Hay, son, the Superintendent, S. J. Murphy, Odor Moran and Thomas Earle, the assistant Superintendent. The singing was creditable to those who took part in it. Miss F. Hay presided at the organ. How good and how pleasant it is for people to dwell together in unity.

POLITICAL NEWS.—Mr. Arthur Glazier and Mr. D. Morrow, were nominated last Friday for the vacancy in Sumner's representation. Voting takes place on Friday of this week. It is stated that Mr. Morrow will be the successful candidate, and Mr. Thomas Miller, of Nova Scotia will become a member of the Privy Council without portfolio. There is a good deal of guessing as to the probable successor of the late Senator Mulrhead.

OF MEMBERS.—Dr. Withrow, editor of the Medicist, is seriously ill of typhoid fever. The Albert Union, learns that Dr. D. D. Currie has been elected to act as general superintendent of the Union Mutual Life Insurance Company of the provinces of Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island, with the head office in Halifax, and has accepted the position and entered upon his duties, but will not leave the circuit for active work until next July.

JOURNALISTIC.—The Temperance in Nova Scotia has an organ—the Clarion, the first number of which was issued on the 2nd inst. Rev. A. W. Nicolson the editor. The Globe celebrated the opening year—and its own prosperity too—by an enlargement. The Globe is a new paper. The Visit of this city and the Messenger of Halifax have good bye to their readers last week. They have always been welcome exchanges, and we shall miss them.

BY A LADY.—A candidate for the mayoralty of Kingston, Ont., was the other day nominated by a lady voter. Under a recent law widows and unmarried ladies in Ontario, owning property, have the right to vote. Such a law is simply just. The Legislatures of the other Provinces should enact similar laws.

NORMAL SCHOOL.—Two hundred and ten persons applied for admission to the Normal School for the Term beginning this week. All but forty-four were admitted on Inspector's certificates. The others underwent examination.

P. O. ADDRESSES.—Rev. Wm. Downey's address is Moncton, N. B.
Rev. E. R. Gray's address is Downersville, Kara, K. Co.

WANTED.—Will H. C. Sharp please send us the P. O. address to which his paper goes!

SUNDRIES.
[BY PEN AND SCISSORS.]
Stanley, the explorer, has received the degree of Doctor of Philosophy from the University of Halle.

Massachusetts contains, according to the last estimate of the Bureau of Education, nearly 100,000 persons who cannot write.

The public of Vienna are said to be the finest in the world. They accommodate 1,500 persons and are open from 11 to 10 o'clock.

An emigration is taking place of young Quakers from Denmark to avoid the tax training which is compulsory in that country.

The Birmingham magistrates have resolved to persecute the promoters of lotteries at religious banquets, and all who sell tickets for them.

The substitution of glass flooring for boards continues to increase in Paris, this year, especially the case in those business structures in which the class are used as offices.

All printers in St. Petersburg are searched nightly by the police on leaving their offices, in order to prevent the secret printing of seditious literature.

A New Jersey consular makes bed spreads and pillow-cases of paper. A very elaborate and stamped with elaborate designs, is given for seventy-five cents, and they will last a long time.

Numbers of sheep and pigs are being killed in sections of Dakota, by wolves, packs of which are prowling about the vicinity of Bismarck, particularly in the mountains.

Kate Field says: "Mormon wives are horrible cooks." It is not strange. It is a maxim as old as the hills, "Too many cooks spoil the broth."

The Florida orange crop this season is reported to be much larger than the pecking-bird manufacturers anticipated that the pickers now find it difficult to buy boxes for fruit.

It is computed that there are on our globe 67 deaths a minute, 97,790 a day, and 35,639,836 a year, and that the births are 70 a minute, 100,000 a day, and 36,792,000 a year.

The person who claims to be Sir Roger Tibbourn was made a tour to America, in company with other curiosities, of the dime museum order.

Missouri has a veteran 18 years older than Sir Moses Montefiore, who was born in North Carolina in 1796; he has been married twice, and has 160 direct descendants.

In a Boston paper is the statement that "the Legislature of Vermont has forbidden the use of tobacco by the teachers and pupils in the public schools."

A young man joined the Salvation Army in Montreal, and, feeling compunctions of conscience about some petty thefts, made a confession to the authorities and was sentenced to ten days' imprisonment.

A single number of the Boston Journal last week contained notice of the golden wedding of a couple in New England, the death of six persons over 80, and the remarkably vigorous acts of five persons over 50 years of age.

