

because they know by what has already transpired that they are to be unmasked and exposed to the righteous indignation of all good citizens. The situation is fully appreciated by the temperance people, not only of Iowa, but throughout the West, and there is every prospect that ample funds will be furnished to secure the ablest counsel for the prosecution of the criminals, to secure justice in the case, and to teach the authors of this atrocity that they cannot overthrow the will of the people by a resort to brutality and crime.—Guardian.

"I HAVE FOUGHT GOD LONG ENOUGH."

Referring to the current statement that Robert Ingersoll is suffering from cancer of the throat, Rev. James McLeod, D. D., writes in the Interior thus:

Some persons doubtless will regard this as a judgment from God upon the infidel blasphemer. This may be so, for surely his throat has been an open sepulchre; with his tongue he has used deceit, and the poison of asps has been under his lips. But while Ingersoll has used his throat vigorously in the service of the devil, we must not forget that others, who used their throats faithfully in the service of God, have been similarly afflicted. Hence it is the part of wisdom, in such a case, not to judge.

Whether this rumor is true or false, it is certain that Ingersoll has stopped lecturing, and it is also certain that in answer to a gentleman who asked him recently why he had given up lecturing, he said: "I have fought God long enough! I have given up fighting God!" We should not wonder if he said this in all seriousness. Who knows but his throat affliction may bring him to his senses? Sure enough, he has been "fighting God," but what a battle it has been! To shoot arrows at the noonday sun, expecting to put out its light; to reach forth one's hand and say, "I'm now going to blot from heaven the shining stars—this is wisdom compared with the work in which Ingersoll has been engaged. 'Fighting God!' Fighting truth! This is what he has been doing, and now what does it all amount to? What has he gained by it? For his folly he has, perhaps, been paid a few thousand dollars, and for his profane wit and foul blasphemy, he has been greeted by silly crowds with laughter and applause! But the sun still shines. The stars are as many and as bright as ever. God still lives, and the Church of Christ never was so strong, so numerous, or so prosperous as it is today! Yes, Mr. Ingersoll, well may you say, "I have fought God long enough!" Nor would it be at all strange, if now and then, in his more serious moods, he should talk to himself in some such way as this: "Well, Ingersoll, you have been going to and fro in the land, and you have been walking up and down in it, denouncing your father's God, and maligning your mother's Saviour, and heaping ridicule upon the Holy Book which was loved and cherished in your childhood's home; you have been doing what you could to de-throne the Almighty, to vilify Christianity, to rob poor mortals of their faith and hope in Jesus the Christ, and to send mankind adrift upon a dark and stormy sea, without chart, or rudder, or compass; you have attempted to undermine and to overturn the Rock of Ages, and you have offered to put in its place—nothing! absolutely nothing!—only a cold, empty, glittering bubble, which, even before it is touched will vanish away. This you have done, and now you must soon go hence, and where? You are done fighting God, but how are you to meet him? Must you take this great leap in the dark? Is there no flight, no mercy for you?" If such be ever his frame of mind—and we more than suspect it is—we would say to him: Yes, Ingersoll, there is light for you in the Gospel of Jesus Christ, and for every penitent sinner there is mercy in his infinitely loving heart. Look to him and be saved. Poor, deluded, Christless Ingersoll! Poor, brilliant, eloquent fool! May he live long enough to reflect on his folly, and to repent of his sin, and may the All-merciful God have mercy on his guilty soul! Amen.

NEW BRUNSWICK.

FREDERICTON.—Rev. C. T. Phillips spent last Sabbath in Fredericton. His sermons were much enjoyed.

TOBIQUE.—Rev. G. F. Currie went to Tobique last Friday. He does not know how long he will remain there, but hopes to see the cause helped. His P. O. address till further notice is Arthurette, V. Co.

PERTH V. Co.—Rev. T. S. Vanwart and C. T. Riceout were with us on Sabbath morning (8th); they went to Bath for the evening. Bro. Vanwart expects to labour with us in this District this year. Pray for us that the Spirit's blessing may attend his labours.

GREENWICH, K. Co.—Since General Conference I have been holding a few special meetings with the Second Greenwich church with good results. The church was in a low condition when I came here; they had not had regular preaching for some time; yet there were a faithful few that had a mind to work. God's people have been quickened, wanderers reclaimed, and souls saved. Yesterday (Sunday) the 14th, Rev. W. J. Halse came to my help and baptized two converts. Others have found peace, and we hope will follow the L. rd. Brother H. preached two able and instructive sermons to attentive congregations. Bro. F. G. Francis was with me a short time and rendered valuable aid. I have engaged with the First and Second Greenwich churches and also Holderville church for six months. My post office address until further notice will be Greenwich, Lilly Lake, Kings Co.

ONE FOR CANADA.—The Rev. H. G. Parker, Professor of Eloquence at Queen's University, now on a trip around the world, writes from Sydney, Australia: Since I bid you adieu I have touched at many a port, and greeted many a one whose language was not the same as mine nor face of the Saxon type. I have tasted the hospitality of a Mexican senor, eaten bear with the miners of the Sierra Nevada, dined on stewed dog and live shrimps and poi with the good-natured King of the Kanakas. I have traded hats with a missionary in the Samoan Islands, escaped the great eruption of the volcano in New Zealand, been chased by the black men in North Australia, and broken bread with the Governor of New South Wales, Lord Carrington, at a kangaroo hut in the green tree plains. I have worn the silken garb of the Japanese, bought a bric-a-brac of the insinuating Mongolian, and preached to 200 mariners aboard a man-of-war in the Pacific Ocean, and here I am in Sydney ready to start out again as soon as I can to visit the mystic shrines of India and perhaps kneel on Mount Olivet, and look upon the folded eyes of the Syhinx. But seeing much or little, I do not know of a better place to live than in Canada.

