The record for this year will still increase the majority of St. John over other Maritime ports. By the opening of the Kent Northern Railway another considerable district of the North Shore has been brought into connection with the rest of the country. A few years ago the North Shore was looked upon as a kind of Ultima Thule, only to be visited by adventurous strangers, when they had plenty of time on their hands. The building of the Intercolonial changed that to a great extent, and the opening of the various branches to the principal towns of the North Shore, the branch to Dalhousie is nearly completed, and that to Carleton Place is being surveyed, and will doubtless be pushed on next season. The country between Shediac and Richibucto is now the only considerable district on the North Shore without adequate railway facilities.—Capital.

On Wednesday evening of last week a large company gathered at the residence of Miss Lowther Mount Whitley, to witness a nuptial ceremony. When the ceremony was over—about half-past seven—a large party of young men from the neighborhood gathered around the residence of the bride, and began to throw stones at the house. The bride and groom were taken to the ground, and no attention was paid to it for a moment, as it was thought to be part of the fun, but his next morning the bride was found and he was examined, and found to be wounded. The blood appearing on the ground about him. On a close inspection it was found that a heavy charge of shot had penetrated the right side, and was in his right elbow. It was fired at short range, and the wound was only an inch in diameter. Dr. Bower was sent for, but the unfortunate man was already dead. He never spoke after the wound, and was apparently unconscious. Mr. Ralph Siddall, coroner, was notified, and an inquest was held. Mr. Smith was over 30 years of age, and was a young and prosperous farmer, and his only death was a great shock to his widow, whose name was Mrs. May.

Between 10 and 11 o'clock on Saturday night a fire occurred in a small house at St. John. The fire was caused by a gas stove, which was left burning. The house was owned by J. E. Betts and was valued at $1,000. The fire was caused by a gas stove, which was left burning. The house was owned by J. E. Betts and was valued at $1,000.

At midnight, the steward of the bark Sarah B. Gunn, lying at the wharf, saw a fire on the roof of the fore-cabin, and immediately commenced pouring water on the flames. He succeeded in subduing the fire without the assistance of the firemen. The flames were caused by a defective stove pipe leading out of the fore-cabin. Between 2 and 3 o'clock on Sunday morning, the tug St. John, which was on duty at the wharf, was suddenly on fire. The fire was caused by a defective stove pipe leading out of the fore-cabin. The tug was on fire, and the firemen were called to the scene. The fire was caused by a defective stove pipe leading out of the fore-cabin.
