

Who can say that the influence of that example may not have been multiplied a hundred-fold in the subsequent life of the stranger who was prompted by it to "rest the Sabbath day according to the commandment?"—M. Y. Observer.

THE Y. M. C. A.—The Young Men's Christian Association Year-book, just issued by the American International Committee, contains among other matter carefully selected statistics, showing the present condition of the Association in North America. These statistics show that the past year has been one of much general prosperity, particularly so in regard to buildings: 17 new buildings have been completed during the year and 20 others put in course of erection. In the United States and Canada the Association now owns 90 buildings, the net value of Association property being $5,040,178. There are reported 365 associations, owning libraries of 272,624 volumes, worth $293,168; 444 reading-rooms, with a total daily average attendance of 22,587; and 131 associations have gymnasiums and other means of physical culture, such as rowing, baseball clubs, etc.; 592 report 606 Bible-classes, with an average attendance of 7,340; 487 men are devoting their whole time to the work of general secretaries, librarians, and gymnasium instructors. Including the college, railroad, German, colored, and Indian branches, there are 1,066 associations, whose aggregate annual expenses are over $800,000. The Year-book also contains a list of associations in foreign countries, 650 of which are in Germany, 79 in France, 570 in Great Britain, 491 in Holland, 8 in Russia, 2 in China, 3 in Japan, 6 in India, 12 in Africa, 14 in Australasia. This pamphlet of 200 pages, which is very full and complete in the information it gives regarding associations on this continent, can be obtained at the office of the International Committee in the Association building at New York.

ABOUT PRONOUNCING.—A correspondent of the New York Times, has some interesting reflections on pronunciation as authorized by Webster's dictionary. He is astonished, as many others have been, to find that aquator is not pronounced "aqualor," but as though it were spelled aqualor. He was surprised recently by being corrected by the principal of a high school, when he spoke of Motley's Rise of the Dutch Republic. Mr. Drysdale maintained that the first word should be pronounced as written, the noun the same as the verb; but on referring to the authority mentioned, he had to admit that it is pronounced Rice.

The editor of the Advance says that some time ago, when sitting in at barber shop in this city the attendant made the remark that the day was very warm, and that he transpired very freely. When I looked at him in a curious sort of way he offered to bet me $10 that that was the proper word to use, that there is as good authority for using it in that sense as for the word perspire. I never bet, but if I had been a betting man I would have staked any amount that he was wrong. But I found that he was right, as any one will who consult Webster's dictionary. We frequently meet with the expression resurrect. There is no such verb in the language, and never was; but it has passed into vogue and probably will soon be recognized as good usage.

COREA.—Though nominally tributary to China, the little kingdom of Corea is practically independent, and her king is at liberty to carry on his internal government according to his own notions of what is best for his people. The tribute exacted is trifling, consisting principally of presents to the emperor and to those of the nobility surrounding his person, and these are annually conveyed by a commission charged with the duty. The present king, doubtless influenced by the example of Japan is giving much attention to Western civilization, and proposes to reorganize his system of customs in accordance with Western practices. To effect this he has invited an American, an ex-consul at Shanghai, to become his chief adviser. He has bought a couple of foreign steamships to carry on a coasting trade and collect tribute; has purchased a number of galling guns, and a quantity of ammunition, and a complete outfit for the manufacture of gunpowder. He has also procured a complete Edison electric light plant for his palace. It is also stated that he is expecting to introduce American officers into his army, and American teachers in his schools, and that both he and his people are purchasing foreign cloth and furniture. Like Japan, Corea having opened her doors to Western civilization seems disposed to give her people the best advantages to be secured from its introduction, not only as it affects the commerce and trade of the country, but also as to education and religion.

