

out stint, endeavouring in every possible way to attract the multitudes, and by a series of religious (?) operatic entertainments succeeded in drawing a crowd. But the crowd came for entertainment, got what they came for, and nothing more. Soon this ceased to draw as it had done; then other modes of attraction were instituted; but they also failed. In the mean time very few souls were being saved and but little spirituality enjoyed. The result was that discouragement gathered upon the interested persons, and their interest waned; and when I went to visit them they were at the point of despair as to the success of the enterprise. In my next I shall give the reasons why the enterprise did not succeed as I understand them.

GENERAL RELIGIOUS NEWS.

—Mr. Spurgeon, has eighty-three students in his Pastors' College.

—Fifty students in the theological department of Yale College, it is said, are endeavoring to memorize the entire Bible.

—The first Christian church in the Congo Free State was organized Nov. 21, 1886. There are now over 1,000 converts in the Congo Mission. A large iron chapel is to be built there.

—A force of 2,000 colporteurs distribute printed sermons among the non-church going people of Berlin, Germany. More than 100,000 sermons are distributed each week.

—The McAll Mission is making headway in France. Among the converts are men of the worst and lowest classes in Paris—a fine demonstration of the power of the Gospel.

—A man that lived up in a tree near Frere Town, Africa, had a copy of Luke's Gospel. The people gathered round him to hear it read, with the result that several were converted and learned to read, and have now built for themselves a little church.

—Rev. George F. Pentecost, D. D., is having marked success as an evangelist. He is just closing a series of meetings of great interest at Montpelier, Vt. He is assisted by the renowned singer, Mr. George C. Stebbins, and Miss Bessie Tyson, who conducts afternoon children's meetings.

—A cable dispatch from Berlin, Germany, says: "A striking Methodist revival is proceeding in Saxony, having its center in Schwarzenberg, where the Methodists have collected funds for the erection of a large church. They have established a chapel at Scheeberg, and are sending preachers throughout the country."

—A number of gentlemen in the United States have undertaken to erect a monument to St. Paul in his native city of Tarsus. The monument will take the practical shape of a training-school for orphans, of whom there are a great many in Cilicia. The original conception of this school comes from Harntune S. Jenanyan, a native of Cilicia, and now a student in the Union Theological Seminary of New York city. A number of people have already become interested in the project, and about $2,500 a year has been pledged—a sum sufficient to support about fifty children.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT. — Allow me, through the INTELLIGENCER, to express my thanks to the friends who assisted me in purchasing a horse.

S. K. WEST.

TRACEY MILLS, C. Co.—There is still a good interest in the Tracey Mills church. Sabbath 12th inst., Bro. Clark baptized two more converts.

WOODWARD'S COVE.—Rev. H. H. Cosman baptized four persons on Sabbath 12th inst., at Woodward's Cove, Grand Manan.

MONCTON.—Rev. B. Colpitts has been assisting Bro. W. B. Wiggins in Moncton. On Sabbath 12th inst., one convert was baptized.

AN IMPORTANT MEETING.—Some brethren have for some time been anxious to have a consultation with a view to reconcile, if possible, certain differences which appear to many to be a hindrance to the work of the denomination. And such a meeting was held on Tuesday of last week in St. John. By mutual agreement, the following brethren were present.—Revs. A. Taylor, W. Kinghorn, J. Perry, G. W. McDonald, G. A. Hartley, B. Colpitts, J. T. Parsons, G. T. Hartley, J. E. Raud, H. H. Cosman, J. W. Clark, C. T. Phillips and Dr. McLeod and brethren J. Kimball, Wm. Peters, E. Cosman, Wm. Stickney and W. B. Wiggins. Revs. Jos. Noble, R. French and some brethren were also present during part or all the time. The matter under consideration was the peculiar prominence given by some ministers and others to the doctrine of sanctification. There was first a season of prayer. The brethren then fully and frankly stated their views and feelings about the matter. On the one hand objection was made to the conventions that have been held and to separate meetings generally, it being believed by many that they do not promote holiness and that they are not conducive to true christian fellowship. On the other hand it was held that the course pursued by some and the action of Conference in some things have had the effect of alienating the brethren who have had part in the movement, and, perhaps, of making them more actively participate in the conventions and separate meetings than they otherwise would have done. All these matters were fully talked over, and there was apparently, a general desire to work together in christian harmony, and so in the best way and largest degree promote the interests entrusted to the denomination. The following agreement was reached:

1. That while we accept Butler's theology on the subject of Sanctification, it is apparent that there is a difference among the brethren in interpreting what he teaches; but we do not think these differences in interpretation warrant any division amongst us.

2. That we agree with the resolution on the subject of sanctification passed by the Conference in October 1885, and express our approval of an adherence to the recommendations in sections 6, 7, 9 and 10 of that report.

These sections referred to are as follows: That a high standard of Christian living—the New Testament standard—should be kept before the people, and plainly, faithfully and affectionately urged upon their attention. "Holiness to the Lord" being demanded of all God's people, the importance and blessedness of it can only be fully appreciated by them as they hear it taught, and see it exemplified in the spirit and lives of those who, by the Holy Ghost, are set to minister to them.

That while perfect uniformity in all things is scarcely possible, yet in their efforts to advance the claims of Christ they should seek the closest possible union with each other in thought, feeling and manner of work; and to this end they will continue to pray for the Holy Spirit's direction and help.

With a view to the promotion of the fullest harmony in both belief and practice, the Conference suggests: That discussions on the subject, in a controversial spirit, which are always unprofitable and vexatious, should be avoided.

