

....The "Free Religionist" people in the United States are a good deal agitated over the

The first thing to bedone, if there is to be a Woman's Society in your Church, is for you to make an earnest effort to have one formed. Never mind if there are but three or four members to start with. One live woman can, under ordinary circumstances, build up a Society. "But how can we keep up the interest, if we attempt to have a Society?" asks some timid one. By tact and good management. One rule cannot apply to all places. That which is suited for city Societies may fall utterly in country places, where it is by much effort that the people come together. In all places, however, faith and works must go hand in hand. If you are in a place where the meetings can be held on a week day, let the faith be sustained by suitable Scripture readings and earnest supplication for God's blessing and aid.

—Messrs. Moody and Sankey are to go to Paris to conduct revival services there by request of a committee under the presidency of Mr. R. W. All.

—Rev. Dr. Somerville, of Glasgow, who for several years has conducted evangelistic services in various parts of the world, intends to visit Germany in, beginning his labors at Frankfurt.

—The Rev. Thomas Bridges, missionary to the land of Terra del Fuogo, now lives in an iron box, sent him by friends in England, so violent the tempests in that far-off land. The only draped on the island is the dog.

—The North End Mission in Boston has opened

On hearing the Montreal dispatch, "Do not buy in St. Peters made in Montreal, and ship to Boston, may be the unwary seem to be a smart notion; but the average man it seems like the loss of the marines." Anywhere here would make any stock in it. Somebody may say it.

It appears that Mr. McDonnell is in the shipping world to Boston, and he sent word to the Captain of the seized vessel, M. L. White, that he had a load of wood ready for him. How poor goes to Boston, most people need not be twice. Rockwell Bros. we understand are respectable men; we should like to learn what of mixing their names with such transactions. Perhaps they may know are this, how

A concert under the auspices of the First Church is to be given in the Frothingham Hall next Tuesday evening. That it will be worth attending and an enjoyable one, we have no doubt. The proceeds are to be applied to the re-furnishing of the Church.

REPUBLICAN ELECTIONS of last Friday resulted in a victory for the Government. Fifty or more members elect are supporters of the Administration. This in a house of sixty-five gives a comfortable majority.

—

question of license or no license will be the chief business of the forthcoming municipal election in Massachusetts, and the anti-reference all over the country and in refer to The Independent, of New York, dated 1887, as follows: "See it is another column, and send a postal specimen copy.

Gospel of Mark has been divided up into biblical lessons for 1882 to the exclusion of Testament study. I. K. Funk & Co., therefore, publish that Gospel
in the Teacher's Edition (revised), with the following length, which is entirely satisfactory wholly biblical with study, as a harmony of the Gospels,
and a blank page for M. S. notes.

For Peter Awake is out with a gay air for the young folks, which they will find their chief Christmas entertainments. It is the new Puss-in-Boots, and all the peo-

There was something "in the wind." The inquisitor failed to get a clue pinging until late at night, when he begged, and it was not until Sunday morning he came aware that a serious crime had been committed.

On November Mr. Alex. Gibson, of 1001 Broadway, was called by a messenger to his surveyor, Mr. Wm. Bowden from the Branch Bank of British Columbia, and he found that Mr. Bowden made out his cheque, and the cashier, Mr. J. H. Macpherson, telegraphic order obtained the money, and the two documents were placed on file.

On November Mr. Gibson came to the bank and took the Bowden cheque to the cashier for Mr. Gibson, and left it to him to cash. He then gave a cheque for $1000 made out to his own cheque for $1000 to Messrs. Hilyard Bros. and Co., and he took it to the Bank and gave it to the cashier, who gave him the ledger keeper,