Smielligemeer. AN EVANGELICAL FAMILY NEWSPAPER FOR NEW BRUNSWICK AND NOVA SCOTIA.

REV. J. McLEOD,

85.

NT.

IIP CO'Y

EEK.

3rd, and until ine; will make

ORNINGS

ston, connect-oughton," for s at 8 o'elock. and St. John office, and H ad the United ry only, up to

M, Agent, oint Wharf.

RIES

RT,

well-selected hat he can s

)N,

RY.

W

trade.

WAY.

DERICTON

T. 1385.

34, the Trains lay excepted)

7.30 A.M.

11.20 A.M.

4.35 P.M.

7.30 P.M.

a Pullman Car

ebec express, Pullman Car

7.00 A.M.

8.35 A.M.

1.30 P.M.

7.20 Р. м.

lard Time

GER, erintendent.

CO.,

ers.

EES.

sturers

OKS

DTOANY

PRINTING

DAG DASA

WITH

mery

SINESS.

und.

nents

of price.

STREET,

LT.

tter Salt.

rket Wharf.

RAISINS.

now landing

SONS, sket Wharf.

t. John, N. B

-6,000 Sacks

L KINDS OF

HN

ity.

"THAT COD IN ALL THINGS MAY BE CLORIFIED THROUGH JESUS CHRIST."-Peter.

SAINT JOHN, N. B., FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 1885.

EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR

WHOLE No. 1617.

VOL. XXXII.-No. 6.

The Intelligencer. AY SCHOOL LESSON VIIFeb. 15. Sestions see Star Quarterlies and Lesson Papers.) PAUL'S DEFENSE. SCRIPTUBE LESSONActs 22: 1-21. DAILY READINGS. estions see Star Quarterlies and Lesson Papers.) PAUL'S DEFENSE. SCRIPTURE LESSON Acts 22:1-21. DAILY READINGS.
PAUL'S DEFENSE. Scripture Lesson Acts 22 : 1-21. DAILY READINGS.
DAILY READINGS.
aul's defense. Acts 22 : 1-21. eter's defense. Acts 4 : 712.
aul's conversion. Acts 9: $1-22$. Daniel's vision. Dan. 10: $1-12$. The Gospel for the world. Isa. 60: $1-22$. othing but Christ. 1 Cor. 2: $1-16$.
TEXTAnd I said, what shall I do, Lord ?-
OPICS – Paul's Introduction. His Experience. His Mission.
Тіме, а. д. 58.
TOPICAL TREATMENT.
eting Link.—We have here a synopsis of beech to the mob in Jerusalem. It is a imen of his brilliant, incisive and logical brought home a little paper, and it was pleasant on God. A first-class minister may occupy the respect what we do not condemn, we condone-

Religions

Mr. Franklin belonged to a select club, was a may render its music ; its Bibles may be bound neglect their duty help the enemy. member of it when they were married ; but in velvet, and its hymnals edged with gold, and lately he was forming a babit of dropping into the club-room of a Sunday afternoon. Not but orighten into spiritual beauty no stained charwhat he was one of the best of husbands and acters, and, like motionless trip-hammers, beat fathers, but just to get the last bit of local news, he would stroll out after dinner for a The impression came strongly upon me that perfectly quiet chit-chat with his friends of the the most insistent and persistant prayer offered lieve, rather, that it is a condition replete with

Mrs. Franklin's Christian father would have it might ever remain so related to God as to rethought it absolute desceration of the Sabbath semble a shop after the hour of one has struck, minds to be sure that they are making every-to go to such a resort, and she deplored seeing and in which every belt and wheel and hammer body in the house uncomfortable, putting friend the habit fastening itself on her husband. is in vigorous motion.

