- In this DAY of ceaseless activities there is a demand for working Christians. Mere theorists are at a discount; and the unsettled and fitful are a weakness and hindrance to the work of the Lord. "Go work to-day in my vineyard" is the command to every follower of Christ. The kinds of work to be done are so many and varied that no one can plead non-adaptability, and the opportunities are so abundant that no one can plead that there is no chance for him. He who neglects obedience to the working order of the Lord is a stumbling-block.
