In answer to an enquiry by Mr. Willis, the Provincial Secretary stated that the Government had been informed that last year's official reporter had left the Province, and was employed on a paper in Halifax.

A resolution to adopt the Rules of the House of last year for the present Session, was allowed to stand over until there was a fuller House.

Mr. Covert submitted the first Report of the Contingent Committee, which ordered that members be allowed to frank correspondence during the Session, and to frank telegraphic despatches, the cost of such telegraphic despatches, however, not to exceed $20, for the entire Session. It also ordered that a copy of every paper published in the Province be ordered for the use of the House dur-ing the Session. The report was adopted. Recess. made no public confession.
