

bleed our efforts, souls were converted and the church was much strengthened. Since that time the house was dedicated, and the new house at Fair Haven is well along, finished outside, the floors laid, so that worship is held in it. Five were added this spring by baptism, and the church is said to be in a more healthy condition than it ever was before. They are a very kind-hearted and hospitable people.

Giving up the pastorate of the church touched a very tender chord in my heart; I only consented to do so as the time, as I believed, had come for them to unite with the church at Chocolate Cove in securing the labour of a minister between them, that being the desire of the last named church. Our young Bro. Swim has consented to take charge of the two churches for a few months; may the Lord bless both pastor and people is my earnest prayer.

The church here (Wilson's Beach) has engaged me for all my time until General Conference. I baptized two just before I went to Deer Island, and received them into the church. My health is not as good as it has been for some time, but I hope by taking a little rest I will be able to go on with my work. Pray for us.

J. N. BARNES.

Wilson's Beach, Campbell, May 6.

DEER ISLAND.—On Monday evening, the 10th inst., several of the young ladies in connection with the F. C. B. Church, here, held a concert in the church. A well arranged programme, consisting of singing, recitations and dialogues appropriate for the occasion, was carried out in a very satisfactory manner. A fair audience was present, and they were well entertained by our young friends. During the evening, speeches were given by Rev. J. N. Barnes, and the pastor of the church, who presided. The proceeds of the evening, which was $10.20 went towards paying for a new chandelier, that has lately been put into the church.

NOVA SCOTIA.

FROM REV. A. KINNEY.—Feeling that the hand of God was upon me to visit destitute and pastorless churches, and having secured Rev. Jas. Boyd to supply the church in Halifax, I made a visit to Port Maton and held meetings for fourteen days. The church was holding on, and keeping up prayer-meetings and Sunday-school, but was much in need of help. The salvation of God was manifest; I baptized fourteen and received them with one more into the church.

I am now on my way to Port Medway, where several are waiting to be baptized. I expect to remain there until after the Quarterly Meeting, hoping to see many more saved. This is the kind of work to which God has called me, and I mean to follow it as opportunity offers. Bless God for full salvation.

A. KINNEY.

REVIVALS.

—The Western Christian Advocate has reported 25,000 conversions since the beginning of the year.

—Sydney, Cape Breton, is enjoying a great revival under the labours of the Evangelists Meikle and Gerrior. The Presbyterians, Methodists and Baptists have been united in the work, and have all shared in the blessing. Infidels and sceptics, merchants and mechanics, doctors and lawyers, men and women, boys and girls, have given their hearts to Jesus, and in a public manner have indicated their decision for Christ.

—Revival meetings have been in progress in Sardis, Miss., since the last week in January. The first services were held in the Presbyterian Church, a large ingathering being the result. Then the Baptist Church was opened for similar meetings with similar results, and after an interval of two weeks the Methodist Church entered into the campaign. The result is the conversion of from 150 to 200 persons. The converts embrace all ages. The saloons have been closed, and the town has been profoundly affected.

MISSION WORK NOTES.

—When four Christian Bannermen in Canton were imprisoned and treated with great severity, they imitated Paul and Silas, praying and singing praise to God. One of those who heard was so impressed that he became an earnest inquirer, and a few days ago was received into the Third Presbyterian church, Canton.

—A school in Tokio, which was formerly noted for its infidelity, has now three missionaries employed as teachers, and there is no restriction as to instruction in Christianity. Several of the students have been baptized, and others are carefully studying the Word of God.

—There is a school in London called the Zezema and Medical School, from which sixty women have been sent out as missionaries to India in connection with the Baptist, Episcopal and Wesleyan Churches. Lady Dufferin, wife of the Viceroy of India, is said to be enthusiastic in advocacy of sending more well-trained women as missionaries to that country.

