon, leaving an estate of the value of about $25,000, and who is supposed to have belonged to New Brunswick, probably to St. John. G. S. Turner, Esq., M. P., has just learned from Mr. G. R. Smith, his free state quarries situated about one mile from Harvey Corner, A. C. Co. The quarries are easily worked, quite convenient for shipping; the quality of stone is said to be very superior and the quantity almost inexhaustible. Mr. Turner intends putting on a few men early in the spring, and should the weather be favorable, will push the business in his new energetic manner. Mr. David Dunlop, who was killed by a bullet at a distance of about 100 yards, was a native of St. John, and was a member of the St. John Rifle Club. He was a very good shot, and was a member of the St. John Rifle Club.

THE NEWS AND THE PRESS.

SAINT JOHN, N. B. MARCH 7, 1879.

NEW BRUNSWICK.—The heirs are wanted of Thomas Armstrong, who recently died in Oregon, leaving an estate of the value of about $25,000, and who is supposed to have belonged to New Brunswick, probably to St. John. G. S. Turner, Esq., M. P., has just learned from Mr. G. R. Smith, his free state quarries situated about one mile from Harvey Corner, A. C. Co. The quarries are easily worked, quite convenient for shipping; the quality of stone is said to be very superior and the quantity almost inexhaustible. Mr. Turner intends putting on a few men early in the spring, and should the weather be favorable, will push the business in his new energetic manner. Mr. David Dunlop, who was killed by a bullet at a distance of about 100 yards, was a native of St. John, and was a member of the St. John Rifle Club. He was a very good shot, and was a member of the St. John Rifle Club.

NEW BRUNSWICK.—The heirs are wanted of Thomas Armstrong, who recently died in Oregon, leaving an estate of the value of about $25,000, and who is supposed to have belonged to New Brunswick, probably to St. John. G. S. Turner, Esq., M. P., has just learned from Mr. G. R. Smith, his free state quarries situated about one mile from Harvey Corner, A. C. Co. The quarries are easily worked, quite convenient for shipping; the quality of stone is said to be very superior and the quantity almost inexhaustible. Mr. Turner intends putting on a few men early in the spring, and should the weather be favorable, will push the business in his new energetic manner. Mr. David Dunlop, who was killed by a bullet at a distance of about 100 yards, was a native of St. John, and was a member of the St. John Rifle Club. He was a very good shot, and was a member of the St. John Rifle Club.

THE NEWS AND THE PRESS.

SAINT JOHN, N. B. MARCH 7, 1879.

NEW BRUNSWICK.—The heirs are wanted of Thomas Armstrong, who recently died in Oregon, leaving an estate of the value of about $25,000, and who is supposed to have belonged to New Brunswick, probably to St. John. G. S. Turner, Esq., M. P., has just learned from Mr. G. R. Smith, his free state quarries situated about one mile from Harvey Corner, A. C. Co. The quarries are easily worked, quite convenient for shipping; the quality of stone is said to be very superior and the quantity almost inexhaustible. Mr. Turner intends putting on a few men early in the spring, and should the weather be favorable, will push the business in his new energetic manner. Mr. David Dunlop, who was killed by a bullet at a distance of about 100 yards, was a native of St. John, and was a member of the St. John Rifle Club. He was a very good shot, and was a member of the St. John Rifle Club.

NEW BRUNSWICK.—The heirs are wanted of Thomas Armstrong, who recently died in Oregon, leaving an estate of the value of about $25,000, and who is supposed to have belonged to New Brunswick, probably to St. John. G. S. Turner, Esq., M. P., has just learned from Mr. G. R. Smith, his free state quarries situated about one mile from Harvey Corner, A. C. Co. The quarries are easily worked, quite convenient for shipping; the quality of stone is said to be very superior and the quantity almost inexhaustible. Mr. Turner intends putting on a few men early in the spring, and should the weather be favorable, will push the business in his new energetic manner. Mr. David Dunlop, who was killed by a bullet at a distance of about 100 yards, was a native of St. John, and was a member of the St. John Rifle Club. He was a very good shot, and was a member of the St. John Rifle Club.

THE NEWS AND THE PRESS.

SAINT JOHN, N. B. MARCH 7, 1879.

