St. Nicholas for November, begins the new volume in splendid style with a colored frontispiece, entitled "Indian Summer." Another prominent feature is the first installment of J. T. Trowbridge's new serial "The Tinkham Notaries in this Province. Brothers' Tide-Mill," it promises to be the best story this popular author has yet written. Then there is the beginning of another serial, by Frank R. Stockton. He writes of boy and girl life in the thirteenth century, and the story is true to life. But the November number is also the Thanksgiving number, and so Miss Sophie Swett has contributed a story called "All the Plums," which any D.