—An exchange says that in twenty-five years the number of Protestant missionaries in China has grown from 150 to 500, and of churches from 50 to 400. A quarter of a century ago there were no theological schools for students, and only 4 of the 18 provinces were occupied with missionary posts. Now 260 students are found in 20 schools, and missionary labors are carried on in all the provinces but one.

—A missionary who has written a careful review of the progress of missions in Bengal in 1884, notes prominently the fact that the Moslems have assumed a more favorable attitude toward Christianity than ever before. Moslems form a third of the population of Lower Bengal, and hitherto they have been almost inaccessible to the truth; but during the past year they have shown a remarkable readiness to hear the gospel, not only in villages, but in Calcutta.

—The latest Year-book of the National Church of Italy, the Waldensian, shows that the Church numbers 15,000 communicants, 59 churches, 36 missions, a seminary with 3 professors and 16 students, a college of 7 professors and 75 students, a female high school, a grammar school, 3 hospitals, 1 orphanage, 1 trades school, 250 primary schools with 650 pupils, 170 Sunday-schools with 4,500 pupils, and several religious periodicals. This Church is poor, but rich in energy and good works.

GENERAL RELIGIOUS NEWS.

—Frances Ridley Havergal, a year or two before she died, sent all her jewelry to the Church Missionary Society.

—The new burgomaster of Prague, in Bohemia, is the first Protestant who has held that office in two hundred years.

—Mary W. Johnson, of Philadelphia, a member of the Society of Friends, has bequeathed $157,000 in various sums to about forty religious and charitable institutions.

—The Episcopalians of the United States are making an effort to raise a missionary fund of $1,000,000 in commemoration of the centennial of their church in America. They feel encouraged by the progress so far made.

—Peter Wilson, of Spring Mills, Pa., who died recently, was said to be the oldest Sunday-school superintendent in the world. So long ago as in 1828 he assisted in organizing the Sabbath-school of which he was superintendent at the time of his death.

—The Waldensians are said to be the oldest Presbyterian body in the world. They have 15,000 communicants, 59 churches, 36 missions, a seminary, a college, a female high school, a grammar school, three hospitals, an orphanage, a trades school, 250 primary schools, and publish several periodicals.

—Recently the Prime Minister of Siam and his sons and some young women visited the Presbyterian chapel at Petchaburi. He sat grave and silent through the service, including a sermon on the divinity of Christ, smoking cigarettes and chewing betel. The women were intensely interested.

—The best method to promote revivals of religion is now occupying the attention of the Congregational press. One of the various results of what is rather absurdly becoming known as the "Jones revival" in Cincinnati and Chicago, is an increased interest in the old question, "How to reach the masses?"

—Statistical tables have been published which show that while the entire population of the world has doubled during the last hundred years, the most marked increase has been among Protestant Christians. These have nearly increased threefold, the Eastern church being next in progression, Romanism being on a par with Paganism in its rate of progress. Protestants constitute only a ninth of the population of the world.

—Don Domenico Alessiani, incumbent of St. Eustachio, one of the parish churches of Rome, on resigning his position, says: "After much time spent in studying questions of theology and discipline, I find it to be my duty, from love for Christian truth, to withdraw myself from the Papal jurisdiction, in order to dedicate myself wholly to the work of the liberation and reformation of the Catholic Church in Italy."

ALL SORTS.

Money doesn't make the man; and it isn't every man who makes the money, either.

Over 2,000 women are composers in Paris, and are giving the male printers a good deal of trouble, because of low-priced labor. Book work is going to Paris on this account.

A remarkable bedstead, made to order by a Milwaukee furniture firm, is twenty-four feet wide and has nine compartments, each intended to hold one of the purchaser's children.

Queen Margaret of Italy never follows fashion at the expense of beauty. She utterly refuses to wear the extravagantly high and towering headgear now in vogue. Her bonnet is of modest dimensions, and therefore all the more becoming.

