

The Work of Intemperance.

Oh, if you could only hear this morning. Intemperance, with drunkard's bones, drumming on the head of the wine-cask the dead march of immortal souls, methinks the very glance of a wine-cup would make you shudder, and the color of the liquor would make you think of the blood of the soul, and the foam on the top of the cup would remind you of the froth on the maniac's lip, and you would go home from this service and kneel down and pray God that rather than your children should become captives of this evil habit, you would like to carry them out some bright spring-day to Greenwood, and put them away to the last sleep, until at the call of the south-wind the flowers would come up all over the graves—sweet prophecies of the resurrection. God has a balm for such a wound; but what flower of comfort ever grew on the blasted heath of a drunkard's sepulcher?—Dr. Talmage.

JEALOUSIES.—A minister writing in one of our exchanges on unseemly jealousies among Christian workers, says:

Even clergymen are sometimes not a little nettled by a brother's success. A minister packs his Church, adds steadily to its membership, is evidently blessed of heaven, and forthwith some of his brethren cry out "Sensational! shallow! commonplace!"

Sadly true. There are clergymen who so far forget themselves as to speak in that way. Envy, however, is not always the root of such disparaging remarks. We should hope that there are not many ministers so brimful of envy as to feel nettled at a brother's success, though doubtless there are few. Some ministers are so wedded to one way of working that they naturally suspect every worker whose methods are not exactly like theirs. They have just one way of presenting the truth, and cannot, or will not, present it in any other way. Some preacher comes who presents the truth in a different way—perhaps in a brighter, fresher way, and they instinctively shout "sensational." Perhaps their style has been so profound that nobody could understand it. Some brother comes along who presents his truth in so clear a style that everybody understands it. Then the profound brother instinctively shouts "shallow." One of the last things many a good man learns is that the way somebody else does something may be better than the way he has been doing for the last forty or fifty years.—Can. Presbyterian.

REMARKABLE JEWISH CHRISTIAN MOVEMENT.—News comes from ice-bound Siberia of a Gospel movement essentially the same as that of Rabinowitz. The leader is Jacob Scheinmann, a Polish Jew, who twenty years ago, through independent thought, came to the conclusion that the Messiah, the Son of David, was the true Saviour. The strict Talmudic Jews got him transported to Siberia, where for fifteen years he labored, almost unheeded, to awaken faith in his fellow-exiles. Among the un-called-for mail matter which he found at Tomsk, where he was engaged in business, was a pamphlet by Rabinowitz, with whom he at once communicated. He has been busy disseminating his views through pamphlets called "The Voice of One Crying in the Wilderness," Delitzsch's Hebrew translation of the New Testament is being eagerly read and studied by the Siberian Jews. It is said that full 30,000 copies have been thus used.

JOURNALISTIC.—The first number of The Weekly Record is at hand. It is published in Sussex, Mr. Spooner, late of the Island Press, being its editor and proprietor. It makes a good appearance. It is the only paper published in King's Co., and may fairly hope for a good degree of success.

The Compositors and pressmen in the office of the St. John Sun are out on strike. They objected to the use of stereotype plates in the make-up of two papers, the Gazette and the Kings County Record, which are printed in the Sun office. The Sun directors concluded not to be dictated to in the matter, and so the men went out. The men in some other offices join the strikers. They are certainly doing a foolish thing.

The Telegraph last week completed a quarter of a century of its existence as a weekly. We extend congratulations.

Mr W C Murray, B. A., of the New Brunswick University, has won the Gilchrist Scholarship. He is a native of Studholm, K. Co.

An Ottawa despatch says "it is understood that an Imperial despatch intimates that the appointment of Sir John Macdonald as one of the Fishery Commissioners will be highly satisfactory to Her Majesty's government."

The Westmorland County Prohibition Alliance has resolved to distribute a thousand copies of the petition for repeal of the C. T. Act, that the people may see the names of the petitioners. A very good idea.

Temperance Notes.

—Rev Horace Waller made inquiry at the Cape hoping to see a pure Hottentot, but he was informed that the race was absolutely extinct through strong drink.

For the first time in the history of Iowa, Fort Madison Penitentiary is short of a sufficient number of convicts to enable it to fill contracts made upon the basis of the usual supply. This and many similar instances go to prove that prohibition does decrease crime.

The adoption of measures by the Masonic Grand Lodge of Missouri for the expulsion of all members of the order engaged in the saloon business is creating bitter discussion. Several years ago a rule was adopted against receiving into the order any more saloon keepers, but that not being sufficient for the temperance element, the last rule was added and is now being enforced.

