The murderer Hughes was visited in his cell, in the County jail, on the 15th inst., by several city officials. He conversed freely about his history and the crime he had committed. He professed great penitence and appeared to fully realize his frightful position, and was anxious to prepare himself for death. Chief of Police Marshall talked with him for quite a time, and, as Hughes expressed a desire to have a Bible, the Chief kindly pro-cured one for him, which was given to him. — Tel.

She had been at Irishtown for two weeks previous, and recently returned. After reaching home she acted strangely, frequently threatening to take her life, at one time trying to get a knife to cut her throat. Her mother afterward found her apparently trying to strangle herself with a cloud. Her mother remonstrated. She gave no reason for her strange conduct. She was out of doors on Sunday. Dr. Bourque saw and prescribed for her on Monday. He cautioned them to watch her. She grew worse, called her mother to her bed side and told her she was dying, and died about five o'clock last evening. The Fredericton Auxiliary Bible S ciety held its annual meeting on Tuesday evening of this week, in the City Hall. His Honor the Lieut. Governor, Patron, G. E. Fenety, Esq., President, Chas. Sampson, Esq., Secretary. The speaker and other gentlemen together with a select choir occupied the platform. The hall was well filled, and from the attention given the respect ve speakers during the meeting, which was kept up till after 10 o'clock, it was evident that the addresses and the music were no ordinary efforts. The report of the year's labors showed that an increasing interest is being manifested in the Societies' work. The Ladies' Branch also reported. These statements show the Societies to be in a healthy condition, and that much good is being done through their instrument 1 ty. The lidies certainly deserve praise for their untiring

The Telegraph of the 16th says: Rev. Mr. A. Hartt and Mr. Steel were greeted by a large congregation in the Congregational Church, at their opening meeting Thursday evening. The service was decidedly interesting, and all who were present were very much impressed with it. Mr. Steel preached a plain and practical discourse, without notes, from Romans, 8th chap., 6 h verse " For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace." The sermon was well delivered and was listened to with much of Christian testimony by some touching stories. During the evening Ray. Mr. Hartt sang some beautiful hymns, the congregation joining in the choruses. R.v. I. L Beman, pastor of the church, pronounced the benediction

> FEES AND DOCTORS. The fees of doctors is an item that very many ersons are interested in just at present. We beeve the schedule for visits is $3 00, which would tax a man confined to his bed for a year, and in need of daily visits, over $1,000 a year for medica attendance alone! And one single bottle of Hop Bitters taken in time would save the $1,000 and all he year's sickness. - Post. feb. 16-2i.