One Sunday the minister preached a strong, impressive sermon on the duty of Christian wo-in the family the family the strong at a halt, answering in monosyllables, when they are expected to keep the ball a rolling ? Is men in the family. Among other things he controlled a private belt, which he could slip on insisted it was the duty of every Christian wife or off, and thus determine whether or not his do, Lord ?- and mother, so far as it lay in her power, to see particular lathe or wheel or hammer should feel reasonable expectations, which only the sulky and mother, so far as it lay in her power, to see that the home was made attractive and furn-ished with plenty of good reading. The Bible, of course, came first; then he dwelt with much force on the influence which was affected by adjoining forge. By pressing his foot upon a asked of a bady in this caniel mood ; one cannot fresh book into your home. It will be worth to that powerful agent for good, the religious convenient lever he could crowd one end of his be requested to run on arrands to lend one's you all a hundred times what it costs. It will hat powerful agent for good, the religious convenient lever he could crowd one end of his long hammer up against a cogged wheel, when, Mrs. Franklin took herself to task in earnest as if by magic, up and down, like a maddened times and down, like a maddened times are taken with one under these circumt. that afternoon as she had never done before; fury, would fly the other end, beating into bolts ties can be taken with one under these circumand, as if to deepen the impression made by the synopsis of morning's discourse, Agnes, her little daughter, iron rods which were placed beneath its pondersynopsis of morning's discourse, Agues, her fittle daughter, in rods which were placed beneath its ponder-ous blows. When the swarthy workmam re-loaned her by a little friend to read "a splendid between the hammer hung motionless over the anvil.

y tried by innocence probably interest for the intelligent reader. w tried by innocence interest for the intelligent reader. w tried by innocence interest for the intelligent reader. w tried by interest for the intelligent reader. w tried the profit in sulkiness of the profit unlooked for change in the condition of things. | interest for the intelligent reader. nore this proffered help. Then came the start- body is so aled to how proceed a normal state of mind : every-bled. The waves were dashing furiously upon I do not believe that Satan understands WEST OF ENGLAND TROUSERINGS. The purpose of the Jews to hustle Paul out of When Agnes came down Mrs. Franklin said, ling question, is the wheel, the lathe, the hamthe sacred precincts and kill him at once was "Wait a moment, dear; just till I finish this, mer, for which I stand responsible in this mam-of things restored that everybody becomes live-of which the terrified lads were crouching. No tects us, or else he would not waste his efforts A VERY FINE SELECTION OF CANADIAN suddenly thwarted, and he stood before them it's so good." Aggie waited and waited, while moth ecclesiastical workshop of God, busy or ly and cheerful, and the victim himself experiand above them, in a position where they her mother's hungry eyes raced over the attrac- idle? Is my belt taut or dangling ? WM. JENNINGS, were compelled to look up to him, and dare tive pages, till she was surprised to hear a not lift a finger to harm him. He was the grieved little voice say: coolest, the most thoroughly self-possessed "Why, mamma, I shan't get a chance to read iron mill. It is this : man on the sacred premises. He surprised the story at all !" FREDERICTON, N. B. Lysias, the Roman captain, by addressing him "Well, you dear child," said mamma, "you hammer or wheel from the central engine can hood whenever things displease him, renders spray and allowed themselves to be washed by the Lord Jesus Christ between itself and Him. in Greek, and soon received permission to speak shall have it right away; only just let me see do no effective work, so Christians are powerless everyone anxious to keep him in good temper, the waves into the cave far enough to seize the -Mrs. H. W. Smith. GENTS Our new war book, DEEDS OF DARING, by Blue and Gray, is in Greek, and soon received permission to speak to the crown. His native dignity and courtesy, where this beautiful paper is published, and so long as their belt of faith hangs limp. outselling all other books. Illustrated circular and terms free. FORSHEE & McMACKIN, nov 2 circinnati, Ohio. nov 2 circinnati, ness, began to address them in the familiar, and just starving for it without knowing it. I be a raw apprentice, and know no better than the start of the mercy of the sulker, be a raw apprentice, and know no better than may be completely at the mercy of the sulker, courageous men. No wonder that the people him saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make their ears like the strains of distant music, and Mrs. Franklin's dressmaker was surprised a botch of it all the same. Or he may, with the thing and everything tender the first overtures their duty. When will Cheiting and everything tender the first overtures their duty. immediately the fickle crowd, obedient to the when she was informed that her cashmere dress best of intentions, undertake to turn his emorymagic power of the wonderful orator, subsided was to be only cut and basted, for this once she wheel with a crank, but will not succeed in to return to amiability and rood society with the same self-abnegation, the same heroic courskill and tact he addressed them as brethren But during the week Mrs. Franklin had sub-single spark or to take on anything which even out loss of dignity. Indeed, this "coming to," around them? They are perishing everywhere man said, but there was an 'if' in what Jesus parentage and education, which had been re- nile magazine for Aggie and Willie. ceived in that very city under one of their most And the funniest and best part of all was. eminent teachers, still living among them, and Mrs. Franklin never so much as peeped inside showed them how fully he was able to under- that religious journal the next Sunday aftercausing it to strike a blow which would even this bleak and giddy height into the pleasant azine. stand and sympathise with them in their noon It have dis in the stand and sympathise with them in their Mr. Franklin, holding an unighted cigar in even to have that when evening came, and the pulpit, and an intelligent audience its pews. An what we do not oppose, we approve-what we artistic organist, assisted by a high-priced choir, do not vote against, we vote for. The men who

