

F. Walsh. The body will be brought to St. John for interment.—Globe.

MacFarlane's saw mill, near Baie Verte, was burnt on Monday night. The loss is not known. The property is insured. The fire is supposed to have caught from a lot of rubbish set on fire about the mill on that day.

Small catches of gasperreux are being taken by the net fisherman and the weirs are making fair hauls. The fish merchants are now paying $1.50 per hundred for the fish, which are smoked for shipment to Europe.

It is feared that many of the sub-contractors in the lumber operations of the present season throughout the Province will not make both ends meet in consequence of the hard winter through which they have passed.

On Saturday the steamer Queddy, owned by Mr. Martin Head and Salmon River mills, was launched from Hilary Broad' Yard, Straight Shore. She is a side wheeler, of 60 feet keel, and will draw about 3 feet.

On Friday last Charles Russell was fined twenty dollars and costs for selling intoxicating liquors within his house. It would be well for the place if those who persist in doing such things had the due regard of their deeds meted out to them.—Senate.

Mr. Carnell has two specimens of the loupoisier in his work room, on Dock street, which attract a good deal of attention. The animals, though captured, appear to have lost none of the spirit by which they were originally taken.

William Allen, the man who is alleged to have robbed Mr. Pierre Dilhant of Moncton, has not been captured yet. Detective Ring has been at the I. C. R. depot on the arrival of the trains, but has not as yet any answer to the description received by the chief.

We are pleased to learn that the Minister of Customs very promptly dismissed Mr. Bonness from the Customs Department, and suspended another, on account of their irregular conduct while in Woodstock, recently. The whole matter will be fully discussed in our next issue.

Contracts have been signed for the building of a Church at Joliette. Point depute circuit, to cost a little over two thousand dollars, and to be finished by next December. Over fifteen hundred dollars of the amount has been already subscribed, and work upon the building has been commenced.

The Society of S. C. D. desires to acknowledge, through Jas. Masey, Esq., the receipt of twenty dollars ($20), being the amount of the subscription of Thomas E. Grindon, Esq., of Liverpool, Eng. Mr. Grindon has sent a similar amount each year since the Society's organization.

At the close of the morning services on the last Sunday in March, the Bishop and C. F. C. Baptists congegrated to the meduzukinak where 21 candidates received the rite of baptism. All were baptised by Rev. B. Colpits, F. C. B., eleven by Rev. Mr. Todd, Albert St. Baptist, and seven by Rev. G. N. Ballentine, Main St. Baptist.

A dwelling house at Point du Chene, belonging to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. White, was destroyed by fire during the absence of the occupants while visiting their friends at Sheldie. The household effects on the lower flats were all saved; all up stairs were burned. Loss to occupant's suit; no insurance on a large warehouse filled with pressed hay and store goods, located near the railway station and belonging to Messrs. Laub & Graham, was completely destroyed by fire the other night, the fire breaking out at midnight. The building was insured for $400,000. The goods, in the Western Assurance, for $1,000. The damage is about covered. The fire originated probably from a spark from a locomotive.

A large warehouse filled with pressed hay and store goods, located near the railway station and belonging to Messrs. Laub & Graham, was completely destroyed by fire the other night, the fire breaking out at midnight. The building was insured for $400,000. The goods, in the Western Assurance, for $1,000. The damage is about covered. The fire originated probably from a spark from a locomotive.

It returns from the fishing sherry show the catch during the week to have been enormous. The most aducers of fish came from American ports and the largest fish were landed twice the total number of fish conveyed from our shores in these bottoms being close upon eleven millions. This, at an average price of $20 cts. a hundred, would foot up to $60,000, besides those brought up by such large operators as Messrs. Noble Bros., Young, Colgate, etc.

A few days ago Mrs. Batter, an elderly lady residing about a mile beyond Norton station, became frightened by a crazy man passing near the house, went into convulsions and died a few hours afterwards.