NON YET.—The notion that the world would come to an end on the 15th of last month at two o'clock in the afternoon was believed by an immense multitude of the more ignorant classes in Madrid, Spain. At that time more than a thousand persons assembled on the heights of Vistelles, and tremblingly waited for the catastrophe. "Many curious phenomena were seen in the sky by the excited spectators, as, for instance, St. Peter walking in the midst of a red cloud, but the end did not come." Some person finally stated that a mistake had been made in the calculation, and the wreck of matter and the crash of worlds would occur on the 24th of June, and the crowd dispersed. These persons are only a little more fanatic than many who they can fix the day of which our Saviour said: "But of that day and that hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father." As for signs in the sky, a crowd of excited people can see them as easily as a worthy deacon infected with Spiritualism saw a table with a kerosene lamp standing on it chase him up a flight of stairs without the lamps being upset. The poor man gazed with mingled shame and wonder when a friend measured the table and the stairs, and discovered that the table was six inches wider than the stairs!—Advocate.

WHAT IT COSTS.—The salary of the President of the United States is $50,000. His private secretary is paid $3,250; an assistant private secretary, $2,250; stenographer, $1,800; five messengers, each $1,200; a steward, $1,800; two doorkeepers, who each get $1,200; four other clerks at good salaries, one telegraph operator, two ushers, getting $1,200 and $1,400; a night usher, getting $1,200; a watchman who gets $900, and a man to take care of fires, who receives $864 a year. In addition to this there is set down $8,000 for incidental expenses, such as stationery, carpets, and the care of the President's stables. Under another heading comes $40,000. Of this $12,500 is for repairs and furnishing the White House, $2,500 for fuel, $3,000 for the greenhouses, and $15,000 is for gas and the stables. The President's salary and the expenses of the White house cost the country about $125,000.

ALL SORTS.

Paris, with a population of 2,200,000, uses more fish than all Germany, with a population of 47,000,000.

The famous cedars of Lebanon are taken care of by the authorities. There are 397 of them—twenty-two more than in 1810 and 373 more than in 1573, when they were counted by the German botanist, Rambovill.

"What and When to Eat" is the title of an article in an exchange. The "when" never gave us any trouble in our eating; but we have been compelled to do a sight of skirmishing after the "what."

Buddhism in Burmah had a deadly blow in the overthrow of the native government. Its supporters have petitioned the English government to appoint the Buddhist pope, but the Viceroy has informed them that it is impossible.

In several villages of the Viatic province, in Russia, the peasants manufacture wooden watches, which work steadily, though they do not keep very accurate time. All parts of the watch are of wood except the axles, which are of horn.

Oh, did I tell you about little Henry, grandma? He's got a bicycle! 'Land alive! Well, don't get excited about it. Just you put a big poultice of soap and sugar on it, and change it every morning, and it'll be gone in three days. Your grandfather used to have 'em every hayin' time, regular as June. They ain't nothing; they'll do him good!

A minister was questioning his Sunday-school concerning the story of Eutychus, the young man who, listening to the preaching of the Apostle Paul, fell asleep, and falling down was taken up dead. "What," he said, "do we learn from this solemn event?" when the reply came from a little girl, pat and prompt. "Please, sir, ministers should learn not to preach too long sermons."

Wood was one of the earliest substances employed on which to inscribe names and record events. Stone, brass, lead and copper were also used at an early period; afterward the leaves of the trees. The inner bark of trees came soon after to be used, that of the lime being preferred. This bark was called by the Romans liber, the Latin name for book, and these bark books, that they might be more conveniently carried about, were rolled up and called volumen, hence our word volume. The skins of sheep, goats and asses were used, also the intestines of certain reptiles, for it is a well-authenticated fact that the poems of Homer were written on intestines of serpents in letters of gold. This roll was 120 feet long and was deposited in the great library of Constantinople, where it was destroyed by fire in the sixth century. The next material was parchment, to which succeeded vellum, a finer description of parchment made from the skins of very young animals.