A boy in one of the St. Louis German schools, while engaged in defining words, a few days since, made a mistake that was not a mistake. He said: "A demagogue is a vessel that holds beer, wine, gin, whiskey, or any other kind of intoxicating liquor."

A brother-in-law of Jeff. Davis, Major William F. Howell, died in the county hospital at St. Francis, last Wednesday, homeless and friendless. He was a drunkard. He was a brother of Mrs. Davis.

The wrongs of the shirtmakers of New York who can barely keep body and soul together on the 25 or 26 cents a dozen which they are paid by the manufacturers, are being shown up by the New York Herald and a movement is on foot among them which shall better their condition.

Mr. Hine, the apostle of Anglo-Israel, says that Queen Victoria is a believer in her descent from King David, the Royal Palmist, and has declared that when the time comes the transfer of her Parliament to Palestine, she will be only too happy to accompany it.

Mr. Gladstone is in poor health.

Earthquake shocks were felt in the vicinity of Washington and in New Hampshire on Saturday.

The friends of Rev. O. M. Babar will be glad to hear from him in another column. Many prayers are offered in his behalf.

The Princess Beatrice, youngest daughter of the Queen, is to be married to Prince Henry of Battenberg, brother of the husband of the deceased Princess Alice.

The Customs receipts for the port of St. John for the year 1884 were $308,185.53 as against $284,661.82 for 1883.

A new post office was opened on the 1st at College Bridge, Westmount, Canada, in charge of Dr. F. Richard.

The New Brunswick Granite Works at Carleton have closed down, throwing a large number of men out of employment.

Seventy-two marriage licenses have been issued in St. Stephen during the year. Fifty-five deaths took place in the same period.

A young woman who fell in the roller rink recently had her leg badly injured that her physician fears she will be invalid for life.

A destructive fire occurred at Point Du Chene on Tuesday night. The hotels of Mr. Clark and John McDonald and Mrs. McNeill's residence were burned. The loss is in the vicinity of $5,000; insurance $2,000.

While trimming the sails a few days since, Wm. Sule of the packet Piquet, playing between Esport and Grand Haven, lost from his back pocket a wallet containing $105. The money was carried away by the tide and never recovered.

There are at present 55 persons confined in the common jail. Of this number ten are women; one is a debtor. More than twelve of the prisoners are awaiting examination and trial.

Mr. Henry Miller, grocer, of Fredericton, lost a valuable mare New Year. It was attached to his delivery, the train frightened it and it started for home, tripping on the wheels and running into a tree, and its neck was broken.

A correspondent of the Sun writes: "On Christmas day, fifty years ago, a sailing party left Fredericton by the St. John, and proceeded to St. John by sea. Some weeks later the St. John never returned from St. John to Fredericton in a sail boat."

Notice of application is given by Mr. John E. Stewart for an act of incorporation of a company to build a railroad from a point on the New Brunswick Railway up the Tubbie River.

Four days ago an eight-year-old son of Mr. James T. Boyle, of Portland, was accidentally struck on the head with a stone by a companion. His skull was fractured, and after lingering in great agony, death ended the little fellow's suffering.

Physicians report that diphtheria, croup, inflammation, scarlatina, diphtheritic croup and a severe type of influenza are very prevalent in the city at present, owing to changes of temperature during the past few weeks.

The trade of Moncton, according to the customs returns, shows an increase over 1883, the exports last year being the largest in the history of the port. The customs duties collected at Moncton, says the Times, are now in excess of those collected at any time in the Maritime Provinces since 1881.

Recent Revelations in Portland indicate that certain officials of that city have been participating in the profits arising from sewerage contracts. On one contract alone it is alleged that one party pocketed $800. The facts will probably be ventilated at the next meeting of the Portland city council.—Globe.

The house of Mr. George McNair, of Erb Settlement, Sussex, caught fire about noon on Friday last. The fire was extinguished, but the strong wind had meanwhile carried the burning timbers to a barn near by, which was burned to the ground. The barn contained five or six tons of hay, two horse-hay, and a quantity of straw, but no live stock. The loss is estimated at $200, and is covered by insurance in the Glasgow and London.—Td.

Federicton shows duties collected in December, 1884; $4,689.35; for January, 1885, $5,000.00; and for the quarter ending with the close of the year 1884, a gain of $7,656.11 over the corresponding quarter of the previous year.

His Honor the Lieutenant Governor has been pleased to make the following appointments:—