THE PLEASURES OF SULKINESS. At first thought, the astute mind would, doubtless, deny that sulkiness could he productive of the faintest gleam of pleasure, and beby every religious organization should be, that melancholy, if not with anguish. But only he who feels it knows. Is it not a pleasure to some there not a malignant kind of satisfaction to be derived from disappointing people of their most

OVER A COFFIN LID.

"She-was-a-good-wife-to-me.

" Come from your long, long roving,

Come to me tender and loving woman do but cry ?---and trust ?

On life's sea so bleak and rough,

And I shall be blessed enough.

-the silent, unnoticed, yet deadly household placed it on the plate, saying, "I don't believe enemy-the bad book, the evil paper, the poi-there is enough to go around." Of course she sonous picture. No father or mother can mea- annoyed and vexed her hostess more than if she sure the influence of a bad book, a poisonons had taken the entire plateful; and yet the act paper, or an unworthy picture. "Peck's Bad Boy," which simply toys with crime, will be the damnation of many a youth. Stories which make herces of criminals, and characters of the make heroes of criminals, and characters of the a senator. A plain man, a constituent of the vicious, pretending to amuse the reader with the sports of sin, leave a poison in the mind which the house to take a cup of coffee. The cups works the ways of death. A foul picture leaves were of very delicate French china, and very an image and taint on the mind of the child fragile. The plain man, unaccustomed to such which is never effaced. The stories of crime, wares, broke a cup. It was an annoying inciand murder, and infidelity to the marriage rela-tion, and suicide, which are spread out and de-But the lady at once crushed a cup in her slight and toe under constraint, keeping conversation tailed under great head-letter displays in the fingers, saying, as she did so, "It is wonderful journals which go into our home, are a blast of how easily this ware breaks." The plain man hell which once blown over the mind of the was heard to say afterwards, "Do you suppose child, forever leave the track of death. that there is anything that I would not do for

If this household foe of bad literature is ence that woman or for her husband ?"-National admitted into the home it is impossible to guard Baptist.

WE ARE SAFE.

When I was in England a lady told me a sweet story illustrative of what it is to have Christ between us and anything else.

She said she was wakened up by a very strange pecking, or something of the kind, and when she got up she saw a bttterfly flying back ward and forward inside the window-pane in great Corner Queen St. and Wilmot's Alley, april 25-1v.

Thos. W. Smith's

OVERCOATS, -BOYS'-

ULSTERS & REEFERS. Tremendously Cheap, Call and See.

CLOTHING FOR BOTH MEN AND matters. BOYS. VERY CHEAP.

MENS' OVERSHIRTS.

TRUNKS AND VALISES.

The Cheapest in the Market.

FUR AND CLOTH CAPS, Will be sold Regardless of Cost. LADIES' SACQUE CLOTHS. At a Great Sacrifice.

OVERCOATING IN EVERY STYLE. Exceedingly Cheap.

BOOTS, SHOES, RUBBERS

AND OVERSHOES At Any Price.