—Three weeks ago an Indian man taught his dog, a finely-bred, well behaved dog, to chew tobacco. Now the dog comes into the house by the back door, never scrapes his feet on the mat, never goes to church, is careless at his meals, gets burrs in his tail, goes with a lower grade of dogs, and it is feared that he is beginning to take an interest in politics.—Burdette.

—The distillers of the West are combining to form a great whiskey pool with a view of controlling the whole-sale liquor trade of the United States. The capital represented by the members of the pool is estimated at $25,000,000. It is proposed to monopolize the production of liquor in this country and regulate prices. Incidentally the combination will take part in resisting the growth of "temperance fanaticism," and will oppose the passage of laws "calculated to injure the trade." The temperance cause will find a new and powerful enemy in this whiskey monopoly. Twenty-five million dollars is a large sum to fight against.

—The liquor traffic in the municipality of Lunenburg, N. S., has received a most decided check since the Inspector began his work late in March. The "Alliance Journal," a little sheet published by the Temperance Alliance shows that up to the 29th July, $1640 had been imposed in fines, of which $455 had been collected. That is within $50 of paying the Inspector's salary for the whole year. There have been in all 33 convictions since the law came into force, 19 of which were secured by the Inspector since the last of March. One of these was for interfering with constables, and three men are now under bonds to appear at the October sittings of the Supreme Court for interfering with constables. Very little liquor is now sold in the municipality, which includes about two-thirds of the county. It never was so "dry" before.

All Sorts.

—It is worth remembering—the Quaker's estimate of the human family: "All the world is queer, excepting thee and me, and thee is a little queer."

—In Lutheran Sweden ninety-eight out of every hundred of the people can read and write. In Roman Catholic Italy, Austria, France and Spain, only twenty-five out of every hundred can read or write.

The eight pin factories in New England produce 6,720,000,000 pins a year. In England the yearly production of pins is set at 4,695,000,000.

Syracuse boasts of having the biggest dog in the world. He weighs 203 pounds, and measures six feet three inches from nose to tail. He is nearly two years old.

A straight line can be drawn through seventy-five miles of the Indian River, Florida, without touching shore. It is called the straightest river in the world.

—During the prevalence of scarlet fever in Plainwell, Mich., all the churches were closed. The Baptist minister sent his sermon in a printed sheet to all his members.

—Capital punishment in Utah is inflicted by shooting. A murderer named Hoyt was shot to death recently at Salt Lake City.

—Southern factories from 1880 to 1887 have increased in number by 10,613; in capital from $179,366,000 to $371,825,000; and in product from $315,924,794 to $529,835,000.

—Two races of men are dying out—the Laplanders, who number thirty thousand, and the Maoris, of New Zealand, reduced from one hundred thousand to forty-five thousand since the days of Captain Cook, and likely to be extinct by the year 2,000.

—Suits are to be brought to prevent the printing of Mrs. Cleveland's portrait in lithograph and chromo for advertising brand of tobacco, cigarettes and soap, which has become very annoying to her. The suits will be brought by other persons, however.

To harvest the grain on the great Dalrymple farm in Dakota a great quantity of twine is needed for binding the bundles. One shipment of nine carloads was sent the other day from Boston, on which the express charges were nearly $10,000.

Literary Notes.

The Homiletic Review for September shows no falling off in interest. One of the marked features of the Review for the current year is the series of papers on some of the "Representative Preachers of the Day," which is attracting wide attention. Dr. Talmage, and Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, were discussed in former numbers, while Dr. Phillips Brooks is the subject of the current criticism. Dr. Eaton of Louisville, Ky., has a sensible article on the Labor Problem. Prof. Winchell gives a short paper on Recent Scientific Discoveries of special interest to clergymen. Other shorter articles, with a good array of interesting sermons, "Homilies," "Pastoral Theology," "Sundry Tables," and Editorial and Miscellaneous matter combine to make a good number. Published by Funk & Wagnalls, 18 & 20 Astor Place, New York. $3.00 per year; 50 cents per single number.

The September Century has both a holiday and a political flavor. Papers of outdoor life are devoted to "The Amateur Photographer," and "The Camera Club of Cincinnati." Accompanying the two papers are a number of odd views.

The Constitutional centennial is taken note of by an article on "The Framers and Framing of the Constitution."

Two pictorial papers relate to Monticello, the home of Thomas Jefferson. The Lincoln History reaches a subject of special interest, namely, Lincoln's nomination and election; after which comes a chapter on "The beginning of the Rebellion."

"The Chemistry of Food and Nutrition," we have in the fourth paper, dealing with the much discussed question of "The Digestibility of Food," giving the results of the writer's experiments, as well as a summary of the latest scientific knowledge on this point.

The subject of the present installment of the War Series is "The Siege of Petersburg." The illustrations have much variety.

The poetry of the number is good.
