ENTHRONED.

BY LOUISA S. DORR. Dear Spirit, now within I know Thy power divine. And here adore The matchless, mighty love That rules below, above. Creation o'er.

Dear Spirit, here abide My heart I open wide For Thee alone. Cast out what'er Thou wilt : Be here Thy temple built : Be here Thy throne.

If Christ be not in me. A reprobate I be :

Dear Spirit, stay. Nor ever, ever leave : Forbid that Thee I grieve,

My Lord, away ! By Thee, on every side,

Be my soul sanctified. If otherwise, Oh, do Thou this reveal ! Cast out, make perfect, seal

Whole in Thine eyes,

The might and power are vain ; The mount becomes a plain By Thee alone ;

By Thee small things increase, Till through them mountains cease, Hills are o'erthrown,

Then, soul of mine, be still ; Let God's will be thy will.

And lowly wait The crumbling into dust Before love's perfect trust

Of mountains great. . Dear Spirit, welcome here ! What joy, what peace appear In this, Thy home ! My King has come to stay-O happy, golden day ! My King has come.