That the doctrine of Bible Holiness can be as well, and even more effectively promoted in our regular Church work, than in separate organizations and special meetings independent of the Church.

3. That the brethren agreeing by the help of God to carry out the spirit of the foregoing, it is the opinion of the committee that the Conference might very properly remove such resolutions &c., as may have been regarded as barriers to carrying out their intention, and the cultivation of brotherly love and unity.

TEMPERANCE MEETING.—We are informed that a temperance meeting is to be held at Arthurette, V. Co., on Saturday evening, July 2nd, to be addressed by the ministers attending the district meeting which convenes there that day.

S. S. CONVENTION.—The Sunbury County Sunday School Association will meet in convention in the F. C. Baptist Church at Fredericton Junction on Wednesday the 13th day of July next at ten o'clock a. m. The subjects for discussion are,—

1. How can we best promote and sustain the interest in the Sunday schools?
2. Who should be interested in the Sunday school work?
3. What is the chief aim and end of the sabbath school?

T. L. ALEXANDER, Esq.

GLADSTONE.—The literary fecundity of Mr. Gladstone is one of the marvels of the day. Within the last six months he has published at least four articles which are of unusual length, and deal with subjects requiring the greatest care that all that is said shall be carefully presented. The first of these articles dealt with Lord Tennyson's prophecy of "Locksley Hall Fifty Years After;" the second took up the Greville Memoirs and gave personal reminiscences of the men and times of which Mr. Gladstone has been a part; the third is a return to the Homeric studies of his youth, in the form of an essay on "The Great Olympian Sedition;" and the fourth is an examination of "Mr. Lecky's History of England in the Eighteenth Century." The amount of work in these articles is something tremendous, yet they seem, to be thrown off with the greatest ease, and distinctly add to a reputation which has already reached the fullness of honor and achievement.

TEA MEETING.—The members of 1st Greenwich F. C. Baptist Church intend having a tea meeting the 1st day of July, (Dominion day), for the purpose of paying the debt on their church. By order of the committee.

GIDEON SWIM, Pastor.

JOURNALISTIC.—The Educational Review is an enlargement and improvement of the N. B. Educational Journal. The new paper is intended to supply the needs of a larger field, the Maritime Provinces. Its solicitors are G. U. Hay for N. B., A. H. McRay for N. S., and Mr. Anderson for P. E. I. The first number is very attractive; it contains valuable matter, shows careful editing, and reflects credit on the printers, Messrs Barnes & Co. It is a monthly, price $1.00 a year, and should receive abundant support from the teaching fraternity.

A HARD CASE.—Speaking of drunken and worthless fellows who depart this life, there was one in a German neighborhood, where it was usual, as in the case of Dorcas, for the neighbors to say all the kindly things of the dead that were sayable. But this poor vagabond's life had been such that there was silence when the time came to say the good words. One tender-hearted old Dutchman could not bear to have the first spadeful emptied on the coffin without some kindly expression. So he stepped forward, lifted his hat, and in solemn and sympathetic tones remarked, "Vell, Hans vos von good schmoker. anyhow!"—Interior.

WE go to press earlier than usual this week to give the workers in the printing office the Jubilee holiday.

LITERARY NOTES.

Can the red man be civilized? An affirmative answer to this question seems to be given in an article entitled "Metlakahla," by Z. L. White, which will be published in the July number of The American Magazine. A tribe of brutal savages, the worst Indians on the Pacific Coast, has been transformed, according to this account, into an orderly, industrious and thrifty community.

The Witness Jubilee Edition, well printed on good paper, is to hand, price 10 cents, and with the great Jubilee picture, 50 cents; also a cheaper edition, printed on ordinary paper, for five cents. The number contains 12 large pages, with over 100 portraits and other illustrations. There is a history of Her Majesty's reign; sketches of Canadian statesmen; a fully illustrated history of the Royal Arms, and other interesting articles; forming a work of reference with regard to the history of our times in Great Britain and Canada. For sale by all newsdealers.

A Work of Canadian Topics.—Mr. Erastus Wiman, President of the Canadian Club, writes to the editor of this paper as follows: "It is the intention of certain members of the Canadian Club, in New York, to issue, in the form of a beautiful book, the papers which have been delivered before the Club during the past winter by prominent parties, together with those which are to be delivered during the remainder of the season."

"These papers will include a speech on 'Commercial Union,' by the Hon. Benjamin Butterworth, member of Congress, who is said to be one of the most eloquent men of that body. A remarkable production by Prof. Goldwin Smith on 'The Schism in the Anglo-Saxon Race.' A paper by Dr. Grant of the Queen's University on 'Canada First.' One by J. W. Bengough, Editor of Toronto Grip. By Mr. Le Moine, of Quebec, on 'The Heroines of New France.' By J. A. Fraser, 'An Artist's Experience in the Canadian Rockies.' By Edmund Collins, on 'The Future of Canada.' By Professor G. D. Roberts, of Kings College. By the Rev. Dr. Eccleston on 'The Canadian North West.' By John McDougall, 'The Minerals of Canada.' And by the Editor, G. M. Fairchild, Jr., on 'The History of the Canadian Club.' The work will also include extracts from the speeches and letters of the President."

"The book is to be issued in beautiful style, at $1 per copy. A great many Canadians will doubtless desire to possess themselves of this rare compilation, and, by purchasing copies, indicate the interest which is manifested throughout Canada in the attempt of the Canadian Club to lay before Americans the resources, advantages, and attractions of their native country. "Parties desirous of obtaining copies can do so by enclosing the price of the book to James Ross, Canadian Club, 12 East 29th St., New York."
