THE INDEPENDENT needs only to be better known to add to its already large list of friends. It has been published for thirty-five years and has acquired a world-wide reputation as the best religious and literary newspaper.

The Independent is not denominational. Its creed and field are broader than any sect. As a Christian journal, its aim is to strengthen and extend Evangelical religion and to defend it against the attacks of Materialism, Atheism, and unbelief. It is free to approve or criticise in any of the denominations whatever it believes is designed to advance or hinder the progress of the is designed to advance or hinder the progress of the Gospel of Christ.

In civil and political affairs The Independent will contend for sound Ideas and principles. It fought against slavery and the iniquitous system of the Oreida Community. It is now fighting against Mormonism. It believes in the reform of the civil service and tariff, in the purification of politics and in cheaper postage, and will maintain those principles which the highest ethics and heat intalligence requires ife, and I would recommend them to all and every one suffering with the same complaints.

Respectfully yours,