The above goods, with a variety too numerous to men-tion, must be sold to make room for Spring Importations. Be sure to call and examine stock. The the Tailoring and Custom Department, we of the system and doctrines of Christianity. Cannot be outdone in Style, Neatness and Fitting, by There is something about the simple unadorned any others in the trade. Our Stock of Cloths is large, of the Latest and Best

Makes, and will be made up to order and satisfac THOS. W. SMITH,

FISHER'S BUILDING, QUEEN STREET, FREDERICTON

S. J. JENKINS BARRISTER-AT-LAW

Solicitor, Notary, &c.

could bear. At once there was another sudden revulsion of feeling, an explosion of the sup pressed fury which had filled them but a few minutes before this time. Paul was out of their Office, Palmer's Chambers, Princess St., they yours to give-to see the tears of joy your swer flashes back, we know that through all its despised, yet Christ is not ashamed of us, beminutes before this time. Paul was out of their ever so blind to her own and her family's best against cruelty perpetuated in the goal. All ST. JOHN, N. B. words would have once caused, bejeweling the leagues, through storm and calm, the cable is cause he loves us.-Rev. Newman Hall. reach and under protection ; they could lay no interests as to neglect placing before them a right. Righteous indignation against all cruelty, violent hands on him, or it might have gone hard with him, even then. They could only her own soul she gleans from their fruitful, in-ther own soul she gleans from their fruitful, in-Net her the tother closed windows of her soul. It is too late. John Richards & Son. continuons. It is so with our relationship to We should accustom ourselves to self-denial We have careful thoughts for the stranger, God. give vent to their wrath in wild cries and fran-tic demonstrations. They should, "Away it is not fit that he should be charted at Work. He be should be sho General Insurance and Ticket Agents, And smiles for the sometime guestand patient waiting ; for the blessings that God " I know no life divine, reserves for his people are fruit which will be wholesome when it has had time to ripen, but But oft for our own QUEEN STREET, FREDERICTON, N. B. O Lord of Life, from thee." The bitter tone, with such a fellow, it is not fit that he should But when we teel the divine life stir within will certainly be noxious if greedily and permamuch as the pang of the disgrace. The scars Though we love our own the best. live," and tore off their clothing and threw dust ourselves, we know that we are linked indeed turely gathered. Insurance: on his back are as nothing to the wounds in his THE BELT OF POWER. -Detroit Free Press. in the air, in their half insane efforts to express Merchandize and all Description of Insurable Proconscience. And what brought him into the by some invisible bond to the Lord and Giver their rage and spleen. The captain knew his BY REV. J. S. BRECKINRIDGE. perty at Lowest Rates. place of disgrace? Strong Drink. It was Let him who would envy John the pleasing of life. We need not concern ourselves about business and took good care of his prisoner ; the THE HOUSEHOLD ENEMY. I once visited a machine-shop in Connecticut. through the saloon and the house of prostitution -ALSOtask of being a support to the mother of Jesus, the means by which God answers the aspiracrowd dispersed to find other excitements, while It contained several swiftly-turning vices, in that he went down to the prisoner's cell. And A number of months ago Mr. Bright, in an tions of our heart toward him ; the probability reflect on a previous expression of our Lord's : COUNTEY DWELLINGS, BARNS, CHURCHES SCHOOL-HOUSES, AND DETACHED CITY DWELLINGS the leaders were busy in contriving other plots against the life of the foremost man of that against the life of the foremost man of that against the life of the foremost man of that against the life of the foremost man of that against the life of the foremost man of that against the life of the foremost man of that against the life of the foremost man of that against the life of the foremost man of that against the life of the foremost man of that against the life of the foremost man of that against the life of the foremost man of that against the life of the foremost man of that against the life of the foremost man of that against the life of the foremost man of that against the life of the foremost man of that against the life of the foremost man of that against the life of the foremost man of that against the life of the foremost man of that against the life of the foremost man of that against the life of the foremost man of that against the life of the foremost man of that against the life of the foremost man of that against the life of the foremost man of that against the life of the foremost man of that against the life of the foremost man of that against the life of the foremost man of that against the life of the foremost man of that against the life of the foremost man of that against the life of the foremost man of that against the life of the foremost man of that against the life of the foremost man of that against the life of the foremost man of that against the life of the foremost man of that against the life of the foremost man of that against the life of the foremost man of that against the life of the foremost man of that against the life of the foremost man of that against the life of the foremost man of that against the life of the foremost man of that against the life of the foremost man of that against the life of the foremost man of that against the life of the foremost man of that against the life of the foremost man of that against the life of the foremost man of that against the life o some were being shaved into cylinders, straight, Put it away as an inhuman instrumemet of tor- Dover, said that it was absurd to suppose that sea monster can know anything of the messages Taken at Lowest Rates for THREE YEARS. sister and mother. -- Krummacher. tapering, shouldered, and grooved; upon the ture, and a disgrace to our civilization. But England could not guard and defend the little which flash back and forth along the mysterious Good resolutions are often like a loosely-tied THOUGHTS AND APPLICATIONS. None but First Class Reliable Offices Represented. I. Christian