Harding, agent of the department here, on board, returned to St. John Friday morning from the Murr Ledges, Grand Manan. The ledges were surveyed, and differtion for a lighthouse was found on the destroyed. outward ledge in a line ranging with Seal Island and Gannet Rock. The matter will be referred to the government, and in all probability a lighthouse and fog alarm will be placed on these dangerous reefs in the near future. - Gtobe.

A Florenceville correspondent of the Sun under date of the 21st inst., writes: -Last evening when C. Kearney of this village was about closing his store for the night he discovered that his eash box containing valuable papers, besides $100 in cash and notes of hand to the amount of some $2,200 had been stolen. Early this morning search was made for the box, and this evening it was found under a fence at some distance from the store. The cash and notes had been taken out. No clue to the thief has yet been discovered. Mr. recovery of the notes.

The army worm attacked the marshes in Albert county with great fury about the middle of June, and at one time it seemed as if they would make a clean sweep. They moved in vast swarms and cut down the grass very quickly, and in many places mowed the marsh as clean as a floor. The only weapon the farmers could use with effect was fire. After about a fortnight they seemed to have got surfeited and gradually died out, the victims of their own usual amount.

A despatch from Qu'Appelle, N. W T., states that on Saturday last the Prince Albert mail was stopped about twenty-five miles east of Humboldt by a man armed with a double-barreled gun. After binding the driver and passengers he proceeded to open the packet, said to have contained $30,000, which he took and decamped. It is said he was stopped by a gang of six men from Montana. A Mr. Swanton, of Prince Albert, was stopped the previous night by, it is thought, the same and utterance of forged paper. in search of the marauders.

A despatch to the Telegraph from Ottawa says : Hon. A. F. Weddell, of Newfoundland, has arrived here to obtain Dominion assistance for the destitute people in Newfoundland, He says that there is the greatest destitution possible along the northern shores of the Island and in Labrador, Already 150 persons have died of starvation, and 2,600 are on the brink of starvation. The state of affairs along the shores of Newfoundland are about the same. In one Newfoundland settlement of 42 persons, 24 have died. Out of another settlement of 53 persons, eleven have died, and out of a third of 72 persons, 32 have died. Mr. Weddell will see the members of the government in town. He attributes the destitution to the ice not breaking up to the north.

BRITISH AND FOREIGN.

Next year is to be a red letter year in the history of Australia. The capitals of South Australia, Victoria and New South Wales will by next summer be united by a continuous line of railway, 1,760 miles long. The event is to be celebrated, and the Prince of It has been suggested that if he does so he should either go or return by in that curious way. way of Canada.

A remarkable heat wave is passing over England, accompanied by disastrous thunder storms. At Liverpool sewers overflowed and two persons were drowned. Severe storms, with loss of life, are reported in France. In Paris the heat is excessive. Extraordinary sanitary precautions are being taken by the authorities there.

The final analysis of the polling gives the Unionists 1,524,107 votes, and the Gladstonians 1,447,652. For a correct estimate of the popular vote there must be added the electorate of 113 Unionist seats which were not contested, a total of 1,065,104 votes, and that of the 104 uncontested Gladstonian seats, a total of 803,877 votes. The popular vote results in a Unionist majority of 272,682.

The cable pool directorates have compared returns of traffic since the rates were lowered and have found an headed by officers, armed with proper increase of 110 per cent. On consultation as to their future policy the directorates agreed that the increase for. proved that low rates had never been fairly tested and decided to persist with the present rates for a prolonged period. A period of five years was spoken of as necessary for the development of a paying traffic.

Mr. Gladstone at two o'clock Wednesday afternoon received from the Queen her acceptance of the resignations of himself and his ministers.

Gladstone, as soon as his messenger returned from Osborne with the Queen's acceptance of the resignation of the ministry, notified his colleagues. Gladstone will not proceed to Osborne to personally surrender to the Queen the seals of office until Her Majesty shall have appointed his successor.

The match for the Kolapore cup was shot at Wimbledon Weduesday. The teams consisted of eight men each, and seven rounds each at 200, 500 and 600 yards were fired. W. S. Jordan & Co., owners of the schr. "Harrington," Portland, Me. wrote to the Canadian Minister of Customs, a few days ago, asking for the remission of the $400 fine imposed on his vessel for a trivial violation of the Dominion customs laws. He received a reply from Ottawa in which Minister Bowell writes : "These laws was allowed during the existence of the Washington treaty. That was, as I understand it, by mutual consent on both sides of the line, but since the repeal of that treaty the law has had to be enforced."

The New York Tribune's Washington correspondent says: "The extradition treaty between the United States and Great Britain is supplementary to that of 1842. It continues in mail bags until he found a registered force the provisions of article 10 of that treaty, which deals entirely with the question of the extradition of criminals, and includes among the crimes extraditable murder, assault with intent to commit piracy, arson, robbery, forgery gang, but they did not secure much these crimes the new treaty adds manbooty. Mounted police parties are slaughter, burglary, embezzlement, scouring the country in all directions and larceny involving amounts of $500 and upward, and finally malicious destruction of property which endangers the life of others, and which in either country is made a crime by law. The last provision is meant to cover the crimes of which dynamiters and socialists have been guilty."

> A strange story comes from Seattle, Washington Territory, in the form of perhaps the most sensational report ever made by a United States Grand Jury. This Washington jury says it has convincing proof of the existence of a wide-spread Anarchist conspiracy, the chief instrument of which is a secret organization called the "Red American International Workingmen's Association." According to the grand jury the "main articles of its creed are arson, robbery and murder," and "its proclaimed purpose is the overthrow of our government, and the erection upon its ruins of a so-called Socialistic Commonwealth." This is to be done by first securing control of all the labor organizations, and then converting them into nurseries of anarchy.
