The question of erecting a monument to the late Hon. Joseph Howe is being discussed in Halifax. No Nova Scotian ever deserved one more than he. We hope the movement will be successful.

The editor's office had calls about the middle of the week from several brethren in regard to Conference. We are always glad to see our friends.

THE NEWS OF THE WEEK.

SAINT JOHN, N. B., OCTOBER 6, 1882

On Thursday last week Gilbert Smith, son of Geo. F. Smith, of Victoria Corner, was instantly killed. He was working in a steam mill, and a slab coming in contact with his chest, struck him with the velocity of a bullet, causing instant death.

Such sympathy is expressed for Mr. Stephens in his great loss. He had only a partial insurance, and the loss was actually done. In some localities the catch was 60 to 75 per cent, below previous years. Much money has been lost by several of the operators engaged in the business. Preparations for the next year's preserving will be made very cautiously, the above facts clearly testifying that the supply of fish is valuable and should be rapidly exhausted.

On Saturday 21st, a man named Allen Perkins, aged 25 years, was drowned at Bath while attempting to cross the river in an old bark canoe. There were three others in the boat with him, and they were about two-thirds way over a hole burst in the bottom and the canoe sank. The other men were saved, but Perkins drowned. He leaves a young wife, who is lying in a precarious condition brought on by the shock she received on learning the sad end of her husband.

A correspondent of the Telegraph at Red Rapids Settlement, Quebec, sends the particulars of a strange case of fright which occurred there the other evening. A little girl, a daughter of Mr. Charles Willet, who was sitting at Mr. Roberts' was sent into the mill room for a supply of coal. She did not return, another child was sent to look for her, and found her lying on the floor senseless. She has remained in that condition, but she claims at intervals, "It took hold of me, it took hold of me," from which it is inferred that the child has been frightened by something. The medical men entertain but slight hopes for her recovery. The case is certainly a very singular one.

Inspector Oudlip, assisted by an officer from St. John, visited St. Andrews this week and seized $1,500 worth of English and American goods from Mr. T. Odell's store, for undervaluation and direct smuggling. The goods, which included silks, kid gloves and other valuables easily handled, were chiefly English, and valued at $1,500. The goods were brought over from the Yankee side on the sly, but when entered, it entered at all the original invoices were not forthcoming. This, at least, is what the semi-officially given out in St. Andrews. A correspondent says it believed that Mr. Odell has made an offer of settlement. Mr. Oudlip is on the war-path in dead earnest, and his border warfare is not by any means ended.—Sun.