During her illness she repeated the name of the person she had seen, and who had been in the house, but who was not there. An inquest was held in Conner D. B. Hattie, and a verdict rendered in accordance with the facts. The deceased lady was living with her nephew, who was absent, a servant girl being the only other occupant of the house at the time of the fright. The said event has caused a considerable sensation in Norton.—Mondon Transcript.

On the arrival of the bark "Kate Sancon," in this port, on Monday, one of the seamen, named Arthur Saunders, was taken to the Marine Hospital as he was suffering from a bad fit and feeling faint. While he was in the hospital he was baptised by Rev. Mr. T. Parsons, the late Clerk of the Pleas, and he is now a member of the church.

Arthur T. Trueau was to be reported in the room of Wm. Pugley, Jr., resigned. Mr. Trueau has been going to the law office of the Pleas, having the care of the law office of the Pleas.

Mr. Murphy, Crown Counsel, has stated that the authorities know who "Number One" is, and it is expected a photograph of this mysterious person will be produced in court.

Mr. Peterburro, April 7.—The trial of the Nihilists who began on Monday. The crown will invoke the extreme penalty of the law against six prisoners.

The trial of six other Nihilists will begin Saturday next at Odessa.

April 10.—A large section of the country in the southern part of Russia is covered by water owing to flooding in rivers. Traffic on railways is suspended.

Several officers of the Russian army will soon be tried for nihilism, owing to the discovery of the cipher embodied in some of Prince Kropotkin's documents, which were given into the hands of the Russian Government by the French authorities.

Arthur T. Trueau, the first mate of the said vessel, having acted in a cruel manner to himself; and as his ill-treatment by his solicitor, Carey became perfectly cool in his demands.

He was then taken up by his solicitor, Carey became perfectly cool in his demands.

One of the knives found in Ringside Basin was produced in order that he might identify it as one of those supplied by Sheridan from London.

Mr. Murphy, Crown Counsel, has stated that the authorities know who "Number One" is, and it is expected a photograph of this mysterious person will be produced in court.

Mr. Peterburro, April 7.—The trial of the Nihilists who began on Monday. The crown will invoke the extreme penalty of the law against six prisoners.

The trial of six other Nihilists will begin Saturday next at Odessa.

April 10.—A large section of the country in the southern part of Russia is covered by water owing to flooding in rivers. Traffic on railways is suspended.

Several officers of the Russian army will soon be tried for nihilism, owing to the discovery of the cipher embodied in some of Prince Kropotkin's documents, which were given into the hands of the Russian Government by the French authorities.

Arthur T. Trueau, the first mate of the said vessel, having acted in a cruel manner to himself; and as his ill-treatment by his solicitor, Carey became perfectly cool in his demands.

He was then taken up by his solicitor, Carey became perfectly cool in his demands.

One of the knives found in Ringside Basin was produced in order that he might identify it as one of those supplied by Sheridan from London.

Mr. Murphy, Crown Counsel, has stated that the authorities know who "Number One" is, and it is expected a photograph of this mysterious person will be produced in court.

Mr. Peterburro, April 7.—The trial of the Nihilists who began on Monday. The crown will invoke the extreme penalty of the law against six prisoners.

The trial of six other Nihilists will begin Saturday next at Odessa.

April 10.—A large section of the country in the southern part of Russia is covered by water owing to flooding in rivers. Traffic on railways is suspended.

Several officers of the Russian army will soon be tried for nihilism, owing to the discovery of the cipher embodied in some of Prince Kropotkin's documents, which were given into the hands of the Russian Government by the French authorities.

Arthur T. Trueau, the first mate of the said vessel, having acted in a cruel manner to himself; and as his ill-treatment by his solicitor, Carey became perfectly cool in his demands.

He was then taken up by his solicitor, Carey became perfectly cool in his demands.

One of the knives found in Ringside Basin was produced in order that he might identify it as one of those supplied by Sheridan from London.

Mr. Murphy, Crown Counsel, has stated that the authorities know who "Number One" is, and it is expected a photograph of this mysterious person will be produced in court.

Mr. Peterburro, April 7.—The trial of the Nihilists who began on Monday. The crown will invoke the extreme penalty of the law against six prisoners.