experience is an unanswerable surface of others screw-threads were being cut. you will license and protect the rum-shop where hole which has been let down into their haunts. cord—on the first strain of temptation they slip. My attention was caught also by the flaming appearance of one wing of the shop. Going thither I saw forge-fires blazing and trip-ham-mers pounding. In a distant room, which I reached last, bits of steel were being beauti-full preliched on which I and the protect the rum-shop where appearance of one wing of the shop. Going morse, whose pangs are infinitely more excruci-tating than those of scorging. You will not al-low one man to be whipped. That is right. Save men from unnecessary suffering. But you will allow hundred of rouge on the first strain of temptation they slip. that it the tunnel were constructed it might in the was to form the entrance to the save men from unnecessary suffering. But you Tickets: argument in favor of Christianity. II. He is sure to succeed who finds and fol-As we keep the only Railway Ticket Office in the City, parties going West will find it to their advantage to give us a call before purchasing elsewhere. lows God's plan for his life. III. God selects men for his work in his Tickets to all Points in the United States own way. fully polished on whirling emery wheels. The everlasting hills will crumble to dust, will allow hundreds of young men to be ruined, sage from England to France, but it also is self is certain, -Sunday-School Times. and Canada. TOPICS FOR FURTHER STUDY. While looking, and asking questions, I noticed in estate, body, and soul by licensed bar-rooms. | dreaded as an open foe to England in time of but the influence of a good man will never die. The evidences of Paul's conversion. The earth will grow old and perish, but virtue that an almost impreceptible slack was begin- You will allow men to be driven to suicide by war. Organs: II. Paul's preparation for his work. ning to creep in upon the movement of both | the pains of drinking- to commit assault and It becomes every family, every father and TACT IN SOCIAL INTERCOURSE. in the heart will be ever green and flourish Sole Agent for Wilcox & White's celebrated Organs, sknowledged to be the cheapest in the market. Warbelts and wheels ; the run of the former became | murder-to inflict untold agony on wives and mother, to watch closely if there is not a like Some people seem always to be doing that throughout eternity. The moon and the stars anted for Six Years. less swift, and the fire-rings of the latter less children—to live in poverty—to fill our jails foe to their own dear home. There are foes which which, though suggested by the best feeling, vivid. The brilliant sparks gradually lost their and penitentaries—to disgrace our own names lurk without. There are such as the terrible gives pain, while others do that with equal ease will grow dim, and the sun roll from the hea-HER RELIGIOUS PAPER. vens, the true religion and undefiled will grow BY MRS. HARRIET A. CHEEVER. Wrapping Paper: luminosity; the wheels slowed down, and at and our civilization, and enter no protest. Is last stood motionless. Here are cases illustrat-that right? The pauge of drunkenness are harder acd, some in childhood, and alas, so many from ing each. Fortunately the latter quality of brighter and brighter, and not cease to exist Mrs. Franklin often wished in a vague sort last stood motionless. while God himself shall live .-- Anon. New Brunswick Paper Company's well-known make of Wrapping Toper always on hand ; in all sizes at mill "What does this mean ?" I exclaimed. of way that she could take a religious newsto bear than the pains of scourging. And I for our knee and fond bosoms. There are foes mind is to a considerable degree capable of cul-They always had two each week at her paper. They always had two each week at her father's house, and she was a church-member. But there were so many expenses attending housekeeping and keeping the wardrobes in or-ter that the tax a preacher of that righteousness which housekeeping and keeping the wardrobes in or-ter that the tax a preacher of that righteousness which housekeeping and keeping the wardrobes in or-ter that the tax a preacher of that righteousness which housekeeping and keeping the wardrobes in or-ter that the pains of source and rold bosons. There are the form of a backslidden the beer mug, the preach and pray, for I think housekeeping and keeping the wardrobes in or-ter that the pains of source are to be at that the pains of source are to be at that the pains of source are to be at that the pains of source are to be at that the pains of source are to be at that the pains of source are to be at that the pains of source are to be at that the pains of source are to be at that the pains of source are to be at that the pains of source are to be at that the pains of source are to be at that the pains of source are to be at that the pains of source are to be at that the pains of source are to be at that the pains of source are to be at that the pains of source are to be at the the pains of source are to be at that the pains of source are to be at the the at the source are the source are the source are to be at the the best of the tax a preacher of that right out at the pains of source are to be at the source are the form at the pains of source are the source are the source are the form at the pains of source are the source are the form at the pains of source are the form at the pa It is a singular fact that in many cases the Paper Bags: Nelson's Paper Bags-all Sizes. Liberal Discount to the Trede. Country Orders promptly attended to. der, that she kept on longing in that half-defined way for "something good to read" when Sun-was noon. I thought to myself that, like a the side of that sin that is a reproach to any Ward and Soft Coal Always on Hand. JOHN RICHARDS & SON, day came. The children went to Sunday-school, and machine-shop after the twelve o'clock whistle people. Shall we vote for righteousness or sin numerous as are their victims, they are not so her, a plate of cake was passed around. Mar-and taithful to the church, does not order his much to be dreaded as the foe within the home garet took a piece, and then a instant above re-paper stopped. —Church Advocate. MARUFACTURERS' AGENTS, Fredericton, N. B.

