

James C. Brown is the Superintendent; he leads the singing, acts as Librarian, and does all he can to interest the school. Brother James L. Akerley is Assistant Superintendent, and Amos E. Belyea is Secretary and Treasurer. Brother Thomas Todd is one of the teachers, and he is a whole-hearted worker. The meeting house is full often. The session is two hours long, one hour with the lessons and questions and the other hour is occupied with recitations, and sometimes dialogues. These things interest the parents and others. We close the school the last Sabbath in October; the reason is that some have a long way to come, and we find there is more interest in it than to run it through the winter; but if it was convenient for the children to come it would be a good thing to have it open all winter. We have just closed the school for this season. We had a closing concert. The house was filled to the utmost. The programme was managed by Bro. Thomas M. Todd, and the choir was led by the Superintendent, Miss Emma Belyea presiding at the organ. The programme was as follows:

Singing, "Redeemed;" opening prayer by Rev. C. N. Mott; opening address by Clair Northrop; an autumn exercise by several members of the school; recitation, "By and By," Master Fred T. Brown; recitation, "Sabbath Hall," Maude White; recitation, "The Little Helpers," Ethel Northrop; recitation by Master George Hughson; recitation, "The Little Grave," Ella Machum; singing by the choir, "Tis so Sweet to Trust in Jesus;" dialogue, "A Chime of Bells," (part 1st) T. M. Todd, Emma Belyea and Almeda Hamm; recitation, "A Voice from Heaven," Flora Forkingham; recitation, "Hang up the Baby's Stockings," Maude White; recitation, "Glad Tidings of Great Joy," Agnes Thorn; singing, "Jesus will give you Rest;" dialogue, "The A and Z of the Bible," (part 1st), Almeda Hamm, Retta McKinna, Nora Cochran, Sarah Hughson, (part 2nd), Emeline Akerley, Emma Belyea and Esther Wright; collection, the choir singing, "Behold the Bridegroom Comes;" recitation, "A New Dress," by Dolly Kincaid; recitation, "Memorial," by Letitia Hamm; recitation, "The Little Boy that Died," Clair Northrop; recitation, "Little Things," Anna Hughson; singing, "Watch and Pray;" recitation, "The Precious Blood of Jesus," Emeline Akerley; recitation by Flora White; singing, "Precious Stream;" dialogue, "A Chime of Bells," (2nd part), T. M. Todd, Emma Belyea, Esther Wright, Emeline Akerley and Almeda Hamm; addresses by Revs. Henry Perry and C. N. Mott; singing, "Praise God from whom all Blessings Flow." Everything passed off nicely. May God bless all Sabbath schools everywhere. May all Sabbath school officers and teachers do all they can to teach the children to know the Lord. Their labour will not be in vain in the Lord.

ONE PRESENT.

NOVA SCOTIA.

KEMPTVILLE, N. S.—Rev. J. J. Barnes baptized two converts the last Sunday in November.

BARRINGTON, N. S.—The pastor, Rev. T. H. Siddall, has been holding special meetings at Barrington. The work was especially for the help of the church and was blessed. There were some converted, too, who were baptized and received into the church.

We are expecting a flood of new subscribers. Let it come. Help it along.

To the U. S. E. S.

Early in November the ladies of Leinster street church arranged to give an Old Folks' concert on 16th December. On the 5th inst. they learned of your lectures, the first to be given on same night, they then tried to arrange with singers to change the night, but found they could not as many of them had engagements in connection with their own churches which would prevent their attendance on any other evening for some time. So there was no alternative but to proceed as arranged.

The reduction of the price makes it imperative that all old scores be settled, and advances for 1887 be paid. Please do your part.

REVIVALS.

In Tuscaloosa, Alabama, the greatest revival known in forty years is in progress. The whole city is moved. At the hour appointed for services business houses close their doors. Besides the preaching appointments, prayer-meetings are held at various points in the city.

In Kent Co., in this Province, a great revival is being experienced. The Presbyterians and Methodists are chiefly participating in the work and the blessings. Rev. Mr. Cameron, Presbyterian, and Rev. Messrs. Tait and Silas James conducting the services. The places particularly interested are Weldford, Coal Branch and Richibucto.