NEW BRUNSWICK.—The heirs are wanted of Thomas Armstrong, who recently died in Oregon, leaving an estate of the value of about $25,000, and who is supposed to have belonged to New Brunswick, probably to St. John. G. S. Turner, Esq., M. P., has just learned from Mr. G. R. Smith, his free state quarries situated about one mile from Harvey Corner, A. C. Co. The quarries are easily worked, quite convenient for shipping; the quality of stone is said to be very superior and the quantity almost inexhaustible. Mr. Turner intends putting on a few men early in the spring, and should the weather be favorable, will push the business in his new energetic manner. Mr. David Dunlop, who was killed by a bullet at a distance of about 100 yards, was a native of St. John, and was a member of the St. John Rifle Club. He was a very good shot, and was a member of the St. John Rifle Club.

NEW BRUNSWICK.—The heirs are wanted of Thomas Armstrong, who recently died in Oregon, leaving an estate of the value of about $25,000, and who is supposed to have belonged to New Brunswick, probably to St. John. G. S. Turner, Esq., M. P., has just learned from Mr. G. R. Smith, his free state quarries situated about one mile from Harvey Corner, A. C. Co. The quarries are easily worked, quite convenient for shipping; the quality of stone is said to be very superior and the quantity almost inexhaustible. Mr. Turner intends putting on a few men early in the spring, and should the weather be favorable, will push the business in his new energetic manner. Mr. David Dunlop, who was killed by a bullet at a distance of about 100 yards, was a native of St. John, and was a member of the St. John Rifle Club. He was a very good shot, and was a member of the St. John Rifle Club.

THE NEWS AND THE PRESS.

SAINT JOHN, N. B. MARCH 7, 1879.

NEW BRUNSWICK.—The heirs are wanted of Thomas Armstrong, who recently died in Oregon, leaving an estate of the value of about $25,000, and who is supposed to have belonged to New Brunswick, probably to St. John. G. S. Turner, Esq., M. P., has just learned from Mr. G. R. Smith, his free state quarries situated about one mile from Harvey Corner, A. C. Co. The quarries are easily worked, quite convenient for shipping; the quality of stone is said to be very superior and the quantity almost inexhaustible. Mr. Turner intends putting on a few men early in the spring, and should the weather be favorable, will push the business in his new energetic manner. Mr. David Dunlop, who was killed by a bullet at a distance of about 100 yards, was a native of St. John, and was a member of the St. John Rifle Club. He was a very good shot, and was a member of the St. John Rifle Club.

NEW BRUNSWICK.—The heirs are wanted of Thomas Armstrong, who recently died in Oregon, leaving an estate of the value of about $25,000, and who is supposed to have belonged to New Brunswick, probably to St. John. G. S. Turner, Esq., M. P., has just learned from Mr. G. R. Smith, his free state quarries situated about one mile from Harvey Corner, A. C. Co. The quarries are easily worked, quite convenient for shipping; the quality of stone is said to be very superior and the quantity almost inexhaustible. Mr. Turner intends putting on a few men early in the spring, and should the weather be favorable, will push the business in his new energetic manner. Mr. David Dunlop, who was killed by a bullet at a distance of about 100 yards, was a native of St. John, and was a member of the St. John Rifle Club. He was a very good shot, and was a member of the St. John Rifle Club.

THE NEWS AND THE PRESS.

SAINT JOHN, N. B. MARCH 7, 1879.

NEW BRUNSWICK.—The heirs are wanted of Thomas Armstrong, who recently died in Oregon, leaving an estate of the value of about $25,000, and who is supposed to have belonged to New Brunswick, probably to St. John. G. S. Turner, Esq., M. P., has just learned from Mr. G. R. Smith, his free state quarries situated about one mile from Harvey Corner, A. C. Co. The quarries are easily worked, quite convenient for shipping; the quality of stone is said to be very superior and the quantity almost inexhaustible. Mr. Turner intends putting on a few men early in the spring, and should the weather be favorable, will push the business in his new energetic manner. Mr. David Dunlop, who was killed by a bullet at a distance of about 100 yards, was a native of St. John, and was a member of the St. John Rifle Club. He was a very good shot, and was a member of the St. John Rifle Club.