natred of this new sect that had sprung up and was teaching some new and to them ex-ceedingly offensive doctrines. He had been a ceedingly offensive doctrines. He had been a way out to the club-room; lying on the table, thing. persecutor of the "Way" himself not only there just taken from its wrapper, was the paper.

but even as far away as the distant city of "Hulloa, wife, what you got here?" he said, Damascus. The high priest would confirm his pleasantly; and holding the cigar between his statements if they chose to ask him. He had teeth, he casually opened the smooth sheet and made a successful opening, had quieted the tu- began reading; he read on and on without lookmult, and had, for the time, quelled their oppo- ing up to see his wife's amused face, and pretty LINDERS, DRAWERS, AND READY-MADE sition; he could now go on to more important soon, with his eyes still fixed on the paper, he slowly backed into a chair. After a while he II. His Experience. Paul sometimes based slipped the cigar into his vest pocket, and his his arguments in favor of Christianity upon the head onto the back of the chair. At the end of an hour he looked up at his sacred Scriptures, and spent his strength in showing how the prophecies of a Messiah had wife, who was contentedly reading a chapter of been fulfilled in Jesus of Nazareth; he often the Bible. "Where did you get this paper, wife?" he made use of the great facts in the life of Christ, especially his death and resurrection, to estab- asked. "I've subscribed for it," she said ; then she lish his claim to the Messiahship ; on this occasion he used the argument from personal ex- added, with quick, womanly tact, "and every Sunday afternoon you'll find it on the library perience. Men may differ in regard to their table awaiting your perusal ; and, Horace, dear," interpretations of Scripture, but when one appeals to his own experience, and simply tells she went on, affectionately, "I do wish you would get into the habit of reading at home what he has seen and heard and felt, no success-

Sundays, instead of going to the club-room. ful answer can be given to that. It is a province into which none can enter to contradict. I've done wrong not to have a paper of that kind before, but now it will come regularly." He knows and they do not know. Many a " I don't know but what you wanted this," man has been a mighty defender of the true said Mr. Franklin, with a sudden recollection faith by reason of his broad and deep Christian experience and his power to portray it in of possibly neglected manners. "Oh, no !" his wife replied. "I shall have all the evening to read."

have constructed a logical argument in defense "Well," he rejoined, "I don't know when I've felt so interested in a paper before. Not any kind of legal prohibition, but we do not ex-There is something about the simple unadorned but what I read papers enough, in all conscience, dence and often secures their sympathy and co-operation. Multitudes have been led to become lisciples of Christ themselves by the recitals of When Aggie came in, she begged for a story, what others have found to be true in his service, and we do well, in our work for the Master's cause, to make a large use of Christian experitime.

ence as a means of winning men to the service

Slip on the belt, my brother, and then your work will tell.-Adv.