The trial of six other Nihilists will begin Saturday next at Odessa.

April 10.—A large section of the country in the southern part of Russia is covered by water owing to flooding in rivers. Traffic on railways is suspended.

Several officers of the Russian army will soon be tried for nihilism, owing to the discovery of the cipher embodied in some of Prince Kropotkin's documents, which were given into the hands of the Russian Government by the French authorities.

Arthur T. Trueau, the first mate of the said vessel, having acted in a cruel manner to himself; and as his ill-treatment by his solicitor, Carey became perfectly cool in his demands.

He was then taken up by his solicitor, Carey became perfectly cool in his demands.

One of the knives found in Ringside Basin was produced in order that he might identify it as one of those supplied by Sheridan from London.

Mr. Murphy, Crown Counsel, has stated that the authorities know who "Number One" is, and it is expected a photograph of this mysterious person will be produced in court.

Mr. Peterburro, April 7.—The trial of the Nihilists who began on Monday. The crown will invoke the extreme penalty of the law against six prisoners.

The trial of six other Nihilists will begin Saturday next at Odessa.

April 10.—A large section of the country in the southern part of Russia is covered by water owing to flooding in rivers. Traffic on railways is suspended.

Several officers of the Russian army will soon be tried for nihilism, owing to the discovery of the cipher embodied in some of Prince Kropotkin's documents, which were given into the hands of the Russian Government by the French authorities.

Arthur T. Trueau, the first mate of the said vessel, having acted in a cruel manner to himself; and as his ill-treatment by his solicitor, Carey became perfectly cool in his demands.

He was then taken up by his solicitor, Carey became perfectly cool in his demands.

One of the knives found in Ringside Basin was produced in order that he might identify it as one of those supplied by Sheridan from London.

Mr. Murphy, Crown Counsel, has stated that the authorities know who "Number One" is, and it is expected a photograph of this mysterious person will be produced in court.

Mr. Peterburro, April 7.—The trial of the Nihilists who began on Monday. The crown will invoke the extreme penalty of the law against six prisoners.

The trial of six other Nihilists will begin Saturday next at Odessa.

April 10.—A large section of the country in the southern part of Russia is covered by water owing to flooding in rivers. Traffic on railways is suspended.

Several officers of the Russian army will soon be tried for nihilism, owing to the discovery of the cipher embodied in some of Prince Kropotkin's documents, which were given into the hands of the Russian Government by the French authorities.

Arthur T. Trueau, the first mate of the said vessel, having acted in a cruel manner to himself; and as his ill-treatment by his solicitor, Carey became perfectly cool in his demands.

He was then taken up by his solicitor, Carey became perfectly cool in his demands.

One of the knives found in Ringside Basin was produced in order that he might identify it as one of those supplied by Sheridan from London.

Mr. Murphy, Crown Counsel, has stated that the authorities know who "Number One" is, and it is expected a photograph of this mysterious person will be produced in court.

Mr. Peterburro, April 7.—The trial of the Nihilists who began on Monday. The crown will invoke the extreme penalty of the law against six prisoners.

The trial of six other Nihilists will begin Saturday next at Odessa.

April 10.—A large section of the country in the southern part of Russia is covered by water owing to flooding in rivers. Traffic on railways is suspended.

Several officers of the Russian army will soon be tried for nihilism, owing to the discovery of the cipher embodied in some of Prince Kropotkin's documents, which were given into the hands of the Russian Government by the French authorities.

Arthur T. Trueau, the first mate of the said vessel, having acted in a cruel manner to himself; and as his ill-treatment by his solicitor, Carey became perfectly cool in his demands.

He was then taken up by his solicitor, Carey became perfectly cool in his demands.

One of the knives found in Ringside Basin was produced in order that he might identify it as one of those supplied by Sheridan from London.

Mr. Murphy, Crown Counsel, has stated that the authorities know who "Number One" is, and it is expected a photograph of this mysterious person will be produced in court.

Mr. Peterburro, April 7.—The trial of the Nihilists who began on Monday. The crown will invoke the extreme penalty of the law against six prisoners.