The pauperism of London is a little on the increase; but it is fearful to read that in Paris, with its 2,000,000 inhabitants, there are 200,000 paupers. London at present with its 4,000,000 of people has 100,000 paupers. This means in proportion to the population four French paupers to one English.

Maine has a bee-keepers' association of ninety-two men and nineteen women; and some two thousand four hundred and sixty persons are engaged in bee culture in the State, who took one hundred and ninety-two tons of honey last season.

PERSONAL.—Mr. R. A. Payne, of the Sun, has gone to England. Mr. P. goes to London to attend the Indian and Colonial Exhibition as a representative of the Dominion. His friends will wish him a pleasant trip across and every success. Mr. W. G. Gaunce, of Fredericton, has been appointed travelling agent in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia for the Confederation Life Association. Mr. John Slipp, of Upper Hamstead, whose illness has occasioned much anxiety among his friends, is still in a very precarious condition.

Since 1800 the population of the United States has increased nine fold, while its evangelical communicants have increased twenty-seven fold.

LITERARY NOTES.

THE OLD TESTAMENT STUDENT seems determined that the matter of Bible study in the Theological Seminaries shall be thoroughly ventilated. The May number follows up the points made in the March and April issues with the views of Drs. H. M. Dexter, Isaac Errett, Bishop Fallows, O. P. Gifford, R. Heber Newton, E. C. Robinson, A. J. Rowland, W. M. Taylor, H. L. Wayland and W. C. Wilkinson. There are two valuable articles on the Biblical Creation, and on the Book of Kings in Modern Criticism. The Student presents a view of the current Sunday-school lessons from the Old Testament standpoint. A valuable feature of late issues is the series of "Book-Studies" on First and Second Samuel by the editor. The customary Book-Reviews and synopsis of Current Old Testament Literature follow. Chicago: The Old Testament Student, $1.00 a year. Wm. R. Harper, Ph. D., editor. P. O. address, Morgan Park, Ill.

The series of Great American Industries in HARPER'S MAGAZINE is continued in the coming number by an article on Sugar. The subject is most thoroughly handled and copiously illustrated. The author, R. R. Bowker, has gathered material from the most eminent and recent authorities. Beginning with a brief history of sugar, he shows its enormous production at present, describes the Louisiana plantations and their work, and the mysterious processes of the great refineries. Beside the sugar-cane, sorghum, beet, maple, and glucose sugar are carefully treated. The wonderful chemistry of sweets is unfolded as well as the secrets of candy-making. The paper is a compendium of valuable information.

Attacked by consumption in the bloom of life, and compelled to pass weary months of doubt and uncertainty concerning her recovery, yet her natural buoyancy of spirit made her always cheerful and hopeful. The time came during her sickness when she was enabled to surrender her all into the hands of Jesus, and with an unflinching faith claim and obtain the assurance of eternal life, and see awaiting her a place in the many mansions of heaven on high. With the calmness of one going a short journey she bade farewell to her brothers and sisters and widowed mother, whose loving attention had soothed the sorrowful hours of her sickness, and after giving her last word of counsel and warning to her young acquaintances, said "My work is done," and rested peacefully awaiting the approach of death. He came, but His darts were quenched in the blood of the victorious Saviour.

A SECRET FOR THE LADIES.

The great secret of beauty is pure blood. Eruptions and all blotches that disfigure the face, may be quickly cured by Burdock Blood Bitters. Annie Heath, of Portland, certifies that she was cured by this remedy, after suffering for two years. may19/21.

FOR THE YEAR 1886

No better resolutions can be made than to resist buying any of the substitutes offered as "just as good" as the great only sure-pop corn cure—Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor. It never fails to give satisfaction. Beware of poisonous flesh eating substitutes.

WORTH REMEMBERING.

There is probably no better relaxing remedy for stiff joints, contracted cords, and painful contusions, than Hayward's Yellow Oil. It cured Mrs. John Siddall, of Orton, Ont., who was afflicted for years with contraction of the bronchial pipes and tightness of the chest. It is the great remedy for internal and external pain. may19/21.