NEW BRUNSWICK.—The heirs are wanted of Thomas Armstrong, who recently died in Oregon, leaving an estate of the value of about $25,000, and who is supposed to have belonged to New Brunswick, probably to St. John. G. S. Turner, Esq., M. P., has just learned from Mr. G. R. Smith, his free state quarries situated about one mile from Harvey Corner, A. C. Co. The quarries are easily worked, quite convenient for shipping; the quality of stone is said to be very superior and the quantity almost inexhaustible. Mr. Turner intends putting on a few men early in the spring, and should the weather be favorable, will push the business in his new energetic manner. Mr. David Dunlop, who was killed by a bullet at a distance of about 100 yards, was a native of St. John, and was a member of the St. John Rifle Club. He was a very good shot, and was a member of the St. John Rifle Club.

THE NEWS AND THE PRESS.

SAINT JOHN, N. B. MARCH 7, 1879.

NEW BRUNSWICK.—The heirs are wanted of Thomas Armstrong, who recently died in Oregon, leaving an estate of the value of about $25,000, and who is supposed to have belonged to New Brunswick, probably to St. John. G. S. Turner, Esq., M. P., has just learned from Mr. G. R. Smith, his free state quarries situated about one mile from Harvey Corner, A. C. Co. The quarries are easily worked, quite convenient for shipping; the quality of stone is said to be very superior and the quantity almost inexhaustible. Mr. Turner intends putting on a few men early in the spring, and should the weather be favorable, will push the business in his new energetic manner. Mr. David Dunlop, who was killed by a bullet at a distance of about 100 yards, was a native of St. John, and was a member of the St. John Rifle Club. He was a very good shot, and was a member of the St. John Rifle Club.

NEW BRUNSWICK.—The heirs are wanted of Thomas Armstrong, who recently died in Oregon, leaving an estate of the value of about $25,000, and who is supposed to have belonged to New Brunswick, probably to St. John. G. S. Turner, Esq., M. P., has just learned from Mr. G. R. Smith, his free state quarries situated about one mile from Harvey Corner, A. C. Co. The quarries are easily worked, quite convenient for shipping; the quality of stone is said to be very superior and the quantity almost inexhaustible. Mr. Turner intends putting on a few men early in the spring, and should the weather be favorable, will push the business in his new energetic manner. Mr. David Dunlop, who was killed by a bullet at a distance of about 100 yards, was a native of St. John, and was a member of the St. John Rifle Club. He was a very good shot, and was a member of the St. John Rifle Club.

THE NEWS AND THE PRESS.

SAINT JOHN, N. B. MARCH 7, 1879.

NEW BRUNSWICK.—The heirs are wanted of Thomas Armstrong, who recently died in Oregon, leaving an estate of the value of about $25,000, and who is supposed to have belonged to New Brunswick, probably to St. John. G. S. Turner, Esq., M. P., has just learned from Mr. G. R. Smith, his free state quarries situated about one mile from Harvey Corner, A. C. Co. The quarries are easily worked, quite convenient for shipping; the quality of stone is said to be very superior and the quantity almost inexhaustible. Mr. Turner intends putting on a few men early in the spring, and should the weather be favorable, will push the business in his new energetic manner. Mr. David Dunlop, who was killed by a bullet at a distance of about 100 yards, was a native of St. John, and was a member of the St. John Rifle Club. He was a very good shot, and was a member of the St. John Rifle Club.

NEW BRUNSWICK.—The heirs are wanted of Thomas Armstrong, who recently died in Oregon, leaving an estate of the value of about $25,000, and who is supposed to have belonged to New Brunswick, probably to St. John. G. S. Turner, Esq., M. P., has just learned from Mr. G. R. Smith, his free state quarries situated about one mile from Harvey Corner, A. C. Co. The quarries are easily worked, quite convenient for shipping; the quality of stone is said to be very superior and the quantity almost inexhaustible. Mr. Turner intends putting on a few men early in the spring, and should the weather be favorable, will push the business in his new energetic manner. Mr. David Dunlop, who was killed by a bullet at a distance of about 100 yards, was a native of St. John, and was a member of the St. John Rifle Club. He was a very good shot, and was a member of the St. John Rifle Club.