The Presbyterian General Assembly (North) at its recent session passed the following vigorous resolution on the subject of Ecclesiastical finances: "In view of the apparent alarming increase of dishonesty in the world, and unfaithfulness in financial trusts, we are constrained to say that the church should take warning, and conduct her affairs with the utmost watchfulness, and the most zealous care and faithfulness; and not take it for granted that the honesty of any man is so unquestionable as to dispense with watchfulness. In some of the boards of our church, we learn that the accounts of the treasurers and other custodians of money, are carefully examined at least once a month. We are constrained to recommend that in all the boards, the accounts be faithfully examined at least once in every three months, and we wish that, if practicable, it be done once every month. We also recommend that the bonds given to the boards by persons handling their moneys be considered at stated times, with the view of requiring the furnishing of new sureties when former sureties have died, or their financial condition and responsibility shall have changed unfavorably, and also of requiring security in greater amounts where changed circumstances or the increase of the fund shall demand it."

WHEPLEY.—On the eleventh inst., after a severe illness, Ida W. Whepley, aged 26 years, second daughter of the late Richard Whepley of Fredericton.

CROWELL.—At Barrington, Aug. 5th, Mary, the beloved wife of William Crowell, aged 33 years, departed this life having been a member of the Free Baptist Church here for forty-five years; having been baptized by Rev. Samuel McKeown. As a kind neighbor, devoted wife, an affectionate mother, a sincere Christian, she was greatly beloved and esteemed. She was a tried Christian, but through all she held fast the profession of her faith. Christ was her refuge, and heaven her hope.

"Other refuge have I none;
Hangs my helpless soul on Thee;
Leave, ah! leave me not alone,
Still support and comfort me."

Those words expressed her heart's deepest desire. She was a devoted wife to her husband, but especially during her long sickness.

The funeral took place on the following Sabbath. Her remains were taken to the old graveyard at Barrington Head. A large company of relatives and friends were present. The writer and Rev. J. I. Porter conducted the service. For her aged companion, bowed with the weight of years, the deepest sympathy is felt. May the God of all comfort, sustain him, and all the bereaved.

"He giveth His beloved sleep." S. Barrington, Aug. 13.

SECOND.—At Penobscis, on the 21st inst., Clara J., daughter of Hiram and Maggie Secord, aged three months. S. WELTON.

BOYER.—At Victoria Corner, Carleton Co., Aug. 14th, 1886, Annie M., beloved wife of George W. Boyer, aged 48 years and 8 months. About six months ago, through the direction of her medical advisers, she submitted to having a cancer removed. From then until her death, she was confined to her bed—suffering a great deal at times. She bore it all patiently until the end came, when she passed quietly away to be with Christ, which is far better. Sister Boyer was baptized by the late Rev. Wm. Pennington about 23 years ago. She united with the Free Christian Baptist Church and was a faithful and consistent member until her death. She was much interested in the work of the denomination, especially in Foreign Missions. Our sister possessed very many inestimable qualities. To the bereaved husband and relatives we tender our sympathies. Funeral sermon by the writer, from Revelations xiv. part of 13th verse, "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord." Ministers present: Geo. E. Cunniff, Wm. Kingdon, T. Connor, T. Vanwart, G. T. Hartley, B. Colpitts, C. T. Phillips, S. Shaw, W. DeWare, M. Orser, (F. B.) and B. Jewett (Baptist), and a very large concourse of relatives and sympathizing friends, followed our dear sister to her grave. GEO. W. FOSTER.

ILL TEMPER.

Is more rapidly improved by relief from physical suffering than in any other way. Step on your friend's corn and the impulse to strike is strongest. Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor, by quickly and painlessly removing them, insures good nature. Fifty imitations prove its value. Beware of substitutes. "Putnam's," sure, safe, painless.

G. A. Dixon, Frankville, Ont., says: "He was cured of chronic bronchitis that troubled him for seventeen years, by the use of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil."

PEARLINE. JAMES PYLE'S PEARLINE stands pre-eminent as a most valuable acquisition to the laundry, for it very generally lessens the labor of washing. It should be, as it very generally is, in every household. No family is so rich as to be able to do without it and none so poor as not to afford to have it. It is obtainable at all grocery stores.

JUST THE THING.

