NOVA SCOTIA:

The Digby Courier says this year's cherry crop will be light.

Caterpillars in great numbers have put in their appearance in Colebrook and other neighboring Nova Scotia counties.

Rev. J. M. Pittblado, now of Winnipeg, Manitoba, arrived in Truro, Mrs. Pittblado has been here visiting friends for some time.

Robinson, the Digby incendiary, who was committed to a recent sitting of the Supreme Court in that town, has been sentenced to ten years penal servitude in the penitentiary.

On Monday morning of Short Harbor, those Perry, son of John Perry, light-house keeper, aged 15 years, and Joseph Hardy, aged 22, were drowned by the upsetting of a boat. The bodies have not been found.

Commencing Monday, July 9th, the N. S. S. S. Company will make four trips a week to Digby and Annapolis, leaving St. John on Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, and returning on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday.

George Hepburn, arrested at Amherst some days ago for committing forgery on the Pictou bank, was on Monday on his way to the penitentiary, having been committed by the Bank of Nova Scotia, for forging the names of John A. Dawson and Hugh Henderson on two notes of $25 and $100, which were cashed and committed. His alleged forgeries amount in all to upwards of $1,000.

The Christian Messenger says: Sixteen vessels came in on Wednesday morning from New Brunswick. Banks were they had been fishing for the last two months, and had taken a good quantity of fish, probably about 100,000 quills each. This at $8.00 a quill would represent a value of $800,000. One of these vessels had a flag at half-mast, having lost a young man about 20 years of age.

A half-breed named James Nowlan, fifty-two years of age, eloped with a girl, aged sixteen, from Middle Musquodibui. The girl's father, William Miller, pursued the gay couple and overtook them as they were entering this village last evening. Nowlan being reluctant to give up his treasure, Miller fired, shattering Nowlan's arm badly. All concerned were before the magistrate this morning. Nowlan was found guilty, and the matter dismissed on his own recognizance.

Fergie Notting, with two or three companions, went to the Salmon River, near Truro, to bathe. On Saturday he was in the water and took a cold, and it is thought that on this occasion he was seized with another, and being in a deep hole in the river, sank, and was drowned. He was not more than twelve years of age, and his companions being also mere striplings were unable to render the assistance necessary to save him. His father and mother are both dead, and much sympathy is felt for his sisters.—Col. Sun.

The Colchester Sun says: A serious accident occurred at Indian Brook, Shubenacadie, on Sabbath last, resulting in the somewhat singular death of a daughter of Mrs. Stephen Mallory (Indian). The circumstances are about as follows:—While attempting to cross a fence, it suddenly gave way, throwing the child directly underneath, where it became horribly crushed by the falling fence, and when discovered some time later on, life was quite extinct. The unfortunate lingered some time after becoming entangled in the timber as the ground was torn up by the struggles of the child in attempting to extricate herself.

Hon. Charles Bonfield, of Arichat, N. S., died on Saturday on board the vessel which was leaving at Lunenburg, Guy'sborough County. Mr. Bonfield was an old French family which settled in the island of Cape Breton more than a century ago. He was born at Arichat in 1822—sixty-one years ago. He became a sailor and in due course master of a vessel. For many years he was engaged in the coasting trade between Halifax and the Cape Breton ports. He was first elected to the House of Assembly in 1874 and at the close of his Parliamentary term in 1878 was appointed to the Legislative Council. He was in his place at the recent session but was then in poor health. He was a Liberal, in politics, an honorable business man, and highly respected by all who knew him.

On Sunday last, a 10-year old daughter of one of the residents of the village of Stewiack, near Truro, strayed into the woods and became lost. The child was first seen by a neighbor, who called her, and she came running, although when the neighbor saw the child was not found till 4 o'clock Monday afternoon. The child had been in the woods all night through heavy rain and with nothing to eat except the early berries and leaves she might gather. She had wandered about five miles from the place where she had been, and had been in the woods and had her clothing torn by briars. The little one was lying alongside a log, and might never have been discovered had it not been for the neighbor who frightened her and caused her to get up and run, when she attracted attention.—Pictou News.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

Since Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil has become celebrated, a number of unprincipled persons have endeavored to pass off cheap imitations of the genuine Dr. THOMAS' ELECTRIC OIL. Beware of these cheap imitations. If their originators had any faith in the healing properties of their own medicine they would like honest men to give them a name of their own, and not to try to sell them on the reputation of another; but as they know their cheap imitations will be sold, they get a name as near as possible to Electric. We therefore ask the public when purchasing to see that the name Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil is on the wrapper, and the signature of NORRIS & LYMAN, the proprietors of Canada, on the back.

Alexis Cyr, of Grant Lake, Astorock Co., Maine, writes: "Having used Northrop & Lyman's valuable Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda, and derive great benefit from it, I take the liberty of asking you for quotations and also whether you would be willing to give me the agency for this place, as I am confident there would be a large sale for it in this vicinity when its merits are made known."

FOR THE CURE OF ALL THE DELICATE DISORDERS to which females are subject no remedy has been devised that can be compared with HANINGTON'S Quinine Wine and Iron. It feels that they are growing old before their time should use HANINGTON'S Quinine Wine and Iron. Beware of imitations. See that you get "Hanington's," the original and genuine. For sale by all druggists and general dealers in Canada. July 6-11.

Easy digestion, an increase of appetite and a free secretion of bile, mark the radical change which it produces.

Old cases of lameness in horses, generally caused by contracted cords, &c., of long standing, that have pertinaciously refused to yield to any other remedy, have invariably been cured by the use of the original and genuine. For sale by all druggists and general dealers in Canada. July 6-11.