Mr. Henry Marshall, Reeve of Dunn, writes: "Some time ago I got a bottle of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery from Mr. Harrison, and I consider it the very best medicine extant for Dyspepsia." This medicine is making marvellous cures in Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, etc., in purifying the blood and restoring manhood to full vigor.

THE GREAT SOURCE OF CONSUMPTION and many wasting forms of disease, is scrofula lurking in the system. The true specific for this condition is found in Burdock Blood Bitters; that medicine purifies the blood and builds up the enfeebled frame. may19/21.

Mr. Wm. Boyd Hill, Cobourg, writes: "Having used Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for some years, I have much pleasure in testifying to its efficacy in relieving pains in the back and shoulders. I have also used it in cases of cramp in children, and have found it to be all that you claim it to be."

A USEFUL HINT.

It may be useful for the reader to know that the popular preparation known as Hagyard's Yellow Oil has proved a sovereign remedy for deafness, many certified cures being on record. Hagyard's Yellow Oil also cures aches, pains, and lameness, and may be used internally as well as outwardly. may19/21.

There are cases of consumption so far advanced that Eick's Anti-Consumptive Syrup will not cure, but none so bad that it will not give relief. For coughs, colds and all affections of the throat, lungs and chest, it is a specific which has never been known to fail. It promotes a free and easy expectoration, thereby removing the phlegm, and gives the diseased parts a chance to heal.

Never drug the stomach with nauseating and weakening expectorants and opiates; Hagyard's Pectoral Balm is pleasant and reliable in its effects, and safe in all throat and lung complaints that, if neglected, end in consumption. may19/21.

Instantly is none too quick to relieve croup. Many children have died while a fire was making. Johnson's Anodyne Liniment gives instant relief and is a sure cure. Half teaspoonful on sugar. Every family should keep it in the house.

A FORTUNATE ESCAPE.

Mrs. Cyrus Kilborne, Beamsville, Ont., had what was supposed to be a cancer on her nose. She was about to submit to a cancer doctor's treatment, when she concluded to try Burdock Blood Bitters, internally and externally, a few bottles of which entirely cured her. may19/21.

The adulteration of condition powders has got to such a pitch that one can now buy a pound pack of dust and ashes for 25 cents. There is only one kind now known that is strictly pure, and those are Sheridan's Cavalry Powders.

St. John, N. B., Oct. 22nd, 1881.

Messrs. T. B. Barker & Sons:
Gentlemen,—Having had occasion to use Fellows' Leeming's Essence at different times, I have to state that it is, without exception, the best remedy that I know of for Splints, Ringbone, Bone Spavin, and the different ailments of the horse for which it is prescribed. Horsemen everywhere should try it, and having once tried it, don't think they would run a stable without it. The cost of the preparation is a small item compared with the benefit that is derived from its use.

ROBERT BUSTIN.

Fellows' Leeming's Essence

Has been in use by Horsemen for more than thirty-five years, and thousands of valuable horses that otherwise would have been rendered useless have been cured by the timely application of this Essence, in cases of Lameness from Splints, Spavins, Ringbone, Sidebone, Splints, J Strains, Bruises, etc., etc.

READ THIS.

The most serious outcome of modern social life is the prevalence of Dyspepsia and Indigestion. No one is altogether free from one or the other of the manifold forms in which this scourge attacks the human body, and it would seem that no dietetic rules can be framed which would ensure deliverance from the insidious attacks of this foe, which, however mild, are liable to pass into the more confined or chronic state of the complaint particularly when they occur frequently or are neglected. Every person suffering from Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Stomach out of order, Costiveness, Sick Headache, Loss of Sleep, Wakefulness, Jaundice, Bilious Complaint, Bad Breath, Loss of Appetite, etc., should try

Fellows' Dyspepsia Bitters.
