LITERARY NOTES.

THE HOMILETIC REVIEW for November well sustains the high character it has achieved. Dr. Behrends, of Brooklyn, contributes a very able paper to the Symposium, "Is the Pulpit Declining in Power?" Dr. Philip Schaff has an interesting article on "Recent Theological Literature in Germany." Rev. S. W. Dike writes intelligently on the Divorce Question, showing how it ought to be treated both by the Church and the State. Dr. Pentecost presents his second ringing paper on the Evangelization of our Cities, considering in this article the "Obstacles in the Way." Dr. Pierson. Dr. C. S. Robinson, and W. C. Conant write as usual with interest and in a way to instruct. The sermons in the number are six, three full ones and three outlines. The Prayer-Meeting service by Dr.

fwood, and "Thanksgiving Service" (several atlines and appropriate "Thoughts") will prove highly acceptable to pastors. "Lay Criticism on the Ministry," by ex-Postmaster James and Hon. S. S. Cox will not be overlooked. The Editorial Section is very rich as well as varied. The "Prospectus for 1886" gives promise of exceeding richness and strength in the coming year. Published by Funk & Wagnalls, 10 and 12 Dey Street, New York. $3.00 per year, 30 cents per single number.

The Nova Scotia Normal School has commenced its session with 185 students, a most satisfactory showing.