THE DUTY OF CHRISTIAN CITIZENS. good wife, God bless her ! "

The words were spoken in trembling accenta If Christian citizens were faithful to their over a coffin lid. The woman asleep there had trust, corrupt practices would not be so common borne the heat and burden of life's long day, in public. We may as well awaken to this fact, and no one had ever heard her murmur; her that if honest men will not look after the public hand was quick to reach out in a helping grasp treasury, thieves will steal the funds. If we to those who fell by the wayside, and her feet do not maintain our moral character we will were swift on errands of mercy ; the heart of her loose ooth our capital and our credit. Dishon- husband had trusted in her; he had left her to we, as Christian citizens, are brought face to affection selfishly departed, when pleasure palface with prohibition in its bearings on the tem- led, he went home and found her waiting for hearers. Bishop Janes-one of the most zealous perance question. Partially it has been en- him.

forced throughout the North-west Territory in the past with incalculable advantage to the Indian, to the pioneer settlers, to the enterprising builders of the Canadian Pacific Railway, and to all the interests of public morality. It has prevented rowdyism and crime in this country. her lips or in her heart. Children had been I am free to say that the suppression of the liquor traffic in Winnipeg would be an incalculable blessing to us spiritually, morally and financially. We do not expect to make men teetotallers by pect to remove the shield of legal public protecbut this one is different from my dailies, and tion from a public nuisance. We interfere its tone is somehow-well, it's decidedly a with no man's liberty when we say that the change, and in some respects a refreshing public traffic in strong drink shall be suppressed.

to mold the law so that he cannot buy his liquor and with Aggie on one knee and Willie on the at a licensed grogshop. We do not expect to partnership after all! other, Mr. Franklin read to them until tea- make all men sober by prohibition. Legisla-"She-was-a-good-wife-to-me."

tion against dishonesty will never make all men Oh, man ! man ! Why not have told her so, Before many weeks, Mrs. Franklin remained honest. But we do not propose on that ground when her ears were not dulled by death ? Why away from an expensive concert she had thought to license schools of theft. No, we will not wait to say these words over a coffin wherein III. His Mission. The people listened at- of attending, and subscribed for another religi- suppress drinking by prohibition, but be expect lies a wasted, weary, gray-haired woman, whose tentively to Paul, until he came to the point ous paper; for to her delight, Mr. Franklin to lessen it by refusing to license schools of through which our messages flash across the ever would be defended by it, let him patiently through which our messages flash across the ever would be defended by it, let him patiently through which our messages flash across the ever would be defended by it, let him patiently through which our messages flash across the ever would be defended by it, let him patiently through which our messages flash across the ever would be defended by it, let him patiently through which our messages flash across the ever would be defended by it, let him patiently through which our messages flash across the lever would be defended by it, let him patiently through which our messages flash across the lever would be defended by it, let him patiently through which our messages flash across the lever would be defended by it, let him patiently through which our messages flash across the lever would be defended by it, let him patiently for through which our messages flash across the lever would be defended by it, let him patiently through which our messages flash across the lever would be defended by it, let him patiently for the lever would be defended by it, let him patiently for the lever would be defended by it. tentively to Paul, until he came to the point where the Lord said to him, "Depart: for I will send thee far hence unto the Gentiles." That was more than their Jewish prejudices and a fabit of taking that great, ample sheet of twenty-four pages, and enjoying it every Sunday afternoon, declaring himself he had lost if run rules in this city, it is because Christian ences a certain exaltation, which proves that that in a few minutes the boys' cries would be He must be like the sparrow-he does not ing upon my observations in that Connecticut over, the fact that he is apt to retire into this seafaring men-George Andrews and Thos. they do not see it, and so they are frightened, and impregnable fortress at the shortest notice, and Penny-were lowered over the precipitous rocks flutter backward and forward in terror ; but all arouse atmospheric disturbances in his neighbor- above the cave's mouth through the seething the while Satan cannot touch the soul that has makes his world stand in awe of a being who boys, when they were hauled up. This was recan so isolate himself and yet be happy. To peated until amid ringing cheers, the last boy thoroughly realize the pleasures of sulkiness, was drawn through the waves to the road. A awakened to anxiety about her soul at a meetthe household should be small, composed, per- collection was made among the crowd, and thirty ing where this story of a leper was told : "One haps, of about two members, so that the other shillings immediately presented to the two day a poor leper came to Jesus and worshipped cutting screw-threads with the other, but he makes relief he all the more ready to consolation and pressed around these two brave seafaring men me clean. And Jesus put forth his hand and causing the bit of steel he polishes to emit a out loss of dignity. Indeed this "coming to" age, in rescuing the endangered souls of men all "I noticed that there was an 'if' in what the as one might say, is more painful than the re- -a stretchedout hand may help, may save said; and so I went home and took out the 'if' In the foundry department one might lift vival from a swoon, and becomes difficult of ac-them. And then how melodious will be the by granny's fireside, and I knelt down and all his might on a ponderous trip-hammer without raising it three inches from the anvil, or this block and siddy height into the placent into the placent

