But listen now while I relate The traits of some of them. There's deli-Kate, a modest dame And worthy of your love ; She's nice and beautiful in frame, As gentle as a dove.

Communi-Kate's intelligent, As we may well suppose; Her fruitful mind is ever bent On telling what she knows. There's intri-Kate, she's so obscure,

'Tis hard to find her out : For she is often very sure To put your wits to rout.

Prevari-Kate's a stubborn maid. She's sure to have her way ; The cavilling, contrary jade Objects to all you say. There's alter-Kate, a perfect pest,

Much given to dispute Her prattling tongue can never rest, You cannot her refute. There's dislo-Kate, in quite a fret,

Who fails to gain her point ; Her case is quite unfortunate, And sorely out of joint. Equivo-Kate no one will woo

The thing would be absurd.

She is so faithless and untrue. You cannot take her word. There's vindi-Kate, she's good and true, And strives with all her might

He duty faithfully to do. And battle for the right. There's rusti-Kate, a country lass, Quite fond of rural scenes ; She likes to ramble through the grass

And through the evergreens. Of all the maidens you can find, There's none like edu-Kate Because she elevates the mind And aims at something great.

WAIT TILL TROUBLE COMES

We sit down, way-worn and weary, And think of the days to be, And forget there's a silver lining To all the clouds we see. We fret over care and trouble Before it is begun,

And thinking of stormy weather. We forget the warm, bright sun. It were better to wait, my brother, Till the trouble and care is here; Why should we cloud the sunshine

When the day is bright and clear, By dreading what may await us ! Better to laugh and sing, And bid the bird of foreboding From these hearts of our's take wings.

What was the sunshine made for, If not to make us glad? We are doing wrong to waste it In repining, idle and sad.

We are doing wrong to squander The sunshine of to-day in foreboding that to-morrow The sky may be cold and gray.

Then I pray be wise, my brother, As you climb the hill of life: Enjoy the time to the utmost That is free from care and strife.

Thinking only of blight and failure We sow no seed-time grain : Make use of to-day's glad sunshine. And forget to-morrow's rain. To-day is our's, but to-morrow.

Perhaps we may never see : Then why should we borrow trouble For a time that may not be? Leave to the future, brother, The trouble it may bring ; In the sunshine that God gives us Be glad of heart, and sing.

"LOVE ONE ANOTHER."

Dear little children, do you know who it is that says this to you? It is God; we find it In His Book. He says to you there, " Love one another." Do you know what it means? "No!" Well, then, I will tell you. It means that you must be very kind and gentle to each other, and that you must never be cross and teasing. Some boys and girls think when people are unkind to them or hurt them, that they must hurt those that hurt them, or be unkind, "to pay them off" for what they have done. Now that is very wrong. It is much better to be kind to those who are cross to us, because that will make them sorry, and so they will not like to serve us so again. God's Book tells us so, and people who have tried the plan found out that it is true. I will tell you about a little girl named Mary Lundie, who tried it. It is quite a true story. Mary Lundie was playing one day with her brother Corie, and he was cross, and hit her cheek; but instead of biting him again, as some girls would do, she turned her other cheek to him, that he might strike that too, and said, gently, "There, Corie!" But Corie was sad when he saw that Mary would not be cross, and he did not strike her answer the other?" again, but was sorry that he had hurt her.

So you see, the best way to cure people of being these prayers. What were they?" cross to us is to be kind to them. If Mary had hers, perhaps they would have gone on fighting would make papa more kind; and he has been more until both were very much hurt, and that would kind lately, hasn't he?" have made them so angry that perhaps they would have got to hate each other, instead of which Corie loved Mary all the more for her gentleness. Now, let us see how Mary found out this plan. Her Daisy and I quarreled dreadfully to-day." mamma asked her what made her think of doing so, instead of striking Corie. "Oh," she said,

'I heard papa read it one day out of the Bible.' Mary was a little girl who loved Jesus Christ, and tried to obey Him. Jesus had put His good live with Him in heaven.

Rev. Father Wilds'

EXPERIENCE. The Rev. Z. P. Wilds, well-known city missionary in New York, and brother of the late eminent Judge Wilds, of the Massachusetts Supreme Court, writes me follows:

"78 E. 5th St., New York, May 16, 1882.

MESSES, J. C. AYER & Co., Gentlemen:
Last winter I was troubled with a most uncomfortable itching humor affecting more especially my limbs, which itched so intolerably at night, and burned so intensely, that I could exarcely bear any clothing over them. I was also a sufferer from a severe catarrh and catarrhal cough; my appetite was poor, and my system a good deal run down. Knowing the value of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, by observation of many other cases, and from personal use AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, by observation of many other eases, and from personal use in former years, I began taking it for the above-named disorders. My appetite improved almost from the first dose. After a short time the fever and itching were allayed, and all signs of irritation of the skin disappeared. My catarrh and cough were also cured by the same means, and my general health greatly improved, until it is now excellent. I feel a hundred per cent stronger, and I attribute these results to the use of the Sarsaparilla, which I recommend with all confidence as the best blood medicine ever devised. I took it in small doses three times a day, and used, in all, less than two bottles. I place these facts at your service, hoping their publication may do good.

Yours respectfully, Z. P. Wilds."

The above instance is but one of the many constantly coming to our notice, which prove the perfect adaptability of AVER'S SARSA-PARILLA to the cure of all diseases arising from impure or impoverished blood, and a weakened vitality.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla cleanses, enriches, and strengthens the blood, stimulates the action of the stomach and bowels, and thereby enables the system to resist and overcome the attacks of all Scrofutous Disea notions of the Skin, Rhewmatism. ral Debility, and all disorders from poor or corrupted blood and a low state of the system.
