Foster's bill respectin g the protection of navigable waters was passed.

Thompson moved the third reading of the Chignecto marin e transport bill. Carried.

Costigan moved the third reading of the act to amend the adulteration act-carried ; also the third meading of the bill further amending the weights and measures act-Carried.

McLelan moved the house into committee on the resolution respecting C. P. R. bonds.

Cartwright thought the house should know when the government expected the road to be dally opened, also the receipts by the company from the main line from Callander to Port Moody.

Sir John said the precaution was - originally taken to remove the doubts " raised by the opposition that the com-, pany would never operate the road along the north of lake Superior. No-» body now doubted that the read would be operated. There are one hundred . millions of stock and bonds held by persons in both hemispheres who would run the risk of lesing their investment if the contract to operate the road was -not carried out.

The discussion was continued by Blake, Cartwright, Mills, etc., who contended that the security ought not to be given back to the company till they had shown their bona fides by operating the road for several seasons. At last the resolution passed through committee without division or amendment.

McLelan moved the house into committee of supply.

Blake rose and spoke upon the Irish question. He referred to the great statesman who leads Her Majesty's government in the Imperial parliament and his plan for the settlement of Ireland's grievances, and moved an address assuring Her Majesty of their interest in Ireland, and that Canada hails with joy the efforts to settle the Irish question so as to conduce to the peace, happiness and prosperity of the

The anarchists of Chicago inaugurated last Wednesday night the reign of lawlessness which they have threatened and endeavored to incite for years. They threw a bomb into the midst of a line of of 200 police officers and it exploded with fearful effects. When the police had recovered from the first shock of the attack, they charged upon their would-be murderers, shooting at every step. The anarchists fled in dismay before the charge, but everywhere they turned a fire from the revolvers of the policetheir ranks. The mob fied in all directions, seeking the darkness of alleys and side streets to escape. The collision between the police and the anarchists was brought about by the leaders of the latter-August Spies, Sam. Fielding, R. Parsons. August Spies was the first speaker. After a long rambling talk on labor problems, he asked, "What means this display of gatling-guns, out of the first regiment? Is it an entertainment for you, gentlemen ? There are 25,000 or 30,000 families in Chicago suffering starvation to-day because the husbands and fathers are not men enough to stand up for their rights." Loud cheers followed this speech and the cries of "The Lake" and "The Rope" were heard from hoarse throats.

When the police ordered the socialist crowd to disperse, a spluttering spark of fire arose through the air. It was the burning fuse of a dynamite bomb. The Government of Newfoundland was last year compelled to spend onetenth of its entire income in relieving the distress of a large portion of its people. Yet in no settlement where agriculture was carried on to any extent was there distress. A purely fishing population is sure to suffer at recurrent periods from lack of food. No wonder, then, that the Island authorities are anxious to encourage farming, and to get the French shore question settled, so that fertile lands there situated may be open for settlement.