"DIED OF IGNORANCE."—The Advocate tells of three persons who in New York last week in a single day, blew out the gas, instead of turning it off. One, an old Frenchman, who was to have sailed for France, was found dead. Another, a Swiss girl met the same fate. The third, a lodger, was taken to the Chambers Street Hospital almost dead. The verdict in such cases would be that of the San Francisco jury—"Died of ignorance." Perhaps by mentioning these facts we may save a life.

JOURNALISTIC.—The prospectus of a new paper—daily and weekly—to be called The Standard, and published in this city, has appeared. The Telegraph looks well in its new dress of type.

Attention is directed to the advertisements of the Independent, and N. Y. Observer. They are excellent papers.

Business Notices.

A COMMON EXPRESSION.

"I was troubled with liver complaint for three years, tried many remedies but never found any that done me so much good as Burdock Blood Bitters." James Higgins, East Templeton, P. Q.

A DOUBLE PURPOSE.

The popular remedy, Hagar's Yellow Oil, is used both internally and externally, for aches, pains, colds, croup, rheumatism, deafness and diseases of an inflammatory nature.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of Cutting Teeth? If so send at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, there is no mistake about it. It cures Dysentery and Diarrhoea, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, cures Wind, Colic, softens the Gums, reduces Inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for children teething is pleasant to the taste and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. jun16ly

THE RIGHT WAY.

The only proper way to cure a cough is to loosen the tough mucous or phlegm that clogs the bronchial pipes. This is why Hagar's Pectoral Balsam is the most successful remedy for coughs, colds, throat and lung troubles.

THE BEST COMBINATION.

The best combination of blood cleanser, regulating, health giving herbs, roots and barks enter into Burdock Blood Bitters—a purely vegetable remedy that cures diseases of the blood, liver and kidneys.

THERE IS NOTHING LIKE IT.

There is no one remedy offered to suffering humanity whose use is so universally and frequently required as Hagar's Yellow Oil, for rheumatism, neuralgia, colds, sore throat, deafness, croup, lumbago, and aches, pains, lameness and soreness of all kinds, when internally and externally used.

A GOOD INVESTMENT.

"I suffered with eruptions on my face for over two years. I determined to give Burdock Blood Bitters a fair trial. After taking four bottles, I can say it was the best investment I ever made. Jean Clancy, Beausjour, Manitoba.

Have you a sore in the face and is it badly swollen? Have you severe pains in the chest, back or side? Have you cramps or pains in the limbs, or rheumatism in any form? If so get Johns' Anodyne Liniment. It will give instant relief and finally cure you.

If any person would see the difference between real worth and real worthlessness, let him buy a small pack of Sheridan's horse and cattle powders, and feed it out to his hens. The increase of eggs will surprise you.

A letter from P. O. Sharpless, Druggist, Marion, Ohio, in writing of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, says: One man was cured of sore throat of eight years' standing by one bottle. We have a number of cases of rheumatism that have been cured when other remedies have failed. We consider it the best medicine sold.

Mr. J. Leist, warehouseman for Lautz Bros., Buffalo, N. Y., says he had a swelling on the foot which he attributed to chilblains. He used Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil and is troubled no longer.

AN EXTENDED EXPERIENCE.

Writes a well-known chemist, pertains me to say that Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor never fails. It makes no sore spots in the flesh, and consequently is painless. Don't you forget to get Putnam's Corn Extractor, now for sale by medicine dealers everywhere.

SOME persons have periodical attacks of Canadian cholera, dysentery or diarrhoea, and have to use great precautions to avoid the disease. Change of water, cooking, and green fruit, is sure to bring on the attacks. To such persons we would recommend Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial as being the best medicine in the market for all summer complaints. If a few drops are taken in water when the symptoms are noticed, no further trouble will be experienced.

A STINGING SENSATION in the throat and palate called heartburn, and oppression at the pit of the stomach after eating, are both the offspring of dyspepsia. Alkaline salts like carbonate of soda may relieve but cannot remove the cause. A lasting remedy is to be found in Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure. Those associate organs, the liver and the bowels, benefit in common with their ally, the stomach, by the use of this benign and blood-purifying remedy.

Mr. L. Squire, Ontario Steam Dye Works, Toronto, says: "For about 30 years I doctored for Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia without getting any cure. I then tried Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, and the benefits I received from this medicine are such that I cannot withhold this expression of my gratitude. It acts immediately on the liver. As a Dyspepsia remedy I don't think it can be equalled."

READ THIS.

The most serious outcome of modern social life is the prevalence of Dyspepsia and Indigestion. No one is altogether free from one or the other of the manifold forms in which this scourge attacks the human body, and it would seem that no dietetic rules can be framed which would ensure deliverance from the insidious attacks of this foe, which, however mild, are liable to pass into the more confined or chronic state of the complaint particularly when they occur frequently or are neglected. Every person suffering from Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Stomach out of order, Costiveness, Sick Headache, Loss of Sleep, Wakefulness, Jaundice, Bilious Complaint, Bad Breath, Loss of Appetite, etc., should try

Fellows' Dyspepsia Bitters.