W. J. Guppy, druggist, of Newbury writes: "Dr. Fowler's Wild Strawberry is just the thing for Summer Sickness. I sold out my stock three times last summer. There was a good demand for it." Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is infallible for Dysentery, Colic, Sick Stomach and Bowel Complaint.

A DANGEROUS CONDITION.

One of the most dangerous conditions is a neglected kidney complaint. When you suffer from weary aching back, weakness and other urinary troubles, apply to the back a Burdock Porous Plaster, and take Burdock Blood Bitters, the best system regulator known for the Liver, Kidneys, Stomach and Bowels.

A. B. Des Rochers, Arthabaskaville, P. Q., writes: "Thirteen years ago I was seized with a severe attack of rheumatism in the head, from which I nearly constantly suffered, until after having used Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for nine days, bathing the head, &c., when I was completely cured and have only used half a bottle."

A SUCCESSFUL RESULT.

Mr. Frank Hendry, writing from Seaforth, says: "I purchased one bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters to purify my blood. It did purify it, and now I have excellent health." As a blood purifying tonic and system regulator the result of taking B. B. B. is always successful.

Cholera and all summer complaints are so quick in their action that the cold hand of death is upon the victims before they are aware that danger is near. If attacked do not delay in getting the proper medicine. Try a dose of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial, and you will get immediate relief. It acts with wonderful rapidity and never fails to effect a cure.

DO NOT DELAY.

Do not delay, if suffering any form of Bowel Complaint, however mild apparently may be the attack, but use Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. It is the old, reliable cure for all forms of Summer Complaints that require prompt treatment. Ask your druggist and all dealers in patent medicines.

Fever and ague, malarious fever, bilious and typhoid fevers all originate in one producing cause and may all be easily prevented by Parson's Purgative Pills. These pills act directly and powerfully upon the blood.

It is a dangerous thing to allow the diarrhoea or dysentery to go unchecked and there is no need of it. A small bottle of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment will cure the most stubborn cases that can be produced.

IT NEVER FAILS.

Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry will never fail you when taken to cure Dysentery, Colic, Sick Stomach or any form of Summer Complaint. Relief is almost instantaneous; a few doses cure when other remedies fail.

H. A. McLaughlin, Norland, writes: "I am sold out of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure. It sells well, and I find in every instance it has proven satisfactory. I have reason to believe it the best preparation of the kind in the market." It cures Dyspepsia, Biliousness and Torpidity of the Liver, Constipation, and all diseases arising from Impure Blood, Female Complaints, etc.

A PLEASING DUTY.

"I feel it my duty to say," writes John Borton of Desert, P. Q., "that Burdock Blood Bitters cured my wife of liver complaint, from which she had been a chronic sufferer. Her distressing, painful symptoms soon gave way, and I can highly recommend the medicine to all suffering as she did."

PEOPLE WHO read and reflect, after reading, upon the many published testimonials regarding Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure, can scarcely fail to perceive that evidence so positive and concurrent could not be adduced in behalf of a remedy of doubtful efficacy. The facts proven by such evidence are that it roots out impurities of the blood, restores digestion, enriches the circulation, and regulates the bowels and liver.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of Cutting Teeth? If so send at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it mothers; there is no mistake about it. It cures Dysentery and Diarrhoea, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, cures Wind Colic, softens the Gums, reduces Inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for children teething is pleasant to the taste and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

READ THIS.

The most serious outcome of modern social life is the prevalence of Dyspepsia and indigestion. No one is altogether free from one or the other of the manifold forms in which this scourge attacks the human body, and it would seem that no dietetic rules can be framed which would ensure deliverance from the insidious attacks of this foe, which, however mild, are liable to pass into the more confined or chronic state of the complaint particularly when they occur frequently or are neglected. Every person suffering from Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Stomach out of order, Costiveness, Sick Headache, Loss of Sleep, Wakefulness, Jaundice, Bilious Complaint, Bad Breath, Loss of Appetite, etc., should try

Fellows' Dyspepsia Bitters.