CARD OF THANKS.—I hereby wish to acknowledge the gift of a good fur (raccoon) coat given by members of Conference and others at its late session held in Carleton, St. John, through the kind efforts of Rev. G. W. McDonald. My fervent thanks to the donors.

A MITE SOCIETY.

Mr. Editor: We are only a lot of boys and girls, but we want to let people know who we are and what we are doing. Well, we are the "Mite Society;" and we are working as busy as bees for Foreign Missions, and to help keep Miss Hooper in India, so that the little brown boys and girls will know about Jesus. It makes us very happy to do this work. There are mother and grandmother "Mites," and they are joining our society, and they are all made glad. If there is any one who wants to be happy, yes, very happy, just send a letter to "Mite Society," Upper Gagetown, Q. Co., with money or postage stamps, and we will soon make a Mite of them. Though our name is "Mite," we are a mighty society.

We have officers like all other societies, and pay our dues to the Treasurer of Woman's Mission Aid Society, which is five cents per quarter or twenty cents per year. Perhaps some of us will go to India some day.

We have a pledge to keep, with God's help, from swearing or using any kind of bad language, and also from smoking.

Wishing you all a generous supply from Santa Claus,

Yours, etc.,
T. D. WESTON.

Secretary M. S.
Upper Gagetown, Dec. 8th, 1886.

TEMPERANCE NOTES.

The saloon is going. From a South Carolina correspondent we have the gratifying information that owing to the operation of the law prohibiting bar-rooms outside of incorporated towns, and the local option law in towns, the number of bar-rooms in that State, which was near eight hundred, has been reduced to about two hundred.

A pitiful anonymous communication recently came to the Star from a man who is struggling against the terrible appetite for strong drink. Appealing through us to young men, he cries: "In God's name do not even touch the stuff! It will make you hate yourself and your friends. Don't have anything to do with the poison. Brought up by good parents, I have gone astray and am suffering the pangs of my punishment." And more to the same effect. It makes the heart ache to think of the thousands upon thousands in our land who are tortured in the same way.

Mr. George Hillyer, Mayor of Atlanta, Georgia, tells some of the results of "prohibition" in that city, and we make a few extracts from his letter.

"The good effects of prohibition have been apparent. Trade in all branches, except the whiskey traffic, is prospering." "Scores and hundreds of facts prove the efficacy of the law." "Atlanta now has peaceful streets and happy homes, with sober husbands, sons and brothers, with plenty to eat and to wear, where before there were broken hearts, fears of domestic outrage, and sometimes actual war." "We give the people of Atlanta our hearty congratulations, and would like to send the same to every city, town and village in the land. As to the continuance of this happy state the mayor is sanguine. He says: 'The bar-room nuisance has gone out from Atlanta forever, and we would like all the world to know it.' 'Our people are practically united in the belief that the bar-room will never come back.'

JOURNALISTIC.—The first number of the new evening paper—the Standard—made its appearance on Wednesday. It has eight pages and is well made up, and promises to deal fairly with all live issues. In politics it is to be independent of parties. There is room for such a paper. The Daily Telegraph has been enlarged. It looks well.

SUPPER AND BAZAAR.—The Ladies' Sewing Society of the Temple Church, Barrington, N. S., intend to have a "goose supper and bazaar" December 28th and 29th.

When the King of kings comes to make up his jewels, his name will be in the Lamb's Book of Life. Not as a stranger would he appear in the heavenly band; besides his Saviour we trust he had three children to greet him as he passed to the other shore of the mystic river.

Dedication.

The Free Christian Baptist meeting-house at Upper Brighton, C. Co., is to be dedicated on Christmas day at 2 o'clock p. m. Dedicationary sermon by Rev. A. Taylor. A cordial invitation is hereby given to all ministers.

LAUNDRIES and private families find great advantage in the use of JAMES PYLE'S PEARLINE. It enables the washer to cleanse fabrics without wear and tear of rubbing. It is the best washing compound.

Very many persons die annually from cholera and kindred summer complaints, who might have been saved if proper remedies had been used. If attacked do not delay in getting a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial, the medicine that never fails to effect a cure. Those who have used it say it acts promptly, and thoroughly, subdues the pain and disease.

