state, yet she was anxious that she might be enabled to again join in this work she so much loved. Her last words were, "Jesus, I love Thee, my precious Saviour;"

ooking around on her friends she said, "I am so glad that I am going home." She passed away in the triumph of faith. She leaves a widowed mother and only brother;

may the Lord comfort them in the thought that she has gone to join the shining ones. The funeral was largely attended, and, in the absence of the pastor, a very ap-propriate sermon was preached by Elder T. Vanwart.

At East Pubnico, on the 8th inst., of consumption, Mr. Walter Larkin, aged 58 years, leaving a widow and six children to mourn the loss of a kind husband and father. Mr. Larkin was universally esteemed. His end