> We cannot expect revivals without earnest- fto, martin and in then, and then only, that we transfer the convictions burning in our own souls to the souls esty is the road to ruin. Vice is the parent of long hours of solitude, while he amused himself Dr. Dwight considered himself Dr. Dwight considered himself Long hours of solitude will stand temptaesty is the road to ruin. Vice is the parent of long hours of solitude, while he amused himself poverty, and to condone public sin is to reap a in scenes in which she had no part. When himself, and remember nothing but the purpose tion, and not snap as under under the sudden pressures of life.--New York Evangelist. for which he was sent-the salvation of his

of men in a true sense-said of the late Dr. John M'Clintock, " Earnest in his general life, he was especially so in reference to its supreme God and his righteousness." Bishop Simpson, dead letter.

whose eminent pulpit power was universally That had been her love-song-always on acknowledged, was a man of extraordinary earnestness in fulfilling his high vocation. And born to them. She had reared them almost what a multitude of godly women-some known is offensive. alone-they were gone! Her hand had led to the Christian world, but many more unthem to the uttermost edge of the morning that known-has exhibited this noble quality. In courtesy reaps friendship; and he who plants circumscribed fields often, in out-of-the way kindness gathers love .- Basil. sent him out strong and whole-hearted while places, in mission work both at home and she stayed at home and-cried. What can a abroad, in rescuing the inebriate from rain, in charities that alleviate human suffering, an in-Well, she is at rest now. But she could not numerable company has wrought with sublime die until he had promised to "bear up," not to ardor of soul. This is that which dignifies both fret, but to remember how happy they had been. manhood and womanhood in our own time. A man may drink if he chooses, but we ought They? Yes, it is even so. For she was blest in Never more than now has the Scripture injunc- battle of a seemingly commonplace life. giving, and he in receiving. It was an equal tion been fulfilled, "Whatsoever thy hand

UNBROKEN COMMUNICATION.

My beloved little reader, have you thus come to Jesus ? And if not yet, will you come now ? ness. According to a law of our being, the sin is a far worse disease than leprosy. Nothbest results can only be reached when there is ing can take it away but the blood of Jesus. whole heartedness in all we say or do. It is Come to him this very minute .- Seeds of Truth.

of others. It was this that made Brainard, is the foundation of thoroughness, which is EVERY-DAY RELIGION .- Every-day religion toiling in the most unpromising field, so suc- another word for truthfulness or honesty. cessful. Said he, "I cared not where or how I Workmen that slight their work, whether they lived, or what hardships I went through, so that make shirts for a living, or sermons, build I could but gain souls for Christ. While I was houses or ships, raise flocks or raise families, asleep I dreamed of these things, and when I will be some day or other found out. We want awoke the first thing I thought of was this great clothes that will not rip, vessels that will not work. All my desire was for their conversion, leak, and bridges that will not break down.

RANDOM READINGS.

Unless there be in our hearts a secret convicpursuits-the proclaiming of the kingdom of tion by the Spirit of God, the gospel itself is a

> Commandations of gifts and cleverness properly put are in good taste, but praise of beauty

Ged's love for his redeemed creatures is an unchanging love; so, also, his desire that his creatures should love hin is unchanging.

There are sweet surprises awaiting many a humble soul fighting against great odds in the

The only effectual cure for unbelief is to act. findeth to do, do it with thy might."-Ch. Every step towards Christ kills a doubt ; every thought, word and deed for him carries you away from discouragement. - T. L. Cuyler.

Whosoever would be sustained by the hand

S 16 9

fresh and forceable language, who could not narrative of religious experience that goes directly to the hearts of men, wins their confiof the Prince of peace.

0