The importance and value of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment to a family cannot be estimated in dollars and cents. It is both for internal and external use and will prevent and cure diphtheria and all dangerous throat and lung troubles.

The wrapper is about all the value there is to the large packs of horse and cattle powders now sold. If you want a strictly pure article get Sheridan's. They are immensely valuable.

PEOPLE IN THE NORTHWEST

know from experience that Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor is the only remedy to be relied upon for the extraction of corns. This is the case everywhere throughout the Dominion. Be sure to get Putnam's sure-pop corn cure. At dealers everywhere.

Mr. G. W. Macnully, Pavilion Mountain, B. C., writes: "Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil is the best medicine I ever used for rheumatism. Nearly every winter I am laid up with rheumatism, and have tried nearly every kind of medicine without getting any benefit, until I used Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. It has worked wonders for me, and I want another supply for my friends, &c."

Joseph Rusan, Percy, writes: "I was induced to try Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for a lameness which troubled me for three or four years, and I found it the best article I ever used. It has been a great blessing to me."

NO TIME LIKE THE PRESENT for seeking medicinal aid when what are foolishly called "minor ailments" manifest themselves. There are no "minor" ailments. Every symptom is the herald of a disease, every lapse from a state of health should be remedied at once, or disastrous consequences are likely to follow. Incipient dyspepsia, slight constiveness, a tendency to biliousness, should be promptly counteracted with Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and great Blood Purifier, and the system thus shielded from worse consequences.

Do you feel as though your friends had all deserted you, your business calamities overwhelmed you, your body refusing to perform its duties, and even the sun had taken refuge behind a cloud? Then use Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, and hope will return and despondency disappear. Mr. R. H. Baker, Ingoldsby, writes: "I am completely cured of Dyspepsia that caused me great suffering for three years. Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery is the medicine that effected the cure after trying many other medicines."

THE HISTORY OF HUNDREDS.

Mr. John Morrison, of St. Anne, N. S., was so seriously afflicted with a disease of the kidneys that dropsy was developing and his life was despaired of. Two bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters cured him after physicians had failed.

IT SELDOM FAILS.

J. P. Cameron, of Westlake, Ainslie, Cape Breton, had inflammatory rheumatism which Hagyard's Yellow Oil cured after all other treatment had failed.

A HEAVY LOAD.

"When I ate, my food was like a lump of lead in my stomach. I took Burdock Blood Bitters. The more I took the more it helped me, I am like a new man now." Says Ezra Babcock, Cloyne P. O., Township Barrie, Ont.

A SEASONABLE HINT.

During the breaking up of winter, when the air is chilly and the weather damp, such complaints as rheumatism, neuralgia, lumbago, sore throat, croup and other painful effects of sudden cold, are prevalent. It is then that Hagyard's Yellow Oil is found truly valuable as a household remedy.

BROKEN DOWN.

"Being completely broken down in health, I was induced to try that valuable remedy, Burdock Blood Bitters. One bottle made me feel like a new man, restoring me completely to health." Geo. V. Detlor, Napanee, Ont.

A REASONABLE HINT.

For an obstinate harrassing cough there is no better remedy than Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam, which cures all throat, bronchial and lung diseases. It is pleasant to take and effectual for young or old.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of Cutting Teeth? If so send at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it; mothers; there is no mistake about it. It cures Dysentery and Diarrhoea, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, cures Wind Colic, softens the Gums, reduces Inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for children teething is pleasant to the taste and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

READ THIS.
The most serious outcome of modern social life is the prevalence of Dyspepsia and Indigestion. No one is altogether free from one or the other of the manifold forms in which this scourge attacks the human body, and it would seem that no dietetic rules can be framed which would ensure deliverance from the insidious attacks of this foe, which, however mild, are liable to pass into the more confined or chronic state of the complaint particularly when they occur frequently or are neglected. Every person suffering from Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Stomach out of order, Costiveness, Sick Headache, Loss of Sleep, Wakefulness, Jaundice, Bilious Complaint, Bad Breath, Loss of Appetite, etc., should try