The trial of six other Nihilists will begin Saturday next at Odessa.

April 10.—A large section of the country in the southern part of Russia is covered by water owing to flooding in rivers. Traffic on railways is suspended.

Several officers of the Russian army will soon be tried for nihilism, owing to the discovery of the cipher embodied in some of Prince Kropotkin's documents, which were given into the hands of the Russian Government by the French authorities.

Arthur T. Trueau, the first mate of the said vessel, having acted in a cruel manner to himself; and as his ill-treatment by his solicitor, Carey became perfectly cool in his demands.

He was then taken up by his solicitor, Carey became perfectly cool in his demands.

One of the knives found in Ringside Basin was produced in order that he might identify it as one of those supplied by Sheridan from London.

Mr. Murphy, Crown Counsel, has stated that the authorities know who "Number One" is, and it is expected a photograph of this mysterious person will be produced in court.

Mr. Peterburro, April 7.—The trial of the Nihilists who began on Monday. The crown will invoke the extreme penalty of the law against six prisoners.

The trial of six other Nihilists will begin Saturday next at Odessa.

April 10.—A large section of the country in the southern part of Russia is covered by water owing to flooding in rivers. Traffic on railways is suspended.

Several officers of the Russian army will soon be tried for nihilism, owing to the discovery of the cipher embodied in some of Prince Kropotkin's documents, which were given into the hands of the Russian Government by the French authorities.

Arthur T. Trueau, the first mate of the said vessel, having acted in a cruel manner to himself; and as his ill-treatment by his solicitor, Carey became perfectly cool in his demands.

He was then taken up by his solicitor, Carey became perfectly cool in his demands.

One of the knives found in Ringside Basin was produced in order that he might identify it as one of those supplied by Sheridan from London.

Mr. Murphy, Crown Counsel, has stated that the authorities know who "Number One" is, and it is expected a photograph of this mysterious person will be produced in court.

Mr. Peterburro, April 7.—The trial of the Nihilists who began on Monday. The crown will invoke the extreme penalty of the law against six prisoners.

The trial of six other Nihilists will begin Saturday next at Odessa.

April 10.—A large section of the country in the southern part of Russia is covered by water owing to flooding in rivers. Traffic on railways is suspended.

Several officers of the Russian army will soon be tried for nihilism, owing to the discovery of the cipher embodied in some of Prince Kropotkin's documents, which were given into the hands of the Russian Government by the French authorities.

Arthur T. Trueau, the first mate of the said vessel, having acted in a cruel manner to himself; and as his ill-treatment by his solicitor, Carey became perfectly cool in his demands.

He was then taken up by his solicitor, Carey became perfectly cool in his demands.

One of the knives found in Ringside Basin was produced in order that he might identify it as one of those supplied by Sheridan from London.

Mr. Murphy, Crown Counsel, has stated that the authorities know who "Number One" is, and it is expected a photograph of this mysterious person will be produced in court.

Mr. Peterburro, April 7.—The trial of the Nihilists who began on Monday. The crown will invoke the extreme penalty of the law against six prisoners.

The trial of six other Nihilists will begin Saturday next at Odessa.

April 10.—A large section of the country in the southern part of Russia is covered by water owing to flooding in rivers. Traffic on railways is suspended.

Several officers of the Russian army will soon be tried for nihilism, owing to the discovery of the cipher embodied in some of Prince Kropotkin's documents, which were given into the hands of the Russian Government by the French authorities.

Arthur T. Trueau, the first mate of the said vessel, having acted in a cruel manner to himself; and as his ill-treatment by his solicitor, Carey became perfectly cool in his demands.

He was then taken up by his solicitor, Carey became perfectly cool in his demands.

One of the knives found in Ringside Basin was produced in order that he might identify it as one of those supplied by Sheridan from London.

Mr. Murphy, Crown Counsel, has stated that the authorities know who "Number One" is, and it is expected a photograph of this mysterious person will be produced in court.

Mr. Peterburro, April 7.—The trial of the Nihilists who began on Monday. The crown will