A sad accident occurred on Saturday afternoon at Welsford, by which Mr. John E. Woods, a son of the Hon. Francis Woods, M. L. C., lost his life. Very few facts have reached town respecting the accident, but it was reported that Mr. Woods, in company with several men, was engaged putting their hay into the barn. The hay was being removed from the load by a patent pitching machine which, by some means, slipped, and in falling struck Mr. Woods. This occurred in the afternoon, and promised the Ameer he should have the pass, on Sunday the injured man died. BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

Since Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil has become celebrated, a number of unprincipled persons have been endeavoring to palm off Electron and Electric Oil for the genuine Dr. THOMAS' ECLECTRIC OIL. Beware of these similar named articles. If their originators had any faith in the healing properties originators had any faith in the healing properties of their own medicines they would, like honest men, give them a name of their own, and not try to sell the residence of A. Rowley, Marysville, July 22d, by the Rev. W. H. Beckwith, C. A. McCausland to Emma H. Beckwith, youngest daughter of the officiating them on the reputation of another; but as they know their preparations have no merit they resort to the most unprincipled means of selling them by getting a name as near as possible to Eclectric. We' therefore ask the public when purchasing to see that the name Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil is on the front of the wrapper, and the signature of NORTHROP & LYMAN, the proprietors for Canada, on the back.
