A very interesting feature for the coming year is a Pictorial Series written by the Editor, entitled KINGS AND QUEENS AT HOME.

In this chatty series the little folks will learn a good deal about the home life of the most noted Kings and Queens of the present time, from the boy-king of China up to the white-haired Emperor of Germany. In this chatty series the little folks will learn a good deal about the home life of the most noted Kings and Queens of the present time, from the boy-king of China up to the white haired Emperor of Germany. There will be many portraits and charact eristic pictures Kerr's Book-Keeping.

Another Pictorial Series has been prepared about the homes of birds and other house-building creatures : NESTS AND THEIR BUILDERS. By Mrs. Fannie A. Deanc.

The popular features of the Magazine will be re-tained : child life in other lands, bright stories, stories of pets, true stories most of them, as it is the aim of the Editor to place only such before her little readers. SEVENTY-FIVE FULL-PAGE PICTURES, with a crowd of smaller pictures -many of them from famous paintings-will brighten its sanny pages.
